ON THE COVER

The cover of the 2003 Kansas City Chiefs Media Guide celebrates Kansas City's Pro Football Hall of Famers, including 2003 enshrinees Hank Stram and Marcus Allen, whose tenures in the Red and Gold were defined by an unquenchable competitive spirit, as well as an unprecendented level of class and professionalism. Those very same qualities epitomize why the bronze bust of six other individuals who are primarily associated with the Chiefs franchise are on display in Canton, Ohio. (Hall of Famers Marv Levy, Joe Montana and Mike Webster also spent portions of their distinguished careers in Kansas City, but are enshrined in Canton based primarily on their contributions to other franchises.) Whether it was forging an identity for a new team and a new league as the only three-time champions of the American Football League or establishing a new era of excellence in the '90s, all of these Hall of Fame enshrinees have played an integral role in creating the illustrious history of the Chiefs franchise and in shaping the game of football itself. Local artist Jerry Hirt has artistically hand-tinted an image of Allen (Hank Young photo) and has colorized a previously black and white image of Stram (Rod Hanna photo) and combined them with busts courtesy of the Hall of Fame to salute the achievements and triumphs of this illustrious group. Cover concept by Pete Moris of the Chiefs. Design and illustration by Jerry Hirt.

Lamar HUNT

Founder

The Chiefs will be commemorating the accomplishments of all of their Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinees this season. Appropriately, the man spearheading the celebration will be Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. Those festivities commence in Canton, Ohio where Hank Stram and Marcus Allen will become the Chiefs newest Hall of Fame enshrinees and will continue when Kansas City and Green Bay meet in the 2003 Hall of Fame Game — a rematch of Super Bowl I. Perhaps no one appreciates the historical significance of that contest or of the Hall of Fame Weekend ceremonies more than Hunt.

Beginning his 44th year of involvement with the game of professional football in 2003, Hunt was the first figure from the American Football League to be enshrined into the Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of '72, a remarkable feat considering he became involved in pro football just 13 years earlier. As the organizer of the American Football League, Hunt brought together the whimsically-named "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners in '59 and helped the fledgling league take foot on the field for the '60 season.

On June 8th of '66, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle and on January 15th of '67, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl. Hunt's continuing efforts have long been recognized as having an important role in the design, ongoing development and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

Whether it was serving as the driving force behind the formation of the American Football League in late '59, playing a pivotal role in the AFL-NFL merger in the '60s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise during the past four decades, there is little question that few individuals have helped positively change the face of America's favorite game as much as Hunt. As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of professional football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming by the league of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference.

As the Founder of the Chiefs franchise, Hunt helped provide Kansas City with a team that became the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL and earned spots in two of the first four Super Bowls, climaxed by winning the '69 World Championship in Super Bowl IV. In honor of the 30th anniversary of the Chiefs victory in Super Bowl IV, Hunt was chosen to perform the official coin toss for Super Bowl XXXIV between St. Louis and Tennessee. Ironically, the winning coach that day was current Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil.

During the summer and fall of '59, Hunt helped make pro football history by organizing the American Football League, which included his Dallas Texans franchise. After three years, the team moved to Kansas City, where the organization begins its 41st season in 2003. The early days of the AFL were problem-filled but Hunt saw his Texans achieve on-field success. In '62, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by the Texans/Chiefs during the league's 10-year existence. The team repeated as champions in both '66 and '69. By winning the '66 AFL title, the Chiefs earned the right to play in the first Super Bowl against the NFL Champion Green Bay Packers. Three years later, the Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV.

In the late '60s, Hunt was deeply involved in the development of Arrowhead Stadium, a facility which celebrated its 30th Anniversary Season in 2001. Still considered among the finest venues in the world in which to view a sporting event, Arrowhead has hosted numerous major non-NFL sporting events in recent years, most notably a 2001 Men's World Cup Qualifier (U.S.A. vs. Costa Rica), the 2000 Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game (Oklahoma vs. Kansas State), the 2000 Eddie Robinson Classic (Kansas State vs. Iowa) and a 2000 Women's Nike Cup Match (U.S.A. vs. Canada). Arrowhead has also hosted the 2002 Eddie Robinson Classic (Florida State vs. Iowa State). In 2002 a game between Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State at Arrowhead drew 26,695 fans, the highest attendance ever for an NCAA Division II football game. This year, Arrowhead will be the site for a rematch of that contest, as well as the 2003 Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game.

Hunt has been a continuing leader in the game and few individuals have helped shape the sport more than this quiet Texan. In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late '60s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." In '82, Hunt was singled out by the NFL Alumni Association to receive the prestigious Leather Helmet Award and in February of '93, he received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Football Club for continuing positive contributions to the game. For many years, he was a persistent advocate of the two-point conversion option for pro football — an old college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in '94. In 2000, along with Chiefs President, General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson, Hunt earned the distinction of becoming just the fourth Owner/General Manager combination to preside over a franchise for all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City compiled a stellar 102-58 (.638) regular season record from '90-99.

In 2002, Hunt led the commemoration of the franchise's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City. Beginning as a member of the American Football League playing in old Municipal Stadium, the Chiefs have become a vibrant part of the Kansas City community and today's National Football League thanks to the unprecendented support provided by the team's legions of loyal supporters. Today, the Home of the Chiefs — Arrowhead Stadium — is a place which truly embodies the spirit and the passion of one of the most energetic fan bases in all of sports.

A year-round sports fan, Hunt is involved in several additional athletic ventures. He is one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association, while the Hunt family also serves as the operator of three franchises in Major League Soccer, now in its eighth season of operation. The Hunt family oversees the operations of the Kansas City Wizards, the Dallas Burn and the Columbus Crew, who play in America's pre-eminent outdoor soccer facility, the beautiful 22,555-seat Crew Stadium. The Hunt family now prizes 11 different championship rings from four different professional sports leagues (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA and NASL). The family's football championship litany includes a Super Bowl IV ring from '69 Chiefs, as well as AFL title rings from the '62 Dallas Texans and '66 Chiefs.

Appropriately nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports ventures has been his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which has transcended his involvement in numerous athletic entities. Over 30 years ago, the Hunts were involved in the development of both the North American Soccer League and a tennis promotion company, World Championship Tennis. Both of those organizations are no longer in operation; however, in an unusual twist, Hunt's involvement in these ventures resulted years later in his induction into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (located in Oneonta, New York) in '82 and International Tennis (located in Newport, Rhode Island) in '93. He has also been honored in the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Missouri ('95) and Texas ('84). In addition, Hunt was also inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame in '97. Two years later, Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" after the 89-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup" and he received the U.S. Soccer Federation Hall of Fame Medal of Honor.

As President of the American Football Conference, Hunt is a working member of several prominent NFL committees, including current service on the Finance and Business Ventures committees.

Hunt was born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in '56. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the Varsity Football Team. He and his wife, Norma, have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel, as well as 11 grandchildren. Together, the entire Hunt family shares a great enthusiasm for the Chiefs "Red and Gold."

Jack W. STEADMAN

Chairman of the Board

In 2003, the Kansas City Chiefs began their 44th season as a pro football franchise under the leadership of Jack Steadman, Chairman of the Board. A recognized leader among pro football administrators, Steadman has structured the Chiefs organization to meet the challenges brought about by growth of the business of pro football over the years. Steadman can look with pride at a list of accomplishments the organization has achieved since moving from Dallas for the beginning of the '63 season in the old AFL.

It was Steadman who conceived the idea of building the dual Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which houses Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums. The complex is recognized as the finest of its kind in the world. Steadman was promoted from General Manager to Executive V.P. and General Manager in '66; in August of '76 he was named President of the Chiefs; and in '89 was named Chairman of the Board.

After establishing himself as an innovative, successful business man with the Chiefs, Steadman later joined Lamar Hunt in the development of Worlds of Fun, a 165-acre family entertainment complex which opened in '73. In '82, HME Entertainment, Inc., completed the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun. In '95, Worlds of Fun and Oceans of Fun were sold to Cedar Fair.

In addition to serving as Chairman of the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc., which owns Hunt Midwest Mining, a limestone rock mining company, and Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development Company, an underground and surface real estate development firm in the Kansas City International Foreign-Trade Zone, he also serves as the Chairman of the NFL Employees Benefit Committee.

Steadman is a tireless worker and organizer in many civic and service projects. He is past Chairman, President and Campaign Chairman of the Heart of America United Way and past President of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City. He is a past Chairman and Board Member of the Private Industry Council as well as the Full Employment Council. He serves as a director of the American Royal Association and the Starlight Theatre Association. Steadman also serves as an Advisory Trustee for Midwest Research Institute and is a past member of the Civic Council. In '88 he was honored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City as the "Kansas Citian of the Year."

Steadman, who was born September 14, 1928, grew up in Warrenville, Ill., and in Dallas. He attended Baylor University and received his B.A. in Business Administration from Southern Methodist University. Steadman and his wife, Judy, reside in Mission Hills, Kansas.

Clark K. HUNT

Vice Chairman of the Board

In recent years, Clark Hunt has taken an active role in overseeing the Hunt family's long-standing interest in the Kansas City Chiefs football franchise. The 38-year-old Hunt currently serves as the club's Vice Chairman of the Board, representing the Hunt family at board and NFL meetings, as well as team management sessions. At the league level, Hunt serves on the Board of Trustees of the Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle NFL Player Retirement Plan, the NFL Player Second Career Savings Plan, the NFL Player Supplemental/Disability Plan and the NFL Player Annuity Program.

Hunt is also a founding investor-operator of the 10-team Major League Soccer, which includes the 2000 MLS Champion Kansas City Wizards. In that role, Hunt serves as Chairman of the eight-year old league's Finance Committee and is a member of the league's Labor Committee and Board of Governors. He also has chaired the MLS Competition Committee since the league's inception, helping design and implement all facets of the league's rules of competition.

In addition to his responsibilities with the family's sports franchises, Hunt serves as Chief Executive Officer of Shoreline Management Group, LLLP, a diversified consulting firm. Through Shoreline, Hunt provides advisory services to a diverse group of companies in the sports, entertainment, and financial services industries. He began his business career as an analyst with Goldman Sachs & Company in New York and Los Angeles.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in '87, earning a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance. He was a two-time recipient of the university's highest academic accolade, the Provost Award for Outstanding Scholar. A four-year letterman on the Mustangs nationally-ranked soccer squad, Hunt earned first-team Academic All-American honors as a junior and senior and also served as a Tri-Captain his final season.

Hunt is a Trustee of the St. Mark's School of Texas and a member of the school's investment committee for its endowment. He was born on February 19, 1965 in Dallas, Texas and graduated from the St. Mark's School of Dallas in '83. Hunt and his wife, Tavia, have two children; Gracelyn and Knobel.

Carl D. PETERSON

President/GM/CEO

Celebrating his 15th season as the Chiefs top executive in 2003, no individual is more qualified, more prepared or more enthusiastic about leading Kansas City's NFL franchise in today's pro football landscape than team President, General Manager and Chief Executive Officer, Carl Peterson. Peterson unquestionably serves as the driving force of the organization and is regarded as the person most responsible for the club's return to prominence both on and off the field during the past 14 years.

On January 12th of 2001, Peterson made perhaps his boldest move to date as Kansas City's President, luring Dick Vermeil — who guided the '99 St. Louis Rams to a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV — out of retirement to guide the Chiefs on-field fortunes, marking the first time Kansas City has boasted a Super Bowl champion head coach since the days of Hank Stram.

For the third time in his football career, Peterson has joined forces with Vermeil and current Chiefs Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel, Lynn Stiles to form a true gridiron trinity. Peterson, Vermeil and Stiles were all together for UCLA's '76 Rose Bowl Championship, as well as the Philadelphia Eagles berth in Super Bowl XV in January of '81.

At UCLA from '74-75, Peterson served as receivers coach and administrative assistant to the head coach, working with Vermeil. When Vermeil was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles in '76, Peterson served as the club's receivers and tight ends coach, as well as the administrative assistant to the head coach, and then served as Director of Player Personnel from '77-82.

"When Lamar Hunt and his family gave me an opportunity to run this franchise, there was only one person on my mind that I wanted to be head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs . . . Dick Vermeil. He turned me down in '89, but I got him in 2001," Peterson observed. "I've had one goal since I came here and I know that Dick now shares that goal with me. That goal is to hand the trophy that bears Lamar Hunt's name (AFC Championship trophy) to him at the conclusion of the season. I think we have the right man to accomplish that goal."

Peterson has a history of guiding the Chiefs in the right direction since coming to Mid-America. He has not only transformed the Chiefs into a model NFL organization, but has also built the franchise into one of pro sport's finest and most respected entities. When Peterson took over the Chiefs, the franchise had been struggling, on the field and off, and was without any kind of national presence. Simply put, the club's reversal of fortunes under Peterson since that time have been dramatic.

Under his continued guidance, the club maintains one of the most loyal national fan followings and strongest season ticket bases of any professional sports team and boasts individual season-ticket accounts from an astonishing 45 different states and the District of Columbia. Regarded as having one of the best and loudest gameday atmospheres in the entire league, the Chiefs have sold out 100 consecutive contests at Arrowhead — including four postseason games — a streak which dates back to the club's '91 home opener.

The Chiefs consistently fill the NFL's third-largest stadium, despite operating in the league's fifth-smallest market. In 2002, Kansas City enjoyed a combined preseason and regular season paid home attendance of 772,419. In addition, over one million fans witnessed the Chiefs compete in regular season action at home and on the road for the 13th consecutive season.

Despite his many accomplishments in steering the overall fortunes of the franchise, at his essence, Peterson still remains a quintessential football man. During the decade of the '90s, few teams could match the level of success exhibited on the playing field by the Chiefs. From '90-99, Kansas City posted a stellar 102-58 (.638) record, making Kansas City just one of seven teams in NFL history to record 100 or more wins over the course of a single decade. Even more impressive was the fact that Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and Peterson became just the fourth Owner/General Manager tandem to preside over a team for all 10 years of a 100-win decade.

Peterson obtained another rare distinction during the 2000 campaign by getting his 200th career regular season win of his 21-year tenure as a professional football executive with the NFL's Chiefs and Eagles, as well as the USFL's Stars. That 200th victory also marked the 600th regular season contest in the storied history of the Chiefs franchise.

Dating back to '77 when he first served as the Director of Player Personnel for the Eagles, teams whose personnel operations have been overseen by Peterson have produced a 219-135-2 (.618) mark. During that 21-season span — which includes tenures with the Eagles, Chiefs and USFL's Stars — his teams have produced 17 winning records and made the playoffs on 14 occasions.

During the '90s, Kansas City finished first or second in the AFC West nine times, made seven playoff appearances, won three AFC West titles and reached the only AFC Championship Game in team history. But one of the proudest achievements during his tenure has been the re-establishment of the unparalleled fan support the club currently enjoys in Kansas City.

Under Peterson's leadership, Kansas City has evolved into a habitually successful franchise. Few teams enjoy a more impressive homefield advantage than the one boasted by the Chiefs at Arrowhead. Dating back to the start of the '95 season, Denver is the AFC only club that has a better home record than the 46-18 (.719) ledger produced by Kansas City at Arrowhead.

During the decade of the '90s, only San Francisco 113-47 (.706) and Buffalo 103-57 (.644) could top the 102-58 (.638) mark established by Kansas City. Over that 10-year span from '90-99, the Chiefs won three AFC West titles ('93, '95 and '97). In '93 the Chiefs captured their first AFC Western Division title since '71 and made their first-ever AFC Championship Game appearance. In both '95 and '97, the Chiefs put together league-best 13-3 records and went undefeated at home.

The team's national popularity has grown tremendously over the past 14 years. Kansas City has been among the NFL leaders in merchandise sales, national-television appearances (62 times, including 20 on ABC's Monday Night Football, the past 11 years) and international game representation ('90 American Bowl vs. the L.A. Rams in Berlin, Germany; '94 American Bowl vs. Minnesota in Tokyo, Japan; '96 American Bowl vs. Dallas in Monterrey, Mexico and '98 American Bowl vs. Green Bay in Tokyo, Japan).

"Under Carl's leadership, the Chiefs have achieved a high level of respect as one of the leaders in the NFL," commented Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. "This respect has been measured in several principle areas, including development and guidance of a quality organization in every phase - front office, scouting, coaching and team."

The team's football and administrative successes have not gone unnoticed around the league. Several of the team's top coaches and administrators have received promotions to other NFL clubs. Headlining that list of Peterson proteges is former Chiefs Vice President of Player Personnel Terry Bradway, who was named General Manager of the N.Y. Jets in 2001. Bradway spent eight years with Kansas City ('93-00) and also served three years with Peterson ('83-85) in the USFL.

In addition, three former Chiefs staff members are Vice Presidents with other teams (Mark Hatley - Green Bay; Phil Thomas - St. Louis and Phil Youtsey - Carolina), while three former Kansas City assistants currently serve as NFL head coaches with other clubs (Bill Cowher - Pittsburgh; Tony Dungy - Indianapolis and Herman Edwards - N.Y. Jets). "The greatest form of flattery (and respect) is when other teams come after our people," Peterson remarked.

Whether on the field, on the sidelines, or in the front office, the area where Peterson has always truly excelled in is unearthing talent. He and the Chiefs player personnel department have used the college draft, trades and the free agent market to build the club's talent pool. No matter the round, Peterson and his scouting staff have discovered major contributors each year in the draft, including performers such as the late nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas (1st round - '89), retired 2000 Pro Bowl C Tim Grunhard (2nd round - '90), eight-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields (3rd round - '93), former All-Pro G Dave Szott (7th round - '90) and current starting CB Eric Warfield (7th round - '98), just to name a very few.

Peterson's recent first-round resume is also impressive. That list includes starters such as four-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez ('97), T John Tait ('99) and S Jerome Woods ('96). After orchestrating the draft day trade to move up to select Gonzalez in '97, Peterson also consummated a deal to jump ahead two positions in the first round of the 2002 draft to tab DT Ryan Sims.

In '93, it was Peterson who consummated the trade with the 49ers that brought Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana to Kansas City. Peterson also made one of the best acquisitions in the history of unrestricted free agency, signing Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen in '93. Over the years, Peterson's free agent acquisitions have been many, including the Chiefs past eight Most Valuable Players, a list which includes the likes of RB Priest Holmes, who has led the NFL in yards from scrimmage each of the past two seasons. In addition, Peterson continues to explore trade opportunities, such as the ones which landed eight-time Pro Bowl T Willie Roaf in 2002 and QB Trent Green in 2001.

In total, Chiefs players have produced 54 Pro Bowl berths during Peterson's 14-year tenure with the club, 18 more than the club tallied in the 14 years prior to his arrival. Peterson first displayed his knack for discovering and developing young players long before he came to Kansas City, though. His reputation as one of football's top executives began in '77 as Director of Player Personnel of the Eagles, assisting Vermeil and the club to four consecutive playoff appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XV.

After his rapid success in the NFL personnel ranks, Peterson was the man selected to build the Philadelphia Stars when the United States Football League was launched in July of '82. As the franchise's President and GM, he proceeded to assemble the most successful team in the league's three-year existence, capturing the USFL title the final two seasons. The Stars 48-13-1 overall record during regular (41-12-1) and postseason play (7-1) was easily the finest of any USFL club. His efforts were rewarded in '83 and '84, when he was named The Sporting News' "USFL Executive of the Year."

A '66 graduate of UCLA, Peterson began his coaching career at two Southern California high schools, Wilson High in '66 and Loyola High in '67-68. He moved to Cal-State at Sonoma in '69, where he was named head coach in '70. He returned to his alma mater in '72, where he served as the Bruins receivers coach under Pepper Rodgers for two years, then remained on the staff as receivers coach and administrative assistant to Vermeil when he became the school's head coach in '74. Following UCLA's Rose Bowl championship in '76, Peterson accompanied Vermeil to the Philadelphia Eagles.

Peterson serves on the National Boards for the Maxwell Football Club and Pop Warner Little Scholars Organization. He serves as the Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Pop Warner and is a member of the International World President's Organization. He also serves on the Board of The Third and Long Foundation, which was founded by the late Derrick Thomas. The Greater Kansas City Sports Commission presented Peterson with the '98 Special Achievement Award for Professional Athletics.

Other honors Peterson has received include the 2002 Pop Warner Award for Excellence in Athletics, the 2001 Pro Football Executive Award, presented by the All-American Football Foundation and the '98 Maxwell Club Reds Bagwell Award for Outstanding Contributions to the Game of Football. In 2003, he was also inducted into the Long Beach Century Club Hall of Fame. In addition, Peterson serves on the following NFL's Committees: College and Pro Relations, NFL Europe League Working Executives and the NFL Youth Football Funding Board. Spearheaded by the efforts and example of Peterson and his wife, Lori, the Chiefs organization (players, coaches and front office staff) has raised a net of $8.34 million for local charities since '98.

Peterson grew up in Long Beach, California, and attended both the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and UCLA. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology from UCLA in '66, a Master's Degree in Kinesiology in '67 and earned a Doctorate in Administration in Higher Education at UCLA in '70. He is married to the former Lori K. Larson of Kansas City, who is a senior associate with H.O.K. Sports Architects. The Petersons make their home in the historic Country Club Plaza district of Kansas City, Missouri. Carl has one daughter Dawn Peterson Curlewis, who lives in Edinburgh with her Scottish-born husband, Graham.

May 1994 - Promoted to Chief Executive Officer of the franchise by Lamar Hunt.

December 24, 1994 - Kansas City qualifies for the playoffs for a fifth consecutive season after a 19-9 win at the L.A. Raiders.

December 24, 1995 - Kansas City defeats Seattle by a 26-3 score as the Chiefs finish the regular season with the best record in team history at 13-3, winning the AFC West title.

December 21, 1997 - Kansas City defeats New Orleans by a 25-13 score as the Chiefs again finish the regular season at 13-3, winning a third AFC West title in five years.

December 5, 1999 - Kansas City claims a 16-10 victory at Denver, marking the franchise's 100th victory during the decade of the '90s and making the Chiefs one of only seven teams in NFL history to register 100 or more wins in a single decade. Marty Schottenheimer is the club's head coach for 93 of those wins. The victory also marks Peterson's 200th win as a pro football executive.

January 2, 2000 - Kansas City leads the NFL in home paid attendance for the sixth consecutive season.

October 2, 2000 - Kansas City defeats Seattle by a 24-17 margin in a Monday Night Football contest at Arrowhead. The game is simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium, giving the club its largest ever on-site attendance of 82,893 fans.

January 12, 2001 - Peterson hires Dick Vermeil as the ninth head coach in franchise history.

December 22, 2002 - Kansas City extends its streak of regular and postseason sellouts at Arrowhead Stadium to 100 games.

Dennis THUM

Executive V.P./Asst. General Manager

Dennis Thum, who has played a major role in the Kansas City Chiefs front office the past 30 years, has been the club's Assistant General Manager since '89. In February of '96, he added the role of Executive Vice President to his Assistant GM duties. Thum assists Carl Peterson, the team's President, General Manager and Chiefs Executive Officer, in overseeing the football side of the Chiefs operation.

"Denny Thum is the unsung hero of this organization," noted Peterson. "Without Denny, there are many things we would not have been able to accomplish. He's invaluable to me."

The 51-year-old Thum is heavily involved in the preparation of the entire football budget, is active in the negotiations of all player contracts, monitors the salary cap, and services the coaching staff, player personnel staff, trainers, as well as the club's equipment and video staffs. He is also in charge of all training camp operations and coordinates the team's travel. In a '97 USA Today story, Thum was named one of the NFL's top 11 salary cap managers in a poll of league administrators.

Thum held the position of Assistant to the General Manager from '84 to '88, and was promoted to his current position shortly after Peterson's arrival in Kansas City 14 years ago. He served as the club's Director of Accounting in '83 and Chief Accountant in '82. The St. Louis, Missouri native joined the Chiefs as a staff accountant in '74, the same year he graduated from Rockhurst College in Kansas City. Born November 14, 1951, Denny and his wife, Carmen, live in Kansas City, Missouri, with their two daughters, Megan and Lindsay.

Lynn STILES

V.P. Football Operations/Player Personnel

Lynn Stiles rejoined the Chiefs football family on February 29, 2000 when he was named the club's Vice President of Football Operations. On June 7, 2001 he was promoted by Chiefs President Carl Peterson to the post of Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel. Stiles previously served as Kansas City's Vice President of Player Personnel from '92-96.

Stiles returned to the Chiefs organization in 2000 after spending the three previous seasons ('97-99) in St. Louis as that club's Vice President of Football Operations. In St. Louis he played a key role in helping current Chiefs Head Coach Dick Vermeil and the Rams produce a win in Super Bowl XXXIV in '99. He also coached the Rams tight ends in '98-99.

In his expanded role with the Chiefs, Stiles oversees all aspects of the Chiefs player personnel department, including both the team's college and pro scouting efforts. In addition, he also works closely with Lamonte Winston and Kansas City's player development department, which he played an integral role in establishing during his intial tenure with the team. Stiles was also instrumental in the formation of a player development program in St. Louis. He will also continue his work as Vice President of Football Operations, managing various day-to-day football management issues.

Stiles is reunited in Kansas City with Peterson and Vermeil for the third time in his career. The longstanding relationship between this gridiron trinity dates back to UCLA in the '70s. Peterson served as the Bruins receivers coach and administrative assistant from '72-73 under Pepper Rodgers before serving in that same role under Vermeil from '74-75, while Stiles was assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for the Bruins from '70-75. In '75, that trio helped lead the Bruins to a 9-2-1 record, the team's first-ever Pac 8 championship. That season culminated with UCLA's first Rose Bowl appearance in 10 seasons as the Bruins defeated #1 ranked Ohio State.

In '79, Stiles joined forces with Vermeil and Peterson for the second time, this time with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. Stiles served as the Eagles tight ends coach and special teams coordinator, while Vermeil was Head Coach and Peterson served as the Eagles Director of Player Personnel. Philadelphia produced a franchise-best 12-4 record in '80 as the Eagles claimed the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XV.

Entering his 24th NFL season in 2003, the 61-year-old Stiles has been a member of four Super Bowl teams, including that Super Bowl XV berth with the '80 Eagles. Stiles earned championship rings from three of those Super Bowl appearances (XXIII and XXIV with San Francisco, XXXIV with St. Louis). In total, Stiles has been associated with teams which made six conference championship game appearances and have appeared in 24 overall playoff games.

When Peterson departed to head the USFL's Philadelphia Stars in '82, Stiles became the Eagles Director of Player Personnel from '82-86. During that span Philadelphia acquired Pro Bowl performers such as Reggie White, Randall Cunningham, Seth Joyner, Clyde Simmons and Keith Byars. The Kermit, Texas native then joined Bill Walsh's coaching staff with the San Francisco 49ers as that club's special teams coach in '87. The next season, the 49ers claimed a 20-16 win over Cincinnati in Super Bowl XXIII. In '89, Stiles was promoted to special teams coordinator and tight ends coach by head coach George Seifert as San Francisco went 14-2 and produced a 55-10 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXIV. He also served as the team's assistant offensive line coach in '91 before originally joining the Chiefs in '92.

From '76-78, Stiles served as head coach at San Jose State where his squads won two league championships. During his first season with the Spartans, he oversaw the development of QB Steve DeBerg, who was named the Pacific Coast Athletic Conference MVP in his only year of major college football. A two-time All-Nevada selection as a prep player at Reno High School, Stiles enjoyed a stellar collegiate career at the University of Utah playing guard and linebacker, earning All-Academic and All-Conference honors, in addition to a berth in the All-American Bowl after his senior season in '62. He embarked on his coaching career at his alma mater in '63 when his roommate was Seifert. Stiles also served as an assistant at Iowa from '64-69 before joining the staff at UCLA in '70.

Stiles and his wife, Marigene reside in Leawood, Kansas. They have four children - daughters Staci and Tiffanny and sons Shon and Blake, in addition to two grandchildren.

Dennis WATLEY

Senior Vice President

Dennis Watley, now in his 14th year with the Chiefs, was promoted to the post of Senior Vice President in March of '99 after serving three years as the club's Vice President of Administration. Watley oversees the team's sales, marketing, advertising, promotions, data processing, development and stadium operations of the Chiefs and the Kansas City Wizards soccer team.

He joined the club in '90 as Director of Sales and Marketing and was promoted to Vice President of Marketing in '95 and Vice President of Administration in '96. Under Watley's direction, the Chiefs have become a model for all pro sports franchises in virtually every area. Ideas originating in Kansas City in the '90s have become standard operating procedure for many teams in the NFL.

Kansas City has become a consistent AFC attendance leader and has led the entire NFL in home attendance six of the past nine seasons. Last year, the Chiefs extended their string of consecutive regular season and playoff sellouts at Arrowhead Stadium to 100 games. Watley has also been instrumental in developing the club's VIP tent and corporate hospitality areas, including the Pavilion at Arrowhead and the Wolfpack Club, which both opened in 2000.

Over the past 13 seasons, the Chiefs have emerged as one of the best-run franchises in sports, and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue has stated that the Chiefs game production and overall football atmosphere is "the best in the NFL." Watley has also been the driving force in bringing special events to Arrowhead, including the Big 12 Football Championship Game, the Eddie Robinson College Football Classic, as well as numerous prestigious soccer events and concerts.

For 16 years prior to joining the Chiefs, the 55-year-old Watley was employed by National Steel Service Centers, a one-billion-dollar metals distribution company serving eight states in the Midwest. He left National Steel in '85 as President of the Midwest Division and joined D.W. Newcomer's Sons in Kansas City. A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Watley attended William Jewell College on an athletic scholarship, majoring in Business and Marketing, with additional studies in Iowa and Houston, Texas. Dennis and his wife, Carolyn, have four children - Shelby, Lori, Matt and Ellen. The Watleys reside in Lee's Summit, Missouri.

Dick VERMEIL

Head Coach

17th Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

A new crusade was officially initiated on January 12, 2001 when Chiefs President Carl Peterson named Dick Vermeil as the ninth head coach in the 44-year history of the franchise. The 2003 season marks the third year of the Vermeil era in Kansas City as this highly-respected coach continues his quest to return the Chiefs to their winning ways.

Vermeil came to Kansas City when a deal was consummated to end his one-year coaching hiatus after his victory in Super Bowl XXXIV with the St. Louis Rams. Peterson and the Chiefs head coach were finally reunited in Kansas City, bringing full-circle a relationship which dates back 29 years. While some questioned why Vermeil would come out of retirement for a second time, the motivation was crystal clear.

"Personal relationships are motivating to me," Vermeil said upon accepting his third NFL head coaching post. "And that was truly the case in this situation. I really feel this was sort of inevitable. Sooner or later, it was probably going to happen that Carl and I would be back together again, rejoined to initiate a new crusade. Every time we've done it, we've been successful."

Successful, indeed.

If history repeats itself for Peterson and Vermeil in Kansas City, Chiefs fans everywhere could enjoy the results of this latest "crusade." In their two previous collaborations Peterson and Vermeil unquestionably forged a winning combination. While the teams, the years and the uniforms have changed, the commitment and trust shared by this dynamic football duo has never wavered. Whether it was upsetting #1 ranked Ohio State 23-10 in the Rose Bowl following the '75 college season or resurrecting a long-dormant Philadelphia Eagles franchise to claim the '80 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV, Peterson and Vermeil's gridiron triumphs have been well-documented.

COACHING CAREER

1997-99	St. Louis Rams . . . . . Head Coach
2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs . . . . . Head Coach

That strong personal bond and history of past successes easily explains why Vermeil was Peterson's top choice for the Chiefs head coaching job, not only in 2001, but dating back to '89 when Peterson originally came to Kansas City to steer the franchise's fortunes.

"When I came to the Chiefs over 12 years ago, there was only one individual I wanted to hire as the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs, Dick Vermeil," Peterson observed upon hiring Vermeil. "So it is with a great deal of pleasure that after 12 years I have finally been able to accomplish what I set out to do at that time. I'm not concerned about my bias — and I am biased — but I firmly believe that Dick Vermeil is the premier football coach in the entire National Football League."

Unquestionably one of the finest innovators and motivators the game has ever known, Vermeil's style has truly stood the test of time. Whether it was coaching championship football and swimming teams as a high school coach in California, re-establishing UCLA as a national collegiate powerhouse, or reaching the highest echelon of the pro profession by coaching a club to a Super Bowl championship, there's been virtually no challenge Vermeil hasn't stepped up to during his illustrious career.

Upon his arrival in 2001, Vermeil immediately tackled the task of injecting his competitive fire into the Chiefs and returning the franchise to the success to which it has grown accustomed. The club quickly embraced its new field general and by season's end the results began to show as Kansas City claimed victories in three of its final four games. That momentum carried over to 2002 as the Chiefs boasted the NFL's top scoring offense and remained in postseason contention until the season's final game.

In his third season with Kansas City in 2003, Vermeil will be seeking to pen another third-year success story after guiding Philadelphia and St. Louis to the playoffs in his third campaign with both of those franchises. While the Super Bowl remains the ultimate goal, should Vermeil lead the Chiefs to their first postseason berth since '97, he would become just the fourth coach in league history to take three different teams to the playoffs, joining Chuck Knox (Rams, Bills and Seahawks), Dan Reeves (Broncos, Giants and Falcons) and Bill Parcells (Giants, Patriots and Jets).

Entering the 2003 campaign, Vermeil owns 90 regular season victories, a figure topped by only five other active coaches - Atlanta's Reeves (187), San Diego's Marty Schottenheimer (161), Dallas' Parcells (138), Pittsburgh's Bill Cowher (109) and Seattle's Mike Holmgren (106). Vermeil needs just 10 more wins to join that group and would become the 27th coach in NFL history to reach that milestone.

The national respect for Vermeil truly transcends football. In fact, it eclipses the sports world entirely. In addition to his impressive litany of accomplishments as a coach, he has served as a widely-acclaimed broadcaster and has long been a highly-coveted motivational speaker. Yet even though he is just one of 21 NFL head coaches ever to claim a Super Bowl ring — joining Hank Stram as the only other Chiefs head coach to own that distinction — Vermeil approaches his present challenge with little bravado, much humility and a great appreciation of his players and coaching staff as he continues his quest to become the only head coach in NFL history to lead three separate teams to the Super Bowl.

Vermeil is currently just one of four coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the "Big Game," joining the illustrious likes of Parcells (Giants and Patriots), Reeves (Broncos and Falcons) and Don Shula (Colts and Dolphins). Vermeil was granted entry into that elite group after leading St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season. He also guided Philadelphia to an appearance in Super Bowl XV at the conclusion of the '80 season. Vermeil is also just one of seven active NFL head coaches (Jon Gruden, Bill Belichick, Brian Billick, Mike Shanahan, Holmgren and Parcells) who have guided a club to a Super Bowl victory.

Nineteen years after winning the NFL Coach of the Year honor for the initial time with the '80 Philadelphia Eagles, Vermeil was once again honored as the NFL's Coach of the Year following the '99 season with St. Louis and received other "Coach of the Year" honors from virtually every major event in the country, including Kansas City's own "101 Banquet", as well as the Maxwell Club, the ESPYs, the Columbus Touchdown Club, the Victor Awards and the NFL Alumni Association. Vermeil was also a consensus "Coach of the Year" pick among pro football publications in '99, including Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, USA Today, Football News, Football Digest, as well as College and Pro Football Newsweekly.

That plethora of accolades came following a remarkable '99 campaign with the Rams which culminated with a thrilling 23-16 victory vs. Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV on January 30th of 2000. Vermeil's '99 Rams produced a franchise-best 13-3 regular season record, winning those 13 contests by an average margin of 22.9 points per game. St. Louis contained its opponents to 21 points or less in all 13 of their wins as Vermeil guided the Rams to their first-ever Super Bowl victory and their first appearance in the NFL's title game since Super Bowl XIV following the '79 season.

Despite losing current Kansas City QB Trent Green to a season-ending injury in the preseason, an unheralded former Arena League and NFL Europe quarterback named Kurt Warner emerged to lead St. Louis to the promised land. Warner enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons in NFL history in '99, completing 325 of 499 passes for 4,353 yards with 41 TDs and just 13 INTs, good for a remarkable 109.2 passer rating. While Vermeil was the season's most decorated coach, Warner was the league's most honored player, taking home the NFL Most Valuable Player and Super Bowl MVP trophies.

After taking a 14-year sabbatical from the coaching profession from '83-96, Vermeil returned to the league as President of Football Operations and head coach of the St. Louis Rams on January 22, 1997. Vermeil took over a St. Louis team which had suffered seven consecutive losing seasons and hadn't been to the postseason since '88. In just his third season as head coach of that club in '99, he guided the Rams to the lone Super Bowl title in that team's history. Just 11 days following that Super Bowl victory, Vermeil announced what would be a short-lived retirement from the Rams on February 1, 2000.

In '76, Vermeil inherited a Philadelphia squad which had not produced a winning season since '66. In just his third season with the club in '78, he landed the Eagles in the playoffs for the first time since '61, earning NFC Coach of the Year for his efforts. After leading Philadelphia to a franchise-best 12-4 record in '80 and taking the team on a trip to Super Bowl XV, he was named NFL Coach of the Year for the first time, a feat he later repeated with the Rams.

Vermeil enters his 13th season as an NFL head coach in 2003, after producing an 90-91 regular season record in his 12 previous campaigns. He went 22-26 with the St. Louis Rams ('97-99), posted a 54-47 record with the Eagles ('76-82) and has produced a 14-18 slate in two seasons with the Chiefs (2001-02). He boasts a 6-4 career postseason record, including a perfect 3-0 mark during the '99 campaign with the Rams giving him an overall NFL record of 96-95 (.503). In total, Vermeil will embark on his 17th season as an NFL coach after originally entering the league with the L.A. Rams in '69.

In addition to being reunited with Peterson, Vermeil has also joined forces with another longtime associate, Chiefs Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel Lynn Stiles in Kansas City. The relationship shared by the football trinity of Peterson, Vermeil and Stiles dates back to '74 when Vermeil was named the head coach at UCLA. Peterson served as receivers coach and an administrative assistant, while Stiles served as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

In '76, Vermeil was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, while Peterson served as the club's receivers, tight ends coach and administrative assistant to the head coach. In '77, Peterson was named Philadelphia's Director of Player Personnel and became the man chiefly responsible for the acquisition of talent for Vermeil. Just one year later in '78 the duo of Peterson and Vermeil helped lead the Eagles to their first playoff appearance in 18 seasons and landed the club in the Super Bowl in '80.

In six seasons together with the Eagles from '76-81, Peterson and Vermeil combined to engineer four playoff appearances. Stiles rejoined the trio in '79 as the Eagles tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. The highlight of that four-year playoff run came just one year later when Philadelphia claimed its first division title since the club won the NFL Championship in '60. The Eagles proceeded to win the '80 NFC Championship Game and advanced to Super Bowl XV in January of '81.

After spending seven seasons ('76-82) with Philadelphia, Vermeil retired from coaching during an emotional farewell speech on January 10, 1983. He finished his Eagles career as the secondwinningest head coach in that franchise's history, compiling a 54-47 (.535) record. Only Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Earl "Greasy" Neale produced more victories, getting 66 wins as the Eagles head coach from '41-50. In an ironic twist, Vermeil received the Earle "Greasy" Neale Trophy for his efforts with the Rams in '99, an honor bestowed annually by Philadelphia's Maxwell Club.

Vermeil didn't stray far from the gridiron when he left the Eagles, though. Shortly after departing the sidelines, he began a 14-year broadcasting career, serving as an NFL and college football analyst for CBS and ABC from '83-96. Although he declined the opportunity to become Kansas City's head coach in '89, he did provide color commentary for the Chiefs preseason television broadcasts from '89-96.

Owning many distinctions during his football career, two of the most interesting include his involvement with the Rose Bowl. In addition to being the only head coach to lead his team to victories in both the Super Bowl and the Rose Bowl, he is also the only individual to coach a team in the Rose Bowl and later broadcast a Rose Bowl contest.

In addition, Vermeil owns the rare distinction of being named "Coach of the Year" on four levels: high school, junior college, NCAA Division I and the NFL. He began his coaching career at San Jose's Del Mar High School in '59 and received his initial head coaching assignment at Hillsdale High School in San Mateo, California in '60. After a one-year stint as an assistant at San Mateo College, he produced an 8-1 mark in his lone season as the head coach at Napa Junior College.

Vermeil began his NCAA Division I coaching tenure at Stanford from '65-68 working under head coach John Ralston. That star-studded staff included six future NFL head coaches: Vermeil (Philadelphia '76-82, St. Louis '97-99, Kansas City 2001-03); Ralston (Denver '72-76); Bill Walsh (San Francisco '79-88), Jim Mora (New Orleans '86-96, Indianapolis '98-01) and Rod Rust (New England '90), as well as current Chiefs Director of Football Administration Mike White (Oakland '95-96).

Vermeil entered the pro ranks in '69 when he was designated as the first special teams coach in NFL history working for the L.A. Rams under Pro Football Hall of Famer George Allen. After a one-year stint on Tommy Prothro's staff as offensive coordinator at UCLA in '70, he moved with Prothro back to the Rams, where he served as offensive coordinator from '71-72. He then coached running backs and special teams for Rams head coach Chuck Knox in '73 before taking over the head coaching reigns at UCLA the following year. He compiled a 15-5-3 (.717) record in two seasons as head coach at UCLA ('74-75), including a 9-2-1 record in '75 when Vermeil led the Bruins to their first Pac 8 Championship.

During his many years in the Philadelphia area — where his family still maintains a residence — Vermeil has found the time to help many worthy causes. Numerous Philadelphia-area organizations have benefited from his involvement including: The Mary Campbell Center, The Second Mile Center and The Boy Scouts of Chester County whose golf tournament which bears Vermeil's name annually earns $100,000 for the organization.

Born in Calistoga, California at the northern end of the world-renowned Napa Valley in the heart of wine country, Vermeil was a four-sport star at Calistoga High School and was also employed in the auto repair garage of his father, Louis Vermeil. The younger Vermeil applied that work ethic learned in "The Garage" for one season at Napa Junior College, before moving on to San Jose State. He graduated from San Jose State with degrees in physical education (B.A. '58, M.A. '59) after serving as a collegiate quarterback for the Spartans. In 2000, he was inducted into the San Jose State Hall of Fame. True to his Napa Valley roots, Vermeil is producing a vintage of his own self-proclaimed "Garage Cabernet" named in honor of his grandfather, Jean Louis Vermeil.

Vermeil and his wife, Carol have three children and 11 grandchildren. Their son Rick and his wife Colleen are parents of grandchildren Kelly, Rick, Michael and Megan. Their son Dave and his wife Janet are parents of grandchildren Jack, Amy and Andy. Their daughter Nancy and her husband Steve Barnett are parents of grandchildren James, Tommy, Stevie and Christopher.

The Vermeils make their home in the historic Country Club Plaza district of Kansas City, Missouri. When not in Kansas City, the entire Vermeil family enjoys spending time and working on "The Ranch," a 114-acre homestead located outside Philadelphia in rural Chester County, Pennsylvania.

Mike WHITE

Director of Football Administration

15th Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Mike White enters his 15th NFL campaign and his third season with the Chiefs as the club's Director of Football Administration in 2003. Owning 43 years of football expertise as a coach, a talent evaluator and an administrator, White oversees numerous aspects of the Chiefs day-to-day football operation, working under the direction of head coach Dick Vermeil.

White and Vermeil are united for the third time during their careers in Kansas City. From '97-99, White served as assistant head coach with St. Louis under Vermeil where the tandem was responsible for helping resurrect a franchise which had not produced a winning season since '89. The culmination of those efforts came in '99 when the Rams went 13-3 and claimed a win in Super Bowl XXXIV. Prior to their association with the Rams, the duo had previously worked together as assistant coaches for Stanford from '65-68.

Before joining the Rams, White spent seven years coaching with the Oakland Raiders ('90-96), including two seasons as that club's head coach, compiling a 15-17 record from '95-96. The Berkeley, California native began his tenure with the Raiders as the club's quarterbacks coach from '90-92 and coached the offensive line from '93-94. The Raiders reached the playoffs in three of those five seasons, including an appearance in the '91 AFC Championship Game. Prior to joining the Raiders, White worked closely with former Dallas Cowboys President Tex Schramm from '88-89 to form the World League of American Football (now the NFL Europe League), which has grown into a valuable developmental league for the NFL.

In total, White owns 16 years of head coaching expertise, including collegiate head coaching posts at the University of Illinois ('80-87) and the University of California ('72-77). A two-time National Coach of the Year, White compiled a 47-38-3 record and three bowl appearances in eight years with the Fighting Illini. In '81 he led Illinois to its first winning record since '74 with a 7-4 mark after inheriting a team which had recorded just one winning season in its prior 14 campaigns. He then took the school to its first bowl appearance in 18 years the following season with a berth in the Liberty Bowl. His '83 squad was among the best in Illinois history, reaching the Rose Bowl and climbing to a Number 10 final AP ranking with a 10-2 record. The school also set a Big Ten record by becoming the first team ever to defeat all nine conference opponents as White earned Coach of the Year honors following the '83 campaign.

White began his NFL coaching career with San Francisco, spending two years as offensive line coach and administrative assistant to Pro Football Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh from '78-79. Before joining the 49ers, White spent 20 of his 28 seasons in college football in the state of California. He spent 12 years at his alma mater, the University of California, where he served as head coach from '72-77, posting a 35-30-1 record in six seasons at the helm of the Golden Bears. In '75 he was named Coach of the Year by The Sporting News following an 8-3 season in which Cal won the school's first Pac 8 championship. White originally launched his coaching career at Cal as a graduate assistant in '58, was elevated to freshmen coach in '59 and was a wide receivers coach from '60-63.

He left Berkeley for rival Stanford in '64 and served as offensive coordinator for eight seasons under John Ralston. The Stanford staff at the time included such future NFL coaches as Ralston, Vermeil, Walsh, Jim Mora and Rod Rust. With White directing the offense and Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett at quarterback, Stanford won consecutive Pac 8 titles and posted back-to-back Rose Bowl victories in '70 and '71.

A noted developer of quarterbacks in the collegiate ranks, White's many pupils included the likes of Plunkett and Don Bunce (Stanford); Steve Bartkowski, Vince Ferragamo, Joe Roth and Rich Campbell (California); Dave Wilson, Tony Eason, Jack Trudeau and Jeff George (Illinois).

White participated in four sports as an undergraduate at Cal. He played offensive end on the football team from '55-57 and was team captain as a senior. He also captained the rugby team while earning three letters in that sport and competed in the decathlon, hurdles and long jump for the Cal track team. In addition, White played guard on the Golden Bears basketball team under legendary coach Pete Newell.

Education: University of California (B.S. '58). Born: January 4, 1936 in Berkeley, California. Family: Wife - Marilyn. The Whites have three children and four grandchildren. Their daughter Carrie and her husband Scott Chantos are parents of grandchildren Hannah (10) and Noah (7). Their son Matt and his wife Julie are the parents of grandchildren Harrison (4) and Dylan (3). Their son Chris is single.

Al SAUNDERS

Asst. Head Coach/Off. Coordinator

21st Year NFL Coach • 13th with Chiefs

Regarded as one of the most accomplished offensive minds in all of football with experience as both a head coach and offensive coordinator, Al Saunders enters his third season as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Chiefs in 2003.

Embarking on his 34th season in the coaching ranks this year, Saunders owns 21 years of NFL coaching experience and is beginning his 13th coaching campaign with Kansas City. He previously served a 10-year stint as assistant head coach/wide receivers coach under head coach Marty Schottenheimer from '89-98. During that 10-year span, he was part of a Chiefs coaching staff which helped guide Kansas City to three AFC West titles and seven playoff berths.

In 2002, Saunders presided over the most prolific offensive season in Kansas City history as the Chiefs broke or tied 22 single-season team offensive records and led the NFL in a multitude of offensive categories. Most notably, the Chiefs led the NFL in scoring for the first time in team history with a franchise-record 467 points (29.1 ppg). The club also ranked second in the league in total offense by averaging 375.0 yards per game after accumulating a team-record 6,000 yards on the season. In addition, Kansas City established franchise seasonal standards for first downs (343), offensive TDs (53) and rushing TDs (26). Meanwhile, the club led the NFL in yards per play (6.22) and yards per pass attempt (7.89) and first-down efficiency (6.88), while also pacing the league in TD efficiency by crossing the goal line on 29.8 percent of its offensive possessions (53 of 178 drives).

COACHING CAREER

1970-71	Southern California . . . Graduate Assistant
1972	Missouri . . . . . Receivers
1973-75	Utah State . . . . . Offensive Backfield
1976-81	California . . . . . Asst. Head Coach/ QBs/Off. Coord.
1982	Tennessee . . . Offensive Coordinator/QBs
1983-88	San Diego Chargers . . . Receivers ('83-86) Head Coach ('86-88)
1989-98	Kansas City Chiefs . . . Asst. Head Coach/WRs
1999-00	St. Louis Rams . . . . Assoc. Head Coach/WRs
2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs . . . . Asst. Head Coach/ Offensive Coordinator

Although the Chiefs offense was aggressive in 2002, the Chiefs still led the AFC with a +16 turnover ratio. Kansas City turned the ball over a franchise-low 15 times (non-strike season) and broke two long-standing NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing only two fumbles of those fumbles. With Saunders at the controls, the Chiefs tied team records originally established in '66 by topping the 40-point barrier on four occasions and by surpassing the 30-point mark eight times. Adept at the art of the comeback, the Chiefs registered a franchise-best 168 points in the final quarter in 2002, coming just seven points shy of breaking San Francisco's NFL record of 174 fourth-quarter points set in '89.

Thanks to a quartet of Pro Bowl performers — G Will Shields, T Willie Roaf, TE Tony Gonzalez and RB Priest Holmes — the Chiefs led the league in virtually every Red Zone category, owning NFL-high marks in Red Zone possessions (64), Red Zone points (344), Red Zone TDs (42), Red Zone scoring percentage (92.2) and Red Zone TD percentage (65.6)

In the air, Kansas City led the NFL by averaging 12.89 yards per pass completion and established a franchise record with a 61.21 completion percentage. The Chiefs had an NFL-high five different players produce an individual 100-yard receiving game to tie a team mark and registered three different players with 50+ catches and 500+ receiving yards for the first time in franchise annals.

With Holmes serving as the spearhead of the ground game, the Chiefs averaged 148.6 rushing yards per game to rank third in the NFL. The two-time Pro Bowl runner continued to flourish in the Chiefs offensive scheme, finishing the year with 2,287 yards from scrimmage, 24 total TDs, 1,615 ground yards, 21 rushing TDs and nine 100-yard games, all figures which established team single-season records. As a team, Kansas City had a franchise-best 73 rushing plays of 10+ yards and led the NFL by gaining four yards or more on 55.1 percent of its first-down rushing plays.

The foundation for Kansas City's offensive onslaught was established in 2001 when Kansas City finished the year ranked in the NFL's top 10 in rushing, passing and total offense for just the second time since the AFL-NFL merger. The Chiefs ranked fifth in the NFL in total offense (354.6 yards per game), while coming in fifth in passing (229.1 ypg) and sixth in rushing (125.5 ypg).

In Saunders' two seasons as offensive coordinator, the Chiefs have accumulated 11,673 yards of total offense, the best two-year tally in the franchise's illustrious 44-year history. Over that span, Kansas City rattled off a team-record streak of 13 consecutive games with 300+ yards of total offense. In 2002 alone, the Chiefs broke or tied single-season records for 300-yard games (13), 400-yard games (six) and 500-yard games (two).

Prior to rejoining the Chiefs, Saunders spent two seasons with St. Louis where he coached wide receivers and also served as associate head coach in 2000. During that two-year span, Saunders helped revitalize a Rams offense which helped the club steamroll its way to a 13-3 regular season record in '99 and a triumph over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Owning an energetic and hands-on style, Saunders continues to invigorate the Kansas City offense in much the same way.

Presiding over high-flying offenses is nothing new for this veteran coach. In 2000, Saunders was part of a St. Louis coaching staff which helped the Rams score 540 points (33.8 ppg), the third-highest single-season total in NFL history. The club also led the league with an NFL-record 442.2 yards of total offense per game and paced the NFL in passing offense (327.0 ypg) for the second straight season, setting another league record in the process. St. Louis amassed 7,075 yards of total offense and 5,232 passing yards, breaking the previous marks established by the '84 Miami Dolphins.

En route to their World Championship in '99, the Rams paced the NFL with 6,412 yards of total offense, good for a remarkable 400.8 ypg average. St. Louis also led the league in passing offense with 272.1 yards per game and topped the NFL in scoring by averaging 32.9 points per contest. The 526 total points amassed by the '99 squad ranked as the fourth-highest tally in NFL annals.

The St. Louis receiving corps under the direction of Saunders was responsible for a large portion of those record-setting numbers. WR Isaac Bruce made the Pro Bowl in each of his seasons working with Saunders and led the Rams in 2000 with 87 receptions, while garnering 1,471 yards and nine TDs. WR Torry Holt had a breakout year under Saunders' tutelage in 2000, leading the league in receiving yards (1,635) and yards per catch (19.9) while earning his first Pro Bowl appearance after grabbing 82 receptions and scoring six TDs. WR Az-Zahir Hakim also made significant progress during Saunders' stay in St. Louis. After producing just 20 catches for 247 yards and one score as a rookie in '98, by the 2000 campaign he had grabbed 53 balls for 734 yards and four TDs. Bruce, Holt and Hakim join a stellar list of receivers tutored by Saunders, a group that includes Pro Football Hall of Famers Charlie Joiner and Kellen Winslow (San Diego) and Lynn Swann (Southern California).

Before initially joining the Chiefs in '89, Saunders served as San Diego's head coach from the midpoint of the '86 season through the '88 campaign. He guided the Chargers to an 8-7 record in '87, which was the team's first winning season in five years. Under his direction in '87, the Chargers won eight straight games, the club's longest winning streak in 26 seasons. He joined San Diego in '83 as receivers coach in what was one of the most exiting and prolific pass offenses in NFL history. Behind Hall of Fame QB Dan Fouts and the Chargers electrifying receiving corps coached by Saunders, San Diego set numerous team records and led the league in passing and total offense in both '83 and '85.

Saunders began his career as a graduate assistant at Southern California ('70-71). He then coached receivers at Missouri ('72) before heading the offensive backfield at Utah State ('73-75). He was an assistant head coach, quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at California from '76-81, leading an offense that set 32 national, conference and school records. In '82, he served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Johnny Majors at the University of Tennessee.

Born in London, England, he became one of only four foreign-born head coaches in NFL history after becoming a naturalized U.S. citizen in '60. A three-year starter, team captain and Academic All-America pick as a defensive back at San Jose State ('66-68), Saunders also played wide receiver for the Spartans and is enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame. As a recipient of California's State Graduate Fellowship for Academic Excellence, he earned a Master's degree in education from Stanford and was a doctoral candidate in athletic administration and sports management at USC.

Saunders has been recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award for community leadership and service in '89. A former All-America swimmer and national record holder, Saunders is also an accomplished distance runner. In '96, he competed in the Kansas City and Los Angeles Marathons, as well as the 100th running of the Boston Marathon and was also crowned the Road Runners Club of America's (R.R.C.A.) Masters 5K National Champion.

Education: Stanford (M.A. '70), San Jose State (B.A. '69). Born: February 1, 1947 in London, England. Family: Wife - Karen; Children - sons Bob and Joe, and daughter Kori, who plays soccer at the University of Nebraska.

Greg ROBINSON

Defensive Coordinator

14th Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Respected as one of the most talented defensive tacticians in the game today, Greg Robinson enters his 10th year as an NFL defensive coordinator and his third season in that capacity for the Chiefs in 2003. Owning 28 years of coaching expertise, the 51-year-old Robinson begins his 14th season in the NFL coaching ranks. Robinson came to Kansas City after a six-year stint as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos from '95-00.

During his tenure in Kansas City, Robinson's defenses have registered several notable accomplishments. In 2002, Robinson's unit did its best work at Arrowhead, securing the club's first shutout since '99 with a 49-0 win vs. Arizona (12/1). Kansas City's defense was also a key reason the club won its final five home games of the year, allowing just 11.6 points per game in those contests. The Chiefs also returned to their opportunistic roots under Robinson in 2002, racking up 31 takeaways en route to helping the club post an AFC-best +16 turnover differential.

Under Robinson's tenure in 2001, the Chiefs established a franchise record with a six-game streak of first-quarter shutouts. That season, Kansas City held opponents scoreless in the first quarter of eight games, including a string of seven straight contests without permitting a touchdown in the first 15 minutes. In total, Kansas City allowed just 43 points in the first quarter over the entire 2001 season, the fourth-lowest total ever in a 16-game season in Chiefs history. Kansas City also permitted just one TD in the fourth quarter in seven of its final eight games in 2001 and pitched fourth-quarter shutouts in five of those eight games.

1995-00	Denver Broncos . . . Defensive Coordinator
2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs . . . Defensive Coordinator

Robinson joined the Chiefs after turning a struggling defense into a perennial championship contender in Denver. Robinson inherited a club which ranked last in total defense in '94 and made an immediate impact in his first season with the club, as the Broncos finished the '95 campaign 15th in the same category. By '96, he had turned the club into the league's fourth-rated defensive unit and by season number three in '97, the club was on its way to its first of two straight Super Bowl triumphs.

During his stellar six-season stay in Denver, the Broncos made four playoff appearances and claimed back-to-back World Championships with wins in Super Bowls XXXII and XXXIII, making them just one of six franchises in NFL history to accomplish a Super Bowl repeat. Over that six-year span, the Broncos compiled a 64-32 (.667) regular season record, including an NFL-best 33-15 (.688) mark against their divisional foes. Denver went 11-1 vs. Oakland and posted identical 9-3 ledgers against both San Diego and Seattle from '95-00. The only AFC West foe Denver had a losing record against during that span was Kansas City (4-8).

The Broncos produced a +28 turnover ratio in six seasons under Robinson and ranked in the NFL's top 10 in total defense during three of his six seasons at the club's defensive helm, finishing seventh in '99 (297.1 yards per game), fifth in '97 (291.9 ypg) and fourth in '96 (279.4 ypg). The Broncos were among the NFL's top five teams in terms of turnover ratio three of his final four seasons with Denver. In 2000, the Broncos posted a +19 mark to rank second in the league behind only Baltimore (+23), while racking up 27 interceptions, just one shy of Miami's league-best total of 28. The Broncos defense was also responsible for scoring six touchdowns, the second-highest tally in team history. Five of those return scores came on interceptions, tying the team mark set by Robinson's '97 Denver squad.

Denver's defenses were also stingy in the scoring column during Robinson's reign with the Broncos, producing three top 10 rankings in the all-important scoring defense category - eighth in '98 (19.3 ppg), sixth in '97 (17.9 ppg) and seventh in '96 (17.2 ppg). The team's pass defense also ranked among the league's top 10 teams in four of Robinson's six seasons with Denver, finishing eighth in '99 (188.5 ypg), fifth in '97 (179.3 ypg), 10th in '96 (196.2 ypg) and ninth in '95 (206.1 ypg).

Most dominant defensive units typically begin with the ability to stop the run, something Robinson's units did with regularity in Denver. The Broncos run defense ranked in the league's top 10 three times during Robinson's tenure with the club. In '96, Denver led the NFL by permitting just 83.2 ground yards per game. Denver ranked third in the NFL in rushing defense in '98, allowing just 80.4 yards per game, breaking the single-season franchise record Robinson's troops had established just two years earlier. Over the final 11 games of the '98 regular season and playoffs, Denver allowed just 56.6 rushing yards per game and permitted just two individual 100-yard rushers.

The performance of Robinson's defense throughout the '98 playoffs was paramount to Denver's quest for a second straight title. The Broncos allowed opponents just 53.0 rushing yards per game in the postseason and forced a remarkable 13 turnovers in just three games, giving the Broncos an impressive +12 playoff turnover ratio. Including the +10 takeaway/giveaway ratio the club posted in the regular season, Denver boasted a +22 ratio for all of '98. In each of the Broncos first two postseason games, the defense allowed opponents a team playoff record low of 14 rushing yards. Over the course of the entire postseason, the Broncos defense allowed just 25 points, culminating with a 34-19 victory in Super Bowl XXXIII vs. Atlanta.

The Broncos defense was equally impressive in '97, when Denver won its first Super Bowl. Robinson crafted the gameplan in Super Bowl XXXII which controlled the explosive Green Bay offense, resulting in a 31-24 win. Robinson's defensive unit rose to the occasion when most challenged, limiting the Packers to an 0-of-8 showing on third and fourth down attempts.

Robinson's defenses in Denver also displayed a propensity for putting pressure on the passer. In '99, the Broncos amassed 50.0 sacks, the third-highest tally in team history and the most by the club since '92. From '97-00, Denver led the AFC with 185.0 sacks, a total which ranked third in the NFL behind only New Orleans (217.0) and St. Louis (196.0).

A number of current NFL standouts owe Robinson a debt of gratitude for his involvement in their development. During his tenure in Denver, Robinson's defense produced a host of Pro Bowl performers. DT Trevor Pryce led the Broncos sack charge with 13.0 QB takedowns in '99 to earn his initial Pro Bowl berth and followed that up with another All-Star campaign in 2000 after posting a team-best 12.0 sacks. Robinson's '96 Denver defense produced five Pro Bowl performers, including LB Bill Romanowski, S Steve Atwater, S Tyrone Braxton, DT Michael Dean Perry and DE Alfred Williams.

Robinson joined the Broncos after a five-year stint with the N.Y. Jets ('90-94). He coached the defensive line from '90-93 and served as defensive coordinator in '94 when the Jets ranked eighth in the league by permitting just 20.0 points per game. Turnovers and a stingy run defense were also a staple of Robinson's defense at his first NFL stop. During his last four years in New York, the Jets defense forced 151 turnovers, the most in the AFC and the second-most in the NFL during that span. They also improved from 27th in the league in total defense in '89 to eighth in '93. New York's rush defense also showed significant improvement, jumping to a fifth-place ranking (92.1 ypg) after allowing 133.5 yards per game in '89.

The Los Angeles native spent his first 15 years of coaching in the collegiate ranks and entered the NFL after an eight-year stint at UCLA ('82-89). Robinson was a member of three Rose Bowl champion squads during his tenure with the Bruins, following the '82, '83 and '85 seasons. He joins the trio of the Chiefs President Carl Peterson, head coach Dick Vermeil and Vice President of Football Operations Lynn Stiles as former UCLA coaches now with the Chiefs who were part of a Bruins victory in the Rose Bowl. Robinson was the Bruins defensive line coach from '82-88 before switching sides of the ball and serving as offensive coordinator in '89. He had been promoted to assistant head coach for the '90 season, but opted to join the Jets instead.

Robinson began his collegiate playing career as a linebacker at Bakersfield Community College from '70-71 before moving on to play center, tight end and linebacker at the University of the Pacific ('72-74). After earning his bachelor's degree in political science in '75, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Pacific ('75-76). He made stops at Cal State Fullerton ('77-79) and North Carolina State ('80-81) before moving on to UCLA in '82.

Education: University of the Pacific (B.S. '75). Born: October 9, 1951 in Los Angeles, California. Family: Wife - Laura; Children - Dominic, Lindsay and Leslie Ann.

Vernon DEAN

Assistant Defensive Backs

1st Year NFL Coach • 1st Year with Chiefs

Vernon Dean enters his first season as an NFL coach in 2003 after spending 10 seasons coaching on the collegiate and high school level. Dean begins his initial campaign with Kansas City as the club's assistant defensive backs coach.

Dean brings a wealth of hands-on expertise to his post with the Chiefs after serving seven seasons as an NFL cornerback with Washington ('82-87) and Seattle ('88). Originally a second-round draft choice (49th overall) of the Redskins in '82, Dean played in 101 regular season games (59 starts), registering 22 interceptions for 274 yards with two touchdowns, as well as seven fumble recoveries, including one for a TD. He also saw duty in 15 career postseason contests, producing four INTs in those games. Raised in Los Angeles, California, Dean made three Super Bowl appearances with Washington and was part of Joe Gibbs' squads that claimed victories in Super Bowls XVII and XXII. He was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by Football Digest in '82 and also earned first-team NFL All-Rookie honors from the Pro Football Writers Association and second-team All-NFC accolades from UPI that same season.

Dean gained his initial NFL coaching experience serving an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Baltimore Ravens during their 2001 training camp, working under the direction of linebackers coach Jack Del Rio (now head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars) and defensive coordinator Marvin Lewis (now head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals). He was scheduled to serve a fellowship with the Arizona Cardinals in training camp last season, before accepting a post as the defensive backs coach at Western Illinois.

Dean earned rings from Super Bowls XVII and XXII with Washington.

Prior to his stint with the Leathernecks, Dean coached the secondary at Western Oregon in 2000-01. From '97-99 he served as the defensive backs coach at Bishop O'Dowd High School in Oakland, California after spending several years working in both finance and real estate. He began his coaching career at Georgetown University where he tutored defensive backs for the Hoyas in '90 before serving as the club's defensive coordinator in '92 and '93. An All-Western Athletic Conference selection and honorable mention All-America pick as a senior at San Diego State, Dean led the league with six interceptions that season. He began his collegiate playing career at Los Angeles Valley Junior College and spent one season at U.S. International University, where he had 10 interceptions as a junior. He transferred to San Diego State after USIU dropped its football program.

Education: San Diego State, Western Oregon University (B.S. 2001). Born: May 5, 1959 in Houston, Texas. Family: Single, with two sons, Joshua (20), a junior safety at San Diego State and Jaylon (4).

Irv

EATMAN

Assistant Offensive Line

5th Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Owning five years of experience as a Chiefs player, Irv Eatman returned to Kansas City in 2001 as the team's assistant offensive line coach and enters his third season in that capacity this year. Eatman spent five seasons as an offensive tackle for the Chiefs from '86-90 after originally being drafted by the club in '83.

Eatman is now in his fifth year as a pro coach and returned to Kansas City to help Mike Solari tutor the Chiefs offensive front. In 2002, the Chiefs offensive line produced a pair of Pro Bowlers in G Will Shields and T Willie Roaf. Kansas City's blocking unit has also paved the way for two-time Pro Bowl RB Priest Holmes who eclipsed the franchise's single-season rushing record with 1,615 yards in 2002 after winning the NFL's rushing crown with 1,555 yards the previous season. Prior to joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Eatman spent the 2000 campaign as an assistant offensive line coach with Pittsburgh after serving in the same role for Green Bay in '99. With Eatman's assistance, Pittsburgh's ground attack ranked fourth in the NFL in 2000, averaging 140.5 yards per game, a 16.1 yards per game improvement from '99 when the Steelers ranked 10th in the league.

COACHING CAREER
1999	Green Bay Packers	Asst. Offensive Line
2000	Pittsburgh Steelers	Asst. Offensive Line
2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Asst. Offensive Line

The 42-year-old Eatman provides a valuable resource for the Chiefs offensive line, owning 14 years of professional playing experience, including 11 seasons in the NFL. Originally drafted by Kansas City in the eighth round of the '83 NFL Draft, Eatman signed with the USFL and was a three-time All-Pro offensive tackle ('83-85) for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars where Chiefs President Carl Peterson was President/General Manager at the time.

During his three-year run with the Stars, Eatman was part of a squad which posted a league-best 48-13-1 overall record, including a remarkable 7-1 postseason mark. The Stars appeared in all three of the league's championship games and claimed the final two USFL titles in '84 and '85. In addition, Eatman was named the USFL Man of the Year for his charitable efforts following the '84 campaign.

Eatman played 14 pro seasons, including five with Kansas City ('86-90).

Following his tenure in the USFL and a five-year stay in Kansas City, Eatman went on to play with the N.Y. Jets ('91-92), L.A. Rams ('93), Atlanta Falcons ('94) and Houston Oilers ('95-96). In total, the Birmingham, Alabama native played in 149 regular season NFL contests and saw postseason duty with both the Chiefs in '90 and the Jets in '91.

Eatman attended UCLA where he was a two-time Lombardi Award semi-finalist, three-time honorable mention All-America selection and a two-time All-Pac 10 pick. As a senior in '82, he played on the Bruins squad which claimed a 24-14 victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl. Current Kansas City defensive coordinator Greg Robinson was also at UCLA at the time, serving as the Bruins defensive line coach.

Education: University of California - Los Angeles. Born: January 1, 1961 in Birmingham, Alabama. Family: Wife - Maureen; Children - Joshua, Emma and Lucas.

Frank GANSZ, JR.

Special Teams

5th Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Frank Gansz, Jr. enters his third season with Kansas City serving as the club's special teams coach. Embarking on his 16th season in the coaching profession, Gansz is in his fifth NFL campaign after serving a two-year stint directing Oakland's special teams from '98-99.

Under his direction the past two seasons, Kansas City's specialty units have blocked four punts and partially blocked another, marking the club's best two-year punt-blocking total since '89-90. In addition to a pair of punt blocks last season, Gansz's unit also blocked a field goal. In 2002, the Chiefs scored three touchdowns on special teams, marking the club's best total since '95. Kansas City tied a team record with two scores on punt returns a year ago and registered a TD on a kickoff return for the first time since '97, while not permitting a score by an opponent's special teams.

WR Dante Hall continued his rapid rise under Gansz as one of the league's most exciting young return threats. Hall became just the second player in Chiefs history to earn a Pro Bowl nod as a kick returner, joining J.T. Smith who accomplished the feat following the '80 season. In 2002, Hall established single-season Chiefs records with 57 kickoff returns for 1,354 yards and tied a team mark with two punt return TDs to go with the first kickoff return score of his career. In total, Hall accounted for 2,120 combined net yards, the third-highest seasonal total in Chiefs history.

But getting production out of the return game is nothing new for Gansz. During his tenure with the Raiders, Gansz tutored some of the league's top return threats in Desmond Howard, Darrien Gordon and Napoleon Kaufman. In '98, Howard ranked fifth in the AFC with a 12.0-yard punt return average.

The 40-year-old Gansz joined Oakland following a five-year stay at the University of Houston ('93-97) where he served as the club's tight ends and special teams coach. In '96 under Gansz the Cougars established a school single-season record for highest kickoff return average. Thanks in part to Gansz's special teams unit, Houston claimed a share of the Conference USA title while appearing in the Liberty Bowl following the '96 season.

Gansz's first job in the professional ranks came in '92 where he was the special teams coach for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League (now NFL Europe). During his lone season with the Knights, Gansz's kickoff coverage, kickoff return and punt return units led the league as his squad tallied four special teams scores.

Prior to joining the Knights, Gansz served a pair of two-year stints at the collegiate level, coaching at both Pittsburgh ('88-89) and Army ('90-91). At Pitt, Gansz was part of a staff which helped guide the Panthers to a 31-28 victory over Texas A&M in the '89 John Hancock Bowl. Gansz broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at the University of Kansas ('87). Prior to embarking on his coaching career, Gansz was a four-year performer as a defensive back at The Citadel.

Gansz's father, Frank Sr. retired following the 2001 season following 24 seasons in the NFL coaching ranks, most recently as the special teams coordinator for Jacksonville from 2000-01. The elder Gansz was twice named the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year ('89, '99) and spent five seasons ('81-82, '86-88) on the Chiefs coaching staff, including a two-year stint ('87-88) as Kansas City's head coach. It was thanks in large part to Gansz's instruction that the Chiefs blocked or deflected an NFL-record 10 kicks in '86 as the team ended a 15-year playoff drought. In the only head-to-head regular season meeting between Gansz, Jr. and his father, the younger Gansz and the Chiefs prevailed by a 30-26 margin at Jacksonville in 2001.

Peter GIUNTA

Defensive Backs

13th Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Beginning his 13th NFL season and his 23rd year in the coaching profession overall, Peter Giunta (pronounced JUNE-ta) enters his third season as the Chiefs defensive backs coach in 2003. The 46-year-old coach joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons ('97-00) with St. Louis, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in '98-99 after originally joining the Rams staff as defensive backs coach in '97.

The Chiefs registered 18 interceptions under Giunta in 2002, including a team-high six from S Greg Wesley, who tied for second in the AFC and fifth in the NFL. During his initial season with the Chiefs in 2001, Kansas City was the only team in the NFL that did not permit a pass play of 50 yards or more, while the club's secondary allowed six fewer TD passes than it did in 2000.

As Rams defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's remarkable run to a World Championship in '99. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record that year and a 23-16 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in '99, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking sixth in total defense by permitting a mere 293.6 yards per contest.

The Rams '99 defense led the NFC with 29 interceptions, a figure which ranked second in the NFL behind only Seattle (30). CB Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the NFL lead with six pickoffs, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven INTs and two fumbles) for touchdowns in '99. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied Jacksonville for the league lead. That charge was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 QB takedowns.

Giunta also has a reputation for getting the most out of the defensive backs under his jurisdiction and stifling opponents' passing attacks. In 2000, Rams CB Dexter McCleon registered eight interceptions, a total which was surpassed only by Green Bay S Jamie Sharper, who had nine. During his first season as the Rams defensive coordinator in '98, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in '97 the Rams snared 25 INTs, a figure topped only by the Giants (27). Giunta's star pupil that season was CB Ryan McNeil, who led the league with nine interceptions.

2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs . . . . . Defensive Backs

Prior to joining the Rams, the Salem, Massachusetts native spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the N.Y. Jets from '95-96. In his initial campaign with that club, the Jets defense led the league in pass defense (171.3 ypg). Giunta was also instrumental in the development of CB Aaron Glenn, who would go on to become the only Pro Bowl corner in Jets history, getting All-Star nods in '97 and '98.

Giunta's first NFL coaching position came coaching defensive backs for Philadelphia from '91-94. During the '91 season, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 ypg), rushing defense (71.0 ypg) and total defense (221.8 ypg). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since '75 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories.

Giunta's 10 seasons in the collegiate ranks began at Penn State ('81-83). During his first year on Joe Paterno's staff, Giunta was a defensive assistant before coaching the tight ends for his final two seasons. While at Penn State, the Nittany Lions claimed the '82 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. In all, Penn State would claim three bowl victories during Giunta's tenure ('82 Fiesta, '83 Sugar and '83 Aloha).

Following Penn State, Giunta moved on to Brown ('84-87) where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator ('86-87). Giunta then moved onto Lehigh ('88-90) where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers. After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern ('74-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts where he guided Swampscott High School from '78-80.

Carl HAIRSTON

Defensive Line

9th Year NFL Coach • 5th with Chiefs

A familiar face in the Chiefs organization, Carl "Big Daddy" Hairston returned to Arrowhead Stadium for his second tour of duty on the Kansas City coaching staff in 2001. Entering his ninth season as an NFL defensive line coach, Hairston previously coached Kansas City's defensive front from '95-96.

Hairston's return to the Arrowhead sidelines has produced substantial dividends for the Chiefs. In 2002, DE Eric Hicks and DT John Browning combined for 16.0 sacks, while the penetration of Kansas City's defensive line was a key factor in stopping 74 rushing plays behind the line of scrimmage in 2001, a total which ranked as the second-highest in the NFL that season. In 2001, rookie DT Eric Downing won the club's Mack Lee Hill Award. Both Downing and 2002 first-round draft choice, DT Ryan Sims, should benefit greatly from Hairston's 15 years of NFL playing experience at the defensive tackle position.

The 50-year old coach rejoined the Chiefs following a four-year stint ('97-00) as the defensive line coach for St. Louis under head coach Dick Vermeil. In 2000, Hairston tutored a pair of players who each topped the double-digit sack mark, DEs Kevin Carter (10.5) and Grant Wistrom (11.0). Miami, New Orleans, Tampa Bay and Washington were the only four other clubs to boast a pair of defensive linemen with 10.0 or more QB takedowns that season.

COACHING CAREER

1995-96	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Line
1997-00	St. Louis Rams	Defensive Line
2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Line

During the Rams 13-3 season in '99 when the club claimed the Super Bowl XXXIV title, St. Louis tied Jacksonville for the league lead with 57.0 sacks, thanks in large part to Hairston's front four. Carter led the league with 17.0 sacks and joined teammate DT D'Marco Farr in the Pro Bowl. Behind Carter's 12.0 sacks in '98, only the N.Y. Giants (54.0), Seattle (53.0) and San Francisco (51.0) produced more sacks than St. Louis (50.0). In '97, Hairston's defensive front was anchored by DE Leslie O'Neal who produced 10.0 sacks, marking the seventh double-digit sack tally of his illustrious NFL career.

Hairston began his coaching career as the defensive line coach under then-Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer in '95. In his two years on the Chiefs staff ('95-96), Hairston helped guide one of the fiercest defensive fronts in football. The Chiefs compiled a 13-3 record and won the AFC West title in '95, ranking second in the AFC and third in the NFL with 47.0 sacks. Under the watchful eye of Hairston, Kansas City DE Neil Smith lead the team with 12.0 QB takedowns to earn a Pro Bowl nod, while DT Dan Saleaumua also received a Pro Bowl invitation for his efforts.

Hairston originally joined the Chiefs in '94 as a pro scout in the club's player personnel department and also assisted with the defensive line coaching duties during training camp that season. Prior to his time in Kansas City, Hairston spent three seasons ('91-93) as a college scout for the Arizona Cardinals.

One of the finest defensive ends of his era, Hairston enjoyed a stellar 15-year pro playing career. He appeared in 224 NFL contests (184 starts), registering 1,141 tackles and 94.0 sacks. He played eight seasons in Philadelphia ('76-83), six years in Cleveland ('84-89) and one season with Arizona ('90) during his tenure in the league.

Hairston was a member of Philadelphia's Super Bowl XV squad.

A seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) of the Philadelphia Eagles and first-year NFL head coach Dick Vermeil in '76, Hairston went on to start all eight seasons he was in Philadelphia, captaining the defense from '79-83 and racking up 100 or more tackles five straight years ('77-81). In '79, he led the Eagles and the NFC with a career-best 15.0 sacks. A year later, Hairston served as a starting defensive end for Vermeil's Eagles in Super Bowl XV against the Oakland Raiders. In total, the Martinsville, Virginia product participated in 15 career playoff contests, including four conference championship games ('80 NFC, '86 AFC, '87 AFC and '89 AFC).

A four-year starter at linebacker and defensive end at Maryland-Eastern Shore, Hairston earned collegiate All-Conference honors on three occasions and also played one season of basketball.

Education: University of Maryland Eastern Shore (B.A. '85). Born: December 15, 1952 in Martinsville, Virginia. Family: Wife - Cindy; Children - Carl, Jr. and Crystal.

Jeff HURD

Strength and Conditioning

9th Year NFL Coach • 6th with Chiefs

Jeff Hurd is in his sixth campaign as Kansas City's head strength and conditioning coach. A member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Hurd owns 20 years of experience in the health and fitness field. He joined the Chiefs in '98 after spending the previous three seasons ('95-97) as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars under head coach Tom Coughlin.

In his position with the Chiefs, Hurd is responsible for overseeing one of the league's most highly-attended NFL off-season conditioning programs which puts an emphasis on not only improving strength and cardiovascular endurance, but also enhancing speed and flexibility. He also supervises the club's personalized in-season training regiment designed to maintain those off-season gains.

The 45-year-old Hurd was already a familiar face in the Chiefs weight room before joining Kansas City's coaching staff on a full-time basis in '98. He worked under the direction of former Chiefs and current San Diego Chargers strength coach Dave Redding for three seasons ('90-92) as a strength and conditioning assistant during training camp and also served as an intern with the Kansas City strength coaches in '93 and '94.

COACHING CAREER

1984	Fort Hays State . . . . . Graduate Assistant
1985-86	Delta State . . . . . Head Strength Coach
1986-87	Clemson . . . . . Asst. Strength & Cond.
1987-93	Western Michigan . . . Head Strength Coach
1994	Tulsa . . . . . Head Strength Coach
1995-98	Jacksonville Jaguars . . Asst. Strength & Cond.
1998-03	Kansas City Chiefs . . . . . Strength & Cond.

Raised in Parker, Arizona, Hurd was a two-year baseball letterman at Imperial Valley Junior College in El Centro, California before transferring to Fort Hays (Kansas) State where he earned two more letters and graduated with a degree in physical education in '81. He also received a master's degree in physical education from Fort Hays with an emphasis in exercise physiology in '84, the same year he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant strength coach for the Tigers. After leaving Fort Hays, Hurd served as the head strength coach for Delta State ('85-86), Western Michigan ('87-93) and Tulsa ('94), in addition to a stint as the assistant strength and conditioning tutor at Clemson ('86-87) before joining the Jaguars in '95.

Education: Fort Hays State University (B.S. '81), (M.S. '84). Born: April 24, 1958 in Pomona, California. Family: Wife - Kathy; Children - Eric, Austin and Audra.

Charlie JOINER

Wide Receivers

17th Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Charlie Joiner brings 34 years of expertise as an NFL player and coach to the Chiefs organization. He embarks on his third season as the club's wide receivers coach in 2003, entering his 17th year as an NFL coach. Prior to joining the Chiefs in 2001, he spent nine seasons ('92-00) coaching wide receivers for the Buffalo Bills. During that span, Buffalo merited six playoff berths, won two AFC Championships and made appearances in Super Bowls XXVII and XXVIII with Joiner on the club's coaching staff.

In Kansas City, Joiner has effectively integrated a number of talented performers into the club's revamped receiving corps, including 2002 free agent signee Johnnie Morton and 2001 mid-season acquisition Eddie Kennison. Kennison developed into a consistent threat for the Chiefs a year ago, leading the team with 906 receiving yards, while former CFL standout Marc Boerigter quickly made the transition to the NFL game, producing a team-high eight TD catches. Former RB Dante Hall also continued to hone his skills as a wide receiver under Joiner, giving the Chiefs another explosive pass-catching target.

COACHING CAREER
1987-91	San Diego Chargers	Wide Receivers
1992-00	Buffalo Bills	Wide Receivers
2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Wide Receivers

Two of Joiner's star pupils during his nine-year stay in Buffalo were Eric Moulds and Andre Reed. Moulds earned a pair of Pro Bowl appearances under Joiner's guidance, getting his initial bid in '98 when he recorded 67 catches for a team-record 1,368 yards and nine TDs. In 2000, he was selected to his second Pro Bowl after breaking Reed's single-season reception record with 94 catches for 1,326 yards and five scores. Reed, who played with Buffalo from '85-99, holds Bills career records for receptions (941), receiving yards (13,095) and receiving TDs (86). He ranks second in NFL history behind only Jerry Rice in both receptions and seasons with 50 or more catches (13).

Prior to joining the Bills, Joiner served five seasons ('87-91) as the San Diego Chargers receivers coach upon concluding his playing career with the club in '86. In Kansas City he is reunited with Chiefs offensive coordinator Al Saunders, who began his NFL coaching career tutoring Joiner and the rest of the Chargers wideouts in '83. Joiner succeeded Saunders as the club's receivers coach in '87 when Saunders was promoted to head coach during the midpoint of Joiner's final campaign as a player in '86.

Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '96.

Among the WRs tutored by Joiner in San Diego was Anthony Miller, who earned back-to-back Pro Bowl berths following the '89 and '90 seasons. Miller enjoyed one of the finest campaigns of his 10-year NFL career under Joiner in '89, hauling in 75 passes for a career-high 1,252 yards and 10 TDs for the Chargers.

An 18-year NFL playing veteran, Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '96 following a career which included stints with Houston ('69-72), Cincinnati ('72-75) and San Diego ('76-86). He played in 239 career regular season contests, the most ever by an NFL wide receiver. He also saw action in nine career postseason contests, including the '80 and '81 AFC Championship Games. He ended his career with 750 catches for 12,146 yards and 65 TDs. Joiner earned Pro Bowl honors following the '76, '79 and '80 seasons. He was named the Chargers Most Inspirational Player seven times and was twice honored by the City of San Diego on "Charlie Joiner Day" in '84 and '86.

Joiner produced four 1,000-yard seasons during his tenure in San Diego and topped the 70-catch barrier three straight seasons from '79-81. Part of one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history, Joiner's biggest years came in the heyday of the "Air Coryell" offense playing along with fellow Pro Football Hall of Famers QB Dan Fouts and TE Kellen Winslow, as well as fellow Pro Bowl WRs, Wes Chandler and John Jefferson.

The Many, Louisiana native was a four-year letterman at Grambling from '65-68. He was selected in the fourth round of the '69 draft by Houston as a defensive back and was traded to Cincinnati midway through the '72 campaign for RBs Fred Willis and Paul Robinson. He was traded to San Diego in '76 in exchange for DE Coy Bacon. Joiner was inducted into the Louisiana Hall of Fame in '90 and was officially enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 27, 1996, becoming just the 13th post-World War II receiver to be honored in Canton.

Education: Grambling State (B.A. '69). Born: October 14, 1947 in Many, Louisiana. Family: Wife - Dianne; Children - Jynaya and Kori.

Bob KARMELOWICZ

Defensive Line

12th Year NFL Coach • 7th with Chiefs

Entering his 12th season in the NFL and his 29th year overall in the coaching profession, Bob Karmelowicz begins his seventh campaign as Kansas City's defensive line coach in 2003. Prior to joining the Chiefs staff in '97, he spent three years with the Washington Redskins ('94-96) and two seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93).

A former collegiate nose tackle, Karmelowicz brings a wealth of expertise, as well as a unique and enthusiastic style to his post. Among the many novel coaching techniques utilized by the ever-crafty Karmelowicz is an off-season training regiment which has included the use of the martial arts to enhance the footwork, hand-eye coordination and the leverage abilities of his linemen.

In 2002, the Chiefs defensive front was led by two of Karmelowicz's brightest pupils, DE Eric Hicks and DT John Browning. Hicks led the team with 9.0 sacks and paced the defensive line with 91 tackles. Meanwhile, Browning ranked second on the squad with 7.0 QB takedowns and was second only to Hicks on the defensive line with 71 stops.

Karmelowicz has played a large role in the ongoing development of both Hicks and Browning. After joining the Chiefs as a rookie free agent in '98, Hicks started all 16 games for the club at right defensive end in '99. Under Karmelowicz's guidance in 2000, the Maryland product made another substantial leap. Despite missing five starts due to a knee injury, the upstart defensive end still ranked sixth in the NFL with a team-high 14.0 sacks, the seventh-highest single-season total in Chiefs history. Despite facing a host of injuries during his career, Browning has likewise enjoyed his most productive campaigns under Karmelowicz. In addition to his 2002 numbers, Browning produced 6.0 sacks and 71 tackles for the Chiefs in 2000, a remarkable feat considering he started at all four defensive line positions during the course of that season.

COACHING CAREER

1975-79	Arizona State	Offensive Line
1980	Massachusetts	Offensive Line
1981	Texas-El Paso	Offensive Line
1982	UNLV	Defensive Line
1983-86	Illinois	Defensive Line ('83-85) Offensive Line ('86)
1987-88	Washington State	Defensive Line
1989-91	Miami (Fla.)	Defensive Line
1992-93	Cincinnati Bengals	Defensive Line
1994-96	Washington Redskins	Defensive Line
1997-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Line

In 2001, Karmelowicz was credited with rapidly assimilating rookie DT Eric Downing into the lineup. After Browning was lost to injury just six games into the season, Downing responded by starting the club's final nine games - the highest tally by a Chiefs rookie defensive tackle since '84 - and would go on to win the club's Mack Lee Hill Award. In addition to Downing, Karmelowicz is also highly regarded for molding other young players into productive performers such as former Chiefs DT Tom Barndt, who started 40 games for Kansas City from '97-99 after originally being drafted by the club as an offensive line prospect in '95.

Impressive play on the defensive line has long been a Kansas City trademark. That production was evident when Karmelowicz's corps helped the Chiefs produce 51.0 sacks in 2000, an improvement of 11.0 QB takedowns from the previous year. The Chiefs defensive line was responsible for 40.0 of those sacks, matching the total produced by the entire team in '99, an amazing accomplishment considering the rash of injuries on the club's defensive front in 2000. Those 51.0 sacks also ranked fourth in the NFL and were the third-highest tally in Kansas City history. The Chiefs have produced two of the three highest single-season sack counts in team history during Karmelowicz's tenure, totaling 54.0 sacks in '97, in addition to the 51.0 the club produced in 2000.

In his initial season with the Chiefs in '97, the club's revamped defensive front coached by Karmelowicz was a key element of NFL's stingiest scoring defense. The club racked up 54.0 sacks, the second-highest total in franchise history, a figure which also tied for third-best mark in the league. That pass rush was led by Dan Williams who paced the team with a career best 10.5 sacks in just his first year with the club. The team improved in stuffing the run as well in '97, yielding just 101.3 yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and seventh in the league.

Karmelowicz has traditionally maximized the talents at his disposal, something he has done in his previous coaching assignments. In three seasons with Washington ('94-96), he worked with the likes of DT Sean Gilbert and DE Ritchie Owens, who led the Redskins with 11.0 sacks in '96, just his second pro campaign. During his three years ('89-91) coaching the defensive line at the University of Miami (Fla.), he helped produce a pair of top-three overall draft picks in Russell Maryland (first overall in '91) and Cortez Kennedy (third overall in '90). His defensive line was also a key link in a Hurricanes squad which led the nation in total defense in '89 and topped the country in scoring defense in '91.

The Plainville, Connecticut product began his career in the professional ranks with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93) after spending 16 seasons on the collegiate level. Prior to his three years at Miami, Karmelowicz enjoyed stints at Massachusetts ('80), Texas-El Paso ('81), Illinois ('82-86) and Washington State ('87-88). A three-year starter and a consensus Little All-America nose tackle at the University of Bridgeport, Karmelowicz began his coaching career under Frank Kush at Arizona State in '75 and went on to spend five seasons ('75-79) with the Sun Devils.

Education: Arizona State University (M.A. '77); University of Bridgeport (B.A. '72). Born: New Britain, Connecticut. Family: Wife - Olga; Children - Liz, Marissa and Dave.

Billy LONG

Asst. Strength and Conditioning

3rd Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Entering his third full season in the NFL, Billy Long serves as the Chiefs assistant strength and conditioning coach. Long assists Jeff Hurd in the implementation of Kansas City's year-round conditioning and training regiment. He came to the Chiefs in 2001 following a nine-year stay ('92-00) at Southern University where he served as the school's strength and conditioning coach and also coached the club's offensive line.

Prior to coming to Kansas City, Long served as a longtime consultant to the St. Louis Rams organization. He originally worked with the club as the team's minority coaching intern in '94 and served as a consultant to the club starting in '95, working primarily during the club's training camp held at Western Illinois University in Macomb, Illinois. His arrival in Kansas City reunited Long with Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil, who served as the Rams head coach from '97-99.

While working with the Rams, Long became a mainstay in the locker room and was credited with initiating the "Gotta go to work!" mantra, which became a battle cry for the Rams during their Super Bowl XXXIV championship season in '99. In addition to his training camp assistance, Long frequently traveled to St. Louis to help the team prepare prior to regular season contests.

Owning 20 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, Long spent four years serving as the strength and conditioning coordinator and coaching the offensive line at Arkansas - Pine Bluff from '87-91. A collegiate guard at Alabama State, Long began his coaching career at his alma mater in '81, serving as defensive line coach and as the club's strength and conditioning coach. From '82-86 he coached the offensive line in addition to his weight room duties with Alabama State.

Education: Alabama State University (B.S. '81). Born: June 23, 1959 in Phenix City, Alabama. Family: Wife - Marshelle; Children - Tekia and Kyler.

Keith ROWEN

Tight Ends

20th Year NFL Coach • 5th with Chiefs

Entering his 20th season in the NFL ranks and his 29th year in the coaching profession, Keith Rowen enters his fifth season as the Chiefs tight ends coach in 2003. Rowen came to Kansas City in '99 after spending the previous two years as the offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders.

While Rowen has a long history of tutoring blocking skills in the NFL, he has also shown a propensity for getting pass-catching production out of the tight end position. By far the brightest pass receiver this veteran coach has tutored is Chiefs TE Tony Gonzalez, who has enjoyed four consecutive Pro Bowl campaigns, all of which have come under Rowen's guidance.

A consensus All-Pro selection the past four years, Gonzalez tied for the NFL lead among TEs with seven TD catches in 2002 and joined FB Kimble Anders as the only other player in team history to register five consecutive seasons with 50 or more receptions. In 2001, he led the club in receptions for a third straight year and tied for the NFL lead among TEs with 73 receptions, while his 917 receiving yards led the Chiefs and were the best total by any TE in the league.

In 2000, Gonzalez earned his second starting role in the Pro Bowl after shattering the franchise single-season record with 93 receptions and amassing 1,203 receiving yards, the most ever by a Chiefs tight end, the fourth-highest total by a TE in NFL annals and the fourth-best mark of any Kansas City player. Gonzalez also established an NFL record for tight ends in 2000 by producing six 100-yard receiving games, a mark which tied as the most ever by any Chiefs receiver. The '97 first-round draft choice became the first-ever Chiefs TE to receive a Pro Bowl invitation in '99 when he caught 76 passes, the second-highest total by any player in Kansas City annals. Gonzalez's 11 TD catches in '99 ranked just one shy of the franchise single-season record, as well.

1999-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Tight Ends

During his two seasons with the Raiders, the 50-year-old Rowen helped rejuvenate Oakland's ground game, as running back Napoleon Kaufman racked up 2,215 yards those two years, including a career-high 1,294 yards in '97, while guard Steve Wisniewski earned a Pro Bowl berth under his tutelage that same year.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rowen spent three years as an offensive line coach with the Minnesota Vikings from '94-96 and three seasons ('91-93) in that same capacity with the Atlanta Falcons. During Rowen's three-year tenure with the Vikings, G Randall McDaniel earned All-Pro honors and started in three Pro Bowls. He was also instrumental in the development of future Vikings Pro Bowl offensive linemen Jeff Christy and Todd Steussie. In '91, Falcons T Chris Hinton received Pro Bowl recognition under Rowen's tutelage after receiving that same honor four straight seasons ('85-88) with Rowen serving as the offensive line/special teams coach for the Indianapolis Colts. In '90, Rowen also coached special teams for the Falcons, whose specialty units ranked as the best in the league by The Dallas Morning News. During his first stint as an NFL tight ends coach with New England in '89, Rowen helped rookie TE Eric Sievers from Maryland lead the Patriots in receiving with 54 catches.

The New York, New York native began his pro career as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the USFL's Boston/New Orleans Breakers for two seasons ('83-84). He then entered the NFL ranks in '84 as the running backs coach for the Cleveland Browns, where he worked with current Chiefs defensive assistant/quality control coach Darvin Wallis.

A three-year letterman as a tackle at Stanford from '72-74, Rowen earned All-America honors during his senior campaign. Rowen then began his coaching career at his alma mater in '75 as the team's assistant defensive line coach. After a two-year stint ('75-76) at Stanford, Rowen moved to Long Beach State as the offensive line coach for two years ('77-78) before spending the '79-82 seasons in that same capacity at the University of Arizona.

An 11th-round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in '75, Rowen remained with the Eagles until that year's final cut before beginning his coaching career at Stanford. An academic All-America at Stanford, Rowen earned a master's degree from that institution in '77 and also holds a doctorate in athletic administration from the University of Southern California. He comes from a football background as his father, Vic, served as the longtime head football coach at San Francisco State.

Education: University of Southern California (Ph.D. '80), Stanford University (M.A. '77), (B.S. '75). Born: September 2, 1952 in New York, New York. Family: Wife - Kimberly; Children - Mandee, Holly and Kelly.

James SAXON

Running Backs

4th Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Former Chiefs running back James Saxon begins his fourth season as an NFL coach in 2003 as he embarks on his third year of tutoring Kansas City's running backs. Entering his sixth season of coaching overall, Saxon spent 2000 as the running backs coach of the Buffalo Bills. He returned to Kansas City in 2001 after enjoying a four-year playing career with the club from '88-91.

Saxon's return to the Chiefs in a coaching capacity has coincided with the emergence of RB Priest Holmes as one of the NFL's finest all-purpose performers. The only running back in Kansas City history to construct back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons, Holmes has earned two straight Pro Bowl appearances under Saxon's guidance and was named the 2002 NFL Offensive Player of the Year by Associated Press. Holmes broke his own single-season franchise record with 1,615 rushing yards in 2002 after becoming just the second player in team history to lead the league in rushing with 1,555 ground yards the previous season. Ironically, Saxon also had a hand in Christian Okoye's league-leading rushing effort in '89, serving as the lead blocker for Okoye — the franchise's all-time leading rusher — who paced the NFL with a then-team record 1,480 ground yards.

COACHING CAREER

1997-98	Rutgers	Running Backs
1999	Menlo College	Volunteer Assistant
2000	Buffalo Bills	Running Backs
2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Running Backs

However, Holmes' performance hasn't been limited to just rushing superiority while working under Saxon. In 2002, Holmes broke 10 different Chiefs single-season records and led the team with 70 receptions, the most ever by a Kansas City running back. Last season Holmes also accumulated 2,287 yards from scrimmage, the fourth-highest total in NFL history. He also racked up 24 total touchdowns and 21 rushing scores, tallies which each tied as the third-best single-season marks in league annals. Behind Holmes and FB Tony Richardson, Kansas City finished the season third in the NFL in rushing, producing 148.6 yards per game. The club also averaged 5.15 yards per rushing play, the second-best figure in the NFL in 2002 and the second-highest average in team history.

Prior to joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Saxon began his NFL coaching career on a full-time basis with Buffalo in 2000. He originally joined the Bills in '99 as part of the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Coaching Fellowship, which is designed to give deserving minority coaches the opportunity to gain pro coaching experience. Saxon served in a similar training camp capacity with the Chiefs in '98.

Saxon won the Mack Lee Hill Award as a rookie in '88.

Prior to entering the pro ranks, Saxon coached the running backs at Rutgers from '97-98, where current Chiefs quarterbacks coach Terry Shea served as head coach at the time. While with the Scarlet Knights, Saxon mentored RB Jackie Crooks who finished his career as the fifth-leading rusher in school history (2,434 yards). In '99, Saxon served as an volunteer assistant at Menlo College in Atherton, California, before joining the Bills.

An eight-year NFL playing veteran, Saxon was drafted in the sixth round (139th overall) of the '88 draft by the Chiefs. As a rookie with Kansas City, he made an immediate impact and received the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award, which is bestowed annually to the team's top rookie or first-year performer. With the Chiefs ('88-91), Saxon played in 54 games (six starts), rushing 127 times for 497 yards with five TDs. He also accumulated 37 receptions for 323 yards and had 14 kickoff returns for 193 yards with Kansas City.

Saxon joined Miami as a "Plan B" free agent in '92. In three seasons with the Dolphins ('92-94), he played in 48 games (seven starts), registering 17 carries for 36 yards to go with 32 catches for 192 yards. He also amassed 24 tackles on special teams for the Dolphins. He returned to the Chiefs for training camp in '95, but was acquired by Philadelphia prior to the start of the regular season and played in nine contests for the Eagles.

During the course of his 111-game NFL career, the versatile Saxon was utilized as a fullback, halfback, receiver, blocker, kickoff returner and special teams coverage man. He concluded his career with 533 rushing yards on 145 carries with five TDs while also hauling in 69 receptions for 515 yards.

A native of Beaufort, South Carolina, Saxon was an honorable mention All-America fullback at San Jose State, where he produced 118 carries for 609 yards and nine TDs, as well as 78 receptions for 732 yards and four scores. He also threw four TD passes and returned 22 kickoffs. Saxon was a prep standout at Battery Creek High School in Burton, South Carolina before entering the collegiate ranks.

Education: San Jose State. Born: March 23, 1966 in Beaufort, South Carolina. Family: Wife - Shannon; Child - Devin.

Terry SHEA

Quarterbacks

3rd Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Owning an extensive offensive resume with 34 years of coaching experience, Terry Shea embarks on his third season as Kansas City's quarterbacks coach in 2003. Shea comes from the offensive school of Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Walsh and has been particularly adept at grooming players at the quarterback position during his distinguished coaching career. Thanks to the efforts of Shea in 2002, the Chiefs completed 61.21% of the their passes (292 of 477), breaking the previous franchise single-season record which had stood since '62.

Those numbers were due in large part to the play of QB Trent Green, who continued to flourish under Shea's tutelage. Green threw a career-high 26 TD passes and led the NFL in both TD percentage (5.5) and yards per attempt (7.85). The Chiefs signal-caller owned five contests with a rating of 100.0 or better on the season and finished the year with a 92.6 rating, the fifth-highest mark in team annals.

During his collegiate coaching career, Shea was instrumental in the tutelage of numerous signal-callers who went on to enjoy productive NFL careers. Shea's most recent collegiate pupils playing in the NFL are San Francisco's three-time Pro Bowl QB Jeff Garcia, who played for Shea at San Jose State in '90-91 and Detroit's Mike McMahon, who played for Shea during his tenure at Rutgers.

In total, Shea owns a total of seven seasons of experience as a collegiate head coach. He came to Kansas City in 2001 after spending five years ('96-00) as the head coach at Rutgers University. He also served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Scarlet Knights. In '98, he was named the Big East Coach of the Year after orchestrating the second-biggest one-year turnaround in NCAA Division I history by taking a team which finished 0-11 in '97 and producing a 5-6 mark just a year later.

COACHING CAREER

1968-69	Oregon ..... Graduate Assistant
1970-75	Mt. Hood C.C. ..... Passing Game Secondary/Special Teams
1976-81	Utah State ..... DBs/Special Teams ('76-77) Quarterbacks/WRs ('78-79) Offensive Coordinator ('80-81)
1984-86	San Jose State ..... Offensive Coordinator
1987-89	California ..... Offensive Coordinator
1990-91	San Jose State ..... Head Coach
1992-94	Stanford ... Assoc. Head Coach/Off. Coord.
1995	British Columbia Lions (CFL) .... QBs/RBs
1996-00	Rutgers ..... Head Coach
2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs ..... Quarterbacks

Prior to a one-year stint with the CFL's British Columbia Lions in '95, Shea spent three seasons ('92-94) as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator under head coach Bill Walsh at Stanford. In Shea's initial season with the Cardinal, Stanford won its first conference title since '71 and earned a berth in the '93 Blockbuster Bowl against Penn State. The Cardinal would go on to conclude the year with a 10-3 mark, the first 10-win season the institution had seen since '40, thanks in large part to Shea's offensive unit which produced a 24-3 postseason victory over the Nittany Lions.

Shea joined the Cardinal after his two-year head coaching stint at San Jose State from '90-91 where he compiled a 15-6-2 record and led the school to a pair of Big West titles. In his initial year as head coach at San Jose State in '90, he guided the team to a 9-2-1 record and was named Pro Football Weekly's "National Coach of the Year." Shea is part of a distinguished list of Chiefs peronnel with connections to San Jose State, where head coach Dick Vermeil played QB from '56-58, V.P. of Football Operations/Player Personnel Lynn Stiles served as head coach from '76-78 and assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders played wide receiver and defensive from '66-69.

Shea had previously served as offensive coordinator at San Jose State from '84-86. In '86, his Spartan offense led the nation in both total offense and passing offense. Between his stints at San Jose State, he spent three years ('87-89) as the offensive coordinator at the University of California under head coach Bruce Snyder.

The San Mateo, California native began his Division I coaching career at Utah State and coached the secondary, special teams, quarterbacks and receivers during his tenure with that team from '76-81. Two of his star QBs at Utah State were Eric Hipple and Bob Gagliano who each went on to pursue NFL playing careers. Shea joined Utah State after a six-year stint at Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham, Oregon from '70-75, where he coached the passing game, the secondary and special teams.

Shea served as a college quarterback at the University of Oregon from '65-67. Following his graduation, he inaugurated his coaching career with a two-year tour of duty ('68-69) as a graduate assistant for the Ducks. He is also credited with authoring "The Quarterback" and producing an instructional video, "The Making of a Quarterback."

Education: University of Oregon (B.S. '68), (M.A. '70). Born: June 12, 1946 in San Mateo, California. Family: Wife - Susan; Children - Jennifer, Garrett and Daniel.

Mike SOLARI

Offensive Line

15th Year NFL Coach • 7th with Chiefs

Entering his 15th season as an NFL coach, Mike Solari begins his seventh campaign in Kansas City guiding the Chiefs offensive line. The 48-year-old Solari joined the club in '97 after spending the previous five seasons as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers.

Solari works in close conjunction with offensive coordinator Al Saunders in developing and implementing Kansas City's game plans in the running game, a collaboration which has paid tremendous dividends the past two seasons. Kansas City averaged 148.6 rushing yards per game in 2002 to rank third in the NFL after posting 125.5 ground yards per game to rank sixth in that department in 2001. Those gaudy totals were due in large part to Solari's well-schooled offensive front which included a pair of eight-time Pro Bowl blockers in G Will Shields and T Willie Roaf. Led by that duo, Kansas City's offensive line created holes for two-time Pro Bowl RB Priest Holmes, who won the NFL's rushing crown with 1,555 yards in 2001 and topped that total with a Chiefs single-season record 1,615 rushing yards in 2002.

Anchored by Solari's offensive front in 2002, Kansas City led the NFL in scoring with a franchise-record 467 points and averaged 375.0 yards per game to rank second in the league in total offense, while permitting just 26.0 sacks. The Chiefs also averaged 5.15 yards per rushing play, the second-best mark in the NFL and the second-highest total in team history. Making those accomplishments even more impressive was the fact that Kansas City's blocking corps boasted a revamped tackle tandem with Roaf starting at left tackle and John Tait making the move to the right side.

COACHING CAREER

1977	Mission Bay HS (CA)	Offensive Line
1978	Mira Costa Junior College	Offensive Line
1979	U.S. International	Offensive Line
1980	Boise State	Offensive Line
1981-82	Cincinnati	Offensive Line
1983-85	Kansas	Offensive Line
1986	Pittsburgh	Off. Line/Offensive Coordinator
1987-88	Dallas Cowboys	Asst. Off. Line/Special Teams
1989	Phoenix Cardinals	Offensive Line
1990-91	Alabama	Offensive Line
1992-96	San Francisco 49ers	TEs/Asst. Off. Line
1997-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Line

Maintaining consistency despite constant changes in personnel and offensive emphasis has been one of Solari's trademarks since coming to Kansas City. In 2001, the Chiefs averaged 354.6 yards of total offense per game to rank third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL with a new center in Casey Wiegmann and a pair of other starters - LG Brian Waters and RT Marcus Spears - who did the majority of their work at positions other than the ones where they opened the year.

Through the years, Kansas City's offensive line has been flexible enough to adapt no matter the circumstances under Solari's direction. Despite having just one running back record over 100 yards in a single game in '99, Kansas City ranked fourth in the league in rushing with 130.1 yards per game and led the NFL in rushing attempts (521). In large part, those numbers were testimony to Solari's troops who toiled on the Chiefs offensive front.

Whether it has been establishing the ground game or protecting the passer, Kansas City's offensive trenchmen have thrived in both areas under Solari. Since he joined the club in '97, the Chiefs have permitted an average of just 31.1 sacks each season and have ranked among the league's top five clubs in rushing on three occasions ('97, '99 and '02).

In addition to coaching perennial Pro Bowlers such as Shields and Roaf, Solari has also been responsible for tutoring other highly-decorated Kansas City offensive linemen. In '99, veteran Tim Grunhard became the first Chiefs center to earn a Pro Bowl nod since Jack Rudnay in '77, while Dave Szott received All-Pro recognition following the '97 campaign.

In '98, Solari's offensive linemen captured all of the Chiefs most prestigious individual awards, a major feat considering that the unit saw its line-up shuffled significantly several times due to injuries. Shields was Kansas City's only Pro Bowl selection, while Glenn Parker started at three different offensive line positions to merit team MVP honors and T Victor Riley earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award which goes to the Chiefs top first-year performer.

During his tenure in San Francisco, Solari was largely responsible for assisting in the emergence of Brent Jones as one of the league's preeminent tight ends. During his stay with the 49ers ('92-96), Jones made four Pro Bowl appearances and set a franchise record for receptions by a tight end with 68 catches in '93. As a member of San Francisco's coaching staff in '94, Solari helped the 49ers offense amass 31.2 points per game during the regular season, the sixth-highest tally in NFL history.

The club upped that average to 43.7 points per game in the playoffs, en route to a 49-26 victory over San Diego in Super Bowl XXIX.

Solari began his NFL coaching career with a two-year stint under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys ('87-88) where he served as an assistant offensive line and special teams coach. In '89, he joined Gene Stallings' staff as the offensive line coach with the Phoenix Cardinals and then moved on with Stallings for two seasons at the University of Alabama before beginning his tour of duty with the 49ers in '92. He initially embarked on his coaching career at Mission Bay (Cal.) High School in '76, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College ('78) and U.S. International ('79). He joined Boise State in '80 and helped lead the Broncos to the NCAA Division I-AA championship. After stints at the University of Cincinnati ('81-82) and Kansas ('83-85), Solari spent one season as the offensive coordinator at Pitt ('86) before joining the NFL ranks.

Education: San Diego State University (B.A. '76). Born: January 16, 1955 in Daly City, California. Family: Wife - Patti; Children - Tamara, Stephanie and Michael.

Jason VERDUZCO

Offensive Assistant

4th Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Jason Verduzco embarks on his third season with the Chiefs in 2003 and his fourth year as an NFL coach after serving as an offensive assistant for the Washington Redskins in 2000. Verduzco spent his first two seasons as an offensive assistant/quality control coach with Kansas City before taking on an expanded role in 2003.

Verduzco works in close conjunction with assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders on a year-round basis in devising and implementing the club's gameplan in the passing game. He also assists receivers coach Charlie Joiner with coaching the Chiefs wideouts and serves as the club's coach-to-quarterback communicator on gamedays. In addition to those duties, he continues to provide analysis and self-scouting of the club's offense. He also compiles research on Kansas City's offensive efficiency and tendencies.

COACHING CAREER

1994-96	Hamilton College (N.Y.)	Offensive Coordinator
1997-99	Illinois	Defensive Backs
2000	Washington Redskins	Offensive Assistant
2001-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Offensive Assistant

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, the 33-year-old Verduzco spent six seasons as a coach on the collegiate level, including a three-year stint from '97-99 as a defensive assistant at his alma mater, the University of Illinois. Verduzco assisted head coach Ron Turner's staff which inherited an 0-11 program and quickly transformed them into '99 MicronPC.com Bowl champions with a 63-21 victory against Virginia. Verduzco joined the Fighting Illini coaching staff following a three-year stay as the offensive coordinator at New York's Hamilton College ('94-96).

Verduzco, who spent his prep career at Antioch (California) High School, played one season at quarterback for the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions ('93) after a stellar four-year career as the signal caller for Illinois ('89-92), where he led the Fighting Illini to a 30-17-1 record. At the conclusion of his college career, Verduzco ranked second in the Illini annals in pass attempts (1,083), completions (678), passing yards (7,532) and TDs (42) trailing only Jack Trudeau. With Verduzco at the controls of the Illinois offense, the Illini participated in four consecutive bowl games ('90 Florida Citrus, '91 Hall of Fame, '91 John Hancock and '92 Holiday Bowl).

During his senior campaign in '92, Verduzco was named second-team All-Big Ten while taking home Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honors twice. An honorable mention All-America selection by Football News, Verduzco ended his career as just the eighth player in Big Ten history to top the 7,000-yard plateau in career passing yards. Upon graduation from Illinois in '93, Verduzco ranked sixth on the Big Ten's all-time passing list, just behind Ohio State's Art Schlichter (7,547).

Education: Illinois (B.A. '93). Born: April 3, 1970 in Walnut Creek, California. Family: Single.

HALL OF FAME SELECTION PROCESS

Q: Is a new Hall of Fame Member enshrined as a member of a team?
A: When elected to the Pro Football HOF, an individual is recognized for his career accomplishments. As such, an enshrinee is not asked to "declare," nor does the Hall of Fame "choose" a team under which a new member is enshrined.

Joe VITT

Linebackers

25th Year NFL Coach • 4th with Chiefs

Entering his 25th season of service as an NFL coach, Joe Vitt returns for his fourth season as the Chiefs linebackers coach in 2003. He joined Kansas City in 2000 after spending the '99 campaign coaching defensive backs for the Green Bay Packers.

The 49-year-old Vitt has helped continue the Chiefs long tradition of production from the linebacker position. Vitt is credited with aiding the rapid rise of Mike Maslowski, who vaulted into the starting lineup in 2000 and earned a spot on USA Today's All-Joe team before being slowed by a knee injury in 2001. In 2002, Maslowski returned with a vengeance, breaking Gary Spani's single-season franchise record with 162 tackles and earning AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors in a 20-10 win vs. Oakland (10/27). Fifth-round draft choice Scott Fujita also burst onto the scene under Vitt's tutelage, breaking into the starting lineup midway through the 2002 season and earning the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award presented annually to the team's top rookie or first-year performer.

COACHING CAREER

1979-81	Baltimore Colts	Strength
1982-91	Seattle Seahawks	Strength ('82)
		Defensive Backs ('83-91)
1992-94	L.A. Rams	Asst. Head Coach/DBs
1995-98	Philadelphia Eagles	Linebackers
1999	Green Bay Packers	Defensive Backs
2000-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Linebackers

But turning young players into immediate contributors is nothing new for Vitt. Given a trio of rookie cornerbacks (Antuan Edwards, Fred Vinson and Mike McKenzie) and a starting free safety in just his third pro campaign (Darren Sharper) to work with in Green Bay in '99, Vitt helped the Packers youthful secondary mature quickly. McKenzie, a third-round draft choice, quickly earned a starting spot and led the club with six interceptions and 18 passes defensed, while Sharper paced the Packers with 113 tackles. The development of those performers in the secondary was a key reason Green Bay ranked third in the NFC with 26 interceptions, a figure which doubled the club's '98 total of a mere 13 pickoffs.

Vitt is no stranger to getting solid play out of the linebacker post, either. Prior to joining the Packers, he served four seasons ('95-98) as linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. During the '98 campaign, his linebacking corps helped the Eagles become the league's top pass defense, permitting an NFL-low 170.0 passing yards per game. In his first season with Philadelphia in '95, he oversaw the development of linebacker William Thomas, who produced seven interceptions, was named the club's defensive MVP and earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Under Vitt's continued guidance, Thomas returned to the Pro Bowl the following year and received team defensive MVP honors the next two seasons.

From '92-94, Vitt served as assistant head coach/secondary coach for the Los Angeles Rams under head coach Chuck Knox. He joined the Rams after accruing 10 seasons of AFC West coaching experience with Seattle. He began his tenure with the Seahawks as the club's strength coach in '82 before spending the next nine years ('83-91) as Seattle's secondary coach. During that nine-year span, the Seahawks made four playoff appearances as S Kenny Easley and CB Dave Brown each earned Pro Bowl nods under Vitt's jurisdiction.

Vitt originally entered the NFL ranks as a strength coach with the Baltimore Colts under Ted Marchibroda in '79 and spent two more years with the Colts before joining the Seahawks in '82. A collegiate linebacker at Towson University, Vitt played four seasons with the Tigers before embarking on his pro coaching career.

Education: Towson University (B.A. '78). Born: August 23, 1954 in Syracuse, New York. Family: Wife - Linda; Children - Joe Jr. and Jennifer.

Darvin WALLIS

Defensive Asst./Quality Control

22nd Year NFL Coach • 15th with Chiefs

Darvin Wallis, a 32-year coaching veteran, is now in his 15th year of service with the Chiefs as a defensive assistant/quality control coach. Wallis owns 22 years of NFL coaching experience, all of which have been spent in the AFC. He has also been a member of 12 playoff teams (seven with Kansas City and five with Cleveland), the most postseason appearances of any current member of the Kansas City coaching staff. Wallis joins former Chiefs assistants Tom Pratt (21 years), Tom Bettis (13 years) and Kurt Schottenheimer (12 years) as one of only four assistant coaches in Chiefs history to serve more than one full decade with the club. Wallis has served in his present role with the Chiefs since '89. In addition, Wallis was one of only 19 coaches in NFL history to work for a team in all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City produced a 102-58 record from '90-99.

COACHING CAREER

1972	Wilcox HS (AZ)	Assistant Coach
1973-75	Ajo HS (AZ)	Head Coach
1976-77	Adams State College	Offensive Line
1978-79	Tulane	Offensive Line/Strength
1980-81	Mississippi	Tight Ends/Tackles
1982-88	Cleveland Browns	Defensive Assistant/ Quality Control
1989-03	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Assistant/ Quality Control

Wallis carries out a myriad of responsibilities in his role with the Chiefs. In addition to assisting with the club's defensive backs, he is also charged with the team's defensive game analysis, where he compiles comprehensive weekly scouting reports on opposing offenses including a complete breakdown of their formations, schemes, concepts and tendencies based on hours of research and video study. Wallis also serves as the club's defensive quality control coordinator where his duties include self-scouting, the organization of computer data, as well as the design and analysis of video cut-ups. He is also responsible for special research projects in addition to compiling the club's comprehensive defensive playbook on an annual basis. Before joining the Chiefs, the 54-year-old Wallis served in a similar capacity for seven years under Marty Schottenheimer with the Cleveland Browns ('82-88) before coming to Kansas City in '89.

BILL KUHARICH
VICE PRESIDENT OF PRO PERSONNEL

Bill Kuharich, regarded as one of the most respected evaluators of talent in the NFL, was promoted to Vice President of Pro Personnel in May of 2003 by Chiefs President Carl Peterson. Kuharich joined the Chiefs as Director of Pro Personnel in 2000 after spending 14 seasons with the New Orleans Saints. He spent his last three seasons with the Saints as that club's President, General Manager and Chief Operating Officer. Kuharich oversees Kansas City's scouting of all players with professional experience, including NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League, as well as the NFL and all other professional leagues.

The 50-year-old Skokie, Illinois native owns 18 years of pro football experience. Kuharich previously worked with Chiefs President Carl Peterson in the USFL and also learned the trade from the late Pro Football Hall of Famer Jim Finks in New Orleans.

Kuharich began his career under Peterson with the USFL's Philadelphia Stars in '83 and was promoted to Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Personnel the following year. During the league's three-year existence, the Stars compiled a 48-13-1 overall record, made three championship game appearances and won two league titles.

In '86, he began his tenure under Finks with New Orleans as Director of Player Personnel, serving in that role until '93. Finks and Kuharich inherited a Saints franchise which had never had a winning season or been to the playoffs, and proceeded to construct a squad which earned four postseason berths over a six-year span from '87-92. Kuharich later served as New Orleans' Vice President of Football Operations ('94-95) and Executive Vice President/General Manager ('96) before being named the franchise's top executive in '97.

Kuharich began his football career as a graduate assistant at Brown in '76 before moving to the University of Hawaii in '77. The following year he went to work for the U.S. Department of Defense, while still serving as a volunteer assistant at Georgetown. In '79 he returned to coaching at St. Lawrence. He also served as an assistant at Columbia from '80-81 before joining Peterson in the USFL.

Education: St. Lawrence (M.E. '81), Middlebury College (B.A. '76). Family: Wife - Betsy; Children - Megan, Alexis and Kelli. Kuharich's father, the late Joe Kuharich, served as a college head coach at San Francisco ('48-51), and Notre Dame ('59-62). The elder Kuharich also served as an NFL head coach with the Chicago Cardinals ('52) and Washington Redskins ('54-58), in addition to a stint as the head coach/general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles ('64-68).

JEFF FOSTER
PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Jeffrey Foster enters his fourth year with the Chiefs and his first year as pro personnel assistant after serving two seasons as an area scout. Foster evaluates players with pro experience and serves as the club's advance scout during the NFL season.

Prior to coming to Kansas City, he spent six seasons ('95-00) with the East-West Shrine Game. Foster served his last three years with that organization as Executive-Vice President. As an annual host of one of the nations premier all-star contests, Foster was in charge of all executive decisions as they related to player and personnel selections for a contest which showcases some of the top senior college talent. He helped recruit 43 All-America picks and two Heisman Trophy winners to take part in the game from '96-98.

The Redding, California native joined the Shrine Game after serving as a standout safety for Arizona State ('90-94), where he was an All-Academic Pac 10 selection for the Sun Devils as a senior.

Education: Arizona State University (B.S. '94). Family: Single.

PRO/COLLEGE SCOUT

Jim Criner enters his second year evaluating both college and pro talent. Prior to coming to Kansas City in 2002, he spent one season as the head coach of the XFL's Las Vegas Outlaws and enjoyed a six-year stint as head coach of the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe from '95-00. In '96, he guided the Claymores to a 32-27 World Bowl victory over Frankfort. He also served as the offensive line coach of the World League's Sacramento Surge in '91-92.

Prior to serving as head coach at Iowa State ('83-86), the Lurton, Arkansas native spent a seven-year stint in the same role at Boise State ('76-82) where he guided the Broncos to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship in '80. He previously enjoyed a three-year tenure as an assistant at UCLA in '73-75, serving on head coach Dick Vermeil's staff which also included Carl Peterson and Lynn Stiles.

Before joining the Bruins, he held assistant coaching posts at Utah ('67), Cal State - Hayward ('68), California ('69-71) and BYU ('72). Criner began his coaching career with a four-year stint in the California high school ranks from '63-66.

Education: Cal Poly Pomona (B.A. '63). Family: Wife - Ann; Children - Mark and Kelli.

CHUCK COOK
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Now in his 20th season as a valued member of the Kansas City Chiefs personnel department, Chuck Cook enters his seventh season as the Chiefs Director of College Scouting. He was promoted to that post in May of '97 after serving 13 years as a regional scout for the club, spending the majority of his efforts scouring the country's Southeast region for college talent.

The 43-year-old Andalusia, Alabama native coordinates Kansas City's college scouting efforts with his primary focus being the preparation of the club for the annual NFL draft. Thanks to the efforts of Cook and his scouting staff, the Chiefs have selected an impressive resume of college performers during his tenure, including recent first-round picks RB Larry Johnson (2003), DT Ryan Sims (2002), WR Sylvester Morris (2000) and T John Tait (1999).

Cook originally joined the Chiefs staff in '84 after serving as an offensive assistant with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers ('82-83). He began his coaching career under Al Kincaid at the University of Wyoming in '80 and also worked with the Cowboys in '81. Cook played wide receiver, running back and defensive back at Southern Mississippi. He was in the training camps of both the Giants and Jets prior to embarking on his coaching career. He was inducted into the Southern Miss Hall of Fame in '93. His father, Hamp, served as a longtime scout with the New Orleans Saints.

Education: Southern Mississippi (B.A. '80). Family: Wife - Carla; Children - twin daughters Carley and Cori, and a son, Colby.

BRUCE LEMMERMAN
REGIONAL SCOUT/ SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Bruce Lemmerman enters his fourth season in the Chiefs personnel department. Lemmerman is responsible for evaluating talent in the West region for Kansas City and coordinates the efforts of the club's other college scouts. He joined the Chiefs in 2000 after spending six seasons as Director of College Scouting for the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to his stint with the Saints, Lemmerman served as Director of Operations for the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos from '89-94 after two years with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. He had also previously served as an offensive coach with the Eskimos from '81-82. The Los Angeles native coached receivers, tight ends and offensive backs for the Houston Oilers from '84-85 after serving as offensive coordinator of the USFL's Los Angeles Express in '83.

Also a collegiate baseball standout at California - Northridge, Lemmerman served as a pro quarterback for the Atlanta Falcons ('68-70), as well as Edmonton ('71-79) and Hamilton ('80) in the CFL ranks.

Education: University of California - Northridge (B.A. '68). Family: Wife - Brigette; Children - Lisa and Jennifer.

DON GREGORY
NATIONAL SCOUT

Don Gregory enters his third year with Kansas City and his first as a national scout in the South and Southeast. He joined the Chiefs after serving as the Director of Player Personnel for the XFL's Las Vegas Outlaws in 2001. Prior to the XFL, he worked under former Chargers GM Bobby Beathard as a scout for San Diego ('95-99), evaluating college talent and professional free agents.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Gregory also enjoyed player personnel stops in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos ('86-90, '92-93) and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers ('93-94). He scouted the Northwest for the San Antonio Riders of the World League of American Football (WLAF) from '90-91.

Gregory played collegiately at Wenatchee Valley College ('74-75), Portland State University ('76) and Whitworth College ('77-78). Born January 15, 1956 in Pearl City, Hawaii, Gregory moved to Great Falls, Montana in the sixth grade.

Education: Whitworth College (B.S. '79) Family: Single.

JOHN BONAVENTURA
AREA SCOUT

John Bonaventura enters his second year with the Chiefs evaluating college talent on a national level for the club. Prior to coming to Kansas City, Bonaventura spent the 2001 season as a football administrator for the XFL's Las Vegas Outlaws.

Owning a background in coaching at both the collegiate and high school level, Bonaventura served as an assistant coach at Sweetwater High School in National City, California for three seasons prior to joining the XFL. The Canastota, New York native also served as an assistant at Sonoma State University in Rohnert Park, California from '94-95 and at San Francisco State in '89. A collegiate wide receiver at San Francisco State, Bonaventura also served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Nevada from '90-92.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

BOB MOORE
DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

With 26 years of experience as a publicist, Bob Moore embarks on his 15th season as the Chiefs Director of Public Relations. The Altoona, Pennsylvania native is responsible for coordinating all of the club's public and media relations efforts. He also serves as the team's official spokesperson.

The 55-year-old Moore joined the Chiefs after serving as Vice President of Marketing and Corporate Communications for The Patt Organization, a Pennsylvania-based real estate development firm. From '82-85, Moore was the Director of Public Relations for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the United States Football League. It was there that he began his long association with Carl Peterson - now the President of the Chiefs - and joined Peterson in Kansas City in '89.

Prior to joining the two-time USFL champion Stars, Moore served as the Sports Information Director at both Drexel University ('79-82) in Philadelphia and Saint Francis College (PA) ('76-78). He also acted in a number of capacities for Gettysburg National Military Park ('78-79). Moore is a member of the National Advisory Board of Trustees for The Civil War Preservation Trust, the largest non-profit battlefield preservation organization in the United States, whose goal is to preserve the nation's endangered battlefields. Education: Saint Francis College (B.A. '69). Family: Wife - Maggie; Children - Mandy.

PETE MORIS
ASSOCIATE DIR. OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Now in his 10th season with the Chiefs, Pete Moris was promoted to Associate Director of Public Relations in 2001 after spending two years as Assistant Director. A member of the Chiefs staff since '94, the 31-year-old Moris manages the day-to-day operations of the PR Department.

In addition to facilitating network TV and national media requests, he serves as the editor of the Chiefs Media Guide, NFL Gameday magazine and the club's weekly news release, overseeing all projects from concept to completion. The Mt. Hope, Wisconsin native serves as a columnist for kcchiefs.com, in addition to overseeing research, special projects and other creative needs for the team.

A '93 graduate of Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, with degrees in English - Writing and Speech Communication - Public Relations, Moris was a four-year member of the Duhawk basketball squad, serving as a team captain his senior year. He began his NFL career as an intern with the Indianapolis Colts during their '92 training camp and spent a year in the University of Florida SID office before joining the Chiefs as a public relations intern in '94. Moris and his wife are both affiliated with the Wisconsin Historical Society and are charter members of the Robert B.L. Murphy Society, which benefits the Wisconsin History Foundation. Education: Loras College (B.A. '93). Family: Wife - Lisa.

MORGAN SHAW
MGR. OF PUBLIC INFO./MEDIA SERVICES

Morgan Shaw enters her fourth season as the Chiefs Manager of Public Information/Media Services. The Mobile, Alabama native manages media services for the club and coordinates the department's gameday operations. Prior to joining the Chiefs PR department in 2000, she spent a year as a Sports Marketing Manager with MAI Sports in Kansas City after interning with the Chiefs sales and marketing department in '98. Shaw is currently pursuing her Master's degree at the University of Kansas. Education: University of Nebraska (B.A. '99). Family: Single.

PATRICK HERB
PUBLICATIONS COORDINATOR

Patrick Herb embarks on his third season with the Chiefs. He was named Publications Coordinator in April of 2002 after orginally joining the club as a Seasonal PR Assistant in 2001. The Appleton, Wisconsin product coordinates design and writing elements for team publications, is a contributor to kcchiefs.com and handles media requests. He worked in the Wisconsin SID Office and interned with the Milwaukee Brewers before coming to Kansas City in 2001. Education: University of Wisconsin (B.A. '01). Family: Single.

BRAD KUHBANDER
RESEARCH COORDINATOR

Brad Kuhbander enters his third year in Kansas City PR Department. He was elevated to Research Coordinator in April of 2002 after serving as a Seasonal PR Assistant in 2001. The Hamler, Ohio native handles various research duties, as well as media requests and statistical needs for the club. Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Kuhbander spent a year working in both the University of Florida and Baldwin-Wallace SID Offices. Education: Baldwin-Wallace College (B.A. '00). Family: Single.

CHIEFS PUBLIC RELATIONS AND MEDIA POLICIES

kcchiefs.com: In-depth information on the Kansas City Chiefs for both fans and media can be found at the club's official website at www.kcchiefs.com, which contains weekly news releases, statistics, rosters, depth charts, injury reports, quotes, feature articles and player bios. The site is updated daily during training camp and the regular season.

chiefsmedia.com: This password-protected, media-specific site provides game releases, updated bios, additional stats, practice schedules, credential request forms, press clips and a host of other media information. Registered media users can also download video, audio and transcriptions of most press conferences, segments of the media guide, player photos and weekly media packets. Contact Morgan Shaw for further details.

Home Credential Requests: Only accredited members of the media who cover the Chiefs and the NFL on a regular basis may apply for credentials. ALL credential requests must be made ONLINE at chiefsmedia.com a minimum of one week in advance of the game, including preseason contests. Written credential requests will no longer be accepted. Media should call or email to confirm credentials on Thursdays preceding Sunday games. Failure to utilize an issued credential without notifying the PR department will result in revocation of credential privileges.

Press Will Call: All non-season media MUST pick up their credentials in person at Media Will Call on game day at one of two locations. Photographers and field only media should pick up credentials and enter ONLY through the tunnel located in the SE corner of Lower Lot E. Working Press, Television and Radio members having access to the Loge and Press areas should pick up credentials and enter only through Gate E. Two forms of ID will be required. No exceptions.

Road Credential Requests: If you are a regular member of the Chiefs media corps and wish to cover the team on the road, ALL requests must be submitted to Director of Public Relations Bob Moore no later than one game previous to a road contest. The Chiefs will then place a request to the opponent the Monday prior to a Sunday road game. Note that opponent credential availability may be limited.

Interview Requests: Associate Director of Public Relations Pete Moris coordinates all network TV and national media requests. Brad Kuhbander handles print interviews and Patrick Herb of the Chiefs PR staff handles radio requests. ALL radio requests must be made via fax or email, including names of producers and talent, studio numbers and show times.

Head Coach Availability: Head Coach Dick Vermeil is available daily during the season. Please consult PR for times and location. Coach Vermeil conducts a weekly press conference on Tuesdays during the season. This briefing begins at 11:45 AM and is available via satellite Tuesday afternoons at kcchiefs.com. Please consult Morgan Shaw for satellite coordinates.

Assistant Coach/Staff Availability: Chiefs assistant coaches are available for interviews provided PR is notified in advance. Please consult Bob Moore or Pete Moris.

Locker Room Policy/Player Availability: During the regular season players are available to the media after the conclusion of practice. The Chiefs locker room is open to the media for a maximum of 45 minutes following the conclusion of practice each day. Any additional interviews should be coordinated through Chiefs PR. The Chiefs locker room is NOT open on the players' day off (typically Tuesdays.) QB Trent Green is scheduled to be available to the media at lunch on Thursdays during the regular season.

Media access to other areas of Arrowhead is limited to ONLY the fourth floor press box which serves as a work area, the PR office, and the first floor auditorium for media functions. All other areas are off-limits unless accompanied by a member of the PR staff.

Practice: Consult chiefsmedia.com or Chiefs PR for practice times and access. Visiting team media are NOT permitted at practice. Videotaping is permitted ONLY during stretching, warm-up, individual drills and the cool-down periods.

Conference Calls: The Chiefs will make Coach Vermeil and a player available to the visiting team media each Wednesday during the regular season.

Player Appearance Requests: Requests for player appearances should be made in writing, no less than 30 days in advance to Community Relations Coordinator Chuck Castellano. Player availability is limited during the regular season and no requests are accepted during postseason play.

Donation Requests: The Chiefs make a limited number of donations to select charitable causes in the five-state region of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma. Requests should be made in writing, no less than 30 days in advance of an event to Community Relations Assistant Janet Feltham. Such donations are strictly limited to Chiefs articles. Requests for monetary contributions or tickets are not accepted.

AFL CHARTER MEMBER

The Dallas Texans gained entry into the American Football League as one of the league's six charter members in '59. Buffalo and Boston were later added, while Oakland replaced Minneapolis to round out the eight-team league which began play in '60. For a franchise fee of $25,000, team founder Lamar Hunt received entry into the whimsically-named "Foolish Club," as well as this franchise certificate which is displayed proudly on the club's History Wall located in the Pavilion at Arrowhead.

CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the 14th consecutive year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101.1 FM. The Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, extends throughout a six-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Arkansas. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live. One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus, handles the play-by-play duties for the 10th straight year, making him the longest-tenured "Voice of the Chiefs" in team history. Kevin Harlan held the previous mark at nine years ('85-93).

Named Kansas Sportscaster of the Year for the eighth time in 2001, Holthus served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years from '83-96. In addition to his Chiefs duties, he is also the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for Fox Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference. Adding the color analysis is Hall of Fame quarterback Len Dawson, the Chiefs all-time leading passer. Bob Gretz, sports director at KCFX, will add pre-game and post-game comments for the 14th straight season, in addition to in-game sideline updates. Bill Grigsby, who has been on the scene since the club's first year in Kansas City, continues to serve as a vibrant part of Chiefs gameday broadcast.

Pro Career: One of the most prolific scorers in NFL history begins his second season with the Chiefs in 2003 ... Booming left-footed kicker has stood the test of time and is entering his 22nd NFL campaign ... Those 21 seasons of prior NFL experience tie him with fellow K Gary Anderson for the longest tenure in the NFL among players who were active in 2002 ... Only Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinee George Blanda (26) has completed more NFL seasons than Andersen and Anderson, who have 21 years to their credit along with Earl Morrall ... Ranks second in NFL history with 2,153 career points, trailing only Anderson (2,223) ... Joins Anderson and Blanda (2,002) as one of only three players in NFL history to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau in their career ... Has been selected to seven Pro Bowls, the most invitations garned by a kicker in the game's history ... Was selected to make the trip to Hawaii for the Pro Bowl following the '85-88, '90, '92 and '95 seasons ... Combines with tackle Willie Roaf and guard Will Shields to make the Chiefs the only team in the NFL with a trio of players boasting seven or more Pro Bowl nods this season ... Has earned the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week award eight times in his career ... Embarks on only his second season of kicking in the AFC after spending his first 20 campaigns tormenting NFC competition ... Will be 43 years, 20 days old on Opening Day, which will make him the second-oldest player to wear a Chiefs uniform in a regular season contest ... Trails only QB Warren Moon who was the oldest player to appear in a game in Chiefs annals when he started a contest at age 44 years, eight days in 2000 ... Has expressed the desire to kick until he is 50 years old to become the oldest player in NFL history, a goal which does seem completely unreasonable ... An extremely durable performer who has played in 322 games and has missed only three contests in his NFL career with an injury ... Trails only Blanda (340) and Anderson (323) in NFL annals in terms of games played ... Had played in 248 consecutive games for the second-longest such streak in league history before being placed on the injured reserve list on December 17th of 2002 with a right knee injury, forcing him to miss the final two games of the season ... Only longtime Vikings player Jim Marshall (282) played in more consecutive contests ... The future Hall of Famer has converted 486 of 616 field goals (78.9%) and 695 of 704 PATs for a total of 2,153 points ... Has also played in eight postseason games during his illustrious career, converting 16 of 19 field goals (84.2%) and all 13 of his PATs for a total of 61 points ... Is in a battle with Anderson for the top marks in several categories in NFL history among kickers ... Has 486 career field goals, trailing only Anderson (494) at the top of the NFL record books ... His 616 field goals attempted are third in NFL history and second among active players behind Anderson (619) ... Blanda sits atop the NFL record books with 637 FG attempts ... Has unquestionably been one of the finest performers in league history in terms of converting long-range kicks ... Is tops in NFL history with 40 career field goals from beyond 50 yards, including at least two in 13 of his 21 previous professional seasons ... Ranks first in NFL annals for field goals of 50+ yards in a season with a career-high eight in '95 ... Holds the NFL record for 50-yard field goals in a game with three in a contest vs. New Orleans (12/10/95) while with Atlanta ... Converted his only attempt from that distance a year ago, a 50-yard make vs. Miami (9/29/02) ... Has two of the eight-longest field goals in NFL history ... His 60-yard field goal during the '91 season ranks as the third-longest in NFL history and his 59-yarder in '95 is tied for fifth ... Ranks second in league annals with 18 seasons of 20+ made field goals ... Has converted 319 of 347 (91.9%) of his field goals from within 40 yards, including all 16 attempts in 2002 ... Showed his consistency when he made 77 consecutive field goals from within 29 yards from '89-98 ... Ranks third in NFL history with 704 PATs attempted with only Anderson (741) owning more among active players and Blanda (943) leading all NFL kickers ... Out of those 704 PATs attempted, has made 695 for a 98.7% accuracy mark ... Trails only Blanda (943) and Anderson (741) among the top kickers in NFL history with his 695 extra points ... Has scored in an amazing NFL-record 300 consecutive games dating to a contest at New England (12/4/83) when the Saints were held scoreless. It is the longest scoring steak in NFL history and remarkably, it is 114 games longer than the

Cornerback • 6-1 • 200

Born: June 25, 1977
Daytona Beach, Florida

Oklahoma
Draft (No. 2 - 2000)
NFL: 4 (4th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (46/21) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Fourth-year performer entering his second season as Kansas City's starter at right cornerback in 2003 ... Gifted natural athlete opened 13 games at that post a year ago ... Is still learning the finer points of the position at the pro level, but should only continue to improve with more on-field experience ... Came to the Chiefs after working at corner for a portion of a season at the collegiate level after beginning his career as a safety ... Following in the footsteps of a fellow Big 12 alum, CB Eric Warfield from Nebraska, who also predominately played safety during his college career before making the successful transition to a starting NFL corner ... Began his tenure at the University of Oklahoma at free safety before switching to cornerback midway through his senior campaign ... That experience at safety has likely also contributed to his fearless demeanor in run support ... Possesses all the physical attributes necessary to play the corner position at the pro level ... His size, speed and strong upper body allow him to match up well with the league's bigger receivers ... Can also be called upon to rush the passer in blitz situations, owning a pair of sacks in his NFL career ... Broke into the starting lineup a year ago, recording a career-high 80 tackles (71 solo) and seven passes defensed ... Had opened eight games in his first two pro seasons, primarily as an extra corner in nickel situations ... Has also been a key contributor on special teams the past three campaigns ... Owns 46 games of NFL experience with 21 starts ... Has recorded 148 tackles (120 solo) to go along with 33 special teams tackles ... Also has 19 passes defensed and 2.0 sacks (-17.0 yards) ... Originally entered the league as a second-round draft choice (54th overall) of the Chiefs in 2000.

EXTRA POINTS

Bartee began his collegiate career as a safety at Butler County Community College in El Dorado, Kansas.

2002: Played in 14 games (13 starts) at right CB ... Was inactive for two games with a right ankle sprain ... Ranked third among the DBs with a career-high 80 tackles (71 solo), including one for a loss ... Finished fourth on the club with seven passes defensed ... Added 10 special teams tackles and a forced fumble ... Produced six tackles (five solo) and a pass defensed at Cleveland (9/8) ... Made six solo tackles vs. Jacksonville (9/15) ... Recorded a career-high 12 tackles (10 solo) and a pass defensed, in addition to two special teams stops at New England (9/22) ... Registered eight tackles and a pass defensed vs. Miami (9/29) ... Had a pair of special teams stops at San Diego (10/13) ... Amassed five tackles and a career-high three special teams tackles vs. Denver (10/20). Also forced a WR Kevin Kasper fumble on a kickoff return ... Collected nine tackles vs. Oakland (10/27) ... Recorded seven tackles at San Francisco (11/10) ... Produced three tackles vs. Buffalo (11/17) before leaving the game in the second quarter with a right ankle sprain ... Was inactive at Seattle (11/24) and vs. Arizona (12/1) with that injury ... Returned to action in a reserve role vs. St. Louis (12/8), recording eight solo tackles ... Totaled five tackles apiece vs. San Diego (12/22) and at Oakland (12/28).

2001: Played in 16 games (five starts) at corner and on special teams ... Opened four games at left CB in place of an injured Ray Crockett and also started one contest when the club opened in its nickel package ... Produced 38 tackles (27 solo) and a career-high eight passes defensed ... Also added a tackle for loss, a sack (-9.0 yards) and 11 special teams stops ... Registered three tackles at Denver (10/7) ... Left the game with a neck strain on the first defensive series vs. Pittsburgh (10/14), but did return ... Started his first game of the season at left CB at Arizona (10/12) in place of Crockett, amassing five tackles and a pass defensed ... Started at left CB vs. Indianapolis (10/25), registering a season-high seven tackles ... Started at left CB at San Diego (11/4), recording three tackles and a pass defensed ... Made two special team stops at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Opened at left CB vs. Seattle (11/25), amassing three tackles and a special teams stop ... Started when the club opened in the nickel at Oakland (12/9) ... Registered a sack of Mark Brunell, five defensive tackles and two special teams stops at Jacksonville (12/30).

2000: Saw action in 16 games on special teams and worked at CB in 12 contests (three starts) ... Tallied 30 tackles (22 solo), a sack (-8.0 yards), four passes defensed and 12 special teams stops ... Saw first NFL action vs. Indianapolis (9/3), taking snaps on defense and special teams ... Played as a reserve on defense at Tennessee (9/10) ... Posted a pair of special teams tackles at Denver (9/24) ... Saw action as the nickel CB vs. Oakland (10/15), recording three tackles and getting his first NFL sack against Rich Gannon ... Made his first career start when the club opened in the dime package vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Started at nickel CB at Seattle (10/29), making a season-high six tackles ... Saw action as the nickel CB at Oakland (11/5) ... Compiled three tackles at San Francisco (11/12) ... Registered four tackles and one pass defensed vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Had one tackle and two special team tackles at San Diego (11/26) ... Contributed four tackles at New England (12/4) ... Started as the nickel CB vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Saw action as the nickel CB vs. Denver (12/17) ... Registered three tackles and a stop on punt coverage at Atlanta (12/24).

College: Played in 17 games (11 starts), working as both a free safety and corner in two seasons at Oklahoma ... Totaled 60 tackles (41 solo), getting two INTs to go with two fumble recoveries and a pair of forced fumbles ... Also registered 7.0 tackles for loss, 12 passes defensed and an eight-yard sack ... Started all 11 games as a senior and was a second-team All-Big 12 selection ... Finished the year with 51 tackles (34 solo), an INT and 12 passes defensed ... Added a fumble recovery, a forced fumble, 6.0 tackles for loss and a blocked FG ... Appeared in six games as a junior ... Battled nagging injuries to record nine tackles (seven solo), one INT, an eight-yard sack and a pair of tackles for loss ... Registered one fumble recovery and a forced fumble, as well ... Played JUCO ball at Butler County Community College in El Dorado, Kansas ... Recorded four INTs with a TD as a sophomore in '97 when he was named team Defensive Player of the Week five times ... Helped lead Butler County to a 7-4 record and a bowl berth as a freshman in '96 ... Majored in Sociology and Criminology at Oklahoma.

Hastings
Free Agent (2002)
NFL: 2 (2nd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (16/2) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Former Canadian Football League receiver didn't take long to make an impact in the NFL after enjoying a superb debut campaign with the Chiefs last year ... Joined the club as a free agent on February 7th of 2002 ... Lanky wideout enters his second season with Kansas City in 2003 after leading the squad with eight TD catches a year ago ... That feat in itself was a remarkable accomplishment considering that he missed a good portion of training camp after undergoing an appedenctomy on July 28th of last year ... Expected to make an even bigger contribution in 2003 after working as a third receiver for much of 2002 ... Is also a valuable special teams performer, working on the club's coverage units ... Came to the Chiefs vastly more polished than most first-year NFL performers after honing his skills for two seasons with the CFL's Calgary Stampeders where he registered 111 catches for 2,023 yards with 19 TDs during the 2000-01 campaigns, helping lead the squad to a Grey Cup title in 2001 ... Physical performer whose height and leaping ability make him especially dangerous in the Red Zone ... Is the tallest target in the club's WR corps and owns the speed to stretch the field vertically ... A true big-play threat, set a Chiefs record and tied an NFL mark when he hauled in a 99-yard TD reception from QB Trent Green vs. San Diego (12/22/02). Joined Green to form just the 10th tandem in NFL history to collaborate on a 99-yard scoring connection, making them the first duo to accomplish that feat since Green Bay QB Brett Farve did it with WR Robert Brooks vs. Chicago (9/11/95) ... Owns 16 games (two starts) of NFL experience, catching 20 passes for 420 yards (21.0 avg.) with eight TDs, including his 99-yard catch and run for a score ... Also has 12 special teams tackles ... Was a virtual touchdown machine in his first NFL season, registering eight TDs on only 20 receptions ... Became just the eighth player in Chiefs history to catch eight or more TDs in a single season and was the initial player to do it in his first season with the club ... Scored on 40.0 percent of his receptions (eight of 20), the best single-season TD-catch percentage in KC history ... That 40.0 TD-catch percentage tied for third in NFL annals with Bucky Pope (10 TDs on 25 catches with the L.A. Rams - '64) among players with at least 20 catches. Only Frank Liebel's 45.5 mark (10 TDs on 22 catches with the N.Y. Giants - '45) and Ken Kavanaugh's 40.6 percentage (13 TDs on 32 catches with the Chicago Bears - '47) ranked higher ... Typically scores his touchdowns in bunches, owning a trio of two-TD games during his brief NFL tenure ... Including the playoffs, had five two-TD contests during his time in Canada ... Has caught 27 touchdown passes in his three previous pro seasons (NFL and CFL), an impressive average of 9.0 per year ... Was initially overlooked by NFL scouts coming out of tiny Hastings College, an NAIA school in Hastings, Nebraska ... Drove to a CFL tryout in Dallas in 2000, where he was inked by Calgary ... Enjoyed a pair of productive CFL seasons, appearing in 36 regular season games ... Averaged over 50 catches and 1,000 yards per season in his two CFL campaigns, including a 1,092-yard effort as a rookie in 2000 ... Saw action in four postseason games for the club, including the 2001 Grey Cup ... Orginally entered the CFL as a free agent on May 12th of 2000.

Kansas City (2002): Saw action in 16 games on special teams and in 15 games at WR with two starts ... Caught 20 passes for 420 yards (21.0 avg.) with a team-high eight TD receptions ... Was sixth on the team with 12 special teams stops ... Underwent an emergency appendectomy on July 28th which sidelined him for the first two preseason games ... Played in his first regular season NFL game as a receiver and on the kickoff coverage team at Cleveland (9/8), recording two special teams tackles ... His first NFL reception was a 51-yard strike from QB Trent Green vs. Jacksonville (9/15) ... Produced two special teams tackles at the N.Y. Jets (10/6) ... Caught four passes for 85 yards at San Diego (10/13), getting with his first two NFL TDs on passes of 44 and 19 yards from Green ... Produced an 18-yard TD catch at Seattle (11/24) ... Registered two catches for 30 yards and tied a career high with two TDs, scoring on passes of one yard and 29 yards vs. Arizona (12/1) ... Registered a six-yard TD reception and two special teams tackles vs. St. Louis (12/8) ... Started his first NFL game in place of an injured Johnnie Morton at Denver (12/15), but left the game in the fourth quarter with a right shoulder injury ... Caught five passes for a career-high 144 yards with TDs of eight and 99 yards vs. San Diego (12/22). That 99-yard TD catch tied as the longest pass play in NFL history and is the longest in Chiefs history.

Canadian Football League (2000-01): Played in 36 games for Calgary, recording 111 receptions for 2,023 yards (18.2 avg.) with 19 TDs ... Also had three rushes for 25 yards (8.3 avg.) and blocked two kicks, one of which he returned for a score ... Also returned a kickoff for 41 yards ... West Virginia
Born: September 30, 1973 NFL: 8 (8th with Chiefs)
Miami, Florida GP/GS: (73/61) Playoffs: (1/0)

Pro Career: Mild-mannered Floridian entering his eighth campaign in a Kansas City uniform ... Versatile and valuable defensive stalwart has started at every position on the Chiefs defensive front during his NFL tenure, but is expected to continue serving as a starter at defensive tackle for the club in 2003 ... Is unquestionably one of the most unsung performers at his position in the league today ... Routinely attracts double-teams at his defensive tackle post and is respected across the NFL for his brute strength and tenacious style of play ... Although he prefers to go about his business quietly, has spoken volumes toiling in the trenches diligently for Kansas City in recent seasons ... Frequently praised by teammates such as DE Eric Hicks for his ability to consume interior offensive linemen, allowing his fellow members of the defensive front to make plays ... Rebounded from a season-ending knee injury in 2001 to make plenty of plays a year ago, producing his best pro season to date ... Racked up a career-high 7.0 sacks and tied a career mark with 71 tackles in 2002 ... Also produced a pair of 2.0-sack games a year ago ... Started all 16 games last season, marking just the second time in his career he has accomplished that feat ... Is quick off the ball and frequently causes havoc in the backfield both as a pass rusher and a run stopper ... Joins fellow '96 draftee S Jerome Woods as the longest-tenured member of the Chiefs defensive unit ... When healthy, has displayed the ability to perform among the league's upper echelon at the defensive tackle position ... Prior to missing 10 games with a knee injury in 2001, was the only Chiefs starting defensive lineman to make it through the entire 2000 season unscathed, starting all 16 games for the first time in his career and registering a career-best 71 tackles in the process ... Started at every spot on the defensive line in 2000, opening six games at right DT, five games at left DE, four contests at right DE and opened one game at left DT ... Held together an injury-riddled defensive front that season and was a key reason Kansas City produced 51.0 sacks, the third-highest total in team history ... A training camp Achilles injury cost him the entire '99 campaign, while back and ankle ailments kept him out of eight games in '98 ... Originally broke into a regular role as a starter with the club at right defensive end in '97 ... Has seen duty in 73 regular season contests (61 starts), totaling 280 tackles (163 solo), 20.5 sacks (-117.0 yards), 97 QB pressures, three fumble recoveries, a forced fumble, an interception and two passes defensed ... Also owns one career playoff appearance ... Tabbed by the Chiefs in the third round (68th overall) of the '96 NFL Draft.

THE FOOLISH CLUB

On August 14, 1959, Lamar Hunt spearheaded a new professional football league to be called the American Football League which would begin play in 1960. Charter memberships were issued to Dallas, Denver, Houston, Los Angeles, Minneapolis and New York. Buffalo and Boston were admitted later that year. Early in 1960, Minneapolis defected to the National Football League and Oakland was picked as a replacement city. The whole idea seemed so far-fetched, even after AFL teams started playing, that the eight team owners were whimsically named the "Foolish Club."

SUPER BOWL I

Chiefs head coach Hank Stram and Packers head coach Vince Lombardi exchange pleasantries leading up to Super Bowl I in Los Angeles. Stram guided the Chiefs to an 11-2-1 regular season record as Kansas City defeated Buffalo to earn the franchise's second American Football League title. Lombardi's squad compiled a 12-2 regular season mark and defeated Dallas in the NFL Championship Game to advance to the first-ever AFL-NFL World Championship Game, as it was known at the time. Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt is credited with dubbing the contest as the "Super Bowl," the name coming from the children's toy, "Super Ball." However, the NFL did not begin officially refer to the game as the Super Bowl until the third such game – Super Bowl III.

Free Agent (2000)
Born: November 15, 1973 NFL: 7 (4th with Chiefs)
Harrodsburg, Kentucky GP/GS: (81/38) Playoffs: (1/1)

Pro Career: Massive seventh-year tight end entering his fourth campaign in the Red and Gold ... Expected to once again serve as the club's second tight end behind four-time Pro Bowler Tony Gonzalez ... Originally inked with Kansas City as a free agent on July 11th of 2000 ... Is arguably one of the finest blockers at his position in the league ... When healthy, can be truly dominating at the point of attack, providing an element of power to the Chiefs ground game ... Few other tight ends can match his combination of size and strength ... Gives Kansas City a whopping one-two punch when he and Gonzalez align in two-TE sets ... The Chiefs frequently utilized that arrangement in 2002 when he started four contests ... Played an important role in helping Priest Holmes claim the NFL's rushing crown in 2001 ... Although not a frequent target in the passing game, is a dependable pass catcher who is truly tough to bring down once he gets the ball in his hands ... Still striving to compile his first injury-free campaign since his rookie season with Philadelphia in '96 ... Appears to be fully recovered from a left shoulder injury which cost him five games in 2002 ... Saw action in the first 15 contests of 2001 before hyperextending his right elbow in the next-to-last game of the year ... Sat out the first two games of 2000 with a preseason clavicle injury after successfully rebounding from a left knee injury which sidelined him for the final six games of the '98 season and cost him the entire '99 campaign ... Was also slowed by a knee injury in mini-camp in '97 after playing in every game as a rookie ... Has appeared in 81 regular season games (38 starts) with the Eagles and Chiefs ... Owns 48 career receptions for 653 yards (13.6 avg.) with five TDs ... Started one playoff game with Philadelphia in '96 ... Originally entered the NFL as the second-round selection (54th overall) of the Eagles in the '96 NFL Draft.

Mobile, Alabama

Alabama - Birmingham
Draft (No. 2 - 2002)
GP/GS: (15/0) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Talented and versatile defensive lineman joined Kansas City as a second-round selection (43rd overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft ... Was originally projected to be able to work at both end or tackle, but injuries on the defensive front forced him to spend the majority of his rookie campaign working at defensive tackle ... Made rapid progress as an interior lineman as the season progressed ... May still see time at tackle, but is expected to concentrate his efforts at end in his second pro campaign ... Combines speed and quickness off the edge and should continue to hone his pass-rushing skills in 2003 ... Showed flashes of his potential in the pass-rushing department a year ago when he racked up 4.0 sacks, including a two-sack outing ... Has also displayed an ability to stuff the run and should continue to hone his all-around skills after spending a complete off-season working with defensive line coaches Bob Karmelowicz and Carl Hairston ... Expected to also benefit from a full year in Kansas City's strength and conditioning program, as well ... Plays the game with a high energy level, giving maximum effort on every snap ... Has seen action in 15 NFL games, producing 31 tackles (15 solo), including one for loss, 4.0 sacks (-27.0 yards) and two passes defensed ... Entered the NFL as the Chiefs second-round draft choice (43rd overall) in 2002.

Tony GONZALEZ
Tight End • 6-4 • 248

Born: February 27, 1976
Torrance, California

California
Draft (No. 1 - 1997)
NFL: 7 (7th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (95/79) Playoffs: (1/0)

Pro Career: Four-time Pro Bowl tight end is unquestionably one of the elite offensive performers in the entire National Football League ... Is already poised to become the all-time leading pass catcher in Chiefs history in just his seventh season with the club ... Owns 397 catches in a Kansas City uniform, needing just 20 more receptions in 2003 to overtake WR Henry Marshall (416) for the number one position on the franchise's career receiving chart and is just 14 catches away from overtaking WR Otis Taylor (410) for the second spot on that esteemed list ... Is a mere 269 yards away from becoming just the sixth player in team annals to top the 5,000-yard barrier and needs just 795 more yards to bypass E Chris Burford (5,525) for fifth on the club's all-time receiving yardage chart ... Without question, is the standard-bearer by which other NFL tight ends are judged ... Raised that bar extremely high with a record-shattering 2000 campaign in which he established a Chiefs single-season mark with 93 receptions, obliterating WR Carlos Carson's previous mark of 80 in '83 ... Those 93 catches were the third-highest tally ever recorded by an NFL tight end, coming just two catches shy of Ben Coates' record of 96 in '94 with New England ... Produced six of his eight career 100-yard games that season, the most by a TE in league history and a mark that tied Taylor and Carson for the Chiefs seasonal record ... Meanwhile, his 1,203 receiving yards that year were the fourth-highest tally ever assembled by a tight end in NFL ledgers ... Has seen action in a total of 95 regular season NFL contests (79 starts) and needs just five more games to become the 58th player in team history to play in 100 or more games ... Extremely durable performer has missed just one regular season game, sitting out the '99 season opener at Chicago (9/12/99) due to a preseason knee injury ... Enters the 2003 campaign with a streak of 63 consecutive starts dating back to the second game of the '99 campaign, the second-longest active string on the roster behind

G Will Shields (159) ... Lines up in a variety of different formations for the club, starting on the line of scrimmage, split out and even in the backfield ... Poses match-up problems for defensive backs and linebackers alike with his combination of speed, size and athleticism ... Can stretch a defense vertically with his speed, but also takes great pride in his blocking skills ... Endowed with outstanding leaping ability, which, combined with an amazingly flexible six-foot, four-inch frame, permits him to stretch out to make some sensational snags ... Credits many of his moves on the gridiron to his basketball background, which included a stint on Cal's '97 "Sweet 16" NCAA Tournament team during his collegiate career ... Typically celebrates TD receptions by emphatically slam-dunking the pigskin over the crossbar ... Became the first Pro Bowl tight end in Chiefs history following the '99 season and earned a starting spot in that game for the AFC each of the past three years ... Selected as a consensus first-team All-Pro selection for the fourth consecutive year in 2002 ... Possesses an unquenchable thirst to be considered the very best at his position, which helps explain his relentless work ethic ... Takes extra repetitions after practice and is almost always the last member of the squad off the field ... Has recorded 397 receptions for 4,731 yards (11.9 avg.) with 37 TDs and a long reception of 73 yards ... Attempted one pass for a 40-yard completion and rushed one time for nine yards in 2001 ... Recovered an onside kick in '98 and blocked a punt in '97 ... Owns one career postseason appearance, getting three catches for 27 yards and a 12-yard TD in '97 ... Currently ranks fourth in team annals with 37 receiving TDs and needs 13 more to overtake WR Stephone Paige (49) for third ... Has caught those 37 career TDs courtesy of three QBs: Elvis Grbac (23), Trent Green (13) and Rich Gannon (one) ... Owns two separate streaks of four straight games with a TD catch, both of which are just one game shy of the team record of five ... His 37 total TDs are the eighth-best career total in Kansas City annals, putting him just behind Chiefs RB icons Ed Podolak and Christian Okoye who are tied for sixth with 40 career TDs ... Could break into the club's top 10 all-time scorers in 2003 ... Owns 226 career points to rank 12th in team history, coming in just behind Podolak and Okoye who are tied for 10th ... Comes into the 2003 campaign with a streak of 36 straight games with at least one reception ... Should he catch a pass in his first 11 games this season, would own the second-longest streak in team annals, bypassing Podolak's mark of 44 games. Paige owns the number one spot at 83 games ... Ranks second in team annals since '90 with 56 passes of 20+ yards and needs nine more such catches to overtake WR Derrick Alexander (64) for the club record ... Has amassed five straight seasons with 50+ catches, a feat which ties FB Kimble Anders ('94-98) for the longest such streak in franchise history and could be broken in 2003 ... Has established a blistering pace during his first six pro seasons, needing just three more catches to become only the 19th tight end in NFL history to reach the 400-catch plateau ... Is just 65 catches shy of breaking into the NFL's all-time top 10 receiving leaders among tight ends, with Todd Christensen (461) currently holding the 10th position ... With 37 career TDs, also needs just five more scores to move past Christensen (41) for the 10th spot in league annals among tight ends ... Among active TEs, only Denver's Shannon Sharpe (753) and Tennessee's Frank Wycheck (488) have more career catches than Gonzalez ... Gonzalez's stats from his first six NFL seasons stack up very favorably against the six tight ends currently enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jackie Smith, Mike Ditka, John Mackey, Ozzie Newsome, Kellen Winslow and Dave Casper) ... With 397 career catches, Gonzalez already has more receptions than two of those Hall of Fame enshrinees, Mackey (331) and Casper (378) ... Needs just 31 more catches to overtake Ditka (427) and 84 more to go ahead of Smith (480), leaving only Winslow (541) and Newsome (662) looming ahead ... Based on career per-game averages, Winslow is the only Hall of Fame tight end with better marks than Gonzalez. In 109 career regular season contests, Winslow averaged 5.0 catches, 61.8 yards, 12.5 yards-per-catch and 0.41 TDs per game. In 95 career regular season games, Gonzalez has averaged 4.2 catches, 49.8 yards, 11.9 yards-per-catch and 0.39 TDs per game ... Has already bypassed Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee Fred Arbanas (198 receptions for 3,101 yards) as the most prolific tight end in franchise history, doing so in 2001 ... His 169 catches in 2000-01 were the highest two-year tally of any player in Chiefs annals ... No player in Kansas City history reached the 300-catch plateau quicker than Gonzalez, who got there in 71 games, breaking the previous standard of 76 set by Burford ... Only four other Chiefs players (Burford, Taylor, Paige and Arbanas) amassed 25 TD receptions quicker than Gonzalez, who did it in his 66th career game ... Paired with Alexander in 2000 to become the first duo of Kansas City pass catchers to each amass over 1,000 yards in a single-season as Alexander established a franchise record with 1,391 aerial yards ... Combined with Alexander to total 171 catches for 2,594 yards, both single-season team records for a receiving tandem, breaking the previous marks held by Andre Rison and Anders (131 receptions in '97) and Carson and Marshall (2,139 yards in 83) ... Had three games with 10 or more catches in 2000, breaking Burford's previous club standard of two 10-catch contests in '63 ... Is the only player in franchise annals to produce double-digit receptions in back-to-back games, doing so at New England (12/4/00) and vs. Carolina (12/10/00) ... Was one of just five NFL players and the only TE to top the

Gonzalez needs just 20 more receptions to bypass WR Henry Marshall (416) as the Chiefs all-time receiving leader.

10-catch plateau three times in 2000, joining Keenan McCardell (Jacksonville), Muhsin Muhammed (Carolina), Marvin Harrison (Indianapolis) and Joe Horn (New Orleans) ... In 2000 became the first Chiefs player other than a running back to lead the club in receptions in consecutive seasons since Paige in '89-90 ... Owns eight career 100-yard outings, needing four more to tie Burford and Alexander who are tied for third in team history with 12 ... Had a streak of four straight 100-yard games in 2000, the longest string by a tight end in NFL history or by any player in Chiefs annals ... Gonzalez and Alexander each had six 100-yard games that season, meaning the only other pair of NFL teammates to each have six individual 100-yard outings were Randy Moss (eight) and Cris Carter (six) of the Vikings. He and Alexander also became the first duo in team history to each have four or more 100-yard outings in a single year ... Racked up 20 TD catches from '99-00, a marked topped in team history only by the total of 21 amassed by Burford ('62-63) and Paige ('85-86) ... Went four straight games with a TD catch in 2000, just one shy of the team record of five shared by Burford ('62) and Taylor ('66) ... Established himself as the league's finest tight end with a spectacular '99 campaign which saw him catch 76 passes for 849 yards in 15 games, totals which ranked the highest by any player at his position in the NFL that year ... Got hot down the stretch of the '98 campaign when he produced 24 of his 59 catches (40.7%) and both of his touchdowns during the season's final five weeks ... Moved into the starting lineup in '98 after an impressive rookie campaign in '97 ... Received the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award bestowed annually to Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player after compiling 33 catches for 368 yards and two TDs during his initial pro season ... The Chiefs moved up five spots in the first round of the '97 NFL Draft to select Gonzalez with the 13th overall selection in a draft-day trade with Houston. The Chiefs obtained the Oilers first-round pick (13th overall - used on Gonzalez) and their fourth-round pick (110th overall - used on QB Pat Barnes) in exchange for Kansas City's original first-round selection (18th overall - used on DE Kenny Holmes), a third-round pick (81st overall - used on T Scott Sanderson), a fourth-round pick (116th overall - subsequently traded by Houston to New Orleans) and a sixth-round selection (181st overall - used on LB Dennis Stallings) ... Declared for the draft following his junior season.

2002: Started all 16 games at TE for the third consecutive season and was selected to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl ... Recorded 63 catches for 773 yards (12.3 avg.) with seven TDs ... Joined with RB Priest Holmes and WR Eddie Kennison to form the first trio of players in team history with 50+ catches and 500+ receiving yards in the same season ... Ranked second among AFC TEs and third among NFL TEs with 773 receiving yards ... Was third among NFL TEs with 63 receptions ... His seven TD catches tied for the most by a tight end in the NFL in 2002 ... Signed on August 30th after missing all of training camp and the entire preseason schedule ... Caught five passes for 87 yards with a 17-yard TD reception at Cleveland (9/8) ... Produced a 12-yard TD catch vs. Jacksonville (9/15) ... Caught seven passes for 140 yards with a career-high three TDs vs. Miami (9/29) to become the first player in Chiefs annals to collect three TD catches in a game since WR Sylvester Morris did it vs. San Diego (9/17/00). It was the eighth 100-yard receiving day of his career to move him into a tie for sixth in Chiefs history with Willie Davis ('91-95) and Henry Marshall ('76-87) ... Produced a three-yard TD reception at San Diego (10/13) ... Recorded four catches for 51 yards at Seattle (11/24) ... Caught four passes for 74 yards with a 23-yard TD vs. Arizona (12/1) to move by Stephone Paige (377) for fourth in Chiefs history with 378 career catches ... Produced six catches for 65 yards vs. San Diego (12/22). Bypassed Chris Burford (391) for third place on the Chiefs career receiving chart with a four-yard reception in the third quarter.

2001: Started all 16 games, leading the team with 73 receptions for 917 yards (12.6 avg.) and six TDs ... Selected as a starter in his third consecutive Pro Bowl, although he did not play in the game due to a knee injury ... Was a consensus All-Pro and All-AFC pick for the third consecutive year ... Became the first player since FB Kimble Anders ('94-96) to lead the team in receiving three consecutive seasons ... His 73 catches tied Baltimore's Shannon Sharpe for the NFL lead among TEs, while his 917 receiving yards led all players at his position ... Also completed a pass for 40 yards and added a rush for nine yards ... His 13 catches of 20+ yards trailed only Indianapolis' Marcus Pollard (14) for the NFL lead among TEs ... Grabbed a team-high five passes for 81 yards vs. Oakland (9/9), bypassing Fred Arbanas (3,101) for the most receiving yards by a TE in Chiefs history on a 15-yard reception in the fourth quarter ... Recorded a team-high five catches for 88 yards with a three-yard TD at Washington (9/30) ... Caught a season-best eight passes for 129 yards at Denver (10/7), his seventh career 100-yard receiving game and one of just four such games by an NFL tight end in 2001. Made a spectacular 35-yard reception while literally sitting on the ground along the sideline after it had bounced off of two Broncos defenders ... Caught a two-point conversion from Trent Green vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) ... Produced a 35-yard TD vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Completed his first NFL pass for 40 yards to fellow TE Mikhael Ricks to set up a TD at San Diego (11/4). With a 14-yard catch in the third quarter he became the fastest Chief to reach the 300-catch plateau (Chris Burford - 76 games) and the second-fastest TE in NFL history (Kellen Winslow - 57 games) to reach that milestone in only his 71st game ... Registerd a six-yard TD catch at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Caught a team-high six passes for 71 yards vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Registered a 24-yard TD reception at Oakland (12/9) ... Had a season-long 36-yard reception vs. Denver (12/16) ... Tied a season-high with eight receptions for 78 yards at Jacksonville (12/30) and tied a career high with two TDs (one and 12 yards). Added his first career rush for nine yards ... Suffered an injury to the MCL of his left knee on a "Hail Mary" play at the end of the first half at Seattle (1/6/02) and did not return to the game.

2000: Started 16 games, catching a Chiefs single-season record 93 passes for a personal-best 1,203 yards (12.9 avg.) and nine TDs ... Earned a second straight Pro Bowl berth ... A consensus All-Pro and All-AFC selection ... His 1,203 receiving yards were the fourth-highest single-season total in team history and the fourth-highest by a TE in NFL annals ... Those 93 catches were the third-highest total by a TE in NFL history, coming just three receptions shy of Ben Coates' mark of 96 established with New England in '94 ... Became the first player other than a RB to lead the team in receptions in consecutive seasons since WR Stephone Paige did it in '89-90 ... Led all NFL TEs in receptions, yards and TDs ... Ranked sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL in receptions ... Recorded double-digit receptions in three contests, a first in team history ... Had 13 catches of 20+ yards, the most of any NFL TE on the season ... Produced 10 receptions for 127 yards with a 15-yard TD at Denver (9/24). That contest marked his first 10-catch game and the initial 100-yard outing of his career ... Snared a 15-yard TD vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Caught seven passes for 100 yards and a 14-yard TD vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Grabbed five passes for 117 yards and a nine-yard TD vs. St. Louis (10/22). It was his fourth straight game with a TD, the second-longest streak in team history. It was also the first back-to-back 100-yard games by an NFL TE since Shannon Sharpe did it vs. San Diego (10/6/96) and vs. Baltimore (10/20/96). Eclipsed the club's career mark for receptions by a TE (198 - Fred Arbanas) with a 14-yard pass in the third quarter, as well. Also reached the 200-catch plateau on a 30-yard pass in the third quarter, a milestone which came in his 54th NFL game, making him the second-quickest Chief to reach the milestone (Chris Burford - 52 games) ... Secured eight passes for 101 yards at Seattle (10/29) ... Became the first TE in NFL history to record four consecutive 100-yard receiving games at Oakland (11/5), catching nine passes for 134 yards ... Tied a career high with two TDs (nine and 13 yards) vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Had a streak of 44 consecutive games with a reception dating back to 12/7/97 vs. Oakland snapped at San Diego (11/26) when Warren Moon started at QB. That streak is tied as the third-longest in team history with Carlos Carson (12/20/81 - 9/12/85) ... Set career highs for both receptions and yards with an 11-catch, 147-yard outburst which included a four-yard TD in a MNF contest at New England (12/4). Set an NFL record for TEs and tied a club mark with his sixth 100-yard game of the season. His 11 catches tied as the second-highest single-game total in Chiefs history ... Surpassed Carson's club record of 80 receptions ('83) with a 14-yard catch vs. Carolina (12/10). Finished the day with 10 catches for 96 yards and a six-yard TD, his third double-digit reception game of the year ... Had a 21-yard TD at Atlanta (12/24).

Trent GREEN

Quarterback • 6-3 • 217

Born: July 9, 1970
Cedar Rapids, Iowa

Indiana
Trade - St. Louis (2001)
NFL: 10 (3rd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (56/51) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Highly-talented signal-caller returns for his third season with Kansas City in 2003 ... Joined the club on April 20th of 2001 when he was acquired after lengthy trade negotiations with St. Louis ... Kansas City consummated the deal for Green just hours before the start of the 2001 NFL Draft the next day, landing the talented passer on the western side of the Show Me State after a two-year stint on Missouri's eastern bank in St. Louis ... The Chiefs received Green along with the first of the Rams two selections in the fifth round (150th overall - used by Kansas City on RB Derrick Blaylock) in exchange for Kansas City's first-round selection (12th overall - used by St. Louis on DT Damione Lewis) ... Polished, poised, professional and popular are perhaps the best descriptors to capture the essence of this highly-affable and highly-coveted signal-caller ... A charasmatic figure in both the Arrowhead locker room and the Kansas City community, Green embarks upon his 10th NFL season and his third in the Red and Gold in 2003 ... Presided over the most prolific offensive campaign in franchise history a year ago, as Kansas City led the league in scoring with a team-record 467 points and also established team seasonal standards for total offensive yardage (6,000), first downs (343), total TDs (57) and completion percentage (61.21%) ... His individual numbers reflected the team's offensive success as he led the NFL with a 5.5 TD percentage and a 7.85 yards-per-attempt average ... Was also tops among NFL passers with a 103.4 rating in the fourth quarter in 2002 (minimum 100 attempts) ... On the season, completed 287 of 470 passes (61.1%) for 3,690 yards with a career-high 26 TDs and 13 INTs, good for a 92.6 rating ... Those 26 TD passes tied for third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL and were the third-highest seasonal total in KC history ... Has completed 583 of 993 passes for 7,473 yards, the best totals of any QB in team history in his first two seasons with the club, already ranking sixth in Chiefs history in career passing yardage ... Needs 12 more completions and 83 more attempts to move past Steve Bono (594-1,075) into sixth position in both of those categories in the Chiefs career record book ... Owns 43 TD passes with the Chiefs and needs 14 more to move ahead of Mike Livingston (56) for fifth place on the club's all-time chart ... Is just seven pass attempts shy of his 1,000th pass in a Kansas City uniform, which would qualify him for the club's all-time passer rating chart. His current 81.3 career rating with the Chiefs would rate third in team history behind only Len Dawson (83.2) and Steve DeBerg (81.6) ... Has produced two of the top three single-game completion percentage marks in Kansas City history in just two seasons with the club ... When he attempts his 1,000th pass in a Chiefs uniform, will be qualified to be ranked on the club's career completion percentage chart. His current 58.71 mark would be the best in team history. Steve DeBerg currently owns the Chiefs record at 57.97 ... Has started all 32 games of his Chiefs career, joining Dawson ('66-68) as the only other QB in team history to open every contest in two consecutive seasons ... Should he start the first four games of 2003, would surpass DeBerg (35 games) for the second-longest starting streak of any signal-caller in team annals. Dawson owns the record at 51 games ... Has hit on 97 passes of 20+ yards during his Chiefs tenure and needs just 37 more to bypass Elvis Grbac (133) for the club's highest total since the club began tracking that stat in '90 ... Over his 10-year NFL career has seen action in 56 regular season contests (51 starts) ... Has completed 1,006 of 1,743 (57.7%) of his passes for 12,977 yards with 82 TDs and 53 INTs, good for an 84.2 rating ... Boasts an impressive 4.7 career TD percentage ... Has also rushed 128 times for 569 yards (4.4 avg.) with four TDs ... Owns a 22-29 (.431) record as an NFL starter (6-8 with Washington, 2-3 with St. Louis and 14-18 with Kansas City) ... Has 12 career 300-yard passing games (two with Washington, three with St. Louis and seven with Kansas City ... Those seven 100-yard games with the Chiefs are tied for third in team annals. He needs three more to move ahead of Dawson (nine) for second place ... Has orchestrated 10 fourth-quarter comeback victories during his career, with seven of those comeback victories coming in Kansas City, including four in 2002 ... Also produced a pair of comeback wins with Washington in '98 and had one with St. Louis in 2000 ... Has registered 12 games with a 100.0 or better passer rating (minimum 20 attempts), producing three such games with Washington, two with St. Louis and seven with Kansas City, including five in 2002 ... Since coming to Kansas City, has completed an incredible comeback odessey which began following a devastating knee injury that cost him the entire '99 regular season and his starting job in St. Louis ... Followed an unlikely path to NFL success after beginning his career with San Diego in '93 ... Had a brief, two-week stint on the roster of the CFL's British Columbia Lions in '94 before catching on in Washington ('95-98) ... Didn't even attempt his first regular season NFL pass until the '97 season with the Redskins, but by the '98 campaign, he was that club's starter ... Inked with St. Louis as an unrestricted free agent on February 16th of '99 ... Was poised to lead the Rams as that club's starting QB in '99, but his hopes for the year were dashed before the start of the regular season ... In just his third appearance with the club in the '99 preseason vs. San Diego (8/28), suffered a devastating knee injury when he tore the ACL, MCL and lateral meniscus in his left knee ... While St. Louis would march to Super Bowl XXXIV with Kurt Warner at the club's helm, Green spent two seasons overcoming lingering effects of injuries ... Came back to play in eight games (five starts) for St. Louis in 2000, but those injuries did require further surgery prior to his arrival in Kansas City ... Was reunited with head coach Dick Vermeil and assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders with the Chiefs in 2001 ... Is well-versed in the Chiefs offensive scheme which came from St. Louis and whose origins dates back to San Diego's "Air Coryell" offense in the '80s ... In addition to Vermeil and Saunders, was also tutored in the intracies of the offense by Norv Turner, Mike Martz and Cam Cameron. Martz served as the Redskins QBs coach under Turner and was the head coach in St. Louis in 2000 with Saunders serving as the Rams associate head coach/wide receivers coach. Cameron coached the Redskins QBs from '94-96 ... Originally entered the league as an eighth-round draft pick (222nd overall) of San Diego in the '93 NFL Draft.

Kansas City (2001-02): Has started 32 games, completing 583 of 993 passes (58.7%) for 7,473 yards with 43 TDs and 37 INTs, good for an 81.3 rating ... Has also rushed 66 times for 383 yards (5.8 avg.) with one TD and has caught one pass for one yard.

2002: Started all 16 games at QB, completing 287 of 470 passes (61.1%) for 3,690 yards with a career-high 26 TDs and 13 INTs, good for a 92.6 rating ... Also had 31 rushes for a career-high 225 yards (7.3 avg.) with one TD and a two-point conversion ... His 3,690 passing yards were the fourth-best seasonal total in team annals ... His 92.6 rating was the fifth-best seasonal mark in Chiefs history, ranking third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL ... Tied for third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL with his 26 TD passes, the third-highest seasonal total in KC history ... Ranked second in team single-season history with a 61.06 completion percentage ... Led the NFL with a 5.5 TD percentage and a 7.85 yards-per-attempt average ... Had five games with a 100.0 rating or better (minimum 20 pass attempts) ... Completed 82 of 139 passes (59.0%) for 1,060 yards with 11 TDs and two INTs in the fourth quarter, good for a 103.4 rating to lead all AFC passers and rank second in the NFL ... His 11 fourth quarter TDs were second in the league ... Finished third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL with 46 passes of 20+ yards, the third-highest seasonal total in team history ... His 225 rushing yards ranked third among all AFC quarterbacks ... Completed 20 of 29 passes for 276 yards with a TD and an INT, good for a 96.3 rating at Cleveland (9/8). Pitched a lateral over his shoulder to T John Tait for a 28-yard gain to set up the winning FG in a 40-39 fourth-quarter comeback win ... Completed 16 of 23 passes for 149 yards with three TDs and two INTs, good for an 86.5 rating at New England (9/22). Threw his 60th career TD pass to WR Eddie Kennison in the fourth quarter ... Connected on 24 of 34 passes for 328 yards with a career-best five TDs, good for a 140.7 rating to win AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors vs. Miami (9/29). Also added three rushes for 48 yards (16.0 avg.) and had a key pancake block on S Arturo Freeman on a 25-yard TD run by RB Priest Holmes. Joined Len Dawson and Elvis Grbac as the only Chiefs players to throw five TDs in a single game and the first since Grbac did it vs. San Diego (9/17/00). Connected on scoring throws of nine, 42 and six yards to TE Tony Gonazalez, in addition to an eight-yard TD to WR Johnnie Morton and a three-yard TD to TE Billy Baber ... Completed 23 of 33 passes for 296 yards with two TDs and an INT for a 105.1 QB rating at the N.Y. Jets (10/6), as he orchestrated a 29-25 comeback win, throwing the game-winning 19-yard TD pass to RB Priest Holmes with 0:27 remaining ... Hit on 17 of 29 throws for 236 yards with three TDs and two INTs at San Diego (10/13), marking his 12th consecutive game with at least one TD pass ... Had his TD streak snapped vs. Denver (10/20) ... Connected on 12 of 20 passes for 197 yards for a 93.1 rating vs. Buffalo (11/17). Produced four carries for 19 yards, diving head-first for the game-winning nine-yard TD to complete a 17-16 comeback victory ... Connected on 26 of 34 passes for 343 yards with two TDs and an INT to compile a 115.2 rating at Seattle (11/24), in addition to running for a two-point conversion ... Connected on 14 of 20 passes (70.0%) for 209 yards with two TDs vs. Arizona (12/1), good for a 137.3 rating ... Connected on 18 of 42 passes for 310 yards with two TDs, including a 75-yard TD pass to WR Dante Hall at Denver (12/15) ... Completed 23 of 36 passes for 337 yards with three TDs and one INT, good for a 110.5 rating vs. San Diego (12/22). Threw a 99-yard TD pass to WR Marc Boerigter to tie an NFL record and establish the longest completion in Chiefs history. It was his fourth 300-yard passing day, his fourth fourth-quarter comeback and his fifth game with a 100.0 rating or better on the season.

2001: Started all 16 games, completing 296 of 523 passes (56.6%) for 3,783 yards with 17 TDs and 24 INTs, good for a 71.1 rating ... Added 35 rushes for 158 yards (4.8 avg.) ... His 523 attempts and 3,783 passing yards both ranked as the third-highest single-season total in Chiefs history, while his 296 completions ranked fourth in team annals ... His 3,783 passing yards ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL ... Dante
Wide Receiver • 5-8 • 187

Born: September 20, 1978
Lufkin, Texas

Texas A&M
Draft (No. 5a - 2000)
GP/GS: (34/0) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Electrifying fourth-year performer coming off a breakthrough campaign in 2002 ... Is unquestionably one of the most exciting return men in the league today and continues to emerge as a big play threat in the passing game ... Will likely take on an increased role on offense ... Is listed as a wide receiver, but is a true triple-threat performer who can make a difference as a receiver, runner or return man ... Can line up in the backfield or split out, making him especially difficult to defend, particularly in third-down situations ... One of the speediest players on the Kansas City squad, can run by defenders, but has also displayed the ability to elude even the most seasoned defenders with his ability to stop, start, shimmy and shake ... Last year became only the second player in Chiefs history to garner a Pro Bowl selection as a kick returner, joining J.T. Smith who earned the honor after the '80 season ... Is one of just eight players in Chiefs history to record a TD three different ways after producing three TD receptions, two punt return TDs and one kickoff return score ... Tied a team record with those three combined kick return scores a year ago, becoming the first Chief to accomplish that feat since Tamarick Vanover in '95 ... Also tied a team single-season mark with a pair of punt return TDs ... Joined Oakland RB Terry Kirby and New Orleans WR Michael Lewis as the only players to return both a punt and a kickoff for a TD in 2002 ... Recorded a rare daily double by getting an 88-yard kickoff return TD and an 86-yard punt return TD vs. St. Louis (12/8/02), making him just one of 21 players in NFL history to score on both a kickoff return and a punt return in the same game ... Owns the longest punt return in franchise history after producing his first pro score on a 90-yard punt runback vs. Arizona (12/1/02) ... In total, accumulated 2,120 combined net yards in 2002, the third-highest tally in team history, trailing only the 2,287 yards amassed by RB Priest Holmes in 2002 and the 2,169 yards Holmes racked up in 2001 ... Touched the ball a total of 117 times last season, averaging 18.1 yards every time he got the pigskin in his hands ... Set franchise single-season records with 57 kickoff returns for 1,354 yards a year ago, breaking the previous marks of 51 for 1,308 set by Vanover in '97 ... Ranks second in team history in both career kickoff returns (117) and kickoff return yardage (2,681) ... Is fifth on the club's all-time punt return yardage chart with 662 yards and needs just 126 more yards to vault into third ahead of RB Ed Podolak (739) and CB Dale Carter (787) ... Is truly a threat to score everytime he gets the ball in his hands ... Owns six career touchdowns, with those scores coming from an average distance of 74.7 yards out ... Took over Kansas City's return duties on a full-time basis in 2001 after seeing limited action in that role as a rookie in 2000 ... Joins a growing list of NFL Europe alumni playing in the NFL after spending the spring of 2001 playing for the Scottish Claymores ... Has seen duty in 34 regular season contests, taking snaps on offense in 21 games ... Owns 117 kickoff returns for 2,681 yards (22.9 avg.) with a TD to go along with 67 punt returns for 662 yards (9.9 avg.) with two TDs ... Has 13 rushes for 64 yards (4.9 avg.) and 20 receptions for 322 yards (16.1 avg.) with three scores ... Was selected by the Chiefs in the fifth round (153rd overall) of the 2000 draft.

2002: Saw action in 16 games as a reserve WR and return specialist ... Was selected to his first Pro Bowl as a kick returner ... Produced 117 total touches for 2,120 combined net yards (18.1 avg.) with six TDs, the third-highest seasonal yardage tally in team history ... Had a team-record 57 kickoff returns for 1,354 yards (23.8 avg.) with one TD to go with 29 punt returns for a career-high 390 yards (13.4 avg.) with two TDs ... Added 11 carries for 54 yards (4.9 avg.) and 20 receptions for 322 yards (16.1 avg.) with three scores ... His 1,354 kickoff return yards set a Chiefs single-season record, ranking second in the AFC and third in the NFL ... Finished fourth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL with 29 kickoff returns of 20+ yards ... Ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL with his 13.4 punt return average ... His two punt returns for TDs tied the Chiefs single-season mark ... Joined Oakland RB Terry Kirby and New Orleans WR Michael Lewis as the only players in the NFL to return both a punt and kickoff for a TD on the season ... Recorded career highs with seven KO returns for

The only home game of Hall's pro career that his mother missed was vs. Arizona (12/1/02) when he recorded a 90-yard punt return TD. She was on hand the following week vs. St. Louis (12/8/02) when he had two return TDs.

192 yards (27.4 avg.) at Cleveland (9/8). Tied a career high with two carries for 14 yards and caught his first career NFL pass for four yards ... Registered two carries for a career-best 34 yards, including a career-long 21-yard carry at New England (9/22) ... Touched the ball a career-high 11 times for 120 yards vs. Miami (9/29) ... Scored his first NFL TD on a weaving 60-yard reception at the N.Y. Jets (10/6) ... Returned a career-best six punts for a career-high 128 yards (21.3 avg.) vs. Arizona (12/1). Registered his first career return score on a 90-yard punt runback, the longest punt return in team history and the club's first punt return for a score since WR Tamarick Vanover had an 84-yarder vs. Oakland (1/2/00) ... Returned three kickoffs for 134 yards with an 88-yard TD and had two punt returns for 95 yards with an 86-yard TD vs. St. Louis (12/8). Earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his efforts and became one of just 21 players in NFL history to record two kick returns (kickoff or punt) for TDs in a single game and the only Chiefs player to accomplish that feat. His 86-yard punt return tied for the third-longest in team history, while his 44.67 kickoff return average set a Chiefs single-game record ... Tied a career high with 11 touches for a career-high 259 yards (23.5 avg.) at Denver (12/15). Caught a career-best five passes for a career-high 143 yards (28.6 avg.) with two TDs. Got his first score of the game on a career-long 75-yard reception in the third quarter and then produced an electrifying 49-yard TD catch in the fourth quarter in which he stopped, started and shifted numerous times to dodge several defenders in one of the most exciting plays in the entire league on the season. Also had five kickoffs for 100 yards (20.0 avg.) and one punt for 16 yards ... Returned the opening kickoff 48 yards at Oakland (12/28).

2001: Appeared in 13 games as the club's return specialist and took snaps in five games on offense ... Registered 43 KO returns for 969 yards to finish ninth in the AFC with a 22.5-yard avg. ... Returned 32 punts for 235 yards (7.3 avg.) and had two rushes for 10 yards ... Ran back punts and kickoffs for the club in the season's initial five games ... Returned four punts for 27 yards at Denver (10/7) ... Was inactive vs. Pittsburgh (10/14), at Arizona (10/21) and vs. Indianapolis (10/25) with a shoulder injury he suffered vs. the Broncos ... Returned to the lineup at San Diego (11/4) ... Registered his first career carry for six yards at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Had five KO returns for a season-high 131 yards with a long of 59 yards vs. Philadelphia (11/29), as well as one rush for four yards ... Returned three KOs for 106 yards, including a season-long 71 yard return at Oakland (12/9) ... Had a season-high six KO returns for 108 yards vs. Denver (12/16) ... Returned five KOs for 122 yards at Jacksonville (12/30).

NFL Europe (2001): Started nine games at WR for the Scottish Claymores ... Ranked sixth in the NFLEL with 34 receptions and was eighth with 462 yards for five scores ... Led the league with 26 KO returns for 635 yards (24.4 avg.) and was second in punt returns with 15 for 177 yards (11.8 avg.) ... Was second in NFL Europe with 1,286 combined net yards.

2000: Played on special teams in five games, returning 17 KOs for 358 yards (21.1 avg.) and six punts for 37 yards (6.2 avg.) ... Was inactive for the first three games due to a back injury ... Made his NFL debut at Denver (9/24), returning five KOs for 108 yards ... Returned three KOs for 81 yards vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Took back three KOs for 84 yards vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Returned two KOs for 24 yards vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Took back four KOs for 61 yards at Seattle (10/29) ... Was inactive for the final eight games of the season.

College: Finished his collegiate career with 4,707 all-purpose yards, the second-highest tally in school history, trailing only Darren Lewis, who racked up 5,138 yards from '87-90 ... Also ranked second in Aggies history with 943 career punt return yards ... Established the Texas A&M single-season punt return record with 573 yards on 43 runbacks (13.3 avg.) as a freshman in '96 ... Saw action in 43 career games (25 starts), rushing 522 times for 2,818 yards (5.4 avg.) and 22 TDs ... Finished his career with eight 100-yard rushing contests ... Also caught 22 passes for 260 yards ... Had 78 career punt returns for 943 yards (12.1 avg.) and two TDs ... Returned 32 KOs for 686 yards (21.4 avg.), as well ... Final collegiate tally showed 654 total touches for 4,707 yards and 24 TDs ... Appeared in six games, starting four contests before being ruled ineligible for the remainder of the season in '99 ... Finished the year with 53 carries for 179 yards (3.4 avg.) and a pair of TDs ... Added five receptions for 59 yards (11.8 avg.) ... Produced 134 yards on 11 punt returns (12.2 avg.) and 34 yards on three kickoff returns (11.3 avg.) ... Played in all 13 games, starting nine contests his junior year in '98 ... Led the team in rushing with 243 carries for 1,024 yards (4.2 avg.) and eight scores ... Caught six passes for 92 yards (15.3 avg.) ... Returned eight KOs for 172 yards (21.5 avg.) and had seven punt returns for 28 yards (4.0 avg) ... Played in 12 games with 11 starts as a sophomore ... Led the team with 134 carries for 973 yards (7.3 avg.) and nine TDs ... Grabbed eight passes for 97 yards (12.1 avg.) ... Gained 208 yards with a score on 17 punt returns and had 156 yards on seven KO returns (22.3 avg.) ... Played in all 12 games with one start as a redshirt freshman ... Ranked third on the team with 92 carries for 642 yards (7.0 avg.) and three TDs ... Set school seasonal records with 43 punt returns for 573 yards (13.3 avg.) and a score ... Added 324 yards on 14 kickoff returns (23.1 avg.) and 12 yards on three catches (4.0 avg) ... Majored in Sociology at Texas A&M.

Personal: An All-America selection as a senior at Nimitz High School in Houston, Texas ... Despite playing in only seven games due to a knee injury as a senior, still rushed for over 900 yards that year ... Has partnered with the NFL's "Play It Smart" program, serving as a mentor to the Central High School football team ... Full name: Damieon Dante Hall ... Single ... Resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

VETERANS

MONTANA, ALLEN MAKE THEIR KC DEBUT

A pair of Hall of Famers made their regular season debuts in Chiefs uniforms when QB Joe Montana and RB Marcus Allen took the field in the '93 season opener at Tampa Bay (9/5/93). The Chiefs claimed a 27-3 victory as Montana threw for 246 yards and three TDs to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors. Montana's first TD as a member of the Chiefs was a 19-yard strike to WR Willie Davis in the second quarter. Meanwhile, Allen rushed 13 times for 79 yards, catching a 12-yard TD pass from Montana in the third quarter. The only current Chiefs player on the field that day was a rookie guard from Nebraska named Will Shields, who made his first regular season NFL appearance in that contest. Shields would begin a streak of 159 straight starts the following week at Houston (9/12/93).

Pro Career: Remarkable NFL success story who seemingly overcomes every obstacle thrown his way, whether on or off the field ... Enters his sixth campaign with Kansas City in 2003 and his fifth as the club's starter at left defensive end ... Is one of the cornerstones of the Chiefs defensive unit ... Always gives all-out effort on every snap and is one of the club's leaders in the locker room ... Is arguably the club's biggest impact performer on the defensive side the ball, owning the ability to single-handedly change the course of a game with a big play ... Already has 30.5 career sacks, ranking seventh in Chiefs history ... With 5.0 more sacks in 2003, can supplant Wilbur Young (35.0) for sixth on the club's all-time chart and needs 10.0 more to move ahead of Bill Maas (40.0) for fifth ... Possesses a lethal combination of speed, power and agility ... Is continually adding new moves to his pass-rushing repetoire ... Started receiving respect from the rest of the league after acculumating 14.0 sacks in just 11 starts during the 2000 campaign ... That sack tally tied as the seventh-highest seasonal mark in Kansas City history ... Became just the fourth Chiefs player to ever reach the 14.0-sack mark, joining the elite company of the late Derrick Thomas ('90, '92), Neil Smith ('92-93) and Art Still ('80, '84) ... Was also named to USA Today's All-Joe team for his efforts in 2000, a honor which is bestowed annually to the league's top blue-collar performers ... Received second-team All-Pro honors from Football Digest, as well ... Has enjoyed a remarkable ride after initially coming to the Chiefs as a relatively obscure and undersized rookie free agent in '98 ... Became the only rookie free agent to make the club's Opening Day roster in '98 ... Packed on plenty of muscle mass the following off-season after originally weighing in with the Chiefs at 261 pounds ... Earned the starting spot at left defensive end in '99 after John Browning was lost for the year with an injury in training camp ... Won that starting job despite learning during camp that his infant daughter Shayla was diagnosed as having a severe heart condition. Eventually left camp for a brief time to be with his wife and daughter as Shayla underwent open-heart surgery ... With Shayla given a clean bill of health in 2000, entered his second season as a starter only to be faced with his own medical obstacle ... Was off to a phenonemal start to the 2000 campaign, getting 7.0 sacks in the Chiefs first six games, only to be felled by a right knee sprain ... That injury was diagnosed as a condition which would keep him out of the lineup a minimum of six weeks, but returned to the Chiefs lineup just four games later ... Has the ability to get sacks in big bunches, owning 11 career multi-sack contests ... Is particularly effective at Arrowhead, where nine of those 11 multi-sack efforts have come ... Has registered 8.5 of his sacks against San Diego, by far his highest total against any single opponent ... Also has shown a penchant for producing big plays in prime time contests ... Racked up a career-high 3.0 sacks in a 24-17 Monday Night Football win vs. Seattle (10/2/00) and got his first NFL score on a pivotal 44-yard fumble return in the fourth quarter of a 31-28 win vs. Minnesota (12/12/99) in a Sunday night contest ... Has spent his entire pro career with Bob Karmelowicz serving as his defensive line coach, who he is quick to credit for much of his success ... Has seen action in 64 career regular season games (58 starts) ... Has racked up 315 tackles (151 solo), 30.5 sacks (-195.0 yards), seven forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a 44-yard TD ... Owns 96 QB pressures and eight passes defensed, as well ... Had a forced fumble and two tackles in three games of special teams action as a rookie ... Originally entered the NFL with the Chiefs as a rookie free agent out of Maryland in '98.

2002: Played in 16 games (15 starts) at left DE ... Led the defensive line and was third on the team with 91 tackles (42 solo), including three stops for a loss ... Ranked first on the club and tied for seventh in the AFC with 9.0 sacks (-69.5 yards) ... Led the team with 11 QB pressures ... Also forced two fumbles, recovered one fumble and had three passes defensed ... Produced three tackles at Cleveland (9/8) before leaving with a muscle strain in his right leg ... Registered 2.0 sacks of Tom Brady at New England (9/22) after not starting when the club opened in a multi-DB set. Moved into 10th place in Chiefs history with 23.5 career sacks ... Amassed six tackles, a sack of Jay Fielder and Pro Career: Sixth-year defensive end joined the Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent from Green Bay on April 7th ... Expected to assume the starting job at right defensive end for Kansas City ... Versatile peformer has worked at both end and tackle during his pro career, giving the Chiefs added flexibility on their defensive front ... Made the transition to end in the NFL ranks after serving primarily as an inside performer during his collegiate tenure ... Owns solid credentials as a pass rusher with 32.0 career sacks to his credit, the most of any player currently on the Kansas City roster ... Will pair with DE Eric Hicks (30.5 career sacks) to provide the club with a potent pair of pass rushers coming off the edges ... Is also a solid run defender who is adept at shedding blockers and making noise at the point of attack ... Burst upon the NFL scene with a tremendous rookie campaign in '98 when he was a consensus all-rookie selection after racking up 8.0 sacks, the highest total ever amassed by a Packer rookie ... Often gets his sacks in bunches, producing seven multi-sack days in his career ... Set a Green Bay single-game record with 5.0 sacks (-28.0 yards) vs. Buffalo (12/22/02), breaking the previous mark of 4.5 set by LB Bryce Paup vs. Tampa Bay (9/15/91) ... Is still seeking his first double-digit sack campaign after averaging 6.4 QB takedowns per season during his first five NFL campaigns ... Has battled a series of injuries throughout his career, including a torn pectoral muscle and a right knee injury that kept him out of six games a year ago ... Missed four games due to hamstring and ankle ailments in 2000 after an ankle injury forced him to sit out four contests as a rookie ... Produced his best all-around campaign in 2001 when he started all 16 games and established career highs with 81 tackles and three fumble recoveries to go along with 7.0 sacks ... Has registered double-digit tackles in three career games, including two such contests in 2001 ... Pairs with 2002 Chiefs first-round draft choice DT Ryan Sims to give Kansas City a pair of former first-round picks from North Carolina on the defensive front ... Owns 66 games (63 starts) of NFL regular season experience ... Has 260 tackles (172 solo), 32.0 sacks (-186.0 yards), two interceptions (six yards), 22 passes defensed, five fumble recoveries and six forced fumbles ... Also started four playoff games with the Packers, recording 11 tackles (nine solo) and a sack (-3.0 yards) ... Originally entered the NFL as a first-round selection (19th overall) of Green Bay in the '98 NFL Draft.

STRAM MIKED FOR SUPER BOWL IV

"Just keep matriculating the ball down the field, boys."
Hank Stram
Super Bowl IV

The above exhortation by Hank Stram became part of the national football lexicon after NFL Films convinced the Chiefs head coach to wear a microphone during Super Bowl IV. Vikings head coach Bud Grant was initially approached about being miked for the game. Fortunately, Grant declined and the resulting audio exuded by Stram remains one of the most-requested segments ever produced by NFL Films Presents. As both the Chiefs and the cameras rolled, Stram clamored for his team to "look for 65 toss power trap" and helped provide what proved to be a pivotal piece of cinematography, not only for the NFL Films, but also for the Super Bowl itself according to NFL Films President, Steve Sabol.

"Hank was the first coach who realized the Super Bowl was entertainment," Sabol told Randy Covitz of the Kansas City Star in a January 2003 interview. "He was such a great communicator, not only to his players, but to the audience. That film did more for NFL Films, and in a way, for the Super Bowl, than any subsequent film we ever did, and it was because of Hank's personality."

Texas
Unrestricted Free Agent (2001)
NFL: 7 (3rd With Chiefs)
GP/GS: (78/49) Playoffs: (4/1)

Born: October 7, 1973
Fort Smith, Arkansas

Pro Career: Two-time Pro Bowl running back has been nothing short of sensational during his first two campaigns in a Kansas City uniform ... Signed with the Chiefs with relatively no hoopla as an unrestricted free agent from Baltimore on April 21st of 2001 ... Has since made the entire league stand up and take notice of his on-field exploits ... Enters his third campaign with Kansas City in 2003, having even more to prove ... Enjoyed a remarkable debut season with the Chiefs in 2001 when he led the league with 1,555 rushing yards ... Demonstrated that his performance wasn't a fluke when he broke his own franchise record a year ago when he racked up 1,615 yards on the ground and was named the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press in the process ... Has topped the 1,000-yard barrier a total of three times in his career, including a 1,008-yard effort with Baltimore in '98 ... Known for his ability to overcome virtually any obstacle thrown in his path, will be further challenged to top his totals from the past two seasons after suffering a right hip strain at Denver (12/15/02), which sidelined him for the final two games of the 2002 campaign ... Underwent a procedure to remove some soft tissue and loose fragments from his hip on March 25th of this year, but is expected to be ready to resume his rushing rampage in 2003 ... Talented Texan is truly a humble competitor who typically prefers to credit his offensive line and one of the league's most talented lead blockers in FB Tony Richardson for much of his success ... Despite frequently shunning the spotlight, is still a supremely confident all-around performer whose passion and enthusiasm for the game rubs off on his teammates ... Regarded as a true locker room leader, quickly became one of the most popular and inspirational players on the Chiefs roster after forging a similar reputation with his teammates in Baltimore ... It's truly difficult to put into perspective the oppulent offensive numbers Holmes has accumulated the past two seasons ... His 3,170 ground yards are the highest total in the NFL in 2001-02 and by far the highest two-year total in Chiefs history, surpassing RB Christian Okoye's previous Kansas City two-year mark of 2,285 yards in '89-90 ... Is the only player in franchise history to produce back-to-back 1,000-yard campaigns and is seeking to become the first back in team annals to top the 1,000-yard plateau on three separate ocassions ... Compiled 4,456 total yards from scrimmage in 2001-02, the most in the NFL over that time period, giving him 484 more yards over that span than his fellow University of Texas teammate, RB Ricky Williams (3,972) who ranks second in that category ... Racked up a franchise-record 2,287 yards from scrimmage in 2002 alone, the fourth-highest seasonal mark in NFL history ... Ranks third among NFL RBs from 2001-02 with 1,286 receiving yards, a figure topped by only Oakland's Charlie Garner (1,519) and St. Louis' Marshall Faulk (1,302) ... Currently ranks sixth on the franchise's all-time rushing chart and needs 1,688 yards to overtake Christian Okoye (4,857) for first place ... Before he overtakes Okoye on that prestigious chart, will need to bypass illustrious performers such as Mike Garrett (3,246), Marcus Allen (3,698), Abner Haynes (3,837) and Ed Podolak (4,451) ... Could also join the franchise's career leaders in terms of rushing attempts in 2003. Has rushed 640 times and needs just 123 more attempts to bypass RB Curtis McClinton (762) for fifth on that chart with Haynes (792) and Allen (932) also within sight ... Is tied with RB Herman Heard for 26th on the club's all-time receiving chart with 132 career receptions, but would vault into the top 10 should he produce another 70-catch campaign. TE Fred Arbanas currently holds the 10th spot with 198 career receptions ... Is currently tied with Arbanas for 10th on the franchise's career TD chart with 34, putting him just 26 scores behind the club's all-time leader, WR Otis Taylor (60) ... Also tied with Arbanas for 16th on the club's all-time scoring chart with 204 points and needs just 96 points to become the seventh player in team annals to top the 300-point barrier ... Has 29 rushing TDs with Kansas City, putting him fifth in team history ... MARCUS ALLEN'S 100TH RUSHING TD

RB Marcus Allen registered his 100th career rushing TD in dramatic fashion during a Mile High snowstorm at Denver (10/22/95). Ahead 14-7, the Chiefs took the opening drive of the second half on a 12-play scoring drive that featured seven runs and one reception by Allen. Facing third-and-goal from the one-yard line, Allen gracefully catapaulted over the pile with FB Tony Richardson serving as his lead blocker, providing the final points in a 21-7 victory. The Hall of Fame runner finished the day with 21 carries for 121 yards, while Chiefs photographer Hank Young captured perhaps the most poignant photo of Allen's career in Kansas City. Allen finished the '95 campaign with 890 rushing yards - his highest total in a Chiefs uniform - and helped propel the team to a 13-3 regular season record and the AFC West title. For his efforts, Allen claimed the club's MVP Award for a second time after earning it for the first time in his initial season with the club in '93.

Pro Career: Big-play wide receiver enters his second full campaign with Kansas City in 2003 after signing with the club on December 3rd of 2001 ... After opening the 2001 season finale, went on to start 14 games at the "X" receiver post a year ago, leading the club with 906 receiving yards, the second-highest tally of his career ... Pairs with WR Johnnie Morton to give the club a solid starting receiver duo ... Worked at the "Z" receiver position in the off-season and can play either wide receiver post if called upon ... Former collegiate track star has the speed necessary to stretch the field vertically as evidenced by his 17.1 yards-per-catch average last season. That figure ranked second among all pass catchers in the NFL with 50+ receptions, trailing only Cleveland WR Quincy Morgan (17.2) ... Always a threat to catch the long ball, owns seven career catches that have covered 50 or more yards ... Registered 16 catches of 20+ yards to lead all AFC West wide receivers in 2002 ... Owns seven career 100-yard receiving games, including three in his brief tenure with the Chiefs ... Began to pay dividends for the club almost immediately, getting a 121-yard outburst at Jacksonville (12/30/01), just his fourth game in the Red and Gold ... Rejoined head coach Dick Vermeil in Kansas City after spending the '97-98 seasons under Vermeil in St. Louis ... Has appeared in 106 career games (83 starts), catching 296 passes for 4,343 yards (14.7 yards) with 19 touchdowns ... Is equally adept at returning kicks ... Has returned 138 punts for 1,343 yards (9.7 avg.) with three TDs and 24 kickoffs for 468 yards (19.5 avg.) ... Has also carried the ball 23 times for 136 yards (8.4 avg.) ... Appears to have found a home in Kansas City after previous pro stops with Denver (2001), Chicago (2000), New Orleans ('99) and St. Louis ('96-98) ... Signed with Denver on April 5th of 2001, but was released on November 15th ... Was aquired by Chicago on February 21st of 2000 in a trade with New Orleans which sent a fifth-round 2000 draft pick to the Saints, which the club later traded to Indianapolis ... Was aquired by New Orleans on February 18th of '99 in a trade with with St. Louis which sent a second-round '99 draft choice to the Rams, which the club used on CB Dre' Bly ... Originally entered the NFL as a first-round selection (18th overall) of St. Louis in the '96 NFL Draft.

HALL OF FAME 40TH ANNIVERSARY

For 40 years, the Pro Football Hall of Fame has celebrated the accomplishments of pro football's greatest players, coaches and contributors. The "best of the best" are heading to Canton for a grand reunion to help celebrate the museum's 40th anniversary in 2003. Every member of the Hall of Fame has been invited back to Canton for the 2003 Enshrinement Weekend as guests of the Hall of Fame and the National Football League. The Hall expects as many as 120 of the 144 living member of the HOF to attend the gala celebration. In 2000, the Hall's first reunion drew a total of 106 of the then-135 living members, the largest gathering of Hall of Fame members from any one sport every assembled for a single event.

Mike MASLOWSKI

Linebacker • 6-1 • 243

Born: July 11, 1974
Thorp, Wisconsin

Wisconsin - La Crosse
NFL: 5 (5th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (55/21) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Hard-hitting and hard-working Wisconsinite entering his fifth NFL campaign with the Chiefs in 2003 ... Simply makes plays for the club, no matter where he lines up ... Tenacious performer with tremendous natural instincts for the game who is seemingly always showing up around the ball ... Shattered LB Gary Spani's franchise single-season tackle record which had stood since '79, racking up a remarkable 162 stops in 2002 ... Set that mark at the club's right outside linebacker post, after getting his first start with the squad as a left outside linebacker in 2000 ... Heading into this season, is expected to make the move back to his more natural middle linebacker spot, a position where he excelled in both NFL Europe and in the collegiate ranks ... Was waging a battle with Marvcus Patton for the starting job at that MLB post before suffering a left knee injury in the third preseason game of 2001 ... Came back with a vengeance in 2002 and should continue to make plays aplenty, this time from the MLB post in 2003 ... Has earned the respect of his peers and Kansas City's hardhat-and-lunchpail crowd with his "throwback" approach to the game ... Started all 16 games a year ago and has firmly entrenched himself in the club's lineup ... Completed an arduous journey to the National Football League in '99 after playing in NFL Europe that spring and competing in the Arena Football League in '98 ... Initially entered the pro ranks as a rookie free agent with the San Diego Chargers in '97, but was cut before the start of the regular season ... Broke into the Chiefs starting lineup at the left outside "base" linebacker post late in the 2000 campaign ... Started five of the club's final six games of the year at that position, posting double-digit tackles in three of those contests ... Was a member of USA Today's All-Joe Team in 2000, a squad which annually recognizes the league's top blue-collar performers ... Was also selected to Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro team in 2000 for his special teams efforts ... Part of a growing list of current NFL players who honed their skills in NFL Europe, including the likes of two-time NFL MVP, Kurt Warner of the St. Louis Rams and Chiefs WR Dante Hall, who earned a Pro Bowl berth as a kick returner last season ... After establishing himself as one of the league's most competitive special teams performers in '99, built on that reputation by upping his tackle count in the kicking game in 2000 and earning the starting spot on defense by season's end ... Despite taking on an increased role on defense in 2000, still led the squad with 25 special teams stops, making him the only KC player with 20 or more such tackles ... In four seasons with the Chiefs, has played in 55 games with 21 starts ... Owns 232 tackles (164 solo), 4.0 sacks (-7.0 yards), two fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles, 12 passes defensed and nine QB pressures ... Also racked up 60 special teams stops during his initial three campaigns with the club ... Displayed an amazing feat of durability and desire in '99, playing in a total of 30 pro games, seeing action in 11 contests with the Barcelona Dragons to go with 19 preseason and regular season outings in Kansas City ... Honed his special teams skills at the hand of ace special teamer LB Greg Manusky and finished second on the squad with 23 special teams tackles in '99, the most by a Kansas City rookie since '94 ... Was a landslide winner of the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award in '99, presented annually to the Chiefs top first-year performer ... Has the ability to long snap, which originally was one of the reasons Kansas City signed him ... Was inked by the Chiefs after earning Team Ironman honors as a linebacker, fullback and special teams performer for the Arena League's San Jose Sabercats in '98 ... Terrorized NFL Europe in the spring of '99 by setting a league single-season record with 105 tackles ... Hails from tiny Thorp, Wisconsin (pop. 1,657), located approximately 90 miles east of the Chiefs summer home in River Falls ... Played for NCAA Division III football powerhouse Wisconsin - La Crosse which has produced several other NFL performers including former Pro Bowl G Tom Newberry of the L.A. Rams ('84-96) and current Detroit Lions WR Bill Schroeder ... Played in the same collegiate league as UW-River Falls and has seen game action on Ramer Field where the Chiefs conduct training camp ... Originally began his pro tenure as a rookie free agent with San Diego in '97.

EXTRA POINTS

Maslowski produced 162 tackles in 2002, breaking the Chiefs single-season record established by Chiefs Hall of Fame LB Gary Spani in '79.

81 Marvin MINNIS

Wide Receiver • 6-1 • 172

Born: February 6, 1977
Miami, Florida

Florida State
Draft (No. 3b - 2001)
NFL: 3 (3rd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (15/11) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Talented third-year wide receiver who splashed onto the Kansas City scene and quickly became a fan favorite during his initial NFL season in 2001 ... Attempting to regain his rookie form in 2003 after a foot injury cost him the majority of his sophomore campaign ... Was poised to build on a solid rookie effort before suffering a broken fifth metatarsal in his right foot on May 3rd of 2002 during mini-camp ... Had a pin inserted in his foot two days after suffering the injury ... Missed all of training camp a year ago and was unable to resume practicing until November ... Saw duty in a pair of contests for the club in December, catching just one pass ... Is now completely healthy and expected to resume his battle for playing time in the Chiefs talented receiving corps ... A solid route-runner with excellent speed and ability to get out of the break ... Has continued to add bulk and muscle to his frame, which should add a more physical element to his game ... Known simply as "Snoop," that monicker quickly caught on among Chiefs followers in 2001 ... His 33 catches as a rookie tied as the fifth-highest total by a rookie WR or TE in club history ... Made his impact felt immediately when he started his first NFL game on Opening Day vs. Oakland (9/9/01). The Florida native's first NFL catch came on a dramatic diving 30-yard TD catch which tied the score 24-24 with 1:21 remaining in the fourth quarter, making him the first Chiefs rookie to score on Opening Day since WR Tamarick Vanover had a 99-yard kickoff return at Seattle (9/3/95). Also became the first Chiefs rookie to start on Opening Day at wide receiver since Henry Marshall vs. San Diego (9/12/76) ... Has appeared in 15 contests (11 starts) for the Red and Gold, catching 34 passes for 515 yards (15.1 avg.) with one TD ... Originally entered the NFL as the Chiefs second pick in the third round (77th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft.

EXTRA POINTS

Minnis got the nickname "Snoop" as a toddler from his mother because he was constantly exploring his surroundings and "snooping around."

2002: Saw action in two games, recording one catch for four yards ... Was inactive for six contests ... Suffered a broken fifth metatarsal in his right foot during mini-camp on May 3rd and was placed on the Reserve/Physically-Unable-to-Perform list on September 1st ... Was activated from PUP on November 6th ... Was inactive at San Francisco (11/10), vs. Buffalo (11/17), at Seattle (11/24), vs. Arizona (12/1) and vs. St. Louis (12/8) ... Saw his first action of the season at Denver (12/15), catching one pass for four yards ... Saw action at WR vs. San Diego (12/22) ... Was inactive at Oakland (12/28).

2001: Played in 13 games (11 starts) at the "X" wide receiver post ... Was inactive for two games ... Recorded 33 receptions for 511 yards (15.5 avg.) with a TD ... Those 33 catches tied as the fifth-highest total by a rookie WR or TE in Chiefs history ... Started his first career NFL game vs. Oakland (9/9) with his first catch coming on a diving 30-yard TD reception which sent the game into overtime ... Caught two passes for 48 yards vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23), but left the game with a mild head trauma ... Was inactive at Washington (9/30) due to that injury ... Caught five passes for 56 yards at Denver (10/7) and had one catch for 14 yards in a starting role vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) ... Caught four passes for 54 yards in a reserve role at Arizona (10/21) ... Did not start, but produced four catches for 64 yards vs. Indianapolis (10/25) ... Caught two passes for 44 yards, including a 25-yard catch to begin the game-winning drive in a start at San Diego (11/4) ... Started at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) before leaving the game with a sprained left ankle ... Was inactive vs. Seattle (11/25) and did not play vs. Philadelphia (11/29) due to that ankle injury ... Returned to the starting lineup at Oakland (12/9) and opened the final five games of the year ... Caught four passes for a career-high 89 yards vs. Denver (12/16), including a career-long 56-yard reception in OT to set up the game-winning 32-yard FG ... Had a career-high six receptions for 80 yards vs. San Diego (12/23), including a key 21-yard third-down reception on the game-winning drive.

College: Played in 43 games (19 starts) at Florida State ... Caught 115 passes for 2,098 yards (18.2 average) with 17 TDs ... His 115 grabs ranked 12th on the school's career-record list while his 2,098 yards and 17 scores placed him ninth in FSU annals ... Became the sixth receiver in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season ... Started all 11 games as a senior, leading the team with 63 receptions for 1,340 yards (21.3 avg.) and 11 scores ... His 63 catches ranked seventh on the school's single season-record list. Only Ron Sellers (1,496 in '68) gained more yards receiving in a Seminoles uniform in a single season ... Those 11 receiving scores ranked fourth on FSU's single-season receiving chart ... Averaged 111.7 receiving yards per game ... A first-team All-America selection by the Football Writers Association, American Football Coaches Association, The NFL Draft Report and Football News ... An All-Atlantic Coast Conference first-team pick ... Finalist for the Fred Biletnikoff Award, given annually to the nation's top receiver ... Closed his college career with a career-high 187 yards vs. Florida ... Majored in Criminology at Florida State.

New Orleans, Louisiana

Jackson State
Draft (No. 1 - 2000)
NFL: 4 (4th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (15/14) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Talented young receiver still attempting to bounce back from a right knee injury which has cost him the past two campaigns ... Enters his fourth season with the Chiefs in 2003 after joining the club as a first-round draft choice in 2000 ... Suffered a right knee injury on the next-to-the-last workout of the club's off-season program on June 20th of 2001 ... Underwent a surgical procedure to repair an ACL tear on June 22nd of that year and was forced to spend the entire season on the Physically-Unable-to-Perform (PUP) list ... Went to training camp with the club in 2002, but was still suffering lingering effects of that injury and was placed on injured reserve on September 1st ... Enjoyed the most prolific receiving campaign of any rookie in Chiefs history in 2000, hauling in 48 passes to surpass the team's previous rookie standard established by E Chris Burford in the franchise's initial season of '60 ... Seattle's Darrell Jackson (53) and Cincinnati's Peter Warrick (51) were the only NFL rookies in 2000 to post more receptions, while only Jackson (713) had more receiving yards ... Finished his debut season with 48 catches for 678 yards (14.1 avg.) and three TDs ... Earned All-Rookie Team accolades from both Pro Football Weekly and Football News ... Quickly made an impact upon his arrival in Kansas City in 2000, working his way into the club's starting lineup at the "X" receiver spot by the second week of the regular season ... An excellent leaper who seemingly gets stronger once he goes airborne ... Possesses a strong upper body which frequently allows him to go up and pluck the pigskin out of a crowd ... Often makes even the most difficult catches appear routine ... Displayed the ability to break out for a big game early in his career, getting 112 yards and three TDs in his first-ever start at Arrowhead vs. San Diego (9/17/00), becoming the first Chiefs rookie to ever haul in three touchdowns in a single game ... Had two of the club's team-record 14 individual 100-yard receiving efforts in 2000 ... Entered the NFL as Kansas City's first-round draft choice (21st overall) in the 2000 NFL Draft ... Became the first wide receiver tabbed by the Chiefs in the first round of the draft since the club took Anthony Hancock from Tennessee in '82 ... Was the first Jackson State product tabbed by the Chiefs in the draft since WR Tim Barnett in '91 ... Just one of seven players in Jackson State annals to be selected in the draft's opening round, joining CB Rashard Anderson who was taken just two picks later (23rd overall) by the Carolina Panthers ... Other Jackson State alums picked in the drafts opening round include: late Pro Football Hall of Famer RB Walter Payton (Chicago - '75), WR Jerome Barkum (N.Y. Jets - '72), DE Donald Reese (Miami - '74), LB Robert Brazile (Houston - '75) and G Lester Holmes (Philadelphia - '93) ... Joined fellow SWAC performer S Greg Wesley of Arkansas - Pine Bluff, who the Chiefs picked in the third round of the 2000 draft.

EXTRA POINTS

Morris became the only rookie in Chiefs history to catch three TDs in a single game when he did it vs. San Diego (9/17/00).

2002: Went to training camp with the club, but was placed on injured reserve on September 1st due to a knee injury suffered in the 2001 off-season.

2001: Suffered a right ACL injury on June 20th and had surgery two days later ... Was placed on PUP (Physically-Unable-to-Perform) on August 28th where he spent the entire season.

2000: Played in 15 games at wide receiver, starting 14 contests ... Produced a Chiefs rookie single-season record 48 catches for 678 yards (14.1 avg.) and three TDs ... Also completed one pass for 31 yards ... Ranked second among NFL rookies in receiving yards, was third in receptions and tied for third in TD catches ... Was the club's third WR vs. Indianapolis (9/3), catching three passes for a team-high 58 yards (19.3 avg.) in his NFL debut, including a long of 31 yards ... SECONDARY LOGO HISTORY

Although never part of the club's uniform, the franchise boasted a pair of strikingly similar secondary logos during its early days. According to Lamar Hunt, both logos were the creation of Bob Taylor, a cartoonist for the now-defunct Dallas Times-Herald. While there were several color schemes for both logos, the Texans logo featured a football-toting gunslinger set over the state of Texas. This logo adorned the Texans stationery and the billboard outside the club's offices in Dallas. When the club moved to Kansas City in '63, Taylor was commissioned to update the logo. The result was a Native American figure running with the same stride and holding the pigskin in the same manner as the gunslinger with the states of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Iowa and Arkansas serving as his backdrop. This logo was utilized prominently during the '60s and was affixed to the club's Swope Park headquarters on 63rd Street before the club moved to Arrowhead in '72.

Johnnie MORTON

Wide Receiver • 6-0 • 190

Born: October 7, 1971
Torrance, California

Southern California
Free Agent (2002)
NFL: 10 (2nd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (140/118) Playoffs: (3/3)

Pro Career: Vastly talented and extremely experienced wide receiver enters his second season with the Chiefs in 2003 . . . Came to Kansas City as a free agent on March 29th of 2002 . . . Joined the Chiefs after a record-setting eight-season run with Detroit, where he starred from '94-01 . . . Has been one of NFL's most consistently productive performers at his position in recent years, registering four 1,000-yard campaigns, including three straight from '97-99 . . . Provides Kansas City with a truly proven commodity at the wide receiver position, owning a pair of 80-catch campaigns . . . Pairs with Eddie Kennison to give the club a solid starting tandem at the WR position . . . Can play either receiver spot . . . Worked primarily at the "Z" wide receiver post in 2002, but returned to the "X" wide receiver during the 2003 off-season after spending the majority of his pro career playing that position in Detroit . . . Frequently turns short passes into long gains and often gets catches in big bunches . . . Owns 18 career 100-yard receiving games . . . Is regarded as a precise route runner which should make him a nice fit for the Chiefs intricate offensive scheme . . . A tremendous athlete who keeps himself in top physical condition . . . Has earned a penchant for making even the most acrobatic grabs appear routine . . . Although graceful once he leaves his feet, doesn't shy away from contact and is more than willing to catch balls across the middle . . . Durable performer has missed just three contests due to injury . . . Racked up impressive numbers during his tenure with the Lions, stats which are even more remarkable considering that he frequently paired with other 1,000-yard pass catchers during his tenure in Detroit, including the likes of Herman Moore, Brett Perriman and Germane Crowell . . . Began his career as a return man and special teams performer as a rookie before moving into the starting lineup for the Lions during his second pro campaign . . . Is a dangerous all-around athlete who can separate from defenders once he gets the ball in his hands as a receiver, a runner or in the return game . . . Has appeared in 140 regular season games, starting 118 of those contests during his previous nine NFL seasons . . . Over that span, recorded 498 receptions for 6,896 yards (13.8 avg.) with 36 TDs . . . Needs just two more catches to become the 76th player in NFL history to reach the 500-catch plateau . . . Has also rushed 31 times for 267 yards (8.6 avg.) in addition to returning 23 kickoffs for 559 yards (24.3 avg.) with one score . . . Owns seven punt returns for 48 yards (6.9 avg.), as well . . . Owns three games of postseason experience (all starts), producing 10 receptions for 105 yards (10.5 avg.) and one TD for the Lions . . . Originally entered the NFL as a first-round choice of Detroit (21st overall) in the '94 draft.

EXTRA POINTS

Pro Career: Unquestionably one of the most versatile and personable performers on the Chiefs roster ... This talented fullback enters his ninth campaign in the Red and Gold in 2003 ... Immensely popular both in the locker room and the Kansas City community, is truly one of the NFL's "good guys" ... In fact, was named an "NFL Good Guy" in 2002 by The Sporting News based on civic responsibility and character ... Known across the league simply by his moniker of "T-Rich" ... Plays the game with passion and humility, bringing a selfless attitude to work every day ... A true professional, who epitomizes what it means to be a team player ... After serving as Kansas City's most productive ground gainer in 2000, moved back to his less-glamorous fullback post in 2001 to make room for RB Priest Holmes, who simply proceeded to lead the entire league in rushing with Richardson serving as his lead blocker ... Continued in that fullback role in 2002, as Holmes upped his rushing total to a franchise-record 1,615 yards ... Serves as an excellent role model with his exemplary work ethic and all-giving approach to the game ... Is one of the most reputable leaders in the Chiefs locker room and is held in the same high esteem for the way he carries himself both on and off the field ... Among active Kansas City players, only eight-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields has spent more time on the Chiefs roster than Richardson, who joined the club as an unheralded free agent in '95 ... Has played in 115 regular season contests (54 starts), tying him with DB Jim Kearney for 45th position on the club's all-time service chart ... Came to Kansas City after spending the '94 season on the practice squad of the Dallas Cowboys where he learned the finer points of the game from the likes of the NFL's all-time leading rusher RB Emmitt Smith and his lead blocker, FB Daryl Johnston ... Regarded as one of the league's finest performers at his position, but is still looking for his initial Pro Bowl invitation ... Led all AFC fullbacks in the fan voting for the NFL's All-Star contest in 2001 ... Launched his career into overdrive during the '99 and 2000 seasons ... Was recognized as the starting fullback on Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro squad each of those two seasons and was also named to USA Today's All-Joe squad in 2000 and 2001 ... Missed two games apiece each of the past two campaigns with a right shoulder injury, but is at full strength heading into the 2003 campaign ... Owns the ability to play either backfield position or can work alone as a single back ... Owns 15 career rushing touchdowns, including a career-high seven rushing scores in 2001 ... Although he frequently gets the ball himself in tight situations, is simply one of the best lead blockers in the business ... Excels at escorting his teammates into the end zone with his battering-ram style, blowing even the best linebackers and defensive linemen off the ball ... Dishes out the same kind of punishment when he gets the ball in his hands and is tough to bring down in the open field ... A powerful runner when it comes time to move the chains, is frequently the player whose number is called to pick up the tough yardage ... Possesses superb pass-catching skills and surprising speed in addition to his aforementioned blocking affinity ... That triple-threat ability makes him an integral part of Kansas City's goal-line and short-yardage packages ... Has done virtually everything in his power to help his team and his teammates get better since joining the club in '95 ... Began his career working as a scout team service back, then earned his stripes as a special teamer before serving as a lead blocker in short-yardage and goal line situations for Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen ... Elevated his status by developing into one of the league's pre-eminent special teams performers, posting double-digit tackles in the kicking game five straight years from '95-99 ... From '95-99, only LB Greg Manusky (124) produced more special teams stops in a Chiefs uniform than Richardson (94) ... Entered the '99 campaign as the club's starting fullback and opened all 16 games for the first time in his career ... Finally got an opportunity to fully showcase his offensive skills down the stretch in '99 when he carried the bulk of the club's rushing load, getting 284 of his 387 rushing yards (73.4%) in the season's final five games ... Truly emerged in 2000 when he started all 16 games, including five as the club's halfback, and led the team in rushing with 147 carries for 697 yards (4.7 avg.) with three TDs ... Has seen duty in 115 career regular season games with 54 starts, posting 353 rushes for 1,440 yards (4.1 avg.) and 15 scores ... Also has 137 receptions for 1,036 yards (7.6 avg.) with eight TDs ... Owns 96 career special teams tackles and needs just four more to reach 100 ... Has seen duty in two career playoff games with the Chiefs, as well ... Ranks 19th in Chiefs history with 1,440 rushing yards and needs three more yards to surpass Woody Green (1,442) for 18th, 62 to move ahead of Joe Delaney (1,501) for 17th position and 250 to overtake Robert Holmes (1,689) for 16th ... Needs just 13 more receptions to become the 19th player in team history with 150 career catches ... Has accumulated 1,036 career receiving yards and needs 464 more to become the 20th player in team history to reach the 1,500-yard receiving plateau ... Is tied for 23rd in Chiefs annals with 138 career points ... Came to Kansas City as a free agent on February 28th of '95 ... Originally entered the league as a rookie free agent with the Dallas Cowboys on May 2nd of '94 ... Was waived by Dallas just prior to the start of the regular season ... Joined the Cowboys practice squad on August 30th where he spent the remainder of the year.

Willie

ROAF

Tackle • 6-5 • 320

Born: April 18, 1970
Pine Bluff, Arkansas

Louisiana Tech
Trade - New Orleans (2002)
GP/GS: (147/147) Playoffs: (2/2)

Pro Career: Mammoth eight-time Pro Bowl offensive tackle joined the Chiefs on March 26th of 2002 in a trade with New Orleans ... The Chiefs received the services of one of the NFL's most dominant and most decorated tackles of the past decade in exchange for a third-round draft choice in 2003 ... Earned his eighth Pro Bowl invitation during his initial campaign with the Red and Gold in 2002 after registering seven Pro Bowl berths in nine stellar seasons with the Saints ... Started all 16 games at left tackle for the Chiefs a year ago, where he is revered as one of the most consistent pass protectors in the game today ... Is also a superb run-blocker, owning a sterling reputation among his peers as one of the finest all-around performers to ever play his position ... Received one of football's highest honors by being named to the 1990s All-Decade Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... A truly imposing figure who is extremely agile for a man of his vast proportions ... Combines with eight-time Pro Bowl right guard Will Shields to give Kansas City a guard-tackle tandem with 16 combined Pro Bowl appearances ... Along with Shields and former Saints teammate K Morten Andersen, makes the Chiefs the only team in the league with three active players who each own seven or more Pro Bowl appearances ... Interestingly, both Roaf and Shields were products of the same '93 draft class ... Regained his Pro Bowl form a year ago after an MCL injury to his right knee cost him the final nine games of the 2001 campaign ... Prior to that malady, had missed just five contests over his initial eight NFL seasons ... Came to Kansas City after spending nine seasons with New Orleans, where he started all 131 games in which he played ... Also started two postseason contests during his tenure with the Saints ... Those 131 games played rank 17th on the Saints all-time service chart ... Had started 57 consecutive games from '93-96 before injuring his knee against San Francisco (11/3/96), snapping a streak of 3,392 straight offensive plays in which he had participated dating back to the first play of his rookie season in '93 ... After starting his NFL career as a right tackle he switched to the left tackle post during his second NFL campaign, where he went on to earn the first of his club-record seven Pro Bowl nominations in '94 ... Was the first offensive lineman taken in the '93 draft with the eighth pick, making him the second-highest pick ever used by New Orleans on an offensive lineman, trailing only T Jim Dombrowski who was selected sixth overall in '86 ... Originally entered the league as a first-round draft pick (eighth overall) by the Saints in the '93 NFL Draft.

Eight-Time Pro Bowler ('95-02)

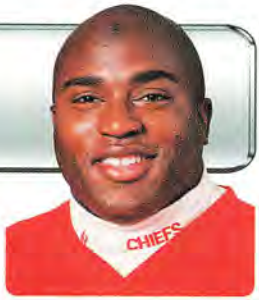
68 Will SHIELDS

Guard • 6-3 • 315



Born: September 15, 1971
Fort Riley, Kansas

Nebraska
Draft (No. 3 - 1993)
NFL: 11 (11th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (160/159) Playoffs: (6/6)

Pro Career: Eight-time Pro Bowl right guard is arguably the finest player at his position in the league today and is regarded by many as the NFL's finest offensive lineman, period ... Enters his 11th season in a Kansas City uniform, making him the longest-tenured player on the Chiefs roster ... Has been with Kansas City since joining the club as a third-round draft choice in '93, giving him two more years of experience than his closest competitor, FB Tony Richardson, who signed on in '95 ... Mild-mannered performer speaks volumes with his consistently high level of play ... Is an asset to the club both on the field and in the Kansas City community ... An instinctive performer who can out-smart, out-maneuver, or simply overpower opponents and is endowed with innate ability to decipher the best means of attacking each particular adversary . . . Is equally effective in the trenches or the open field and is particularly adept as a lead blocker on plays which require a pulling guard . . . Pairs with eight-time Pro Bowl T Willie Roaf to give Kansas City a guard-tackle tandem with a combined 16 Pro Bowl appearances, the highest total of any active duo in the league . . . Combines with Roaf and K Morten Andersen (seven Pro Bowls) to make the Chiefs the only team in the NFL with a trio of players boasting seven or more Pro Bowl nods this season . . . Remarkably durable performer has not missed a single contest in his 10 previous campaigns, playing in 160 straight games, the fifth-longest streak in team history . . . Is rapidly closing in on K Jan Stenerud's franchise-record of 186 consecutive games played and is poised to bypass Pro Football Hall of Famers DT Buck Buchanan (166) and LB Bobby Bell (168) to move into third in that category this season . . . Truly gifted performer has made his name at right guard, but has seen action in three games at tackle for the club, including a start at left tackle vs. Carolina (12/10/00) . . . Made his first NFL appearance at Tampa Bay (9/5/93), a game which also marked QB Joe Montana's initial game in a Kansas City uniform . . . Owns the third-longest active starting streak in the NFL, trailing only Green Bay QB Brett Favre (173) and Oakland WR Tim Brown (162) . . . His string of 159 consecutive starts dates back to the second contest of his rookie season in '93 and is the longest string of starts in team history since the club began tracking that stat in '68 . . . His 159 total starts are tied with QB Len Dawson as the third-highest total in team history since '68. He needs six more to pass C Tim Grunhard (165) for second and 13 more to overtake C Jack Rudnay (171) for first . . . Has been a mainstay in the Kansas City lineup since his initial NFL start at Houston (9/12/93) . . . Owns eight consecutive Pro Bowl berths following the '95-02 seasons, giving him the longest active streak of any Chiefs player . . . Those eight Pro Bowl nods are also the most ever by a Kansas City offensive lineman . . . Joins Chiefs Hall of Famer Ed Budde as the only other guard in team history to merit a Pro Bowl invitation . . . In 2001, matched Budde's seven overall AFL All-Star and Pro Bowl berths ('64, '67-72) . . . With his eighth straight Pro Bowl nod a year ago, joined some very prestigious Chiefs company . . . Became just the sixth player in team annals with eight or more Pro Bowl appearances, joining Bell and Chiefs Hall of Famers, the late LB Derrick Thomas and Jim Tyrer, who share the franchise record with nine. Would also become only the sixth player in Chiefs history with eight or more AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl berths. Bell, Thomas and T Jim Tyrer hold the record with nine while Buchanan and LB Willie Lanier also had eight. Of that fivesome, all five are in the Chiefs Hall of Fame, while Bell, Buchanan and Lanier are also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall . . . Was a member of the Chiefs "40 Years in Kansas City 40-Man Squad" in 2002 and joined Thomas as the only other active player to be named to the Chiefs 40th Anniversary Team in '99 . . . Despite his highly-decorated status, is a true team player who puts the good of the whole ahead of his own personal gain . . . Humble performer has spoken volumes on the field with his consistently high level of performance . . . Is also one of the team's most active players in the Kansas City community, participating in numerous charitable projects and was named Pro Football Weekly's "Humanitarian of the Year" in '99 . . . Considered one of the most valuable performers on the Kansas City roster . . . Has been a major factor in helping RB Priest Holmes become the first back in franchise history to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing campaigns in 2001-02 . . . Was also a key reason the Chiefs ranked third in the league in rushing from '95-99 with a 125.4 yards-per-game average over that five-year span . . . The lone remaining active member of the group largely responsible for those helping the Chiefs amass those gaudy ground numbers. For eight seasons was the junior member of the offensive line "Law Firm" which was referred to in the Arrowhead locker room as the single entity of Szott, Grunhard and Shields. That interior line triumvirate is widely regarded as one of the finest in the illustrious history of the franchise . . . Was Kansas City's first pick in the '93 NFL Draft, going in the third round (74th overall) . . . Arguably the steal of that year's annual selection meeting after being the 11th offensive lineman chosen.

EXTRA POINTS

Green Bay QB Brett Favre (173) and Oakland WR Tim Brown (162) are the only two active NFL players entering the 2003 season with longer starting streaks than Shields (159).

2002: Started all 16 games at right guard . . . Was selected to his eighth consecutive Pro Bowl, the longest streak by an offensive player in franchise history . . . Earned first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and Football Digest . . . Was also an All-Pro pick of The Sporting News and was an All-NFL and All-AFC selection of Pro Football Weekly . . . Part of a Kansas City offense that led the league in scoring with team-record 467 points and set another franchise mark with 6,000 yards of total offense . . . Started his 145th consecutive game vs. Jacksonville (9/15) to bypass Emmitt Thomas (144) for the longest streak in Chiefs annals since '68 . . . Started his 159th game at Oakland (12/28) to tie Len Dawson for the third-highest total of career starts in team history.

2001: Started all 16 games at right guard . . . Was selected to the Pro Bowl for the seventh straight season . . . Was named second-team All-NFL by the College and Pro Football Newsweekly . . . Pushed his streak of consecutive games played to 144 and his starting streak to 143 contests . . . A key member of the offensive line that helped RB Priest Holmes win the NFL rushing title with 1,555 yards.

1999: Started all 16 games at right guard and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive year ... Was a first-team All-Pro selection of The Sporting News ... A major contributor to the Chiefs ground game which ranked fourth in the NFL, averaging 130.1 yards per game ... Part of an offensive line that allowed just 26.0 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the league ... Captained the offense vs. Denver (9/19), vs. Detroit (9/26) and at San Diego (10/3) ... Made his 100th consecutive start at right guard vs. New England (10/10) ... Captained the offense along with Dave Szott at Tampa Bay (11/14).

1998: Started 16 games at right guard, earning Pro Bowl honors for a fourth straight year ... Got his first career reception in the third quarter of the monsoon game vs. Seattle (10/4), hauling in a Rich Gannon pass that was batted back at the line of scrimmage for a four-yard gain.

1997: Started all 16 regular season games and earned a third straight Pro Bowl appearance ... Received first-team All-NFL honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and second-team recognition from Football Digest ... Was a first-team All-AFC pick of Football News ... Part of a Kansas City offensive line which helped the Chiefs roll up 135.7 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL, marking the third straight season the club was among the league's top five rushing offenses ... Started in the playoffs vs. Denver (1/4/98), his sixth postseason appearance.

1996: Opened all 16 games at right guard ... Earned his second straight berth in the Pro Bowl, his first as a starter ... Became the first Kansas City guard to appear in back-to-back AFC-NFC Pro Bowls since Ed Budde in '71 and '72 ... Was a first-team All-AFC selection of both UPI and Pro Football Weekly ... Helped the Chiefs average 125.6 rushing yards per game, the league's fourth-best total.

1995: Made his first Pro Bowl appearance and was named first-team All-NFL by USA Today and Sports Illustrated ... Started all 16 regular season contests at right guard, in addition to the club's playoff tilt ... A pivotal part of a Chiefs offensive line which cleared a path for the NFL's top rushing offense, marking the first time in franchise history that Kansas City had ever led the league in that category ... That same offensive line was also proficient in protecting the passer, allowing an AFC-low 21.0 sacks ... Opened at right guard at Cleveland (9/24), but injuries to starting tackles John Alt and Jeff Criswell forced him to step in at the right tackle spot despite never previously taking a snap at that position.

1994: Started all 16 regular season games, plus one playoff contest at right guard ... Was a key reason the Chiefs permitted just 19.0 sacks, the fewest in Kansas City history and the third-fewest in the NFL in '94.

1993: Played in all 16 games (15 starts) at right guard as a rookie ... Also started three playoff contests ... His 18 combined starts were the most ever by a Chiefs rookie ... Named to almost every all-rookie squad, including Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest ... Earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award, the team's most prestigious rookie honor ... Saw his first pro action at right guard when Dave Szott, the team's starting left guard, suffered a knee injury in the season opener at Tampa Bay (9/5) and starting right guard Danny Villa took Szott's spot ... The following week at Houston (9/12), Villa moved to left guard and Shields began his starting streak at right guard.

College: Was a rare three-time All-Big Eight choice ... Became the second Outland Trophy winner to ever play for the Chiefs (Bobby Bell, '62) ... Was also a finalist for the Lombardi Trophy in '92 ... Was a first team All-America selection of the AP, Football News, Walter Camp and Kodak and a consensus All-Big Eight choice as a senior ... Was a second-team All-America pick by the AP, as well as a first-team All-Big Eight choice as a junior ... The first Husker lineman since C Dave Rimington ('80) to earn conference first-team honors as a sophomore ... Became the first player from the state of Oklahoma to play for the Huskers ... Owns a Communications degree from Nebraska.

Personal: Was an all-state choice at Lawton High School in Lawton, Oklahoma ... Selected state Lineman of the Year by the Daily Oklahoman ... Lettered three years as an offensive guard and defensive tackle ... Was also a member of the track squad ... Established the "Will to Succeed Foundation," which has developed a number of innovative programs and has benefitted more than 78,000 individuals since the foundations' inception in '93. A complete listing of all Shields' charitable efforts are on the foundation's website at willtosucceed.org. Several major components of the "Will to Succeed Foundation" include: Serving as a spokesman and on the Board of Directors for the Marillac Center for Children which benefits children with emotional and behavioral disorders; "Operation Breakthrough" which helps meet the needs of disadvantaged children served by St. Vincent's Family Center; "Team Esteem," a program for inner-city youths which rewards academic and personal improvement with trips to cultural events and Chiefs games ... Currently serving as the Chiefs United Way spokesperson in 2003 ... Is also a board member for the Kansas City Stop Violence Coalition ... Conducts annual youth football camps in his hometown of Lawton, Oklahoma, as well as locations in Iowa and New Jersey ... Part of the "School is Cool Jam" conducted at the University of Nebraska which brought over 17,000 students together for the purpose of mentoring, motivating and stressing the importance of education ... An active participant in the KC Reads program and the Storytelling Celebration which both promote reading to Kansas City area youths ... Additional Stats: Had one reception for four yards vs. Seattle (10/4/98).

STREAKS AND MILESTONES: Has started 159 consecutive games dating back to a contest at Houston (9/12/93), the longest streak in team history since '68. Owns the third-longest starting streak among active NFL players behind Brett Favre (173) and Tim Brown (162). His 159 total starts are tied with Len Dawson as the third-highest total in team history since '68. He needs six more to pass Tim Grunhard (165) for second and 13 more to overtake Jack Rudnay (171) for first. Has appeared in 160 straight games, giving him the fifth-longest streak in team annals. Needs seven more games to bypass Buck Buchanan (166) for fourth and nine more games to overtake Bobby Bell (168) for third. Needs to play in 10 more games to move into 11th in team history in career games played, moving past Grunhard and Derrick Thomas (169).

Ryan SIMS

Defensive Tackle • 6-4 • 315

Born: May 4, 1980
Spartanburg, South Carolina

North Carolina
Draft (No. 1 - 2002)
NFL: 2 (2nd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (6/2) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: First-round draftee of the Chiefs in 2002 looking to get back on the field after a dislocated left elbow cost him the final 10 games of his rookie campaign ... Now fully healthy, will attempt to display the skills which led Kansas City to select him with the sixth overall pick in last year's draft ... Played in just six games a year ago, suffering that season-ending elbow injury in only his second pro start at San Diego (10/13/02) ... Works at defensive tackle, where he is expected to resume his starting role ... Is entering his initial training camp with Kansas City in 2003 after missing all of camp due to a contract holdout last season ... Did not sign with the club until August 28th a year ago, but after undergoing a rigorous conditioning program and a crash course in Kansas City's defense, was ready to take the field for Opening Day ... Was beginning to show glimpses of his vast promise as a potentially-dominating defensive tackle before being placed on injured reserve on October 16th of last season ... Possesses the size, strength and agility to excel as both a run stuffer and a pass rusher ... Owns six games of NFL experience with two starts, recording 14 tackles (six solo), three QB pressures and one pass defensed ... Was the highest Kansas City draft choice since the Chiefs selected the late LB Derrick Thomas with the fourth overall selection in the '89 NFL Draft ... Originally entered the NFL as the Chiefs first round selection (sixth overall) in the 2002 Draft ... His selection provided some draft day hijinx when the Chiefs moved up two spots with Dallas to select him. Kansas City made the trade, but Minnesota was actually on the clock since Dallas had not officially notified the NFL of the trade before time had expired on the pick. In the end, Kansas City was able to select the player it truly courted in the draft ... Kansas City obtained the Cowboys first-round choice (sixth overall - used on Sims) in exchange for the Chiefs first-round selection (eighth overall - used on S Roy Williams) and third-round pick (75th overall - used on CB Derek Ross) in 2002, as well as Kansas City's sixth-round pick in 2003 (186th overall - used on WR Zuriel Smith).

EXTRA POINTS

Sims' father, Ronnie, played pro baseball in the Boston Red Sox farm system. Sims had the baseball diamond at his high school alma mater renamed in his father's honor.

2002: Saw action in six games (two starts) at DT before suffering a dislocated left elbow injury ... Accounted for 14 tackles (six solo), including two stops for a loss, a pass defensed and three QB pressures ... Recorded four tackles, including one for loss in his first NFL game at Cleveland (9/8) ... Totaled two tackles vs. Jacksonville (9/15) ... Accounted for two tackles and two QB pressures at New England (9/22) ... Registered two tackles, a pass defensed and a QB pressure vs. Miami (9/29) ... Recorded four tackles with one for a loss in his first career NFL start at the N.Y. Jets (10/6) ... Suffered a dislocated left elbow on the club's first defensive series and did not return at San Diego (10/13) ... Was placed on injured reserve on October 16th with that injury.

College: A three-year starter who appeared in 43 games (33 starts) at North Carolina ... Finished his college career with 167 tackles (83 solo), 14.0 sacks (-87.0 yards), 28.0 tackles for loss, 11 passes defensed, 40 QB pressures and a fumble recovery ... Former college teammate of the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft, DE Julius Peppers, who was tabbed by Carolina ... A first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice and a second-team All-America selection as a senior when he recorded 51 tackles (23 solo) and four passes defensed ... Led the squad with 20 QB pressures, ranked second on the team with 5.0 sacks (30.0 yards) and was third with 8.0 tackles for loss ... Started all 11 games as a junior, registering 52 tackles (26 solo), 6.0 sacks (-36.0 yards), 9.0 stops for loss, 11 quarterback pressures, three passes defensed and his only career fumble recovery ... Tackle • 6-6 • 323

Born: January 26, 1975
Phoenix, Arizona

Brigham Young
Draft (No. 1 - 1999)
NFL: 5 (5th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (59/50) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Powerful offensive tackle entering his fifth season with the Chiefs and his second as the club's starting right tackle ... Selfless performer made the move from left tackle to right tackle last year to accomodate eight-time Pro Bowl left tackle Willie Roaf, who was acquired via a trade with New Orleans on March 26th of 2002 ... After opening 34 contests at left tackle from '99-01, shifted to right tackle, where he started all 16 contests a year ago ... Durable performer owns a string of 34 consecutive starts dating back to 2000 and has opened 50 of his last 51 regular season contests ... Entered the starting lineup at left tackle late in his rookie campaign before taking over those duties on a full-time basis in 2000 ... Possesses the prototypical size, strength and agility to play either tackle position ... Mild-mannered off the field, shows a nasty side once he crosses the stripe onto the playing surface ... Is not only an explosive drive blocker in the running game, but is also adept as a pass protector ... A dedicated technician who has continued to make strides after entering the NFL as the first offensive lineman selected in the '99 NFL Draft with the Chiefs 14th overall selection ... After moving to the right side of the Kansas City offensive front, has unquestionably picked up some finer points of the game playing next to eight-time Pro Bowl right guard Will Shields ... Pairs with Roaf to give the club an imposing pair of first-round bookends on the line ... Has also benefited from the tutelage of Roaf, one of the NFL's finest offensive tackles to enter the league over the past decade ... Despite missing all of training camp and the preseason in '99 due to a contract holdout, made rapid progress upon joining the club on September 9th of that year ... Played in 12 games with three starts as a rookie, seeing action at left tackle and also working as a wedge man on the club's kickoff return unit ... Continued that progress in 2000 when he started all 15 contests he played in ... Opened all 16 games at left tackle in 2001 before moving to right tackle a year ago ... In total, has seen action in 59 games for the Chiefs with 50 starts ... Was the club's first draft choice from Brigham Young since tabbing center Orrin Olsen in the eighth round of the '76 draft ... Originally entered the NFL as a first-round selection (14th overall) of Kansas City in the '99 NFL Draft.

EXTRA POINTS

Tait is an avid supporter of the arts and hosts an annual fundraiser for his foundation entitled "Big Chiefs, Big Art, Big Night," in which he and his teammates create paintings that are auctioned off.

2002: Made the switch to right tackle where he started all 16 games ... Part of an offensive front that helped the club average an NFL-high 29.2 points per game ... Also helped pave the way for RB Priest Holmes, who established a Chiefs single-season record with 1,615 rushing yards ... Started his first career game at RT at Cleveland (9/8). Was part of one of the most improbable finishes in team history in that contest, hauling in a lateral from QB Trent Green with no time remaining on the clock on what appeared to be the game's final play. Proceeded to rumble for 28 rushing yards to the Browns 25-yard line on his first NFL carry. Cleveland LB Dwayne Rudd was penalized for Unsportsmanlike Conduct after removing his helmet on the play, setting the stage for K Morten Andersen's 30-yard game-winning FG in a 40-39 victory.

2000: Started 15 games at left tackle ... Left the game in the fourth quarter with a knee injury and did not return at New England (12/4) and was inactive vs. Carolina (12/10) ... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Denver (12/17) ... Was part of a team-record effort when the Chiefs did not permit a sack in those three consecutive contests vs. the Patriots, Panthers and Broncos.

1999: Saw duty in 12 games with three starts ... Played at left tackle and as a tackle eligible in goal line sets ... Saw duty on the kickoff return unit in the season's final five contests ... Began the regular season on the NFL Roster Exemption list for the season's opening two contests at Chicago (9/12) and vs. Denver (9/19) after signing with the club on September 9th ... Made his NFL debut vs. New England (10/10) when he lined up as a tackle eligible in the club's goal line offense ... Made his first NFL start at left tackle, replacing an injured Glenn Parker at Oakland (11/28) ... Also started at left tackle for Parker vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) and at Seattle (12/26) ... Played but did not start vs. Oakland (1/2/00).

College: Started all 37 games he saw duty in during his three-year college career at BYU ... An All-America pick his final season, also earned first-team All-Western Athletic Conference honors as both a junior and a senior ... Was eligible for a fifth year of college action after redshirting as a true freshman in '93, but had already completed his degree and declared for the draft ... Served as a captain for the BYU offense and started all 13 games at left tackle in his final season in '98 ... Earned first-team All-America honors from Football News that year and was named National Offensive Lineman of the Year by The Sports Network ... Was a first-team All-WAC choice, as well ... Started nine games at left tackle as a sophomore, missing two contests due to injury ... Started all 15 games at left tackle as a freshman in '96 ... A freshman All-America selection of The Sporting News ... Helped lead the club to a 19-15 win over Kansas State in the Cotton Bowl ... Did not play football from '94-95 ... Served on an LDS church mission to Tennessee ... Redshirted as a freshman in '93 ... Majored in Communications at BYU.

Personal: Lettered three times in football and twice in track and field at McClintock High School in Tempe, Arizona ... Was an all-state, all-region and all-city selection in football as both a junior and senior ... Established "The John Tait Foundation" in 2001, which promotes a healthy start in children's lives through research, health care, healthy life choices by youth and access to the arts ... Was named a "Top 100" Good Guy by The Sporting News for his off-the-field efforts in 2002 ... Annually sends 76 children with cancer to Camp Quality through his "76 for 76" program ... Provides funds to expand art programs for disadvantage youth at Accessible Arts and the Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art ... Serves as a spokesperson for the Children's Museum of Kansas City and the Heart of America Boy Scouts ... Greg WESLEY

Safety • 6-2 • 206

Born: March 19, 1978
Little Rock, Arkansas

Arkansas - Pine Bluff
Draft: (No. 3 - 2000)
NFL: 4 (4th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (45/45) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Bone-rattling performer entering his fourth season as the Chiefs starting strong safety in 2003 ... Has opened every game he's appeared in for Kansas City after entering the NFL as an unheralded third-round draft choice out of Arkansas - Pine Bluff in 2000 ... Racked up 100+ tackles in each of his first two pro campaigns, while ranking second in the AFC with six interceptions in 2002 ... Has quickly made a name for himself across the league ... Frequently provides an "up-close and personal" introduction to receivers who tread across his turf in the Chiefs secondary ... A punishing performer who is regarded as one of the league's most vicious hitters ... Has averaged exactly 103 tackles per season over his first three NFL seasons ... Became only the third player in Chiefs history since '70 to start the first 32 games of his career and was the first to do it since Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee DE Art Still in '78-79. The only other Kansas City player to hold that distinction since the AFL-NFL merger in '70 is S Gary Barbaro, who started his first 32 games over the course of the '76-78 campaigns ... Despite missing three games due to injuries a year ago to snap his consecutive games started streak at 37 contests, is expected to be back in his hard-hitting form in 2003 ... Knows what to do once he gets the ball in his hands, averaging 24.2 yards per INT return over his career ... Was the first Kansas City defensive back and just the fourth player in Chiefs history to produce 100+ tackles in his first two NFL seasons ... His 227 tackles in 2000-01 were the highest total ever assembled by a Chiefs defensive back in his initial two pro seasons ... Has started 45 games in a Chiefs uniform, producing 309 career tackles (214 solo), 10 INTs (242 yards) and 4.0 sacks (-27.0 yards) ... Also owns four fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, 20 passes defensed, 15 QB pressures and 12 special teams stops ... Literally burst onto the NFL scene with a sensational rookie effort in 2000 when he became the first Chiefs rookie to start all 16 games since CB Kevin Ross in '84 ... Also earned the Chiefs presitigious Mack Lee Hill Award presented annually to the team's top rookie or first-year performer and was a consensus All-Rookie selection, receiving those honors from Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest ... Was billed by the Chiefs as potentially one of the best steals of the 2000 draft, a claim which certainly proved to be prophetic ... Truly a unique story in today's age of NFL scouting which leaves virtually no stone unturned ... Became eligible for the draft after the 2000 combine and was worked out on his college campus by just eight NFL clubs, including Kansas City ... The first Chiefs player to ever come out of Arkansas - Pine Bluff, which was formerly known as Arkansas AM&N ... Was tabbed by Kansas City in the third round (85th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft.

EXTRA POINTS

The Chiefs were one of just eight NFL teams that attended Wesley's on-campus workout when he became eligible for the draft after the 2000 combine.

2002: Opened 13 games at strong safety ... Was inactive for three games due to injury ... Was fifth on the team with 82 tackles (55 solo), including one behind the line ... Also had six QB pressures, two passes defensed, one fumble recovery and a sack (-4.0 yards) ... Tied for second in the AFC and fifth in the NFL with a team-high six INTs (170 yards) ... His 170 INT return yards were the fifth-highest seasonal total in team history ... Led the team with 10 tackles at Cleveland (9/8) ... Recorded a career-high three interceptions off QB Jay Fielder in the fourth quarter for a career-best 71 INT return yards vs. Miami (9/29), including a return of 42 yards. His three INTs in one game tied for the most in the NFL in 2002 and were the most in Chiefs history since Albert Lewis had three vs. Atlanta (9/1/91) ... Produced an interception off Chad Pennington before leaving in the second quarter with a left shoulder injury at the N.Y. Jets (10/6) ... Was inactive at San Diego (10/13) and vs. Denver (10/20) due to that shoulder injury, breaking his streak of 37 consecutive starts ... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Oakland (10/27), making four tackles and two QB pressures ... Totaled nine tackles at San Francisco (11/10) ... Amassed a career-high three QB pressures and a career-long 50-yard INT return off Jake Plummer vs. Arizona (12/1) ... Recorded eight tackles, a sack and an INT (49 yards) off Jamie Martin vs. St. Louis (12/8) ... Recovered a fumble by RB Clinton Portis at Denver (12/15) ... Left the game in the fourth quarter with a right hamstring strain vs. San Diego (12/22) ... Was inactive at Oakland (12/28) due to that injury.

2001: Started all 16 games at strong safety ... Recorded 126 tackles (76 solo) to rank third on the team and lead all Chiefs defensive backs ... Also added 2.0 sacks (-12.0 yards), five tackles for loss, two INTs, six QB pressures, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and seven passes defensed ... Had four special teams stops, as well ... Collected seven tackles vs. Oakland (9/9), as well as a sack and strip of Rich Gannon ... Recorded 12 tackles vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) ... Intercepted a Tony Banks pass at Washington (9/30), returning it 30 yards ... Recorded two QB pressures at Denver (10/7) ... Produced nine tackles, a QB pressure and two passes defensed vs. Pittsburgh (10/14) ... Registered a career-high 13 tackles at Arizona (10/21) ... Amassed nine tackles, a pass defensed and recovered a QB Vinny Testaverde fumble at the N.Y. Jets (11/11) ... Had two QB pressures and a sack (-5.0 yards) of Matt Hasselbeck vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Tied a career-high with 13 tackles vs. Philadelphia (11/29) and returned a Donovan McNabb INT 13 yards ... Recovered a QB Rich Gannon fumble at Oakland (12/9) ... Produced a team-high 10 tackles and two passes defensed at Jacksonville (12/30).

2000: Started all 16 games at strong safety, becoming the first rookie to open all 16 contests since CB Kevin Ross in '84 ... Named the club's Mack Lee Hill Award recipient as the Chiefs most outstanding rookie or first-year player ... Compiled 101 tackles (83 solo) to rank third on the team ... Those 101 tackles were the fourth-highest total ever by a Chiefs rookie and the most-ever by a KC rookie defensive back ... Led the team with 11 passes defensed and tied for second with two interceptions ... Also had a sack (-11.0 yards), a fumble recovery, two forced fumbles, three QB pressures and eight special teams tackles ... Started in his first NFL game vs. Indianapolis (9/3), tallying eight tackles and a pass defensed. Became the first Chiefs rookie to start on Opening Day since LB Percy Snow in '90 and was the first rookie safety to start for Kansas City in the first regular season game of the season since S Gary Barbaro in '76 ... Collected nine solo tackles at Tennessee (9/10) ... Registered his first NFL sack at Denver (9/24), spinning around a would-be blocker to take down Gus Frerotte and force a fumble on the play with Kansas City trailing 22-14 in the fourth quarter. That sack and strip marked a pivotal turnaround in the Chiefs 23-22 comeback victory ... Forced a RB Shaun Alexander fumble vs. Seattle (10/2) ... Registered his first career INT off current KC signal-caller Trent Green (28 yards) vs. St. Louis (10/22) ... Amassed a career-high three passes defensed and an INT off Jon Kitna at Seattle (10/29) ... Compiled nine tackles at San Francisco (11/12) ... Had a fumble recovery at New England (12/4) ... Posted eight tackles and a pass defensed at Atlanta (12/24).

College: Saw duty in 33 games (22 starts) at Arkansas - Pine Bluff, totaling 121 tackles (76 solo), 9.0 tackles for a loss, eight INTs for 88 yards, a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and 21 passes defensed ... Also contributed a sack and 20 special teams stops ... Talented athlete who didn't originally enroll at Arkansas - Pine Bluff with the intention of playing collegiate football ... Was "discovered" at Arkansas - Pine Bluff by an assistant football coach who saw him dunk in an intramural basketball contest in November of '96... Had already planned to join the Golden Lions football team as a walk-on in '97, but that performance truly heightened the coaching staff's interest in him ... Started all 11 games at free safety and ranked third on the squad with 62 tackles (36 solo) in '99 ... Produced four INTs for 68 yards and also added 6.0 tackles for loss, five passes defensed ... Got a season-high 10 tackles vs. Alabama A&M ... Was a second-team All-Southwestern Conference performer in '98 at free safety ... In 11 starts, racked up 54 tackles (35 solo), four interceptions for 17 yards, a forced fumble and a pair of tackles for loss ... Led the conference with a career-high 16 passes defensed ... Joined the team as a walk-on during his sophomore year in '97 ... Was named the club's special teams MVP by the coaching staff ... Had five tackles, a sack, a fumble recovery and 20 special teams tackles in his first season with the club ... Majored in Business Management at Arkansas - Pine Bluff.

Personal: An exceptional prep athlete, was named to the All-Arkansas basketball team as a senior ... Full name: Gregory Lashon Wesley ... Single ... Resides in Leawood, Kansas.

Casey WIEGMANN

Center • 6-2 • 285

Born: July 20, 1973
Parkersburg, Iowa

Iowa
Unrestricted Free Agent (2001)
GP/GS: (83/56) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Strong-willed Iowan joined Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent from Chicago on March 15th of 2001 ... Doesn't tip the scales at or above 300 pounds like many NFL offensive linemen, but plays much bigger than his size with a determined and fundamentally-sound style ... One of the league's most under-rated performers at his position ... Finally began to garner some well-deserved national attention in 2002 when he was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team which annually recognizes the NFL's best blue-collar players ... Also finished second in the AP's All-Pro voting at center ... It isn't just mere happenstance that Wiegmann's arrival in Kansas City has coincided with RB Priest Holmes' emergence as one of the league's most prolific all-around performers ... Has excellent quickness and agility, attributes that frequently allow him to take on second-level defenders on draws and screens - two of Holmes' most productive plays ... A tenacious blocker who displays a hard-working style true to his Midwestern roots ... One of four current NFL performers to hail from Iowa's epicenter of future NFL players – Aplington-Parkersburg High School in Parkersburg, Iowa (pop. 1,804) – joining G Brad Meester (Jacksonville), DE Jared DeVries (Detroit) and DE Aaron Kampman (Green Bay), who also hail from that high school alma mater ... Originally came to Kansas City as the replacement for one of the finest centers in the illustrious 44-year history of the Chiefs franchise, Tim Grunhard ... Is quickly establishing his own legacy after helping Holmes lead the NFL in yards from scrimmage each of the past two seasons ... Barks out the blocking calls for a star-studded Kansas City offensive front that includes a pair of eight-time Pro Bowlers in G Will Shields and T Willie Roaf ... Was part of a Chiefs offense that set a team-record with a league-high 467 points in 2002 and accumulated a franchise-record 6,000 yards of total offense ... Durable performer has opened 31 straight games for the Chiefs after missing the 2001 season opener after undergoing an appendectomy ... Has played in a total of 83 games (56 starts) in his seven previous NFL campaigns with Kansas City (2001-02), Chicago ('97-00) and the N.Y. Jets ('96-97) ... Was also on the roster of Indianapolis ('96) ... Owns two career kickoff returns for 10 yards ... Joined the Bears on September 24th of '97 after being released by the N.Y. Jets after seeing action in the first three games of the season with that club ... Was claimed by the Jets off waivers from Indianapolis on October 29th of '96 ... Spent time on both the active roster and practice squad of the Colts in '96, but did not see game action ... Originally entered the NFL ranks as a rookie free agent with Indianapolis, signing on April 26th of '96.

EXTRA POINTS

In the fifth grade, Wiegmann wrote an essay aspiring to "play football and basketball at the University of Iowa." His other career ambitions included "starting a pig ranch and eventually going to work for the John Deere Company."

Kansas City (2001-02): Has started 31 consecutive games at center for the Chiefs since joining the club as an unrestricted free agent in 2001.

2002: Started at center in all 16 games for the first time in his career ... Was named to the USA Today All-Joe team for his efforts ... Anchored an offensive line that helped RB Priest Holmes establish a single-season franchise record with 1,615 rushing yards as the Chiefs led the league in scoring (29.2 ppg) and ranked second in total offense (375.0 ypg).

2001: Started the club's final 15 games at center after missing the opener following appendectomy surgery ... Opened plenty of holes for RB Priest Holmes to amass a league-high 1,555 yards rushing ... Was inactive vs. Oakland (9/9) due to an appendectomy which was performed on August 27th ... Started his first game in a Chiefs uniform vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23) and proceeded to open the final 15 games of the season in the middle of the line.

Chicago (1997-00): Saw duty in 49 games (25 starts) in a little over three full seasons with the Bears ... Played in all 48 regular season games with Chicago from '98-00 ... Returned two kickoffs for 10 yards.

2000: Played in all 16 games (10 starts) for the third straight year ... Backed up C Olin Kreutz for the season's first three games before moving back into the starting lineup vs. Detroit (9/24) ...

Also opened at Green Bay (10/1), vs. New Orleans (10/8) and vs. Minnesota (10/15) ... Worked behind Kruetz for the next four games ... Started the club's final five games beginning at the N.Y. Jets (11/26).

1999: Played in all 16 contests ... Served as the club's back-up center and played on special teams ... Returned a kickoff for two yards vs. Seattle (9/19).

1998: Saw action at center in all 16 games (15 starts) and also contributed on special teams ... Initial NFL start came vs. Jacksonville (9/6) ... Returned a kickoff eight yards at Arizona (10/11) ... Started every game except the club's contest vs. Green Bay (12/27).

1997: Saw reserve action in one contest ... Was claimed off waivers on September 24th after being released by the Jets the previous day ... Inactive at Dallas (9/28) and for the next nine games with a shoulder injury ... Was active but did not play at St. Louis (12/14) ... Saw his first action in a Bears uniform at Tampa Bay (12/21).

N.Y. Jets (1996-97): Saw duty in three games for the Jets on special teams.

1997: Saw duty in three games ... First regular season NFL action came at Seattle (8/31) ... Also played vs. Buffalo (9/7) and at New England (9/14) ... Was inactive vs. Oakland (9/21) before being released the following day.

1996: Claimed off waivers from Indianapolis on October 29th ... Was inactive vs. New England (11/10) and at Indianapolis (11/17) ... Active, but did not play at Buffalo (11/24) ... Was inactive vs. Houston (12/1), at New England (12/8) and vs. Philadelphia (12/14) ... Active, but did not play vs. Miami (12/22).

Indianapolis (1996): Spent the first two weeks of the regular season on the club's practice squad ... Was promoted to the 53-man roster on September 10th ... Did not play vs. Dallas (9/15) and was subsequently placed back on the practice squad on September 23rd ... Promoted back to the active roster on October 15th, but did not play vs. New England (10/20) or at Washington (10/27) ... Was released by the Colts on October 28th.

College: Started 27 career games as a center at Iowa, including every contest of his senior campaign ... One of four co-captains for the Hawkeyes as a senior when he collected All-Big Ten honorable mention honors ... Was named the team's co-MVP and won the Offensive Coaches Hustle Award ... Started eight games as a junior missing two games due to injury ... Finished his sophomore season having started the first four games and final three games at center, missing five games due to injury ... Saw action in five games as a freshman ... Honor roll student majored in Communication Studies at Iowa.

Safety • 6-2 • 210

Born: March 17, 1973
Memphis, Tennessee

Memphis
Draft (No. 1 - 1996)
NFL: 8 (8th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (95/79) Playoffs: (1/1)

Pro Career: Fearless free safety who is one of the most tenacious tacklers in the game today ... Tough performer who is attempting to bounce back from the first major injury of his career ... Was sorely missed in 2002 after suffering a broken right leg in the third preseason game of the year at Seattle (8/24), an injury that cost him the entire campaign ... Appears to be back at full strength and ready to reclaim his starting free safety position ... Prior to his injury, had opened 79 of 80 games at free safety for Kansas City dating back to '97 ... The latest in a lineage of stellar Kansas City safeties that includes the likes of Chiefs Hall of Famers Lloyd Burruss, Deron Cherry and Johnny Robinson ... Joins DT John Browning as the longest-tenured defensive player on the Chiefs roster after both players were tabbed in the '96 NFL Draft ... Owns a reserved personality off the field, but specializes in producing highlight-quality hits once he gets between the stripes ... Arguably the toughest player on the entire Kansas City squad, frequently turns his body into a human projectile in order to bring opponents to the ground ... Simply loves to play the game at its physical fullest and has been compared by some to a heat-seeking missile once he gets an opponent in his crosshairs ... Earned a reputation as an intimidating tackler in college and has punished opponents with regularity at the pro level ... Will do whatever necessary to win a game, whether it's excelling in pass coverage, stuffing the run or serving as a pass rusher ... Has consistently ranked among the club's leading tacklers, producing 100+ tackles in '97-99 and in 2001 ... Averaged 110.6 tackles per year from '97-01 ... After just seven seasons in a Kansas City uniform, already ranks 10th on the club's all-time tackle chart with 562 career takedowns ... With another 100-tackle outing in 2003, would move into seventh place in team history ahead of Tracy Simien (595), Dino Hackett (625) and Burruss (628) ... Prior to last season, had just missed one contest since joining the Chiefs as the club's number one draft choice in '96, playing in 95 of a possible 96 games over that span ... Needs to see action in just five more regular season games to become the 58th player in team annals to play in 100 or more games for the Red and Gold ... Blessed with an astounding pain threshold, played over half of the '98 season with six screws and a metal plate inserted into a broken right hand ... Despite that injured appendage, still started all 16 games and finished third on the squad with 124 tackles that year ... Blessed with extremely long limbs and excellent leaping ability which only serve to complement his tremendous range and reach ... Shared the club's KO return chores with Tamarick Vanover as a rookie in '96 and also served as a reserve cornerback before switching back to his natural free safety spot in '97 ... Has seen action in 95 regular season games (79 starts), producing 12 INTs with 157 return yards to go along with 562 tackles (379 solo), three fumble recoveries and eight forced fumbles ... Has also racked up 4.0 sacks (-23.0 yards), 39 passes defensed, 24 QB pressures and 24 special teams stops ... Recovered a blocked FG attempt in '98, as well ... Returned 25 kickoffs for 581 yards (23.2 avg.) with a long of 66 yards as a rookie in '96 ... Also recorded four tackles and a forced fumble in one postseason start following the '97 campaign ... Entered the NFL as Kansas City's first-round choice (28th overall) in the '96 NFL Draft.

UCLA
NFL: 13 (Four with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (208/164) Playoffs: (11/6)

Pro Career: Extremely distinguished and durable performer concluded a brilliant 13-year NFL career following the 2002 season ... Epitomized the qualities of a consummate professional throughout his professional tenure, serving as an exemplary role model for his younger teammates ... Not only brought his chiseled physique to Kansas City when he signed as an unrestricted free agent from Washington on April 27th of '99, but also infused the Arrowhead locker room with his commitment to being the very best ... Produced an amazing 100+ tackles in each of his final 10 seasons ... Despite playing just four years with the Chiefs, produced 537 tackles during his time in Kansas City to rank 13th on the franchise's career tackle chart ... Continually strived for excellence and possessed an unmatched work ethic ... Captained the Kansas City defense each of his final three seasons in the Red and Gold ... Earned the club's Derrick Thomas Award as the club's Most Valuable Player in his inaugural season with the team ... Joined the late Thomas as the only other Chiefs linebacker to be named the club's MVP (Thomas won the honor in both '91 and '94) ... Achieved another milestone in 2000 by scoring the only touchdown of his distinguished NFL career, hitting paydirt on a 24-yard INT return at San Diego (11/26/00) ... The embodiment of professionalism, provided the ultimate example to his teammates of how to work, whether it was in the weight room, in the classroom or on the field ... Maintained a quiet demeanor, but spoke volumes by the way he carried himself ... A relentless worker who pushed both himself and his teammates to their maximum potential ... Patton's stringent year-round workout regiment was largely responsible for his unprecedented durability, particularly when one considers the position he played ... Did not miss a single game after entering the league in '90, seeing action in 208 consecutive contests dating back to his rookie campaign with Buffalo ... Of the 16 linebackers enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Ted Hendricks (215) is the only member of that illustrious group to have played in more contests than Patton ... Started 164 games during his NFL tenure, opening 157 of his last 160 games ... Had a streak of 118 consecutive starts dating back to the '93 season opener snapped when the Chiefs opened in a dime defense vs. St. Louis (10/22/00) ... Despite coming to the Chiefs with relatively little fanfare, proceeded to pay immediate dividends for the club ... Set the tone for Kansas City's defense in '99 by producing a career-high 6.5 sacks, racking up a team-high 20 tackles for loss and registering a career-best 14 QB pressures ... Tallied 143 tackles in 2000, then followed that up with a 138-tackle performance in 2001 and produced 121 stops last season to top the 100-tackle barrier for a 10th consecutive season, a remarkable feat considering he turned the trick for three different teams during that span ... Combined with Donnie Edwards (147) to become the first Chiefs linebacking tandem to top the 100-tackle barrier for three consecutive seasons, turning that rare triple-play from '99-01 ... Took over the Chiefs starting MLB spot in '99, where he was a mainstay for four years ... Came to Kansas City after a four-year stint with Washington from '95-98, where he was the Redskins leading tackler three of those four seasons ... Inaugurated his NFL career with Buffalo from '90-94 before signing with Washington as an unrestricted free agent on February 22nd of '95 ... Saw duty in 208 straight regular season games, with 164 starts ... Produced 1,512 tackles (1,067 solo), 26.5 sacks (-210.0 yards), 17 INTs (119 yards) with one touchdown, 13 fumble recoveries, 18 forced fumbles, 44 passes defensed, 70 QB pressures and 55 special teams tackles during his pro tenure ... During his five-year stay with the Bills, saw duty in 11 postseason contests (six starts) ... TRAINING CAMP INFORMATION

For the 13th consecutive season, the Chiefs will conduct training camp at the University of Wisconsin - River Falls in 2003. Kansas City has called River Falls, Wisconsin its summer home since '91. Located in the scenic St. Croix Valley region approximately 30 miles east of Minneapolis-St. Paul, MN, this bucolic burb of 12,500 citizens annually offers temperate training conditions and hospitality to the Chiefs and their fans. Founded in 1874 to train teachers, UW-River Falls boasts an enrollment of 5,800 students on a 225-acre campus. In addition to Ramer Field – home of the UW-River Falls Falcons – the Chiefs utilize three additional practice fields, as well as Hunt Arena and the Knowles Center for practice, meetings and locker room space during their stay on campus. To learn more about UW-River Falls, visit www.uwrf.edu.

DIRECTIONS TO TRAINING CAMP FROM THE TWIN CITIES

Take I-494 East from airport and follow to I-94 East. Take I-94 across the St. Croix River to Wisconsin. Exit right on Hwy. 35 South (River Falls Exit). Follow Hwy. 35 six miles into River Falls. Exit right on Main Street. To reach the Chiefs Public Relations offices, go south on Main Street and turn left onto Cascade at your fifth stoplight. Go four blocks and turn right onto Sixth Street. The Chiefs Public Relations offices are located in 139 Rodli Commons.

To reach the Chiefs practice fields, go South on Main Street through all five stoplights. After crossing Cascade, the Ramer Field practice facility will be approximately one-half mile on South Main on the left. Mileage from the Minneapolis-St. Paul Airport to River Falls is 27 miles. Travel time under normal traffic conditions is approximately 45 minutes.

Chiefs 40, Browns 39

September 8, 2002 • Cleveland Browns Stadium • 72,938

KANSAS CITY	7	7	3	23	—	40
CLEVELAND	6	14	7	12	—	39

The Chiefs 2002 regular season opener was a fitting preview to what turned out to be a wild season. Just when you thought the game between Kansas City and Cleveland was over, the Chiefs pulled out a miracle 40-39 win.

In a game that featured 35 fourth-quarter points and nine lead changes, Browns K Phil Dawson hit an apparent game-winning 41-yard FG with 0:29 left to give the Browns a 39-37 advantage. Then the fun began.

On what looked liked the game's final play, QB Trent Green was tenuously close to being sacked before pitching the ball back to T John Tait, who rumbled to the Cleveland 25-yard line. Rather than the game ending with a 39-37 Browns win, an unsportsmanlike penalty on Cleveland LB Dwayne Rudd was called, keeping the game alive. Rudd, believing he had sacked Green to end the game, had removed his helmet in a celebratory fashion while the play was still alive resulting in a 15-yard penalty and one final, untimed play. That play happened to be a 30-yard game-winning FG by K Morten Andersen who catapulted the Chiefs to a 40-39 win.

Proving that last season's rushing title was no fluke, RB Priest Holmes scored four rushing TDs (including three in the fourth quarter) and racked up 122 yards en route to the victory. Holmes' four rushing TDs tied a Chiefs record.

Green and Holmes rallied the Chiefs back from a 13-point deficit and then again from a two-point hole with no time remaining.

Filling in for injured starter Tim Couch, back-up QB Kelly Holcomb tallied 326 yards passing and three TDs but did not have the ball last and that ended up determining the outcome. Cleveland used three TD passes and two Phil Dawson FGs to build a 27-14 lead, but Kansas City never gave up.

Green put the Chiefs on the scoreboard for the first time in 2002 when he found TE Tony Gonzalez wide open for a 17-yard TD.

GAME NOTES

- The win was just the second-ever by Kansas City in Cleveland. KC's only other victory in Cleveland came when QB Len Dawson led KC to a 13-7 victory (11/14/71).
- The 40 points scored by KC were the club's most since getting 54 vs. St. Louis (10/22/00). They were also the club's highest total on Opening Day since a 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8/85). The game's 79 total points were the most ever in an Opening Day Chiefs contest.
- RB Priest Holmes' 122 rushing yards tied as the second-highest total ever on Opening Day by a Chiefs back.
- K Morten Andersen extended his NFL record by registering the 30th game-winning FG of his career with a 30-yard kick with 0:00 left.

Jaguars 23, Chiefs 16

September 15, 2002 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,934

JACKSONVILLE	0	9	0	14	— 23
KANSAS CITY	3	3	0	10	— 16

For over 53 minutes the Chiefs and Jaguars battled evenly but neither team could break through for that game-altering play. Then in the final six minutes, Jacksonville busted free for touchdowns of 79 and 63 yards to open a 14-point lead and spoil Kansas City's home opener with a 23-16 win.

After moving the ball with ease and scoring 40 points the week before at Cleveland, the Kansas City offense had a tougher time with the Jaguars defense. When a 39-yard, fourth-quarter field goal by K Morten Andersen — his third of the contest — knotted the score at 9-9, Jacksonville's offense suddenly awoke. On their next two drives the Jaguars needed just a total of three plays to record two TDs.

First, QB Mark Brunell hit WR Patrick Johnson on a go route down the sideline for a 79-yard TD strike. Then on the first play of their next possession RB Fred Taylor broke through the line of scrimmage and outran the KC defenders for a 63-yard, game-clinching TD.

However, Kansas City did mount a late rally, pulling off a few big plays of its own. Trailing 23-9, QB Trent Green hit WR Marc Boerigter on a 51-yard bomb for his first career catch. Two plays later TE Tony Gonzalez hauled in an acrobatic TD catch from 12 yards out to cut the deficit to seven.

The Chiefs opened the scoring with a monster 15-play, 88-yard drive that ate 8:38 off the clock. However, KC settled for an Andersen FG and a 3-0 lead. Another trip inside the Jaguars 20-yard line stalled and ended with an Andersen FG and a 6-0 Chiefs advantage.

Jacksonville found the end zone first when WR Jimmy Smith turned a 20-yard hook route into a 37-yard TD pass. On the ensuing extra point attempt, Jaguars holder P Chris Hanson dropped the snap and was tackled with the ball, keeping the game tied at 6-6.

GAME NOTES

- G Will Shields started his 145th consecutive game, the longest streak in Chiefs history since the team began tracking that stat in '68.
- K Morten Andersen played in his 310th NFL game, bypassing Gary Andersen (309) for the second-highest total in NFL history behind only George Blanda (340).
- With 84 rushing yards vs. Jacksonville, RB Priest Holmes (1,761) moved ahead of Robert Holmes (1,689) for 15th place on the Chiefs all-time rushing chart.

CHIEFS — M. Andersen, 25-yard FG (15-88, 8:38).
CHIEFS — M. Andersen, 38-yard FG (11-51, 4:25).

GAME 3

Patriots 41, Chiefs 38 (OT)

September 22, 2002 • Gillette Stadium • 68,436

KANSAS CITY	3	7	7	21	0	—	38
NEW ENGLAND	0	9	8	21	3	—	41

In the Chiefs first-ever trip to newly-opened Gillette Stadium, Kansas City and New England needed more than the 60 minutes of regulation to decide the outcome. The Chiefs led the Patriots 10-9 at the half, were tied 17-17 after three quarters and battled back from a 14-point fourth-quarter deficit to tie the score at 38-38 at the end of regulation. But KC could not deliver the knockout punch vs. the defending Super Bowl champions, who won the coin toss in OT and marched down the field for a 35-yard FG and a 41-38 victory.

After RB Antowain Smith scored on a 42-yard TD to give New England a 38-24 advantage with 6:10 left in regulation, things looked grim for Kansas City.

However, QB Trent Green rallied the Chiefs for an amazing comeback bid, powered by RB Priest Holmes, who finished the day with 180 rushing yards. First, Holmes capped a quick drive with a six-yard touchdown run to close the gap to 38-31 with 4:37 left. Green's 30-yard pass to WR Johnnie Morton was the big play on the drive, moving the Chiefs inside the Red Zone where Holmes took over.

Kansas City's defense took the field needing to turn the ball back over to the offense. DE Eric Hicks — who recorded a pair of sacks — and the defense delivered, forcing a three-and-out series, as the Patriots lost two yards on the possession.

Green got the ball back for KC with 2:30 to go and quickly marched the club downfield thanks to two critical third-down conversions including a 12-yard pass to WR Dante Hall. Facing third-and-goal from the one with 0:03 left, Holmes plowed up the middle for his second TD, sending the contest into overtime at 38-38.

Kansas City would not get the ball back in the overtime period. New England won the toss and marched methodically on a nine-play, 53-yard drive capped by K Adam Vinatieri's game-winning FG with 10:20 left in OT.

GAME NOTES

- DE Eric Hicks recorded the ninth multi-sack game of his career with 2.0 sacks (-5.0 yards). That effort moved him into 10th place in Chiefs history ahead of Dan Williams (23.0).
- RB Priest Holmes' 180 rushing yards were the fifth-best single-game effort in team history and the third-highest performance of his career.
- WR Eddie Kennison's two TD catches marked his first multi-TD game since getting a career-high three TDs as a rookie with the Rams at Atlanta (12/15/96).
- LB Mike Maslowski recorded his first career INT off QB Tom Brady.

Chiefs 48, Dolphins 30

September 29, 2002 • Arrowhead Stadium • 78,178

MIAMI	7	9	7	7	— 30
KANSAS CITY	10	14	7	17	— 48

In a game billed as a battle of the NFL's top two rushers — KC's Priest Holmes and Miami's Ricky Williams — it was the passing game that proved to be the difference. Chiefs QB Trent Green threw a career-high five TD passes, including three scoring connections to TE Tony Gonzalez as the Chiefs handed the Dolphins their first loss of the season by a 48-30 count at Arrowhead.

As good as the Chiefs offense was on the day, the Chiefs defense repeatedly set the table, forcing five Miami turnovers, including a career-best three INTs from S Greg Wesley in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs finished the day at +5 in the turnover column, converting those five takeaways into 20 points.

From the club's first drive, the Chiefs passing game looked sharp as Green completed 24 of 34 passes for 328 yards and registered a sparkling QB rating of 140.7.

Gonzalez showed off his Pro Bowl hands early with a 30-yard catch on the team's first possession. Moments later, Gonzalez, who finished with seven catches for 140 yards, capped a drive with a nine-yard TD grab over the middle.

College teammates at Texas, Williams and Holmes came into the game ranked first and second in the NFL in rushing, but combined for just 118 rushing yards on the day. The Chiefs defense held Williams to just 66 ground yards.

With the score tied at 10-10, Holmes gave the Chiefs the lead for good when he bolted around the left end for a 25-yard TD. On the score, Green threw the final block on the play, leveling Miami S Arturo Freeman to seal the corner. Green then found WR Johnnie Morton on an eight-yard TD to push the margin up to 24-10 midway through the second quarter.

GAME NOTES

- The Chiefs +5 turnover ratio (5 takes/0 gives) was the club's best total since going +5 in a 23-7 win vs. San Diego (9/20/98).
- QB Trent Green threw a career-high five TD passes vs. Miami. He joined Len Dawson and Elvis Grbac as the only Chiefs players to throw five TDs in a single game.
- TE Tony Gonzalez set a career high with three touchdown catches (9, 42 and 6 yards) vs. Miami. Those TD catches moved him into fourth place in Chiefs history ahead of TE Fred Arbanas (34).
- S Greg Wesley produced a career-high three interceptions vs. Miami, all in the fourth quarter. He became just the seventh Chiefs player to produce three or more INTs in a single game and the first since CB Albert Lewis had three INTs vs. Atlanta (9/1/91).

GAME 5

Chiefs 29, Jets 25

October 6, 2002 • Giants Stadium • 78,149

KANSAS CITY	3	9	3	14	—	29
N.Y. JETS	7	8	0	10	—	25

The Chiefs continued to test their fate in the fourth quarter, but came out on the winning side after another fantastic finish with a 29-25 comeback victory at the N.Y. Jets. It marked the club's first win against an AFC East opponent on the road since it defeated these same N.Y. Jets (11/29/92) by a 23-7 score, snapping a streak of 14 consecutive losses. The victory was only the Chiefs second-ever victory in the Meadowlands.

With the club trailing 25-22, QB Trent Green orchestrated the game-winning, 10-play, 78-yard TD drive that featured 72 yards from RB Priest Holmes, including the 19-yard TD pass from Green. Holmes finished the day with 223 combined net yards, the third-highest tally of his career.

Facing second-and-10 from the Jets 19-yard line with just 34 seconds left, Green dumped a pass off to his safety valve, Holmes. The Texas alum caught the short pass over the middle, cut to the left, stiff-armed one defender and headed toward the end zone where he hurdled over two more Jets defenders for the decisive score.

Holmes rattled off 111 rushing yards in the first half, but it was the Jets who held a 15-12 advantage after two quarters when TE Anthony Becht hauled in a two-yard TD from QB Chad Pennington with 0:07 left before half. After a Jets TD put them ahead 22-15, Chiefs WR Dante Hall collected his initial NFL score in exciting fashion. Hall caught a long pass from Green and then dodged several defenders to weave his way into the end zone, tying the count at 22-22.

New York would take its next drive to the Chiefs 13-yard line, but KC's defense rebuked the Jets on third-and-eight, forcing the Jets to settle for a 25-yard FG from K John Hall, giving them a 25-22 edge. The Chiefs then began their game-winning drive at their own 22 with 2:48 left on the clock. KC converted a pair of third downs on the scoring march, with Holmes making catches on both occasions to move the chains.

GAME NOTES

- KC snapped a string of 14 straight losses on the road to AFC East opponents, including a pair of playoff games. It was KC's first win at an AFC East foe since a 23-7 win at the N.Y. Jets (11/29/92).
- Holmes became the fastest Chief to reach the 2,000-yard rushing plateau, doing it in his 21st game, breaking the previous mark of 30 games established by Christian Okoye.
- Holmes produced 233 combined net yards at the N.Y. Jets (152 rushing/81 receiving), the third-highest total of his career.
- With four catches, TE Tony Gonzalez (354) moved ahead of Carlos Carson (351) for sixth place on KC's all-time receiving chart.

GAME 6

Chargers 35, Chiefs 34

October 13, 2002 • Qualcomm Stadium • 58,995

KANSAS CITY	10	7	7	10	—	34
SAN DIEGO	7	0	7	21	—	35

Kansas City faced an old friend in San Diego head coach Marty Schottenheimer, but it was Schottenheimer's squad who won this shootout. After pulling out a fourth-quarter comeback a week before at the N.Y. Jets, Kansas City saw the tables turned as it was San Diego mounting the fourth-quarter comeback for a 35-34 win at Qualcomm Stadium.

For the 12th consecutive time, a Chiefs-Chargers game played in San Diego was won by the team scoring last as QB Drew Brees connected with WR Reche Caldwell for the game-winning TD with 0:14 on the clock.

Kansas City did virtually everything necessary to win, posting a +3 turnover mark and even blocking a punt, but 21 fourth-quarter points by SD were too much to overcome.

With San Diego leading 7-3 in the first quarter, LB Larry Atkins blocked a punt, setting up a one-yard TD by RB Priest Holmes to give KC its first lead of the day at 10-7, a lead the Chiefs would not relinquish until the game's final seconds. The Chiefs steadily built their advantage to 24-14 thanks to a pair of touchdown catches by first-year WR Marc Boerigter. Just before halftime Boerigter recorded his first career TD on a 44-yard catch-and-run, then made a leaping 19-yard grab in the end zone for his second TD of the day.

However, San Diego would then rattle off 21 points in the final period, setting the stage for a dramatic, comeback win.

An 11-yard TD from Brees to WR Tim Dwight cut the KC lead to 31-28 with 4:07 left. QB Trent Green drove the Chiefs to the SD 25, but Holmes was stopped for no gain on third-and-three, forcing KC to settle for a 43-yard K Morten Andersen field goal to put the Chiefs lead at just 34-28 with 2:35 left. Brees then proceeded to guide the Chargers on the seven-play, 71-yard game-winning scoring march, giving San Diego a 35-34 lead. Green's final Hail Mary heave was intercepted at the two-yard line to end the contest.

GAME NOTES

- S Shaunard Harts and LB Scott Fujita both started their first NFL games.
- Chiefs QB Trent Green threw three TD passes, giving him a streak of 12 consecutive games with at least one TD pass. That mark tied Len Dawson for the third-longest streak in Chiefs history.
- Holmes recorded his 73rd run of 10+ yards in 22 games with the Chiefs, the highest total since the club began recording that stat in '90. Holmes (2,208 yards) moved into 13th place on KC's all-time rushing chart ahead of Tony Reed (2,184).
- Excluding ties, the Chiefs and Chargers had their 10th game decided by one point, the highest total in any series since '60.

Broncos 37, Chiefs 34 (OT)

October 20, 2002 • Arrowhead Stadium • 78,446

DENVER	3	3	14	14	3	—	37
KANSAS CITY	7	6	14	7	0	—	34

The book on the Chiefs-Broncos history is already jammed full of bizarre plays and incredible games, but like seemingly every game in 2002, this 37-34 OT thriller may need its own chapter. The Chiefs owned a 13-6 halftime lead and got three TDs from RB Priest Holmes, but Denver escaped Arrowhead Stadium with a win by cashing in a blocked punt for an overtime FG.

After the Chiefs muscled out a tight seven-point lead, things got wild in the second half. Denver got things started with an 82-yard TD pass from QB Brian Griese to TE Shannon Sharpe, who finished with 214 yards receiving, the most by a Bronco and the most ever accumulated by a single player against the Chiefs. After Chiefs FB Tony Richardson got a 14-yard TD run and Denver RB Clinton Portis scored on a two-yard plunge, the score stood deadlocked at 20-20 with 4:37 remaining in the third quarter.

Holmes (151 total yards) then got TD runs on the Chiefs next two possessions, giving KC a 34-20 lead, the second of which was set up by a blocked punt by LB Monty Beisel.

Denver quickly rattled off a four-play, 70-yard TD drive that took just 1:51 and was capped by Sharpe's 28-yard TD pass from Griese.

With 3:47 left in regulation K Morten Andersen — who had made 25 straight FGs — came up short on a 43-yard kick.

Denver got the ball back with just under 4:00 left on the clock and sent the game into overtime with an 11-play drive that ended with a FB Mike Anderson two-yard TD run.

Denver won the toss in OT, but was forced three-and-out. KC's offense could not get a first down and then LB Keith Burns blocked P Dan Stryzinski's punt, setting up the Broncos at the KC 32. Two plays and a 22-yard pass interference penalty later, K Jason Elam hit the game-winning 25-yard FG.

GAME NOTES

- G Will Shields started his 150th consecutive game for the Chiefs. K Morten Andersen played in his 241st straight game, passing Mick Tingelhoff (Minnesota) for the second-longest streak in NFL history.
- This game was the fourth OT game in the Chiefs-Broncos series and the second straight OT contest between the two clubs at Arrowhead.
- Before missing a 43-yard FG in the fourth quarter, K Morten Andersen had made 25 consecutive FGs dating back to 2001, which tied the longest make streak of his career established from 11/1/92 to 9/12/93 in New Orleans.
- WR Dante Hall recorded his 88th career kickoff return, moving him into second place in Chiefs history past CB Dave Grayson (84).

OAKLAND	7	0	0	3	— 10
KANSAS CITY	3	3	7	7	— 20

With the overall Chiefs-Raiders rivalry deadlocked at 42-42-2 heading into this game at Arrowhead Stadium, it was only fitting that the 87th installment of this intense series came down to the wire. Instead of the expected offensive shootout, the Chiefs won a 20-10 defensive slug-fest by forcing two late turnovers and holding Oakland to just three second-half points.

With the Chiefs trailing 7-6 at halftime RB Priest Holmes helped KC regain the lead by accounting for 41 of the club's 77 yards on the drive, capping it off with a three-yard TD run. That gave Holmes his 13th rushing TD of the season, tying RB Abner Haynes' single-season franchise record. Holmes finished with 91 yards rushing and six catches for 93 yards including a season-long 49-yard reception.

After K Sebastian Janikowski cut the Chiefs lead to 13-10 with a 32-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, the Red and Gold defense produced two big turnovers on the Raiders next two possessions. First, CB William Bartee deflected a QB Rich Gannon pass into the arms of LB Marvcus Patton. Then, on the next series LB Mike Maslowski jarred the ball loose from WR Jerry Rice. Maslowski — who was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week — then recovered the fumble at the Oakland 22-yard line with 4:39 remaining putting the Chiefs in position to clinch the game with a late TD. From four yards out QB Trent Green found a wide open FB Tony Richardson in the end zone giving Kansas City an insurance score and a 20-10 win.

On the day the Chiefs held the NFL's top-rated passer well below his average by limiting him to a 78.9 rating — 22 points below his average — but Gannon still etched his name in the NFL record books with his sixth straight 300-yard passing game. WR Tim Brown hauled in 13 catches for 144 yards for the Raiders, but was held scoreless all afternoon.

In addition to forcing a turnover for the 10th straight game, the Chiefs defense held Oakland to more than 22 points below their season average (32.7 ppg).

GAME NOTES

- LB Marvcus Patton and P Dan Stryzinski both played in their 200th consecutive NFL game.
- The Chiefs snapped a five-game losing streak vs. Oakland, getting their first win vs. the Raiders since a 37-34 victory at Oakland (11/28/99).
- DT Derrick Ransom blocked a 44-yard K Sebastian Janikowski FG attempt in the first quarter. It was the first FG blocked by the Chiefs since DT Tom Barndt blocked a FG attempt by Kris Brown vs. Pittsburgh (12/18/99).

CHIEFS — M. Andersen, 46-yard FG (12-9, 6:10).

RAIDERS — Jolley, 1-yard pass from Gannon (Janikowski kick) (11-73, 4:29).

CHIEFS — M. Andersen, 22-yard FG (11-85, 4:43).

CHIEFS — Holmes, 3-yard run (M. Andersen kick) (13-77, 8:05).

RAIDERS — Janikowski, 32-yard FG (12-60, 4:48).

CHIEFS — Richardson, 4-yard pass from Green (M. Andersen kick) (5-22, 2:44).

GAME 9

49ers 17, Chiefs 13

November 10, 2002 • 3Com Park • 67,881

KANSAS CITY	3	7	0	3	—	13
SAN FRANCISCO	3	14	0	0	—	17

Kansas City's defense pitched a second-half shutout and limited the 49ers to just 168 net passing yards, but could not overcome SF's huge edge in time of possession (38:34 to 21:26) as the Chiefs dropped a 17-13 decision. The 49ers ran 73 plays on the day and converted 61.1% on third down, while the Chiefs only got 46 offensive snaps in the game.

KC's defense held the 49ers to a 42-yard K Jose Cortez FG on their first drive of the day to make the count 3-0. The Chiefs then appeared to forge ahead, but an 11-yard RB Priest Holmes TD was nullified by a holding call, forcing KC to settle for a 33-yard K Morten Andersen FG to tie the score at 3-3.

RB Garrison Hearst capped SF's next lengthy scoring march with a five-yard run to give the 49ers a 10-3 edge. But KC quickly answered with a four-play, 50-yard TD drive set up by a 36-yard KOR by WR Dante Hall. This time there were no flags as Holmes darted in from 12 yards out for his Chiefs-record 14th rushing score of the year. That TD tied the score at 10-10 and extended his club-record streak to seven consecutive games with at least one rushing score.

SF again answered when RB Kevin Barlow raced in for a six-yard TD, making the count 17-10. A short KC punt then gave the 49ers another golden scoring opportunity, but CB Eric Warfield picked off QB Jeff Garcia on the final play of the first half. Neither club could score in the third quarter as the Chiefs dodged another bullet when Cortez had a 46-yard FG attempt hit the left upright.

Perhaps the game's most pivotal play occured in the third quarter when a 44-yard run by Holmes which went to the SF three-yard line was negated by a holding call, forcing the Chiefs to take a 43-yard FG. KC had one final shot, getting the ball back with 2:00 left in regulation. Three straight passes to WR Eddie Kennison got KC into SF territory. Kennison finished the game with a game-high eight catches for 134 yards. Forcing fourth-and-11 at the SF 37, the 49ers defense held, enabling San Francisco to hold onto a 17-13 win.

GAME NOTES

- RB Priest Holmes recorded his 14th rushing TD of the season, breaking the previous mark of 13 set by Abner Haynes in '62.
- With his 51 yards rushing at San Francisco Holmes reached 2,463 rushing yards in his KC career, moving him ahead of Greg Hill (2,436) for ninth in team history.
- WR Eddie Kennison had 134 receiving yards at SF. Those 134 yards were the third-highest single-game total in his career and the most by a Chiefs WR since Derrick Alexander had 146 yards on seven catches vs. Buffalo (11/19/00).

49ERS — Cortez, 42-yard FG (15-56, 7:54).
CHIEFS — M. Andersen, 33-yard FG (10-48, 4:53).
49ERS — Hearst, 5-yard run (Cortez kick) (11-71, 6:00).
CHIEFS — Holmes, 12-yard run (M. Andersen kick) (4-50, 2:07).
49ERS — Barlow, 6-yard run (Cortez kick) (11-58, 6:26).
CHIEFS — M. Andersen, 43-yard FG (10-38, 5:09).

GAME 10

Chiefs 17, Bills 16

November 17, 2002 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,951

BUFFALO	0	13	3	0	— 16
KANSAS CITY	7	3	0	7	— 17

With their backs against the wall at 4-5, the Chiefs fought their way back into the playoff race with an inspired fourth-quarter effort. QB Trent Green's late touchdown scramble and CB Eric Warfield's game-clinching INT were just enough for the suddenly-gritty Chiefs to pull out an emotional 17-16 win over the Buffalo Bills.

For the first three quarters, the Chiefs had been outgained by over 100 yards and had watched the Bills almost double them up in the time of possession category, 29:15 to 15:45. However, the fourth quarter was a different story on both sides of the ball.

Facing a 16-10 deficit and a third-and-goal from the Bills nine-yard line with under five minutes remaining, Green scrambled toward the goal line, diving head-first into a wall of Buffalo defenders for a nine-yard touchdown and a 17-16 lead.

With the Chiefs nursing that one-point lead and four-and-a-half minutes to go, Bills QB Drew Bledsoe tried to hit WR Peerless Price deep downfield, but Warfield leaped over the receiver for the interception.

After the INT, Holmes took over, rushing for 49 of his 104 yards as the Chiefs ran out the clock. On that drive, Holmes became the quickest player in Chiefs history to go over the 1,000-yard rushing plateau in a season.

KC got the scoring started with a Holmes four-yard TD run in the first quarter. Green set up the TD with a 44-yard pass to WR Eddie Kennison and a 15-yard completion to TE Tony Gonzalez down to the Bills four-yard line.

Buffalo's high-octane offense was held to just one TD, a seven-yard connection from Bledsoe to WR Eric Moulds that gave them a 13-10 advantage just before halftime.

The Chiefs first two possessions of the second half resulted in a punt and a missed 45-yard FG, but KC's defense didn't allow Buffalo much better. The Bills kicked a 27-yard FG and were then held three-and-out, setting the stage for KC's nine-play, 78-yard game-winning drive. Green then plowed into the end zone to give the Chiefs the only points they would need in the second half for the 17-16 victory.

GAME NOTES

- QB Trent Green recorded his third fourth-quarter comeback win of the season (Cleveland and N.Y. Jets).
- RB Priest Holmes became the first player in Chiefs history to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Holmes also reached the 1,000-yard plateau in the 10th game of the season, making him the fastest player in Chiefs history to ever accomplish that feat. Christian Okoye held the previous mark, getting to 1,000 yards in 11 games in '89. Holmes (2,567 yards) moved into eighth place in Chiefs history ahead of Wendell Hayes (2,560).

CHIEFS	— Holmes, 4-yard run (M. Andersen kick) (6-64, 2:51).

GAME 11

Seahawks 39, Chiefs 32

November 24, 2002 • Seahawks Stadium • 56,250

KANSAS CITY	10	7	0	15	—	32
SEATTLE	0	21	7	11	—	39

Despite a record day from RB Priest Holmes and an early 10-point lead, the Chiefs couldn't slow down QB Matt Hasselbeck and the Seattle offense. Hasselbeck put up a career-high 362 passing yards en route to a 39-32 win at Seahawks Stadium.

After the Chiefs jumped out to a 17-7 lead in the contest thanks to two Holmes TDs, Seattle rattled off 21 straight points to take a 28-21 lead and never looked back.

The final minute of the first half proved to be the pivotal sequence of the game. Leading 17-14, the Chiefs were faced with first-and-goal at the one-yard line. But instead of potentially taking a 10-point lead into intermission, the Chiefs found themselves down 21-17 at the half. LB Orlando Huff intercepted a pass intended for TE Jason Dunn in the end zone. The Seahawks then proceeded to march 80 yards, getting a six-yard TD on a TE Jerramy Stevens catch with 0:06 left in the second quarter to take a lead they would not relinquish.

In a game that featured a team-record 1,086 combined yards by both squads, Holmes enjoyed one of the finest individual performances in Chiefs history in the losing cause. His 307 yards of total offense (197 rushing, 110 receiving) were the fourth-highest mark in NFL history and just two yards off WR Stephone Paige's team record, while his rushing tally was three yards off RB Barry Word's team record of 200.

Early in the fourth quarter Holmes capped a 92-yard drive with a four-yard TD run and QB Trent Green (343 yards and two TDs) added a two-point conversion. That score pulled the Chiefs to within 28-25 in the third quarter, but it would be as close as they would get. A 37-yard Seattle FG and a 46-yard TD run by RB Shaun Alexander would make the count 39-25 before a 15-yard TD catch by KC WR Marc Boerigter made the final score 39-32.

GAME NOTES

- KC's 552 total yards at Seattle were the third-highest total in team history and the most since getting 566 yards vs. Detroit (10/14/90). KC's 32 first downs tied the team record established at Houston (10/24/65).
- RB Priest Holmes had three TDs at Seattle, his fourth multi-TD game of the season. His 20 total TDs (17 rush, 3 rec.), surpassed Abner Haynes' previous single-season record of 19 TDs in '62.
- Holmes had a career-high 307 yards from scrimmage (197 rushing, 110 receiving).
- Holmes recorded 197 rushing yards, the second-best single-game effort in club history and the second-best outing of his career.
- Holmes' 110 receiving yards were a career high.

GAME 12

Chiefs 49, Cardinals 0

December 1, 2002 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,809

KANSAS CITY	14	21	7	7	—	49

At times during the season the Chiefs showed flashes of brilliance in all phases of the game. Their defense forced five turnovers against Miami, the special teams blocked punts in back-to-back games and the offense led the NFL in scoring. At home against Arizona though, everything came together in dominating fashion as the Chiefs posted their second-largest victory in franchise history with a 49-0 shellacking of the Cardinals.

Thanks to 477 yards of offense and the club's first shutout since October 31, 1999 vs. San Diego, Kansas City jumped out to a 35-0 halftime lead and coasted to their largest shutout victory ever. The only bigger margin of victory in Chiefs history was a 59-7 win at Denver (9/7/63).

RB Priest Holmes continued his MVP-caliber season with 113 yards rushing with two TDs. He also added three catches for 56 yards from QB Trent Green, who completed 14 of 20 passes for 209 yards with TD passes to TE Tony Gonzalez and WR Marc Boerigter.

After Holmes staked the Chiefs to a 7-0 lead, WR Dante Hall broke his first career return TD when he raced 90 yards untouched for the longest punt return in Chiefs history.

Defensively, the Chiefs put together their greatest effort of the season, recording five sacks — including two by rookie DT Eddie Freeman — as well as four INTs. KC held Arizona to just 122 total yards and a mere 26 on the ground. The Cardinals mustered only 22 yards of offense in the second half of a game that turned out to be their worst loss in club history.

After Hall's punt return TD, FB Tony Richardson rammed in a three-yard TD run upping the count to 21-0. Holmes then dashed around the right end from two yards out for his 19th rushing TD of the season.

In a relief role, QB Todd Collins threw his first TD pass as a Chief when he found WR Marc Boerigter for a 29-yard score.

GAME NOTES

- Kansas City's 49-0 shutout of Arizona was the 18th shutout in franchise history and the club's first since a 34-0 win vs. San Diego (10/31/99). KC's 49 points were the most ever in a shutout win, breaking the previous mark set in a 48-0 win vs. the N.Y. Jets (12/22/63). KC led 35-0 at halftime vs. Arizona, the most points scored in the first half by the Chiefs since leading 38-3 at halftime in a 48-3 win at Miami (9/28/68).
- WR Dante Hall returned a punt 90 yards for a TD in the first quarter. It was the longest punt return in Chiefs history. The previous long was an 88-yard TD return by J.T. Smith vs. Oakland (9/23/79).
- TE Tony Gonzalez moved into fourth place on the Chiefs all-time receiving chart, bypassing WR Stephone Paige (377).
- K Morten Andersen topped the 100-point mark for an NFL-record 14th season.

CHIEFS — Holmes, 5-yard run (M. Andersen kick) (8-77, 3:49).
CHIEFS — Hall, 90-yard punt return (M. Andersen kick).
CHIEFS — Richardson, 3-yard run (M. Andersen kick) (6-75, 3:29).

GAME 13

Chiefs 49, Rams 10

December 8, 2002 • Arrowhead Stadium • 78,601

ST. LOUIS	10	0	0	0	—	10
KANSAS CITY	14	21	0	14	—	49

The Chiefs rolled up 49 points for the second week in a row as KC claimed the Governor's Cup with a convincing 49-10 victory over the in-state rival St. Louis Rams. KC's defense and special teams accounted for 21 points. WR Dante Hall became the first player in team history and the 21st in NFL history to record two kick return scores in a single contest, getting TDs on both a PR and KOR.

After St. Louis got off to a 3-0 lead, Hall took the ensuing kickoff back for an 88-yard TD. Then on the Rams next possession, KC's defense got into the scoring column as DE Duane Clemons recorded a 42-yard fumble return for a TD. On the play DE Eric Hicks recorded the first of the Chiefs 6.0 sacks when he stripped Rams QB Jamie Martin and helped put the Chiefs ahead 14-3.

An eight-yard TD catch by WR Isaac Bruce brought the Rams within 14-10, but it would be as close as they would get. Hall would return a punt 86 yards for a TD, while RB Priest Holmes would rush for two scores to make the count 35-10 at halftime. Holmes finished with 132 rushing yards, his fourth-straight 100-yard game.

Kansas City's defense took it from there, pitching a second-half shutout for the second straight week. DT John Browning led the way with a pair of sacks and both LB Marvcus Patton and SS Greg Wesley recorded interceptions. St. Louis' third-rated passing offense was held to just 218 yards and 2000 NFL MVP RB Marshall Faulk was limited to just 13 rushing yards and 35 yards through the air.

WR Marc Boerigter and RB Michael Cloud added fourth-quarter TDs as the Chiefs posted a 49-10 win.

GAME NOTES

- WR Dante Hall's 44.67-yard kickoff return average vs. St. Louis was a Chiefs single-game record, breaking Paul Palmer's previous mark of 44.33 yards vs. Seattle (12/27/87).
- With two TD runs vs. St. Louis, RB Priest Holmes extended his team record for consecutive games with a rushing score to 11 games, Holmes tied Lenny Moore (Baltimore - '63-64) and Emmitt Smith (Dallas - '94-95 and '95) for the third-longest streak of consecutive games with a rushing TD in NFL history.
- Holmes recorded his 15th 100-yard rushing game with the Chiefs, breaking Christian Okoye's franchise record. It was his fourth consecutive 100-yard game, also a club record.
- With 12 points vs. St. Louis, RB Priest Holmes registered his 144th point of the season, moving him ahead of Nick Lowery (139) for the Chiefs single-season scoring record.
- DE Duane Clemons registered his first NFL TD on a 42-yard return of a QB Jamie Martin fumble. It marked the 14th straight season dating back to '89 that the Chiefs had scored a defensive TD.

GAME 14

Broncos 31, Chiefs 24

December 15, 2002 • INVESCO Field • 75,947

KANSAS CITY	0	0	14	10	—	24
DENVER	14	0	14	3	—	31

Faced with an AFC West rival and a chance to pull within one game of the division lead, the Chiefs didn't have enough horsepower to finish a comeback against the Broncos. After trailing 31-14 during the fourth quarter, the Chiefs made things interesting before falling 31-24 at INVESCO Field in Denver.

Broncos rookie RB Clinton Portis proved to be the club's biggest nemesis. Portis accounted for 205 total yards (130 rushing/75 rec.), becoming the only player to ever score four TDs in a single game vs. the Chiefs. Portis broke off scoring runs of 51 and three yards in the first quarter to give the Broncos a 14-0 lead. KC dodged a bullet though by forcing a Portis fumble on the one-yard line with 0:48 left in the half.

With the Chiefs trailing 14-0 at intermission, WR Dante Hall gave his club a huge dose of momentum with a career-long 75-yard TD catch-and-run to cut the lead in half. However, Portis answered with a one-yard TD run and a 66-yard scoring catch on Denver's next two possessions to put the Broncos ahead by a 28-7 margin.

KC began the comeback bid when RB Priest Holmes broke off a 56-yard run to set up a TD. However, he would leave the game with a right hip sprain that would ultimately sideline him for the rest of the season. Holmes finished with 161 ground yards, marking his fifth straight 100-yard outing, his franchise-record ninth such game of the season.

With Denver leading 31-14, Hall struck again, cutting the Broncos lead to 10. Hall turned a mid-range pass from QB Trent Green into a dazzling 49-yard TD. The collegiate RB spun around two Broncos defenders and juked another before burning a trail to paydirt.

KC tacked on a FG with 2:27 left to make it 31-24 and got the ball back after the defense forced the Broncos three-and-out. Green, who finished with 310 yards passing and a pair of TDs, took over with 1:50 remaining and moved the Chiefs offense down as far as the Denver 15-yard line. However, a leg whip penalty moved the Chiefs back 15 yards and forced them to rely on a jump ball into end zone. Green's final pass from the Denver 30 fell incomplete as Denver held on for the 31-24 victory.

GAME NOTES

- WR Dante Hall registered his first career 100-yard receiving day and established career highs with five catches, 143 receiving yards and two TDs, including a career-long 75-yard TD reception.
- RB Priest Holmes broke his own Chiefs single-season rushing record. He finished with 1,615 rushing yards, breaking the mark of 1,555 yards he established in 2001. Holmes moved ahead of Curtis McClinton (3,124) for sixth in Chiefs history with 3,170 career rushing yards.
- Holmes put up a team-record 2,287 yards from scrimmage in 2002, surpassing his team record of 2,169. That 2002 yardage total ranks as the fourth-highest seasonal mark in NFL history.

GAME 15

Chiefs 24, Chargers 22

December 22, 2002 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,899

SAN DIEGO	3	3	9	7	—	22
KANSAS CITY	7	7	7	3	—	24

Playing without a host of key players – including the backfield tandem of Pro Bowl RB Priest Holmes and FB Tony Richardson, as well as WR Johnnie Morton and K Morten Andersen – the Chiefs turned to the least likely of heroes to stay alive in the playoff hunt.

After rejoining the team just eight days earlier, veteran K Michael Husted stepped up to attempt his first field goal since October 8th, 2000 when he was a member of the Redskins. With the Chiefs trailing 22-21 with 1:08 left in the game, Husted drew a few deep breaths and 77,899 Arrowhead on-lookers held theirs as the 38-yard field goal sailed straight through the uprights, catapulting the Chiefs to a 24-22 win over San Diego.

WR Marc Boerigter began his career day with an eight-yard TD catch from QB Trent Green in the first quarter to put KC up 7-0. SD would get a pair of FGs in the first half, while Chiefs FB Omar Easy would pick up his first career reception on a six-yard TD pass from Green to give KC a 14-6 halftime lead.

Boerigter and Green hooked up again later for the play of the game as Boerigter hauled in a 99-yard TD pass, tying as the longest pass play in NFL history. The first-year pro finished the day with a career-high 144 yards, while Green had 337 yards passing and a 110.5 rating.

However, San Diego QB Drew Brees would begin to mount a comeback, rallying his squad for 16 unanswered points to give the Chargers a 22-21 advantage. Green would then begin KC's game-winning drive positioned on his own three-yard line with 5:23 left. Twelve plays and 77 yards later Husted was lining up the game-winning kick.

Kansas City wasn't out of the woods after the field goal, as they left over a minute on the clock for Brees and company. The first-year starter who beat the Chiefs in October on a last-minute TD, didn't have the comeback magic on this day. After Brees completed a pass to rookie WR Reche Caldwell, Chiefs S Shaunard Harts ripped the ball loose and LB Gary Stills pounced on it, sealing the 24-22 KC win.

GAME NOTES

- The game marked the 100th consecutive sellout (regular and postseason) at Arrowhead Stadium dating back to the '91 regular season opener vs. Atlanta (9/1/91).
- QB Trent Green established a career-high with his 26th TD pass of 2002, a total which tied as the third-highest single-season total in Chiefs history. Green recorded his seventh 300-yard passing effort as a Chief which tied Elvis Grbac for the third-highest total in Chiefs annals.
- WR Marc Boerigter recorded his first 100-yard receiving game and his 99-yard TD reception tied as the longest pass play in NFL history.
- TE Tony Gonzalez (393) moved into third place on the Chiefs career receiving chart, moving past Chris Burford (391).

CHIEFS — Boerigter, 8-yard pass from Green (Husted kick) (10-66, 5:19).
CHARGERS — Christie, 30-yard FG (8-60, 3:10).
CHIEFS — Easy, 6-yard pass from Green (Husted kick) (13-88, 6:45).

GAME 16

Raiders 24, Chiefs 0

December 28, 2002 • Network Associates Coliseum • 62,078

OAKLAND	0	14	3	7	—	24

Playing on a flooded Network Associates Field that more closely resembled San Francisco Bay than an NFL playing surface, the Raiders slipped and slid their way to a 24-0 win over the Chiefs in the 2002 regular season finale.

The torrential rain started about an hour and a half before the game and never let up. The muddy track slowed the NFL's top two rated offenses early, but Oakland was the first to get their ground game going. The Raiders rode their three-headed rushing attack of RBs Charlie Garner, Tyrone Wheatley and Zack Crockett all afternoon as they combined to carry the ball 60 times and out-rushed the Chiefs 280 yards to 44.

Oakland's continual pounding of the football finally became too much for the Chiefs defense as the Raiders broke through for a one-yard TD run from Garner early in the second quarter for a 7-0 lead. Oakland would tack on another score just before halftime when QB Rich Gannon hit TE Doug Jolley for a 15-yard TD. Oakland began the drive with nine straight runs before Gannon hit Brown on a fourth-and-five conversion moving them inside the KC 20.

After a 27-yard K Sebastian Janikowski field goal, Oakland capped off the afternoon late in the final period when Crockett bulled forward for an eight-yard TD. The Raiders ran the ball on all 10 plays of the 70-yard drive.

The Chiefs did penetrate Oakland territory on three different occasions in the game, but failed to pick up points on any of the drives. On the opening kickoff of the game, WR Dante Hall broke off a 50-yard return, but the offense failed to move the ball from there. Later, Oakland S Rod Woodson grabbed his NFL-best eighth interception ending a Chiefs drive at the Oakland 20-yard line. Then on the game's final possession, the clock ran out before Kansas City could score, stranding them inside the Oakland 20-yard line and preserving the Raiders first-ever shutout of the Chiefs.

The 24-0 final score marked the first time Kansas City had been held scoreless in 139 games, the second-longest streak in franchise history. The last time the Chiefs had been shutout was in a home contest vs. the L.A. Rams (9/25/94).

GAME NOTES

- QB Trent Green started his 32nd consecutive game, becoming only the second QB in team history to open every game in two straight seasons. Len Dawson did it three straight seasons ('66-68). Green also posted his 1,000th career completion in the contest.
- WR Dante Hall (1,354) established a club single-season record for kickoff return yards, breaking the previous mark of 1,308 established by Tamarick Vanover in '97.
- LB Mike Maslowski set the Chiefs single-season tackle record with 162, passing Gary Spani who had 157 in '79.
- LB Gary Stills broke a team record with his 34th special teams tackle of the season.

1959 — Lamar Hunt established and organized the American Football League with six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis (Buffalo and Boston were added and Oakland replaced Minneapolis). "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Boston's Billy Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL." An unknown assistant at Miami (Florida), Hank Stram, was hired by Hunt to coach the club.

1960 — For their inaugural season in the Cotton Bowl, the Texans had a strong home-state identity with quarterback Cotton Davidson (Baylor), fullback Jack Spikes (TCU) and running back Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league in rushing with 875 yards and touchdowns with nine. The Texans had a flashy, high scoring club, and only three close losses kept them from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted E.J. Holub, described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers – Jerry Mays, Fred Arbanas and Jim Tyrer.

1962 — Stram brought in quarterback Len Dawson, who spent six uneventful years in the NFL, to quarterback the club. Another key addition was Kansas running back Curtis McClinton. Haynes enjoyed his finest season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 touchdowns. The Texans clinched the Western Division championship in November and finished with an 11-3 record. AFL writers voted Dawson, who threw 29 touchdown passes, player of the year, and Stram coach of the year. Dallas won the AFL Championship on December 23 when Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory over the Houston Oilers.

1963 — On May 22, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City and renaming it the Chiefs. H. Roe Bartle, Kansas City's mayor nicknamed "Chief," promised to enlarge Municipal Stadium and guaranteed Hunt three times as many season ticket sales as the Texans had in Dallas. Rookie Stone Johnson suffered a fatal injury in a preseason game and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory over Denver, but managed just one win and two ties in its next nine games. Three highly-touted rookies, Buck Buchanan, Ed Budde and Bobby Bell, became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team.

1964 — The Chiefs struggled to a 7-7 record as many of the team's best players, including E.J. Holub, Fred Arbanas and Johnny Robinson, missed several games with injuries. An average of just 18,126 fans attended each home game, prompting discussion at the AFL owners' meeting about the Chiefs future in Kansas City.

1965 — The Chiefs made Kansas star Gale Sayers their first-round draft pick, but lost him in a bidding war with the Chicago Bears. The Chiefs were able to nab wide receiver Otis Taylor from Prairie View, while Mack Lee Hill, a virtually unknown free agent running back, muscled his way into the starting lineup. In a relatively routine knee surgery late in the season, Hill died on the operating table. The club finished with a 7-5-2 record with three losses by a field goal or less.

1966 — The Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy winner Mike Garrett from USC, even though he was drafted by his hometown Los Angeles Rams of the NFL. A crowd of 43,885, the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City, turned out for the home opener against the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but, after the contest, Stram and Buffalo head coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got kicker Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Garrett earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors, rushing for 801 yards with a lofty 5.5 yards-per-carry average. Dawson led the league in passing as the Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland for the Western Division title.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs dominated the Bills in Buffalo, 31-7, on New Year's day to win the franchise's second AFL crown and a place in the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. On January 15 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers. The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10. The Chiefs looked to the draft to strengthen their defense and found a pair of linebacking gems in Willie Lanier from Morgan State and Jim Lynch from Notre Dame. The club's special teams also got a boost with the addition of kicker Jan Stenerud and return man Noland (Super Gnat) Smith. On August 23, the Chiefs and Chicago Bears played a preseason game in the first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City. The Chiefs throttled the Bears, 66-24, at Municipal Stadium. Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. Later in the year, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of a sports complex. Injuries again hit the club hard in the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

1968 — Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time as the Chiefs finished the year with a 12-2 record and a tie with the Raiders for the Western Division championship. Oakland easily defeated Kansas City, in the AFL Playoffs 41-6, to advance to the AFL Championship Game against the New York Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs opened the season with impressive wins over San Diego and Boston, but lost Dawson with a knee injury. The next week, backup Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle, leaving the team's most crucial position in the hands of two-year pro Mike Livingston, who engineered a seven-game win streak. Two months into the campaign, Dawson returned, helping the Chiefs to an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland, who was 12-1-1. In the first round of the playoffs, Kansas City rode its dominating defense en route to a 13-6 win over the Super Bowl champion New York Jets, while Oakland pounded Houston, 56-7.

1970 — On January 4, the Chiefs defeated the Raiders, 17-7, to capture the AFL crown. It was the final game in AFL history, as the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions. The biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs became World Champions by turning back the Minnesota Vikings, by a score of 23-7, in Super Bowl IV. The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League, and wore patches on their jerseys saying "AFL-10," which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The following season would see the AFL merge with the NFL. Oddsmakers established the Vikings as two-touchdown favorites, yet the Chiefs used three Stenerud field goals and a Garrett touchdown run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard touchdown pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory. Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite injuries to key players and the trade of Garrett to the Chargers, the Chiefs finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, but did not qualify for the playoffs.

1971 — Taylor led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,110 and Ed Podolak became the team's top rusher. The linebacking trio of Lanier, Bell and Lynch was the league's best. In the season's next-to-last game with the Raiders, a late field goal by Stenerud gave the Chiefs a 16-14 victory and a Western Division title. The team finished with a 10-3-1 mark, one-and-a-half games ahead of Oakland. Kansas City and Miami hooked up for one of pro football's most memorable games on Christmas Day in the first round of the playoffs. The Eastern Division champion Dolphins won a dramatic double-overtime thriller, 27-24, in the longest game in NFL history. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 yards on rushes, receptions and returns. It would be the last game played in Municipal Stadium.

1972 — Chiefs founder Lamar Hunt became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29 in Canton, Ohio. All-Pro safety Johnny Robinson retired and Dawson ended speculation about his retirement by signing a two-year contract. The Chiefs opened play in Arrowhead Stadium, one of the most magnificent facilities in pro sports. The largest crowd in Chiefs history, 82,094, watched the home team defeat the Raiders, 27-14, on November 5. The Chiefs got off to a 5-3 start, then lost three straight, and ended the year with an 8-6 record and out of playoff contention.

1973 — The defense remained solid but the offense struggled as Dawson was hurt for much of the season. Livingston led the club into first place in late November, but a pair of losses and a tie, gave the team its second straight second-place finish.

1974 — The Chiefs age was beginning to show. Several of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, Tyrer was 35, Bell, Buchanan and Budde were 34, Hill was 33, and Taylor was 32. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was Emmitt Thomas' league-leading 12 interceptions. Bell, an eight-time All-Pro, concluded his playing career.

1975 — Paul Wiggin, an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers, replaced Stram as the team's head coach and directed the Chiefs to four wins in his first five games. The high point of the season was a 34-31 upset of the Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football. Injuries crippled the team, leading to a second straight 5-9 finish. Dawson, the top passer in Chiefs history, announced his retirement after 14 memorable seasons with the franchise. After eight All-Pro seasons, Buchanan also finished his last year of play.

1976 — After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starting quarterback. Even though he played well, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record.

1977 — The Chiefs suffered their worst season ever, winning just twice. Tom Bettis replaced Wiggin at midseason as the team's head coach, but was able to win just once in seven tries. The heart and soul of the Chiefs defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, a pair of 11-year veterans, retired after the season's end.

1978 — Marv Levy, the former head coach of the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes, was named head coach. His first four draft picks were defensive players, including standout defensive end Art Still of Kentucky and linebacker Gary Spani of Kansas State. Levy installed the Wing-T as his offense. The Chiefs had the second-most productive ground game in the league and a record five different runners had 100-yard games, including Tony Reed, the team's first 1,000-yard back in 11 years. The team showed signs of improvement, and ended their first 16-game regular season with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — With the second overall pick in the draft, the team landed Colorado State defensive end Mike Bell, a pass rush specialist and perfect complement for Still. Clemson quarterback Steve Fuller was also chosen in the first round by the Chiefs, and by midseason, he had replaced Livingston. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs improved from a 1-3 start to finish 7-9.

1980 — In a then-controversial move, the Chiefs released Stenerud, the club's all-time leading scorer, in favor of journeyman Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. Despite injuries to key players, the Chiefs made steady improvement. The team came back from an 0-4 start to finish 8-8. The defense came of age with Still, Spani, safety Gary Barbaro and cornerback Gary Green playing major roles. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, little-known Bill Kenney took over and led the club to two victories in the final three weeks.

1981 — Kenney remained at quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers in Pittsburgh. The Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before dropping three straight games in December. A season-ending victory over the Vikings guaranteed the Chiefs their first winning record since 1973. Rookie running back Joe Delaney, a second-round pick from Northwest Louisiana rushed for a then club-record 1,121 yards.

1982 — The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before the players' strike began. The walkout would not be settled until mid-November, and the Chiefs dropped the first four games following the strike's end. Victories in two of the season's final three games left the club with a 3-6 record.

1983 — Tragedy struck the club on June 29, when Delaney, the team's young star running back, drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. A month later, linebacker Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. John Mackovic, in his first season as the club's head coach, had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney as the running game suffered. Kenney was coming of age, throwing for 4,348 yards, a Chiefs record and then the fourth-highest total in NFL history. His primary target was wide receiver Carlos Carson, who hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying offense, the final result was a 6-10 finish.

1984 — The Chiefs used their two first-round draft picks to bolster their lines, picking Pitt All-America nose tackle Bill Maas then Iowa's huge offensive tackle John Alt. Maas had an immediate impact and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Todd Blackledge, a first-round pick the previous season, opened the first six contests and had the club 3-3. Inconsistency marked the rest of the season which saw the team conclude the year with an 8-8 mark.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start, winning three of their first four games. One of the wins, a 28-7 drubbing of the Seattle Seahawks on September 29, saw free safety Deron Cherry tie an NFL record with four interceptions. That would be one of the few remaining bright spots in a 6-10 season.

1986 — Linebacker Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2. The pieces started coming together for Mackovic, who directed the club to a 7-3 record 10 weeks into the season. The club's defense and special teams were especially effective. Three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy, though. A 37-10 win over the Broncos at Arrowhead and the team's first-ever win at L.A. Memorial Coliseum, a 20-17 squeaker over the Raiders, put the 9-6 Chiefs in position to reach the playoffs. A December 21 date in Pittsburgh was all that stood in their way. Despite being outgained 515 yards to 171, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came from the special teams. That earned the club an AFC Wild Card berth, the club's first playoff appearance in 15 years. On December 28 at Giants Stadium, the Jets defeated the upstart Chiefs, 35-15.

1987 — Quarterback Len Dawson was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8 in Canton, just a few miles from his hometown of Alliance, Ohio. Special teams coordinator Frank Gansz was promoted to head coach, and he quickly used the draft to solve the Chiefs running woes by selecting nimble Paul Palmer of Temple in the first round and powerful Enugu, Nigeria, native Christian Okoye from tiny Azusa Pacific in the second. Both rookies made a splash in the season-opening win over the Chargers as Palmer returned a kickoff for a touchdown and Okoye dashed for 105 yards. The Chiefs suffered a setback at Seattle the following week, just before another players' strike took place. NFL teams put together "replacement" squads, mostly consisting of players cut in training camp. The Chiefs version lost all three games, and by the time the strike was finished, the team stood 1-4. Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game skid. Kansas City won three of its last five for a 4-11 mark.

1988 — Defensive end Neil Smith of Nebraska became the team's first-round pick after the club traded its second-round choice to the Detroit Lions in order to move one place up in the first round. For the second straight season, the Chiefs were able to win just four times. Twelve-year veteran Steve DeBerg, acquired in an offseason trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, became the club's starting quarterback. On December 19, one day after the season's end, Carl Peterson took over as the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer.

1989 — Marty Schottenheimer, who directed the Cleveland Browns to two AFC Championship Game appearances, became the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24. With the fourth overall pick in the draft, the team selected Butkus Award winner Derrick Thomas, Alabama's All-America linebacker. The team started slow, winning three of its first eight games. DeBerg, Ron Jaworski, and Steve Pelluer each took turns as the team's starting quarterback. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs one-half game shy of a playoff berth. The 8-7-1 record was good for second place in the division. Okoye set a club record and became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — Defensive tackle Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4. The Chiefs got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six games, before tearing up the league in the home stretch, winning six of its last seven outings. The team's 11-5 record was the club's best since the 1969 Super Bowl season and advanced the team to the playoffs for just the second time since 1971. Free agent running back Barry Word topped the team with 1,015 yards, but the unquestioned leader on offense was DeBerg, who tossed 23 touchdown passes with just four interceptions. Kansas City led the NFL with 60 sacks, including 20 by Thomas, the NFL's sack king. An NFL-record seven of Thomas' sacks came on November 11 against Seattle, a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second touchdown by future Chief Dave Krieg. That loss would bring on the furious stretch run.

1991 — On January 5 at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami, the Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss to the Dolphins in the AFC First Round Playoff tilt. On July 27, Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs enjoyed another strong 10-6 regular season. The home portion of the schedule was highlighted by a pair of prime-time Monday night affairs. On October 7, the Chiefs toppled the defending AFC Champion Bills, 33-6, in the club's first home Monday night game in eight years. Three weeks later, the Chiefs tallied a thrilling come-from-behind win over the Raiders in front of a national audience. On December 28, the Chiefs played host to the Raiders in the first playoff game ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs posted their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 decision over the Raiders as Kansas City forced six Los Angeles turnovers.

1992 — On January 5, the Chiefs visited Buffalo for an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup. The Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs in a 37-14 setback that propelled Buffalo toward the Super Bowl. A melancholy summer awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 22, and Hall of Famer Buck Buchanan on July 16. Six-time Pro Bowl safety Deron Cherry, owner of 50 career interceptions, announced his retirement in July. The Chiefs battled through an injury-riddled season, during which a playoff berth never seemed certain. On the regular season's final Sunday, the Chiefs faced the Broncos in a game that would send the winner into the playoffs. The Chiefs defense tallied three touchdowns and "Plan B" signee Dave Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as the Chiefs buried the Broncos, 42-20. First-round draft pick Dale Carter of Tennessee earned the Bert Bell trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year.

1993 — On January 2 in San Diego, the Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as the Chargers posted a 17-0 victory. The Chiefs spent the off-season retooling their offense. On April 20, the Chiefs traded for quarterback Joe Montana, who directed the San Francisco 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. The Chiefs swapped their first-round pick in the '93 draft to the 49ers in exchange for Montana, safety David Whitmore and San Francisco's third-round pick in '94. Kansas City wasn't done loading up the offense. On June 9 the club signed unrestricted free agent running back Marcus Allen, a certain Hall of Famer and the MVP of Super Bowl XVIII. The additions paid off as the Chiefs went 11-5, won their first AFC West title since '71 and appeared in the AFC Championship Game.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the NFL's all-time leading passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a first-round playoff win over Pittsburgh on Jan. 8. The Chiefs trailed the Steelers, 17-10, entering the fourth quarter, and then, 24-17, as the two-minute warning sounded. On fourth-and-goal from the seven, Montana fired a game-tying TD pass to wide receiver Tim Barnett. In overtime, kicker Nick Lowery booted a 32-yard field goal as Arrowhead erupted. On Jan. 16, the Chiefs traveled to Houston, where the Oilers sat poised for their 12th straight win. The heavily-favored Oilers opened up a 13-7, fourth-quarter lead, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind. First, he hit wide receiver J.J. Birden for an 11-yard TD, then he found wide receiver Willie Davis open in the end zone from 18 yards out. Allen nailed the game shut with a 21-yard TD dash and the Chiefs found themselves on the favorable side of a 28-20 decision. The Chiefs playoff journey ended in Buffalo on Jan. 23 as the Bills won their fourth straight AFC title game by a score of 30-13. The Chiefs added cornerback Mark Collins and linebacker George Jamison through free agency and quarterback Steve Bono and safety William White through trades. Also new at Arrowhead in '94 was a grass playing surface, the first ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs started the year with three straight wins, but found themselves 8-7 with their playoff hopes in jeopardy. In the do-or-die season finale at the L.A. Coliseum, Allen had his finest game as a Chief, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. On New Year's Eve, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs, dropping a 27-17 decision at Miami.

1995 — Quarterback Joe Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL, including the last two with the Chiefs, on April 18. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs. The team responded by posting an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and in games played at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense scoring defense and turnover ratio, the three hallmarks of a solid football team. During the first six weeks of the season, the Chiefs were victorious in three overtime games. In an October 9 thriller on Monday Night Football, first-year wide receiver Tamarick Vanover returned a punt 86 yards for a touchdown in overtime to defeat the San Diego Chargers.

1996 — On a blustery, January 7 afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and wind chills at -9, the Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game to the Indianapolis Colts, 10-7, at Arrowhead Stadium. More Chiefs (seven) played in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl on February 4 than any other AFC team: fullback Kimble Anders, quarterback Steve Bono, cornerback Dale Carter, defensive tackle Dan Saleaumua, guard Will Shields, defensive end Neil Smith, and linebacker Derrick Thomas. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record and ended a six-year streak of playoff qualification. During the season, running back Marcus Allen set three NFL records: most career rushing touchdowns, most games played by a running back and most pass receptions by a running back.

1997 — After missing the playoffs in '96 for the first time since '89, Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97. The Chiefs line-up featured 11 new starters, headlined by free agent signees QB Elvis Grbac, WR Andre Rison and TE Ted Popson on offense. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft - S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards - emerged as starters, as well. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record and their second AFC West title in the past three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came on September 8 at Oakland when Grbac collaborated with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with seconds remaining to provide the Chiefs with a 28-27 win over the Raiders. After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune finally appeared to run out on November 3 vs. Pittsburgh when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, back-up QB Rich Gannon would come on to preserve a win in that contest and lead the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings. K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG to give Kansas City a 24-22 win over Denver on November 16. Grbac returned to the starting line-up for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans as the squad finished the regular season with an 8-0 tally at Arrowhead Stadium.

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off for the third time when 12-4 Denver visited 13-3 Kansas City for an AFC Divisional Playoff contest on January 4. Despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foes. Six players represented Kansas City at the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, including CB James Hasty and WR Andre Rison who made their first appearances as members of the Chiefs. On April 9, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career, which included five stellar seasons in Kansas City. A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory over the Oakland Raiders. Starting quarterback Elvis Grbac was lost for a considerable amount of the season due to a shoulder injury on the final play of the game's first half, while All-Pro left guard Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear in the second stanza of that same contest. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injury as the Chiefs went 7-9 to miss the playoffs for just the second time during the '90s, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons. The club was also hampered by crucial penalties, as the team set dubious NFL records for penalties (158), penalty yardage (1,304) and first downs allowed by penalty (58).

1999 — On January 11, head coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons of distinguished service with the club. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles, qualified for the playoffs seven times and made the team's first-ever appearance in the AFC Championship Game in '93. Schottenheimer posted a 54-26 record (.675) against his AFC West opponents, including a 18-3 mark (.857) against the Raiders. A veteran of 17 NFL seasons as an assistant coach, Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. Over those four years, the Chiefs won two AFC West titles and posted a 23-9 (.719) record against the rest of the division. The club responded to their new leader's high-energy style as Cunningham produced a 9-7 record in his initial season at the club's helm, the best record of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in the NFL in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver on December 5. Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the '90s with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Perhaps the two biggest factors in the Chiefs success during the decade were the takeaway/giveaway column and the running game. Under Cunningham, the team firmly regained their grips on both categories in '99. Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio in '99 and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. Cunningham's "maul ball" running philosophy proved fruitful as the Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing with 130.1 yards per game. After a three-game mid-season losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string and needed a win in one of its last two contests to secure a postseason berth. A 23-14 loss at Seattle on December 26 would set up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

2000 — A win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead in the regular season finale on January 2 of the new century would seal the AFC West title for the Chiefs, while a loss would put the club out of the playoffs. Kansas City leaped out to a 17-0 lead vs. the Raiders, but a blocked punt would turn the momentum in one of the wildest contests in the storied Chiefs-Raiders series. The game was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in overtime, providing an ominous start to a year which would turn tragic for the team on January 23. Nine-time Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11 was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lied in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15 at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19 Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in his hometown of Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas would be honored prior to the club's season opener at Arrowhead on September 3, but the Chiefs would fall 27-14 to the Indianapolis Colts. Kansas City would lose a 17-14 OT decision the following week at Tennessee, but would then bounce back win five of their next six contests to sit 5-3 at the season's midway point. On October 2, the Chiefs faced Seattle in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams on October 22, a contest which marked the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span would take its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

2001 — Following the club's disappointing finish, head coach Gunther Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5. In two years at the helm of the club, Cunningham finished with a 16-16 record. On January 12, Dick Vermeil was named the ninth head coach in franchise history. Just one of four coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the Super Bowl, Vermeil guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season in his most recent head coaching endeavor. In Kansas City, Vermeil was reunited with Chiefs President Carl Peterson, whose association dated back 27 years to UCLA. After originally attempting to hire Vermeil upon his arrival in Kansas City in '89, Peterson pulled off the feat and provided the franchise with a renewed sense of optimism. On April 20, just a day prior to the NFL draft, Peterson helped reshape the club's offensive personnel, acquiring QB Trent Green and a fifth-round pick from St. Louis in exchange for Kansas City's first-round selection. The same day, the club also agreed to a five-year contract with unrestricted free agent RB Priest Holmes. The initial regular season victory of the Vermeil era came in convincing fashion at Washington on September 30 when the Chiefs defeated their former head coach Marty Schottenheimer and the Redskins by a 45-13 margin. Although the club finished its initial campaign under Vermeil at 6-10, the team began to take shape down the stretch, winning three of their final four games. Holmes provided a spark to the offense, breaking six team records in a sensational debut season with the Red and Gold. He became just the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,555 yards, breaking Christian Okoye's previous single-season record of 1,480 set in '89. The club finished in the top 10 in the NFL in rushing, passing and total offense for just the second time since the AFL-NFL merger.

2002 — In what would be a precursor for a season filled with wild comebacks and fantastic finishes, the Chiefs pulled out a remarkable 40-39 Opening Day win at Cleveland on September 8. Starting with that contest, virtually every game was a nail-biter with all but one of the club's eight losses being decided by seven points or less. But despite leading the NFL in scoring for the first time in team history with a franchise-record 467 points, the club would finish 8-8 to miss the postseason in head coach Dick Vermeil's second season at the helm. The team remained in playoff contention until the season's final game thanks to its explosive offense that broke nine team records and featured four Pro Bowlers – RB Priest Holmes, G Will Shields, T Willie Roaf and TE Tony Gonzalez. In addition to the club scoring record, the squad also set seasonal marks for total offense (6,000 yards), first downs (343), touchdowns (57) and completion percentage (61.21%). In addition, the team led the AFC with a +16 turnover differential, setting NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing just two of those loose balls. Holmes continued the torrid pace he began in 2001, establishing 10 single-season records, earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors from AP and leading the NFL in scoring with 144 points. He surpassed his own team record with 1,615 rushing yards and accumulated 2,287 yards from scrimmage, the fourth-highest seasonal total in NFL history. He combined with veteran K Morten Andersen to give the team its first pair of 100-point scorers in a season. The special teams were also bolstered by WR Dante Hall, who produced three kick returns for TDs and became the first Chiefs return man to earn a Pro Bowl berth since J.T. Smith following the '80 season.

2003 — On January 25 in San Diego, Hank Stram and Marcus Allen were elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2003 along with DE Elvin Bethea, G Joe DeLamielleure and WR James Lofton. Stram – who coached the Texans/Chiefs from '60-74 and led the club to three AFL Championships and a win in Super Bowl IV – compiled a 124-76-10 regular season record with the franchise. Allen – who spent five seasons in Kansas City ('93-97) after beginning his career with the Raiders – helped lead the Chiefs to three AFC West titles and still holds the team career record with 44 rushing touchdowns. Stram and Allen became the first Chiefs to be elected to the Hall since K Jan Stenerud in '91.

CHIEFS IN THE AMERICAN BOWL

1990 American Bowl

Rams 19, Chiefs 3
August 11, 1990 • 55,429
Olympic Stadium • Berlin, West Germany

KANSAS CITY	0	0	3	0	— 3
L.A. RAMS	7	3	0	9	— 19

Kansas City's initial American Bowl expedition featured heavy doses of culture, but little offense as the Rams prevailed by a 19-3 margin. RB Barry Word made his first appearance in a Kansas City uniform, pairing with the league's leading rusher in '89, RB Christian Okoye to form the quintessential "Martyball" backfield. However, the Chiefs only points would come on a 19-yard FG by K Bjorn Nittmo.

RB James Saxon (31) and TE Jonathan Hayes (85) are on hand as the Berlin Wall begins crumbling down in Berlin, West Germany.

The Chiefs receive an indoctrination in the art of sumo wrestling at practice in Tokyo.

1994 American Bowl

Vikings 17, Chiefs 9
August 7, 1994 • 49,555
Tokyo Dome • Tokyo, Japan

KANSAS CITY	0	9	0	0	— 9
MINNESOTA	7	10	0	0	— 17

Kansas City's first appearance on Japanese soil was a rematch of Super Bowl IV, but Minnesota prevailed in this contest thanks to a pair of interceptions. Chiefs QB Matt Blundin accounted for the club's only TD when he connected with rookie WR Lake Dawson for a 40-yard score. Kansas City then attempted a two-point conversion for the first time since '69 as the NFL finally implemented the old AFL two-point rule in '94.

1996 American Bowl

Chiefs 32, Cowboys 6
August 5, 1996 • 45,128
Estadio Universitario • Monterrey, Mexico

KANSAS CITY	3	10	6	13	— 32
DALLAS	3	0	3	0	— 6

The Chiefs defense stifles the defending Super Bowl champions, allowing the Cowboys just five first downs. Kansas City's offense piles up 514 yards of total offense, including 173 rushing yards, while Dallas manages 214 total yards on the day as the Chiefs convert the partisan crowd of Cowboy fans into supporters of the "Jefes de Kansas City" or Kansas City Chiefs.

DE Neil Smith does his best matador impersonation and tries his hand at "bull-fighting" while in Monterrey, Mexico.

WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai (13) and TE Nachi Abe (47) join Chiefs President Carl Peterson in pregame ceremonies at the Tokyo Dome.

1998 American Bowl

Packers 27, Chiefs 24 OT
August 2, 1998 • 42,018
Tokyo Dome • Tokyo, Japan

GREEN BAY	0	14	7	3	3	— 27
KANSAS CITY	14	0	10	0	0	— 24

Green Bay K Ryan Longwell misses a potential game-winning 45-yard FG attempt at the end of regulation, while both Green Bay K Brett Conway and Kansas City K Pete Stoyanovich miss field goals in OT before Longwell makes the 27-yard game winner with 5:03 left in the extra session. Kansas City's roster features Japanese national players TE Nachi Abe and WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai.

HOMES OF THE CHIEFS

ARROWHEAD STADIUM
1972-PRESENT

Arrowhead Stadium, present home of the Kansas City Chiefs, is one of the finest facilities in the NFL. It is part of the Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which also includes 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals baseball club. Since its dedication on August 12, 1972, for a preseason game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, 17,941,485 spectators have passed through Arrowhead's turnstiles. After 23 seasons of artificial turf, Arrowhead sported a grass playing surface for the first time in '94.

Municipal Stadium served as the Chiefs original home in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the '67 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the '71 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of '71, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

COTTON BOWL

Capacity: 75,504 (1962 - Final Season)

Construction Data: Opened - 1923
Upper Deck Added - 1948-49

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys. The facility served until '99 as a home field for Southern Methodist University, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

THE ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

The Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals played the inaugural game at Arrowhead Stadium on August 12, 1972. Today, the facility remains one of the finest sports stadiums in the world. Everything is still in top shape as the Truman Sports Complex prepares to celebrate its 32nd distinguished season of service in 2003. Other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, but thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Chiefs staff led by Jack Steadman who helped develop the complex, and the taxpayers who made it a reality, Arrowhead has indeed, stood the test of time.

At the time of its dedication in 1972, the legendary founder of the Chicago Bears, George Halas called Arrowhead, "the most revolutionary, futuristic, sports complex I have ever seen." Hal Lebovitz, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer added, "It took courage to sell the citizens of Kansas City on the twin park plan. But they bought it because they want the best."

In the late 1960s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in 1967, which included plans for a revolutionary concept - the world's first rolling stadium roof (pictured below). Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold, but Arrowhead was completed in time for the 1972 season.

In 1984, the Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome - this time made of fabric - but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

A decade later, in 1994, under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time, just one of numerous improvements which have been made under the direction of Chiefs President, General Manager, and CEO Carl Peterson. From 1994-96 other multi-million dollar projects have modernized and expanded the Arrowhead Club, the Chiefs team and office facilities, as well as the stadium's concession areas. In 1998 the club installed a pair of 23' x 42' Mitsubishi ArrowVision video screens in both end zones, and this year the Chiefs once again expanded their administrative offices at Arrowhead. In 1999 all 33,975 seats in the upper level of the stadium were replaced, while all 35,277 lower level seats and all 10,199 club level seats were replaced for the 2000 season.

Undoubtedly one of the finest facilities in the NFL, Arrowhead and the fans who consistently fill it (100 consecutive sellouts) have helped produce a distinct homefield advantage for the Chiefs. During the '90s, no NFL team had a better regular season home winning percentage than Kansas City, which produced a 65-15 (.813) record over from 1990-99. Over 30 years after the first plans were being devised for Kansas City's unique two stadium setup, other metropolitan areas are, only now, in the process of attempting to construct similar facilities.

Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

During Arrowhead's 30th Anniversary season in 2001, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, expressed the organization's thanks to Colorado-based architect, the late Charles Deaton, who conceived the two-stadium concept. Hunt praised the governmental bodies who took the initiative, and the workers who built Arrowhead, as well as the support of the Jackson County taxpayers who financed this futuristic venture. Hunt pointed out that Kansas City's franchise and its fans have now enjoyed America's top football facility for over 30 years and wished to extend on behalf of the entire the Chiefs organization a hearty salute to all who have unquestionably made Arrowhead Stadium - The Home of the ... CHIEFS!

Arrowhead Stadium has been a destination for football afficionados since it opened in '72. In addition to serving as the "Home of the Chiefs," Arrowhead has hosted for numerous college football contests, as well as the '74 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. In 2003, Arrowhead will be home to three college games for the first time in its history. The Dr Pepper Big 12 Championship Game will be played at Arrowhead for a second time. Kansas State will make its third appearance at Arrowhead when it meets California for the 2003 Black Coaches Association Game, while NCAA Division II powerhouses Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State will meet at Arrowhead for the second consecutive season.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT)

December 23, 1962 • Jeppesen Stadium (37,981)

DALLAS	3	14	0	0	0	3	—	20
HOUSTON	0	0	7	10	0	0	—	17

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's charges as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers. The game still ranks as the second-longest pro contest ever played, coming in at a lengthy 77:54, but is best remembered for RB Abner Haynes' choice to "kick to the clock" at the beginning of the initial overtime session.

Following second-place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West title in '62. Dallas (11-3) was then matched in this title bout with Houston (11-3), which had won the first two AFL titles in '60 and '61 over the Chargers.

The Texans grabbed the game's first break when LB E.J. Holub picked off QB/K George Blanda at the goal line and returned the ball 43 yards, sparking a drive that resulted in a 16-yard FG by K Tommy Brooker. Blanda would miss a 47-yard kick on the Oilers next possession and Haynes scored on a 28-yard pass from QB Len Dawson. An INT by CB Dave Grayson would set up Haynes' second TD of the half, this time on a two-yard run to give the Texans a 17-0 halftime advantage.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda – then a "young" 35 years old – passed 15 yards to TE Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before RB Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. Houston had a shot to win the game late in regulation, but LB Sherrill Headrick blocked a 42-yard Blanda field goal to leave the score deadlocked.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick-to-the-clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, DE Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson passed to RB Jack Spikes for 10 yards. Spikes – the game's Most Valuable Player – then ran for 19 yards and the Texans were in field goal range.

At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in '71.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

January 1, 1967 • War Memorial Stadium (42,080)

KANSAS CITY	7	10	0	14	—	31
BUFFALO	7	0	0	0	—	7

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. Kansas City's defense had stifled opponents all season long and didn't disappoint in this contest, forcing four turnovers, while limiting Buffalo to just nine first downs and 40 rushing yards as the Chiefs rolled to a 31-7 victory and their second AFL title.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff when P Jerrel Wilson recovered a fumble by DE Dudley Meredith on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, QB Len Dawson found TE Fred Arbanas for a 29-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 7-0 lead.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Buffalo tied the game in the opening period when All-Star QB Jack Kemp hit WR Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play to tie the score at 7-7. Few thought it would be the Bills last score of the day, but Kansas City would eventually outscore Buffalo 24-0 in the final three quarters.

While the Chiefs defense clamped down on the Bills, Dawson led the Kansas City offense to 10 second-quarter points. A 28-yard punt return by RB Mike Garrett set the Chiefs up at the Buffalo 45-yard line and six plays later the KC signal-caller found WR Otis Taylor for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

The game's decisive play then came just before halftime. Kemp had marched the Bills to the Chiefs eight-yard line, but was picked off at the goal line by S Johnny Robinson, who raced 72 yards with the interception before being brought down at the Buffalo 28-yard line. K Mike Mercer then hit a 32-yard FG with 0:03 left in the half to give the Chiefs a 17-7 lead at the intermission.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive tussle as the two teams each exchanged a pair of punts. Kansas City would get to the Buffalo 42-yard line late in the period, but a 49-yard kick by Mercer fell short leaving the score at 17-7 with 15 minutes remaining.

Kansas City then broke the game wide open as Garrett applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs, scoring on runs of one and 18 yards to make the count 31-7. A 47-yard Dawson pass to E Chris Burford set up Garrett's first TD which came on fourth-and-goal. Buffalo fumbled on its next offensive snap and S Bobby Hunt fell on the loose ball at the Bills 21. Three plays later Garrett started left and then reversed his field to get into the end zone for a second time.

Kemp couldn't move the Bills on their next possession and was picked off by CB Emmitt Thomas on Buffalo's final drive of the day as Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

CHIEFS — Arbanas, 29-yard pass from Dawson (Mercer kick).

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10

January 15, 1967 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (63,036)

KANSAS CITY	0	10	0	0	— 10
GREEN BAY	7	7	14	7	— 35

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers. Vince Lombardi's Packers – one of the great pro football teams of all time – won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring on its second possession when the game's Most Valuable Player, QB Bart Starr, passed 37 yards to TE Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for a touchdown. McGee, who had caught just four passes during the regular season, became an unlikely hero for the Packers after starter Boyd Dowler was injured on the game's opening series. McGee finished the game with seven catches for 138 yards and two TDs.

Behind QB Len Dawson, the Chiefs marched into Green Bay territory on their next drive, but K Mike Mercer misfired on a 40-yard FG to leave the score 7-0 after one quarter. However, Kansas City would tie the game on its next possession after a 31-yard completion to WR Otis Taylor set up a seven-yard scoring pass to RB Curtis McClinton.

Green Bay would go right back on top when RB Jim Taylor scored from 14 yards out on the Packers vaunted sweep. KC's next drive featured a 27-yard completion to E Chris Burford and culminated with a 31-yard Mercer FG as the Chiefs closed the gap to 14-10.

The Chiefs momentum carried over to the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play – one that doomed the underdog Chiefs – unfolded when S Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for TE Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where RB Elijah Pitts ran for the first of his two touchdowns as Green Bay would establish a 21-10 lead.

The Packers defense forced Kansas City to punt on its next two possessions, setting up another Starr-to-McGee touchdown pass. That duo would connect on completions of 11 and 16 yards on a 10-play, 56-yard drive before McGee hauled in a 13-yard score to up the Packer advantage to 28-10.

Kansas City dodged a scoring threat when CB Willie Mitchell picked off a Starr pass at the Chiefs 11-yard line in the fourth quarter, but it would be Green Bay's only miscue of the day. The Packers defense would stifle the AFL Champions for the remainder of the game as the Chiefs crossed midfield just once in the fourth quarter.

A 37-yard pass to McGee would set up the Packers final score, a one-yard Pitts TD run. That score put the finishing touch on a 35-10 victory as Green Bay claimed the first of two straight Super Bowl titles, while Kansas City would have to wait until Super Bowl IV for redemption.

1968 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Raiders 41, Chiefs 6

December 22, 1968 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum (54,444)

KANSAS CITY	0	6	0	0	—	6
OAKLAND	21	7	0	13	—	41

Oakland jumped out to an early 21-0 lead and picked off QB Len Dawson four times, posting a convincing 41-6 victory in the initial postseason meeting between the Chiefs and Raiders. The two teams had both finished 12-2 and split a pair of regular season contests, setting up this playoff meeting for the right to face the N.Y. Jets in the AFL Championship Game.

The Chiefs defense had allowed a franchise-record 170 points during the regular season, but QB Daryle Lamonica and WR Fred Biletnikoff made play after play against Kansas City. Lamonica finished the day with 345 passing yards and five TD passes, the highest postseason totals ever amassed against Kansas City. Biletnikoff also had a record-setting day, registering 180 receiving yards and three scores, the best individual receiving day produced versus the Chiefs in the playoffs.

The Lamonica-Biletnikoff connection clicked early and often, accounting for three plays and 60 yards on Oakland's opening possession, including a 24-yard TD pass to put the Raiders ahead 7-0.

With the Chiefs backed up at their own two-yard line, P Jerrel Wilson's punt would go off the side of his foot, giving the Raiders the ball at the Kansas City 25-yard line. Three plays later, a 23-yard scoring grab by WR Warren Wells made the score 14-0. The two teams would exchange punts before Lamonica lofted a 44-yard aerial to Biletnikoff to make the score 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Kansas City's offense showed some life to open the second quarter. Dawson hit WR Otis Taylor for a 55-yard gain to put the Chiefs in scoring position, but KC could not crack the end zone on three tries from inside the five-yard line as the club would settle for a 10-yard K Jan Stenerud FG to make the count 21-3.

Two possessions later, the Chiefs got excellent field position at the Oakland 38. A 31-yard pass to WR Ron Pitts moved KC to the seven-yard line, but again the offense couldn't cross the goal line, resulting in an eight-yard Stenerud FG. The Raiders responded with a 54-yard Lamonica-to-Biletnikoff scoring strike to close the first half, giving Oakland a commanding 28-6 advantage.

The Chiefs defense forced a punt on Oakland's first drive of the second half and then held the Raiders out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one on their next possession to keep the contest within reach. But KC's offense couldn't put points on the board despite getting deep into Oakland territory twice as a missed 37-yard FG and an interception haulted those drives.

The Raiders slammed the door shut in the fourth quarter as Wells caught his second TD of the day and K George Blanda tacked on a pair of FGs to up the Oakland lead to 41-6. Dawson was unable to rally the Chiefs as each of the club's final three possessions ended with interceptions and Oakland advanced to its second straight AFL Championship Game.

1969 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 13, Jets 6

December 20, 1969 • Shea Stadium (62,977)

KANSAS CITY	0	3	3	7	—	13
NEW YORK	3	0	0	3	—	6

Kansas City had throttled the Jets in the regular season, but getting a playoff victory against the reigning World Champions would prove much more difficult. The Chiefs defense would rise up for a monumental goal line stand, while the offense would get into the end zone when it mattered most as Kansas City claimed a 13-6 victory.

New York was led by QB Joe Namath, but throwing the ball accurately in the swirling winds of Shea Stadium would prove difficult for the charismatic MVP of Super Bowl III. The Jets passer connected on just 14 of 40 attempts for 164 yards and was picked off three times.

New York got on the board first with a 27-yard K Jim Turner field goal to go up 3-0. QB Len Dawson then started KC's next drive with a 13-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor, a 12-yard connection to TE Fred Arbanas and a 17-yard screen to RB Wendell Hayes. After missing a 47-yard FG on KC's first drive, this time K Jan Stenerud connected on a 23-yard FG to knot the score at 3-3.

Neither club could muster much offense for the remainder of the first half. Stenerud would misfire on a 44-yard kick on KC's only other legitimate scoring shot, leaving the score deadlocked at intermission.

Kansas City's defense would turn up the pressure in the third quarter. CB Emmitt Thomas would register the Chiefs first INT of the day, setting up a 47-yard FG attempt that sailed wide left in the blustery conditions. New York's next possession would be terminated by the first of two interceptions on the day by CB Jim Marsalis. After the Jets were penalized for running into P Jerrel Wilson, a 27-yard pass to Arbanas put KC in New York territory. A 25-yard Stenerud FG then gave the Chiefs a slim, 6-3 advantage.

Namath responded by moving the Jets into scoring position early in the fourth quarter. A pass interference call in the end zone would give the home squad first-and-goal at the one, setting the stage for the biggest goal-line stand in Chiefs history.

RB Matt Snell gained half a yard off right tackle on first down before S Johnny Robinson arrived on the scene, while RB Bill Mathis was stuffed for no gain by LB Willie Lanier on second down. Namath attempted a bootleg on third down, but was hit by LB Jim Lynch and threw the ball away, forcing the Jets to settle for a seven-yard Turner field goal to tie the contest at 6-6.

Dawson and the Chiefs would immediately strike back. A 61-yard bomb to Taylor would set up the game's only TD. WR Gloster Richardson made the biggest grab of his career, hauling in a 19-yard scoring strike from Dawson on the next play. Marsalis would then record his second INT of Namath on the Jets final possession to ensure a tightly-contested 13-6 playoff win, sending Kansas City to the AFL's final title game at Oakland.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7

January 4, 1970 • Oakland-Alemeda County Coliseum (54,444)

KANSAS CITY	0	7	7	3	— 17
OAKLAND	7	0	0	0	— 7

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the AFL's only three-time champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played Oakland for the league's last title. The Raiders had won the AFL West and owned a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, including a slim 10-6 victory in the regular season finale.

The Raiders, who arrived at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum already packed for a potential trip to Super Bowl IV, suffered the indignity of carrying those suitcases out of the stadium past the Chiefs busses after a 17-7 defeat.

The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece with Oakland's coming on a three-yard run by RB Charlie Smith. Kansas City responded with a one-yard plunge by RB Wendell Hayes after QB Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to WR Otis Taylor and 41 yards to WR Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, QB/K George Blanda was wide right on field goals of 39 and 40 yards, attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City began its second TD drive from its own six-yard line. A potential disaster was averted when the Chiefs fell on a fumble at their own two-yard line. On the next play, Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass play. FB Robert Holmes added 23 more on a flare pass, while a 25-yard pass interference call gave the Chiefs first-and-goal at the three. Holmes plowed in for the go-ahead TD from five yards out on third down, giving the Chiefs a 14-7 advantage.

The game then became a defensive struggle, which played right into Kansas City's hand. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of DEs Aaron Brown and Jerry Mays and DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders QB Daryle Lamonica, forcing a trifecta of fourth-quarter interceptions.

K Jan Stenerud came up short on a 52-yard FG to begin the final frame, which would be marked by a myriad of turnovers. S Jim Kearney registered KC's first INT of Lamonica at the Chiefs 18-yard line. Two plays later a Chiefs fumble would put the ball back in the hands of the "Mad Bomber," who was subsequently picked off by CB Jim Marsalis on Oakland's next snap.

Inexplicably, Kansas City would fumble again two plays later, setting Lamonica up deep in Chiefs territory. But three snaps later CB Emmitt Thomas recorded his second pickoff of the day, ending a third straight Oakland possession with an INT. Thomas returned the ball 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line, setting up a 22-yard field goal that provided a 17-7 lead with 4:48 remaining.

Kansas City would actually fumble one more time, but the Silver and Black could not capitalize as the victorious Chiefs would return home to pack bags of their own for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

January 11, 1970 • Tulane Superdome (80,562)

MINNESOTA	0	0	7	0	— 7
KANSAS CITY	3	13	7	0	— 23

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the World Championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the N.Y. Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the winningest team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in 1970, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession behind a fearsome defense that had allowed an average of just 9.5 points per game. But behind QB Len Dawson – who would earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award – the Chiefs would amass more than enough offense to carry the day.

The Chiefs took an early lead when K Jan Stenerud booted a 48-yard first quarter field goal, a kick that remains as the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He would later follow with field goals of 32 and 25 yards to give Kansas City a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when Vikings S Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and G Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Dawson handed off to RB Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, RB Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for a five-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 16-0 halftime lead and stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when RB Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season. Dawson hit the Chiefs wideout on a short hitch pattern, and when CB Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 23-7 lead after three quarters.

As was so often the case in 1969, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. LB Willie Lanier picked off a QB Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, S Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, CB Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1971 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 24 (2 OT)

December 25, 1971 • Municipal Stadium (50,374)

MIAMI	0	10	7	7	0	3	—	27
KANSAS CITY	10	0	7	7	0	0	—	24

The longest game in NFL history signaled the end of a glorious era in Chiefs history as Kansas City and Miami dueled for 82:40 in a double-overtime epic on Christmas Day '71. The final game ever played at Municipal Stadium featured 11 future Hall of Fame players, Hall of Fame head coaches Hank Stram and Don Shula, as well as one of the greatest individual efforts in NFL postseason annals by RB Ed Podalak. But in the end it was the Dolphins who prevailed when K Garo Yepremian's 37-yard FG at 7:40 of the second OT gave Miami a 27-24 victory.

Widely regarded as the finest Chiefs team ever assembled – the '69 Super Bowl IV squad included – Kansas City took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter thanks to a 24-yard FG and a seven-yard TD catch by Podolak. But Miami countered with 10 unanswered points to leave the score deadlocked at halftime.

The unquestioned star of the contest was Podolak, who accounted for an NFL-playoff record 350 combined net yards (85 rushing yards, 110 receiving yards and 153 on kick returns). With the score knotted at 17-17 after three quarters, Podalak capped a 91-yard drive with a three-yard TD run to give the Chiefs a 24-17 lead with 6:46 left in regulation. However, a five-yard pass from QB Bob Griese to TE Marv Fleming put the count at 24-24 with 1:25 remaining in regulation.

Podolak almost ended the game on the ensuing kickoff, but Miami CB Curtis Johnson maintained his angle to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the 22-yard line. With 35 seconds left, K Jan Stenerud's would-be, game-winning 31-yard FG attempt sailed wide right. Miami could not move the ball on its final possession of regulation, sending the game to its first overtime session.

Kansas City won the toss and after taking a lateral from DT Buck Buchanan, Podolak returned the kickoff to the Chiefs 46-yard line. Four plays later, KC was at the Miami 35-yard line as Stenerud lined up for another attempt at a game-winning kick, this time from 42 yards out. But Stenerud's attempt was blocked by LB Nick Buoniconti, giving the Dolphins new life.

Both teams would exchange punts before a 52-yard FG attempt by Yepremian came up short. The first overtime session would come to a close when Dawson was intercepted by Miami S Jake Scott. The Dolphins took over at their own 46 to start overtime number two, but were smothered by Kansas City's fierce defense.

Miami's defense forced the Chiefs to punt, setting up Griese and the Dolphins for one final drive. RB Jim Csonka broke off a 29-yard run to move Miami into KC territory. Four plays later Yepremian ended the NFL's longest day with his 37-yard game-winner. The Dolphins would eventually advance to Super Bowl VI, while the Chiefs would have to wait 15 years before their next postseason appearance after falling in one of the most storied battles in pro football history.

1986 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Jets 35, Chiefs 15

December 28, 1986 • Giants Stadium (69,307)

KANSAS CITY	6	0	0	9	— 15
NEW YORK	7	14	7	7	— 35

Kansas City finished the regular season with a 10-6 record to earn the club's first playoff berth in 15 years, but that adulation would be short-lived. After taking an early lead against the N.Y. Jets, three KC turnovers combined with 135 rushing yards and two scores from New York RB Freeman McNeil led to 28 unanswered points and a 35-15 Jets victory.

The Chiefs only offensive scoring drive of the day came on Kansas City's initial possession when QB Todd Blackledge led Kansas City to paydirt. A pass interference call in the end zone set the stage for a one-yard scoring plunge by RB Jeff Smith. But a missed PAT would begin a downward spiral for the Chiefs, who took a brief 6-0 lead.

Jets head coach Joe Walton then made the biggest call of the game on New York's next drive. Facing fourth-and-six at the Chiefs 33-yard line, Walton kept his offense on the field. QB Pat Ryan faked a pitch to McNeil and took the ball up the gut for a 24-yard gain. Two plays later, McNeil was in the end zone, giving the Jets a lead they would not relinquish.

Disaster would strike on Kansas City's next offensive snap when RB Larry Moriarty had the ball jarred loose after catching a swing pass. LB Kyle Clifton recovered for the Jets. Twelve plays later, a one-yard TD toss to McNeil put the Jets ahead 14-6.

After Kansas City failed to gain a first down on its next two possessions, a 30-yard pass to WR Al Toon put New York in Chiefs territory. Ryan then found Toon kneeling in the end zone for an 11-yard TD on third down to give the Jets a commanding 21-6 advantage with 0:59 left in the second quarter.

New York outgained the Chiefs 191 to 58 after 30 minutes and Kansas City's situation would go from bad to worse on the opening snap of the second half. Blackledge was interecepted by LB Kevin McArthur, who raced down the sideline for a 21-yard score, putting the Jets ahead 28-6 just 13 seconds into the third quarter.

Blackledge would guide the Chiefs to the Jets 15-yard line on KC's next possession, but the club's comeback hopes were effectively over when RB Boyce Green was stuffed on fourth-and-one in the third quarter.

Kansas City's special teams would account for the club's only touchdown of the second half as CB Albert Lewis blocked a Dave Jennings punt and recovered it in the end zone to close the gap to 28-13. A six-yard Ryan TD pass to TE Billy Griggs made it 35-13 before QB Bill Kenney replaced Blackledge in the fourth quarter. Kenney guided KC inside the Jets 10-yard line twice to no avail.

The Chiefs final points of the afternoon came when Jennings stepped out of the end zone for a self-imposed safety to make the final score 35-15 as Kansas City's hopes expired.

CHIEFS — J. Smith, 1-yard run (kick failed) (9-67).

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

Dolphins 17, Chiefs 16

January 5, 1991 • Joe Robbie Stadium (67,276)

KANSAS CITY	3	7	6	0	— 16
MIAMI	0	3	0	14	— 17

The Chiefs were in control for the majority of their first playoff game since '86, but could not answer a late comeback bid by QB Dan Marino as the Dolphins pulled out a 17-16 victory. Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg – who had guided KC to an 11-5 regular season record – had the club in scoring position, but a 52-yard FG attempt by K Nick Lowery fell just inches short with 0:56 remaining.

Had Kansas City fully capitalized on a number of scoring opportunities earlier in the game, the outcome may have been different. CB Charles Washington blocked a punt on Miami's first possession, setting the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 37-yard line. However, Kansas City would be forced to settle for a 27-yard FG. Miami would answer on its next possession as K Pete Stoyanovich nailed an NFL-postseason record 58-yard FG to even to count at 3-3.

However, Stoyanovich would come up short on a 57-yard attempt later in the second quarter, setting the Chiefs up with good field position. KC capitalized as DeBerg floated a 26-yard scoring aerial to WR Stephone Paige putting the Chiefs ahead 10-7 with 1:54 left in the half. Paige would finish the day with 142 receiving yards, the highest postseason total in team history. Meanwhile, DE Neil Smith – who had 1.5 sacks on the day – preserved the lead by stripping Marino on Miami's next possession.

Kansas City dominated the third quarter, but only managed to extend its lead to 16-3. Poised with second-and-goal at the Miami three-yard line, DeBerg was flagged for intentional grounding and the club settled for a 25-yard FG. S Deron Cherry blasted the ball loose from WR Mark Duper on Miami's next play, giving KC the ball at the Dolphins 29-yard line. But once again, the Chiefs could not strike paydirt and would leave Miami territory with only a 38-yard Lowery FG to show for their efforts.

Marino then began his comeback bid. A 10-play, 66-yard march culminated with a one-yard TD toss to FB Tony Paige as the Dolphins moved the count to 16-10. After a 33-yard connection between DeBerg and WR Emile Harry moved KC back into Miami territory, the Chiefs were forced to punt, setting up the Dolphins go-ahead drive which began with a key, 37-yard pass over the middle to TE Ferrell Edmunds. Marino then capped the march with a six-yard TD pass to WR Mark Clayton that was nearly intercepted by CB Albert Lewis as the Dolphins took their first lead of the game at 17-16 with 3:28 remaining in the fourth quarter.

A 20-yard pass to Paige and a 26-yard run by RB Christian Okoye helped put the Chiefs at the Miami 26-yard at the 2:00 warning. A controversial holding call on G Dave Szott nullified a 12-yard Okoye run on the next play, halting the club's momentum and setting the stage for Lowery's final field goal attempt, which came tantalizingly close to the crossbar.

CHIEFS — Lowery, 27-yard FG (9-28).

HISTORY

1991 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 10, Raiders 6

December 28, 1991 • Arrowhead Stadium (75,827)

LOS ANGELES	0	3	3	0	—	6
KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	3	—	10

It took 19 years, but the Chiefs finally had an opportunity to officially christen Arrowhead Stadium with a playoff game. And fittingly, that contest came against Kansas City's most heated rival, the Raiders. The Chiefs had defeated the Raiders 27-21 just six days earlier at the L.A. Coliseum in the season's final regular season game for the right to play at home in the first week of the postseason. Kansas City made the most of that opportunity by recording a 10-6 win over the Raiders, the club's first playoff victory since Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs recipe for success was a familiar one – solid defense and a bruising ground game. Kansas City's defense forced six turnovers and limited the Silver and Black to just two field goals, while RB Barry Word pummeled the Raiders with 33 carries for a team postseason-record 130 yards.

Word pounded away at the Raiders all day, a trend that began early. Kansas City won the toss and consumed 11:56 off the clock, thanks to a drive that featured 12 runs by Word. The Chiefs drove as deep as the 15-yard line, but K Nick Lowery's 33-yard FG was wide left, leaving the scoreboard empty.

S Deron Cherry registered the first of his two INTs on the game on the Raiders first possession. QB Todd Marinovich would be picked off four times by the KC defense and his first errant throw would give Kansas City possession at the Raiders 24-yard line. But again, Lowery would misfire, this time on a 47-yard FG attempt.

A wild barrage of turnovers then ensued. Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas stripped Marinovich, but QB Steve DeBerg promptly threw an INT on KC's next possession. After a Raiders punt, RB Harvey Williams put the ball on the ground for Kansas City, but Cherry registered another INT which he returned to the 11-yard line. DeBerg would hit WR Fred Jones for the game's only touchdown on the next play as the Chiefs took a 7-0 lead.

Raiders RB Nick Bell finished the game with 107 ground yards and was the club's primary weapon on a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard K Jeff Jaeger FG that closed the gap to 7-3 just before intermission.

The first half passing numbers for both squads were equally unimpressive. Marinovich completed just three passes for 47 yards, while DeBerg hit on seven passes for 71 yards. Wisely, both clubs turned to the ground game in the second half. The Raiders gave the ball to Bell eight times on their initial possession of the third quarter, but would have to settle for a 26-yard FG to close the gap to 7-6.

Kansas City then capitalized on a Raiders fumble by handing the ball to Word nine times on a 13-play drive that netted an 18-yard FG to make the score 10-6 early in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs would pick off Marinovich on each of the Raiders final two drives to seal the franchise's first-ever home playoff victory.

1991 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Bills 37, Chiefs 14

January 5, 1992 • Rich Stadium (80,182)

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	7	— 14
BUFFALO	7	10	7	13	— 37

Kansas City was coming off its first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV, but that triumph proved quite irrelevant as Buffalo pounded the Chiefs into submission early in a 37-14 win. The Bills raced out to a 17-0 halftime lead and salted the game away behind RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis who combined for 41 carries and 175 rushing yards. Defensively, Buffalo picked off back-up QB Marc Vlasic four times and held the Chiefs to just 213 yards of total offense as the Bills marched to their second straight AFC Championship Game.

After both teams traded a pair of punts to open the game, QB Jim Kelly hit a pair of completions to WR Don Beebe to put the Bills in scoring position and then fired a 25-yard pass to WR Andre Reed to give Buffalo a 7-0 advantage. Kansas City caught the game's first break when CB Eric Everett picked off Kelly early in the second quarter. But the Chiefs offense would go three-and-out. Four plays later, Kelly found Reed for a 53-yard scoring strike to make the count 14-0. Despite throwing three INTs himself, Kelly would finish the contest with 273 passing yards and three TDs.

S Deron Cherry picked off Kelly on Buffalo's next possession, but again, the Chiefs could not capitalize. The Bills would tack on a 33-yard K Scott Norwood field goal to end the first half with a 17-0 lead.

The second half wouldn't start much better for Kansas City. RB Harvey Williams fumbled on the club's first snap of the third quarter, but TE Jonathan Hayes would recover. The Chiefs wouldn't be as fortunate on the next play as Vlasic – who entered the game in the second quarter when starting QB Steve DeBerg was knocked out of the game with a hand injury – suffered the first of four second-half interceptions. Buffalo took over on the Chiefs 36-yard line and six plays later Kelly had the Bills ahead 24-0 after finding WR James Lofton for a 10-yard TD.

Vlasic would be picked off again on the Chiefs next drive, but LB Lonnie Marts returned the favor with an interception of his own to give Kansas City a ray of hope late in the third quarter. This time the Chiefs would get on the board as RB Barry Word bulled into the end zone from three yards out to cut the margin to 24-7.

Thomas and Davis took it from there as the Bills methodically began grinding down the clock. After a Buffalo FG made it 27-7, Vlasic was picked off twice on his next three attempts. The Bills would turn those two miscues into 10 points as Buffalo took a commanding 37-7 lead with 4:57 left in the game.

Vlasic would hit WR Fred Jones on a 20-yard TD with 2:07 remaining to make it 37-14, but it was too little, too late as Buffalo recovered KC's onside kick attempt and ran out the clock, ending the Chiefs postseason aspirations.

1992 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

Chargers 17, Chiefs 0

January 2, 1993 • Jack Murphy Stadium (58,278)

SAN DIEGO	0	0	10	7	—	17

Kansas City had defeated San Diego twice during the '92 regular season. However, that mattered little to the Chargers, who promptly dispatched the Chiefs from the playoffs by a 17-0 margin, marking the only shutout KC has ever suffered in postseason play.

The two sides bludgeoned one another throughout a scoreless first half, but early on it appeared the game may feature its share of offensive fireworks. San Diego QB Stan Humphries hit WR Nate Lewis for a 39-yard gain on the game's first play from scrimmage. Then, after a pair of penalties, the Chargers were knocking on the door. But DE Neil Smith fell on a San Diego fumble at the 13-yard line to halt the scoring threat.

The Chiefs couldn't mount a serious scoring threat in the first half and couldn't move past the San Diego 40-yard line on their first five possessions. The Chargers didn't fare much better with only a fumble, a punt and a missed 52-yard FG to show on three trips into Kansas City territory. Still, San Diego did hold a slight 130-to-122 edge in total yardage heading into halftime.

Kansas City's offensive struggles continued in the second half, as the club punted on its first two possessions. San Diego then broke the stalemate midway through the third quarter when the team's battering ram – RB Marion Butts – burst into the secondary en route to a 54-yard score, giving the Chargers a 7-0 lead. Butts finished the game with 15 carries for 119 yards.

Things went downhill from there for the Chiefs. On Kansas City's next offensive play, QB Dave Krieg had a pass tipped by DE Blaise Winter. Fellow DE Leslie O'Neal picked off the ball at the KC 29-yard line, setting up a 34-yard FG from K John Carney to give San Diego a 10-0 advantage.

While Kansas City's defense was good, forcing 5.0 sacks – including 1.5 by LB Derrick Thomas – San Diego's defense was even better, harassing Krieg all day and finishing the game with 7.0 sacks. Krieg got the Chiefs into Chargers territory on each of the next two drives, but was sacked 3.0 times on those two series, stifling any scoring possibilities.

San Diego then delivered an offensive blow on its next possession. Behind a steady diet of RB Eric Bieniemy, the Chargers mounted an 11-play, 91-yard drive that ate 5:32 off the clock. H-back Steve Hendrickson got a rare carry and bulled his way into the end zone from five yards out to give the home team a 17-0 lead with 4:57 left in the fourth quarter.

The knockout punch quickly followed when Chargers DT Shawn Lee stripped Krieg on Kansas City's next possession. San Diego recovered and took over with 3:52 remaining. The Chiefs would get the ball back one last time, but the results were the same as they had been all day as San Diego sacked Krieg one last time and secured a 17-0 victory.

CHARGERS — Butts, 54-yard run (Carney kick) (4-74, 1:57).
CHARGERS — Carney, 34-yard FG (4-9, 2:03).
CHARGERS — Hendrickson, 5-yard run (Carney kick) (11-91, 5:32).

1993 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 27, Steelers 24 (OT)

January 8, 1994 • Arrowhead Stadium (74,515)

PITTSBURGH	7	10	0	7	0	—	24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	14	3	—	27

It took an extra session to settle the score in the initial postseason match-up between Kansas City and Pittsburgh, but the Chiefs would eventually prevail, 27-24. A blocked punt and the last-minute heroics of QB Joe Montana – who was making his first playoff appearance with Kansas City – helped the Chiefs send the game to overtime where K Nick Lowery's 32-yard FG was the difference in the franchise's first OT playoff contest since the '62 AFL Championship Game.

Pittsburgh head coach Bill Cowher had previously served as both a player and assistant coach under Marty Schottenheimer before taking over the fortunes of the Steelers. Early on, the pupil appeared to have the upper hand as Pittsburgh held a 17-7 halftime lead thanks to a pair of TD passes from QB Neil O'Donnell. WR Andre Cooper hauled one in from 10 yards out and WR Ernie Mills caught a 26-yarder with just 0:18 left in the first half.

Kansas City's lone score of the first half came when QB Dave Krieg – who made a brief appearance for an injured Montana – delivered a 23-yard TD completion to WR J.J. Birden in the first quarter. A 23-yard FG in the third quarter would cut the Pittsburgh lead to 17-10, setting the stage for a fantastic finish.

Montana guided the squad on a nine-play, 80-yard drive to open the quarter, culminating with a two-yard TD trot by RB Marcus Allen, who was also making his initial postseason appearance with the Red and Gold. With the score tied at 17-17, O'Donnell answered with a nine-play, 74-yard drive, hitting TE Eric Green for a 22-yard score to put Pittsburgh back ahead with 4:11 left in regulation.

After KC went three-and-out on its next possession, the Steelers had a chance to run out the clock when they got the ball back with 3:00 remaining. However, the Chiefs defense would hold, setting the stage for Kansas City's special teams to swing the momentum back in favor of the home squad. TE Keith Cash swatted down P Mark Royals' punt, which was recovered by WR Fred Jones who returned the ball to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

Facing fourth-and-goal from the seven with 1:48 left, the ever-cool Montana found WR Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone to even the count at 24-24. KC's defense would force Pittsburgh three-and-out once again, giving Montana and the Chiefs one final shot in regulation, but a 43-yard FG attempt from Lowery sailed wide right with 0:13 remaining, sending the game to overtime.

Kansas City won the toss, but was unable to move the ball. Pittsburgh got to midfield before it was forced to punt, setting up one final drive by Montana. After starting on their own 20-yard line, KC moved to midfield and was deep in Pittsburgh territory after Montana hit Cash on an 18-yard strike. Five plays later, Lowery took the field on third down and drove the game-winning 32-yard FG through the uprights with 3:57 showing on the clock.

STEELERS — Cooper, 10-yard pass from O'Donnell (Anderson kick) (9-66, 5:00).
CHIEFS — Birden, 23-yard pass from Krieg (Lowery kick) (7-75, 2:21).

1993 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 28, Oilers 20

January 16, 1994 • Astrodome (64,011)

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	21	—	28
HOUSTON	10	0	0	10	—	20

Kansas City pulled a huge upset over heavily-favored Houston to advance to its first-ever AFC Championship Game with a 28-20 victory at the Astrodome. The contest marked the Chiefs first road playoff win since claiming a 17-7 triumph at Oakland in the '69 AFL Championship Game.

Houston was the NFL's hottest team heading into the playoffs, owning 11 consecutive wins to close the regular season and showed no signs of cooling down after jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter over the Chiefs. An interception by CB Steve Jackson on KC's first drive set up a 49-yard FG by K Al Del Greco, while an 11-play, 80-yard Oilers scoring march was capped by a two-yard RB Gary Brown TD run.

Houston's defense had proclaimed the Astrodome as "The House of Pain," but it was Kansas City's defense which began to inflict some damage, registering three sacks and forcing three fumbles in the second quarter alone. While the Chiefs offense couldn't capitalize, it would be a sign of things to come. Kansas City finished the game with a team playoff-record 9.0 sacks and seven forced fumbles, including a pair of sacks apiece by CB Albert Lewis, LB Derrick Thomas, S Bennie Thompson and DT Joe Phillips. Thomas and DE Neil Smith each had two forced fumbles, as well.

The Chiefs finally got on the board in the third quarter when QB Joe Montana threw a seven-yard TD pass to TE Keith Cash, who emphatically spiked the ball into a banner bestowed with the likeness of Oilers defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan. But Cash's exclamation point was nothing compared to the mayhem that would ensue in the fourth quarter.

Another interception by Houston led to a 43-yard FG that put the Oilers ahead 13-7. But the Chiefs grabbed their first lead of the day just three plays later with an 11-yard TD catch by WR J.J. Birden. On the Oilers next play from scrimmage, Thomas unleashed his patented sack-and-strip maneuver on Moon with Chiefs DT Dan Saleaumua scooping up the loose ball at the Houston 20-yard line. This time Montana – who finished the contest with 299 yards – found WR Willie Davis for an 18-yard TD to push the Chiefs advantage to 21-13.

But the Oilers wouldn't go away. Moon – who compiled 306 yards on the day – promptly responded with a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Ernest Givins to pull Houston to within 21-20. Kansas City would produce a one-two knockout combination on its next drive. Cash snared a 41-yard pass from Montana on a third-and-one situation from the KC 30-yard line. Then faced with third-and-two at the Houston 21-yard line, RB Marcus Allen burst through the middle of the line for a 21-yard TD dash to make the score 28-20.

A final sack from Thomas would all but seal the Oilers fate as the Chiefs turned "The House of Pain" into a house of horrors for Houston in the final NFL postseason game ever played in the Astrodome.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994 • Rich Stadium (76,642)

KANSAS CITY	6	0	7	0	—	13
BUFFALO	7	13	0	10	—	30

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to dethrone the reigning three-time AFC Champion Buffalo Bills on their home turf. Unfortunately, the 229 rushing yards amassed by the Bills provided all that was necessary in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback at Rich Stadium. Although the Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), they allowed RB Thurman Thomas to gain 186 of Buffalo's 229 rushing yards.

Kansas City was in uncharted territory as the club was playing in its first-ever AFC title game and vying for its first Super Bowl appearance since '69, while the Bills were playing in an unprecedented fourth straight AFC Championship Game.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, Thomas would start to get on track as his easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead.

But Kansas City would answer. QB Joe Montana orchestrated a 10-play, 52-yard drive that culminated with a 31-yard FG by K Nick Lowery. S Bennie Thompson then forced Bills WR Russell Copeland to fumble on the ensuing kickoff. WR Fred Jones scooped up the loose ball, setting the stage for another 31-yard FG to cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and FGs of 23 and 25 yards from K Steve Christie. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by Montana slipped through the hands of FB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills took a 20-6 lead into the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 rushing yards.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays into the third quarter Montana was slammed to the turf by S Matt Darby and LB Darryl Talley, suffering a concussion on the play. Montana was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon as QB Dave Krieg came off the bench.

With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. But Buffalo countered with an 18-yard FG and a three-yard TD run by Thomas to make the count 30-13.

Kansas City's last legitimate comeback hope evaporated when Krieg was picked off at the goal line by CB James Williams with 3:23 left. Krieg would get the club as close as the Buffalo one-yard line on the Chiefs final drive, but it would not matter as time expired on Kansas City and its Super Bowl aspirations.

1994 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 17

December 31, 1994 • Joe Robbie Stadium (67,487)

KANSAS CITY	14	3	0	0	— 17
MIAMI	7	10	10	0	— 27

In a game that proved to be the final contest of QB Joe Montana's legendary career, the Chiefs signal-caller provided a dramatic first-half showdown with fellow Western Pennsylvania native, Dolphins QB Dan Marino. But after these two legendary passers dueled to a 17-17 halftime tie, Miami pulled away in the second half behind Marino for a 27-17 victory.

The Chiefs outgained Miami by a 414-to-381 margin in total yardage, but a pair of second-half turnovers and a staunch Dolphins defense was too much to overcome. Neither club was able to mount a substantial pass rush as Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas recorded the game's only sack in his hometown return.

Both quarterbacks were nearly flawless in the first 30 minutes as Montana completed 12 of 15 passes for 178 yards and two TDs, while Marino hit on 14 of 16 attempts for 162 yards and one score as the two squads each scored on their first three possessions.

Montana started the shootout by guiding an exquisite 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a one-yard play-action TD toss to TE Derrick Walker. Marino immediately answered with a nearly-identical, 10-play, 72-yard march that ended with a one-yard plunge by RB Bernie Parmalee to tie the score at 7-7.

KC struck quickly on its next possession as Montana found FB Kimble Anders on a 67-yard screen pass that hit paydirt. The two clubs then traded field goals before Marino produced a monster, 13-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 5:50 off the clock. A one-yard TD pass to TE Ronnie Williams with 0:22 remaining in the second quarter ended an exquisite half of football with the score deadlocked at 17-17.

Marino picked up right where he left off on the opening possession of the second half, putting the Dolphins ahead 24-17 on a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Irving Fryar. But this time the Chiefs and Montana could not answer, going three-and-out on their next two drives. Meanwhile, Miami tacked on a 40-yard FG from K Pete Stoyanovich to go up 27-17.

The Dolphins defense then clamped down in the fourth quarter. CB J.B. Brown picked off a Montana pass in the end zone to thwart a golden scoring opportunity, while S Michael Stewart forced a rare fumble by RB Marcus Allen as KC crossed into Miami territory on its next possession.

Miami was then content to grind it out on the ground, consuming over five minutes off the clock before the Chiefs could regain possession. Montana managed to get Kansas City as close as the Dolphins 19-yard line before his final professional pass fell incomplete on fourth down as he attempted to find WR Willie Davis. He finished the game with 314 yards on 26-of-37 passing with two TDs and one INT, while Marino ended the day by completing 22 of 29 attempts for 257 yards with two TD passes and no INTs.

CHIEFS — D. Walker, 1-yard pass from Montana (Elliott kick) (11-80, 6:28).
DOLPHINS — Parmalee, 1-yard run (Stoyanovich kick) (10-72, 6:12).

1995 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 10, Chiefs 7

January 7, 1996 • Arrowhead Stadium (77,594)

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	3	0	— 10
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	— 7

Frigid conditions, four turnovers and three missed field goals contributed to one of the most shocking upsets in Chiefs history as Kansas City (13-3) suffered a 10-7 loss to Indianapolis (9-7) at Arrowhead.

A kickoff temperature of 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9 seemingly did little to faze the dome-dwelling Colts. Indianapolis didn't lose any of its four fumbles and despite missing two field goals, it still made one when it counted as Kansas City squandered a solid effort from its league-leading scoring defense and 94 rushing yards from Marcus Allen, the third-best total in KC playoff history.

The Chiefs got off to a promising start, putting together a five-play, 62-yard TD drive on their third possession of the game. That march culminated with a 20-yard scoring pass from QB Steve Bono to WR Lake Dawson to give Kansas City its only score of the day and a 7-0 lead.

Colts QB Jim Harbaugh then made arguably the biggest play of the game on Indianapolis' next possession. Facing third-and-11 at his own 22-yard line, Harbaugh scrambled for an 18-yard gain. The Colts would convert six times on either third or fourth down on the drive, including a five-yard TD catch by WR Floyd Turner on third down which capped an 18-play, 77-yard drive that ate 8:40 off the clock and tied the count at 7-7.

Indianapolis K Cary Blanchard was short on a 47-yard FG after a KC fumble. Chiefs K Lin Elliott had a shot to put his team ahead with 0:12 left in the first half, but he was wide right from 35 yards out as the contest remained tied at halftime.

Kansas City boasted an NFL-best +12 turnover differential during the regular season and forced its only takeaway of the day when CB Mark Collins picked off Harbaugh. But just two plays later, Bono was intercepted by CB Ashley Ambrose, setting up a 30-yard FG to put the Colts ahead 10-7 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

KC's defense kept it close in the final 15 minutes, but it was not enough. Elliott was wide right on a 39-yard FG to open the fourth quarter and Bono was picked off by LB Quentin Coryatt on the Chiefs next possession. KC still appeared to have a shot when Blanchard's 49-yard FG fell short with 5:44 left in the game, but three plays later Bono was picked off by CB Eugene Daniel. However, the Chiefs defense held once again, setting the stage for one final drive with 4:12 remaining.

QB Rich Gannon came on in relief of Bono and took over at the Chiefs 18-yard line. He methodically moved the club downfield, converting three third downs, including a 14-yard scramble that put Kansas City at the Colts 25-yard line with 0:56 left. Gannon narrowly missed WR Lake Dawson in the end zone on third down, setting the stage for a final field goal attempt by Elliott from 42 yards out. But the kick sailed wide left as Indianapolis claimed a 10-7 victory and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

CHIEFS — Dawson, 20-yard pass from Bono (Elliott kick) (5-62, 2:28).
COLTS — Turner, 5-yard pass from Harbaugh (Blanchard kick) (18-77, 8:40).
COLTS — Blanchard, 30-yard FG (9-35, 4:35).

1997 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Broncos 14, Chiefs 10

January 4, 1998 • Arrowhead Stadium (76,965)

DENVER	0	7	0	7	— 14
KANSAS CITY	0	0	10	0	— 10

The two teams with the AFC's best regular season records squared off as Kansas City (13-3) and Denver (12-4) met for the first time in postseason play. The Chiefs boasted the NFL's top scoring defense (14.5 ppg), while the Broncos owned the league's number one scoring offense (29.5 ppg). But it was Denver that claimed a 14-10 victory in what would be the final contest of RB Marcus Allen's Hall of Fame career.

Kansas City outgained Denver by 303 to 272 total yards and held a +2 edge in the turnover column, but an inability to put points on the board in several key situations cost the Chiefs a chance to host the AFC Championship Game. After the two teams battled through a scoreless first quarter, KC appeared to get on the board first, but was flagged for holding on a 34-yard FG by K Pete Stoyanovich, who had missed just one FG during the regular season. However, Stoyanovich's ensuing 44-yard attempt went wide left to leave the count at 0-0.

Denver QB John Elway then marched the Broncos on an eight-play, 65-yard scoring drive that culminated with a one-yard TD run by RB Terrell Davis, who would finish the game with 25 carries for 101 yards. KC could not get back into scoring range, as the Broncos took a 7-0 lead into the intermission.

Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac opened the second half with a 34-yard pass to WR Andre Rison, who finished the day with 110 receiving yards, the third-highest total in Chiefs postseason history. The game's most pivotal sequence would follow. Facing third-and-goal at the Denver three, Grbac connected with rookie TE Tony Gonzalez, who appeared to be forced out of the end zone by Broncos CB Darrien Gordon. However, the play was ruled an incompletion, forcing the Chiefs to settle for a 20-yard FG to cut the gap to 7-3.

With Denver poised at the Kansas City 11-yard line on its next drive, Chiefs DE John Browning forced a fumble by RB Derek Loville to thwart a Broncos scoring opportunity. After both squads exchanged punts, Grbac found WR Joe Horn on a 50-yard strike to set up a 12-yard TD pass to Gonzalez, giving the Chiefs a short-lived 10-7 advantage. However, Davis found paydirt from one-yard out on the Broncos ensuing drive to retake the lead at 14-10.

KC got as deep as the Denver 31-yard line on its next possession and lined up in field goal formation on fourth-and-six, but holder P Louie Aguiar ran with the ball and was tackled three yards short of a first down. Kansas City began its last possession with 4:04 left. Grbac found Rison for a 23-yard gain to move KC to the Broncos 28 with 1:51 left as the Chiefs used their final time out. Facing fourth-and-two at the Denver 20-yard line with 0:19 remaining, Grbac's final pass into the end zone was batted down by Gordon as Denver held on to claim the 14-10 victory.

BRONCOS — T. Davis, 1-yard run (Elam kick) (8-65, 4:51).
CHIEFS — Stoyanovich, 20-yard FG (11-67, 5:18).
CHIEFS — Gonzalez, 12-yard pass from Grbac (Stoyanovich kick) (4-65, 1:35).
BRONCOS — T. Davis, 1-yard run (Elam kick) (6-49, 2:38).

CHIEFS UNIFORM HISTORY

1959 — At one of the initial organizational meetings of the American Football League in late '59 – before the teams even had any players or coaches – the AFL owners choose their team colors. Lamar Hunt desires Columbia Blue and Orange for his Dallas Texans franchise. But before Hunt or any other owner can make a selection, Houston's Bud Adams claims Columbia Blue for his Oilers franchise. Hunt reverts to Red and Gold for the Texans, which remains the primary color scheme for the Chiefs to this day.

Lamar Hunt greets Bud Adams - sporting a "Columbia Blue" blazer - prior to the '62 AFL Championship Game. Hunt would lose the battle for "Columbia Blue," but his Texans would beat the Oilers in double OT for the '62 AFL title.

1960-62 — The Texans take the field for the AFL's inaugural season in '60 sporting red helmets with gray facemasks. The helmet features the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on Dallas. Home jerseys are solid red featuring white numerals, white "TV" numerals on the sleeves and white lettering, all trimmed in gold. Road jerseys are white with red numerals, red "TV" numerals on the sleeves and red lettering, all of which are bordered by thin gold trim. Both jerseys are a cloth design, featuring three-quarter sleeves with stitched "tackle twill" numerals and letters. The team wears white pants featuring vertical stripes of red, gold and red. Socks are red on top, white on the bottom with alternating stripes at the calf of white, red, gold, red and white. Although several minor changes are made to the stripe width over the years, the primary sock design remains relatively consistent to the present day.

Texans Helmet

1963-67 — The Texans move to Kansas City in '63. Hunt and head coach Hank Stram initially plan on calling the relocated team the "Kansas City Texans." However, general manager Jack Steadman wisely convinces the duo to change the franchise's nickname to "Chiefs." The club's uniform remains virtually unchanged, with the exception of the helmet logo. The state of Texas is replaced on the headgear by a design originally sketched by Hunt on a napkin. Hunt's inspiration for the interlocking "KC" design was the "SF" inside of an oval on San Francisco's helmets. Kansas City's overlapping initials appear inside a white arrowhead instead of an oval and are surrounded by a thin black outline. The result is one of the most distinctive helmets in all of football.

1968 — The most dramatic changes to the Chiefs uniform come in '68. Head coach Hank Stram prefers more red in the club's road attire and orders red pants to go with the team's white road jerseys. Stram asserts that the red pants will match the red numerals on the white road jerseys. While Stram's fashion sense is never in question, some in the organization theorize that the superstitious Stram really wants to part ways the white pants because the club lost Super Bowl I while wearing them. No matter the logic, the white pants are not seen again during the Stram era. The club's new red pants feature alternating vertical stripes of white, red, gold, red and white and are paired with predominantly white socks that feature striping of red, gold and red at the calf. Alterations are also made to the club's jerseys at this time. Sleeves are shortened from three-quarter length to their present-day short-sleeve status. Stripes are also introduced on the bottom of the sleeves, where they still reside. Red jerseys feature white, gold and white stripes on the sleeves, while the club's white jerseys receive red, gold and red stripes.

Texans DT Jerry Mays (75) and QB Len Dawson (16) pose along with head coach Hank Stram in '65 sporting the home jerseys the club wore from '60-67. Note the rolled-up sleeves and the barely visible gold trim.

1969 — After winning the AFL Championship Game, Stram orders new red jerseys to be worn in Super Bowl IV and they are delivered just days before the game. Stram also directs equipment manager Bobby Yarborough to have all the helmets repainted before the Super Bowl, but relents after players insist on wearing their "battle-scarred" headgear. The "AFL-10" patch worn on the left shoulder of Kansas City's jerseys in Super Bowl IV is the brainchild of AFL President Milt Woodard. During the entire '69 season, all NFL teams wear an "NFL-50" patch which commemorates the NFL's 50th Anniversary season. Woodard counters with a patch of his own to celebrate the 10-year existence of the AFL, which is proudly worn by the Chiefs on behalf of the entire AFL in their 23-7 victory vs. Minnesota (1/11/70).

AFL-10 Patch

1970 — Following Super Bowl IV, the team's cloth jerseys give way to a more breathable mesh fabric. Heat-transfer numerals and letters replace sewn-on "tackle twill" characters. The style of the numerals and letters changes slightly. The characters decrease in size, while the gold trim around both the numerals and letters expands to become more visible. Jersey numerals remain this size before eventually returning to larger proportions in the early '80s.

1974 — The club's facemask changes from gray to white. A change in manufacturers results in a slightly smaller arrowhead logo on the helmet with a thicker black border compared to the design of the '60s.

DT Buck Buchanan displays the club's road uniform of the '70s. Note the white facemask, red pants and heat-transfer numerals.

HISTORY

1983 — The Chiefs wear a circular patch on their left upper chest bearing a gold eagle and the number 37 in memory of RB Joe Delaney who drowned on June 29, 1983 in Monroe, Louisiana after trying to save the lives of three youngsters.

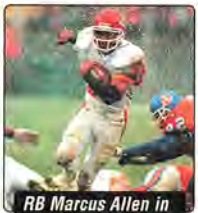
Joe Delaney Patch

DE Art Still (67), S Gary Barbaro (26) and WR J.T. Smith (86) represented the Chiefs in the Pro Bowl following the '80 season and display a look in '81 that remained constant until '88. Note the red belts.

1984 — The original eight American Football League teams all wear circular "Silver Anniversary" patches on the upper left chest of their jerseys commemorating the 25th anniversary of the AFL and their respective franchises. Kansas City's patch features the Chiefs helmet and the AFL logo.

Silver Anniversary Patch

1989 — The arrival of head coach Marty Schottenheimer signals the club's most dramatic uniform change in over 20 years. Schottenheimer asks and receives permission from Hunt to revert to back to white pants on the road, a "white-on-white" look that has not been utilized by the Chiefs since '67. White belts also return to the club's pants after using red belts at various periods of the '70s and '80s. Kansas City reintroduces the white pants at Denver (9/10/89) and maintains this look on the road through the '99 season.



RB Marcus Allen in white-on-white.

1991 — A sticker bearing the American Flag adorns the back of all NFL helmets to honor troops fighting in the Gulf War. The NFL Shield becomes a standard part of all NFL uniforms, appearing on the back of helmets, on the "v" of jerseys and on the left hip of pants.

1992 — The club wears a black panel with the white initials "WWD" on the upper left chest of its jersey in memory of Director of Player Personnel Whitey Dovell, who passed away on May 11, 1992. The team also paints the number "86" on the field at Arrowhead Stadium to honor the memory of Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan, who passed away on July 16, 1992.

WWD Patch

35th Anniversary Patch

1994 — Solid fabric jerseys complete with "tackle twill" numerals and letters return, taking the place of mesh jerseys and heat-transfer characters. All NFL teams wear "NFL Diamond Anniversary" patches on their left upper chest in honor of the league's 75th season. The Chiefs also wear a "35th Anniversary" patch on their right upper chest in celebration of the franchise's 35th season. The patch features the AFL, Texans and Chiefs logos. It marks the only time in team history the club has worn two different patches in the same season. The Chiefs also wear "Throwback" uniforms – replicas of the club's '63 attire – for games at Atlanta (9/18/94) and vs. St. Louis (9/25/94).

75th Anniversary Patch

RB Marcus Allen (32), DE Neil Smith (90), T John Alt (76), QB Joe Montana (19) and LB Derrick Thomas (58) represented the Chiefs in the Pro Bowl following the '93 season. These '94 jerseys were the only uniforms in team history to feature a pair of commemorative patches. Note that Smith, Alt and Thomas have made their own "fashion statements" by rolling up their sleeves.

1999 — The club wears a "40th Anniversary" patch in honor of the franchise's 40th season. The patch features the AFL and Chiefs logos.

40th Anniversary Patch

2000 — The Chiefs wear a circular sticker bearing the number "58" on the back of their helmets in memory of LB Derrick Thomas, who passed away on February 8, 2000. Ever mindful of Stram's legacy and the franchise's glory days, head coach Gunther Cunningham receives Hunt's blessing to revert back to the red pants on the road. The resurrected red pants debut in a 23-22 win at Denver (9/24/00) and remain a fixture of the club's road attire.

58 Sticker

2001 — A sticker bearing the American Flag returns to the back of all NFL helmets following the terrorist attacks of September 11th. The flag reappears on Chiefs helmets vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01) and remains there to this day.

U.S. Flag Sticker

2002 — The Chiefs wear a "40th Anniversary in Kansas City" patch vs. Oakland (10/27/02), commemorating the franchise's 40th season in Mid-America. "The Scout" - Kansas City's most recognizable civic icon - is prominently featured on the patch along with Kansas City's downtown skyline. The NFL Equipment Shield replaces NFL Shield on jerseys and pants.

*Regular kicker or punter during that period.

Notes: The Chiefs All-Time Roster includes all players who were on the active roster for at least one regular season game or playoff contest. It also includes players who accrued at least one season as a member of a reserve or injury list. The one exception to this criteria is Stone Johnson, who had his number 33 retired after suffering a fatal injury in a '63 preseason contest. Jersey numbers refer to those numbers worn only in regular season or postseason play.

ALL-TIME ROSTER BY COLLEGES

Notes: No assistant coaches were designated as coordinators during Hank Stram's tenure as head coach from 1960-74. The first assistants in Chiefs history to hold the title of coordinator or special teams coach came under head coach Paul Wiggin in '75. Although subsequent staffs did not always specifically denote coordinators, every attempt has been made to indicate the offensive and defensive play-callers if it was an individual other than the head coach. Beginning with Frank Gansz's staff in '87, three separate individuals have carried the titles of offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as special teams coach each subsequent season.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Lamar Hunt, Founder, 1960-present

Inducted Chiefs Hall of Fame 1970
Inducted Pro Football Hall of Fame 1972

Founded the American Football League in '60 with his Dallas Texans franchise ... Became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '72 ... Described during his induction ceremony as the "architect, designer and builder of an impossible dream" ... Serves as the President of the American Football Conference ... Since '84, the AFC Championship Game trophy has carried his name ... Has seen the Chiefs win three AFL titles and a Super Bowl trophy ... Is credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game ... Was born August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas ... Graduated from Southern Methodist University in '56 with a B.S. in Geology ... Was a reserve end on SMU's football team ... Is enshrined in both the Texas and Missouri Sports Halls of Fame ... He and his wife, Norma, reside in Dallas and have four children, Lamar Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel.

78 Bobby Bell, Linebacker, 1963-74

Inducted Pro Football Hall of Fame 1983

Became the first Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was chosen in the Class of '83 ... Some have called him the greatest outside linebacker to play the game ... Superb athlete began his pro career as a defensive end, because the Chiefs needed help at that position when he was drafted in the seventh round in '63 ... In his third season he was moved to linebacker, where earned a spot in the AFL All-Star game or the Pro Bowl the next nine years ... Was named to the AFL's All-Time team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... Starred on two AFL Championship teams, playing in Super Bowls I and IV ... Did not miss a contest during his 12-year career, playing in 168 consecutive games ... Intercepted 26 passes, recovered 15 fumbles and scored nine touchdowns ... Also handled deep snapping on punts and kicks ... Was an all-state QB at Cleveland High School in Shelby, North Carolina ... Was the Outland Trophy winner as college football's outstanding lineman as a senior at the University of Minnesota in '62 ... Played on the College All-Star team that defeated the Green Bay Packers in '63 ... Is enshrined in the College Football and Missouri Sports Halls of Fame ... No Chief will ever wear his number 78 ... Born June 17, 1940 in Shelby, North Carolina ... Resides in Kansas City where he does marketing for Factory Motor Parts.

Willie Lanier, Middle Linebacker, 1967-77

Inducted Chiefs Hall of Fame 1985

63

As part of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of '86, he became the second Chiefs player to be enshrined in Canton ... Named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in '94 ... Chiefs starting middle linebacker for 11 years, he possessed a ferocious tackling style that made him a feared run-stopper ... Was intelligent and disciplined as the quarterback of the Chiefs vaunted defense ... Also had the speed and agility that helped him grab 27 career interceptions, good for the eighth-most ever by a Chief ... His 18 fumble recoveries rank second in club history ... A second-round draft choice in '67, he missed just five games during his pro career, which spanned 149 contests ... Played in two AFL All-Star games and six AFC-NFC Pro Bowls ... Named the Outstanding Defensive Player in the '72 Pro Bowl ... Helped Chiefs to their only World Championship, a Super Bowl IV victory over Minnesota ... Became starter four games into his rookie season ... Named the '72 NFL Man of the Year as the outstanding pro football player-citizen ... Was nicknamed "Honey Bear" because he looked and acted friendly, but was ravenous on the field ... Inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000 ... Also a member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame ... His number 63 has been retired by the Chiefs ... Attended Maggie L. Walker High School in Richmond, Virginia ... Was a two-time Small College All-America pick at Morgan State ... Named Tangerine Bowl MVP ... Graduated from Morgan State with a B.S. in Administration ... Born August 21, 1945 in Clover, Virginia ... Lives in Richmond, where he is President of First Wheat Securities.

16

Inducted Pro Football Hall of Fame 1987

Heart and soul of Texans/Chiefs franchise during his illustrious career ... During his tenure as the team's field general, he helped make the Chiefs one of pro football's premier teams and wound up among the elite passers in the game's history ... Under his guidance, the Chiefs were perennial contenders and won the AFL Championships in '62, '66 and '69 ... Was MVP of Super Bowl IV when he directed Kansas City to a win over the heavily-favored Minnesota Vikings ... Won the AFL passing title four times and still holds Chiefs career marks for passer rating (83.2), attempts (3,696), completions (2,115), passing yards (28,507) and touchdowns (237) ... Started his pro career with the Pittsburgh Steelers as a first-round pick in '57, then landed with the Cleveland Browns before ending up with the Texans in '62 ... Named to six AFL All-Star teams and one Pro Bowl squad ('72) ... AFL Player of the Year in '62 ... Played in 183 career regular season games, making 159 starts, the most-ever by a Chiefs QB ... Completed 2,136 of 3,741 passes (57.1%) for 28,711 yards with 239 touchdowns and 183 interceptions, while rushing for 1,293 yards and nine scores on 294 carries ... Named the '73 NFL Man of the Year as the outstanding pro football player-citizen ... Nicknamed "Lenny the Cool" ... Led Big Ten in passing and total offense for three seasons at Purdue ... His number 16 has been retired by the Chiefs ... Does color commentary on the Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network and is the sports anchor at KMBC-TV in Kansas City ... Born June 20, 1935 in Alliance, Ohio.

Buck Buchanan, Defensive Tackle, 1963-75

Inducted Pro Football Hall of Fame 1990

Became the third member of the Chiefs feared defense of the late '60s and early '70s to enter the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... The first overall selection in the '63 AFL Draft, he became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen ... Combined perfect size (6-7, 270) with outstanding strength and deceptive speed (10.2 in the 100) ... Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their only Super Bowl following the '69 season ... Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ... Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from '66-69 ... His teammates named him Chiefs MVP in '65 and '67 ... In '67 alone he batted down 16 passes at or behind the line of scrimmage ... Played in 182 career regular season games, including a stretch of 166 in a row ... Eddie Robinson, the legendary coach at Grambling where Buchanan was an NAIA All-America choice in '62, called him "the finest lineman I've ever seen." ... Was captain of both the football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham, Alabama ... Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Grambling ... Inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in '96 ... Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City ... His number 86 has been retired by the Chiefs ... A grove of over 40 stately Giant Redwoods was planted in the Southeast corner of the Truman Sports Complex on April 15, 2002 in conjunction with the Chiefs 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City. The selection of the tree species by Founder Lamar Hunt originated from a statement made by Vikings QB Joe Kapp following Super Bowl IV: "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest." The "Chiefs Honor Grove" features permanent markers honoring the team's Hall of Fame players, whose names are listed on the façade of Arrowhead Stadium. During the Chiefs Alumni Weekend each year, an additional tree is planted in honor of the most recent Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee.

67 Art Still, Defensive End, 1978-87

Inducted 1998

Was a force against the run as well as an unstoppable pass rusher ... Was a four-time Pro Bowl selection, following the '80-82 and '84 seasons ... Named the Chiefs Most Valuable Player twice ('80 and '84) ... Started all 136 appearances he made in a Kansas City uniform ... Is third on the Chiefs all-time sack list with 72.5 ... Is second in team history with 992 tackles and also had 11 fumble recoveries ... Led team in sacks on six occasions and topped the team's tackle chart three times ... Recorded a Pro Bowl-record 85-yard fumble return TD in the '85 game ... Had two seasons ('80 and '84) with 14.5 sacks ... Was the second overall player taken in the '78 NFL Draft (Houston RB Earl Campbell was the first) ... Was traded to Buffalo in '88 where he played two years ... Was the Southeastern Conference Player of the Year as a senior at the University of Kentucky ... Born December 5, 1955 in Camden, New Jersey.

Inducted 1999

The first Chief to ever be the Mack Lee Hill Award winner ('81), the team's MVP ('85) and a member of the Chiefs Hall of Fame ... Was one of the premier strong safeties in the NFL throughout the '80s ... Played in 145 regular season games (103 starts) ... During that decade, he averaged 63 tackles per season, while recording 20 interceptions and scored five touchdowns ... Gained league-wide recognition in '86 with his only Pro Bowl berth ... Was Kansas City's starting strong safety from '81-88 ... Returned four of his 22 interceptions for a touchdown ... Only Bobby Bell (six), Emmitt Thomas (five) and Jim Kearney (five) have returned more interceptions for scores in Kansas City history ... Owns team record for interception return yardage (115) in a game ... Is co-holder of NFL and team records for interceptions returned for a touchdown in a game with two (KC's Jim Kearney and 19 others share the league mark) ... Extremely productive player produced 628 tackles, 22 interceptions, seven fumble recoveries and 3.5 sacks ... Was a four-year starter at the University of Maryland ... Born October 31, 1957 in Charlottesville, Virginia.

35 Christian Okoye, Running Back, 1987-92

Inducted 2000

Unquestionably the most powerful runner ever to wear the Red and Gold ... Nicknamed "The Nigerian Nightmare" ... Doled out plenty of punishment during his six seasons with Kansas City and powered his way to the most rushing yards (4,897) in Chiefs history ... Also holds team records for career rushing attempts (1,246), attempts in a season (370 in '89) and attempts in a game (38) ... Is second in team annals with 14 career 100-yard games ... Racked up those numbers in just 79 games (65 starts) ... Became just the second Chief ever to lead the league in rushing, gaining an NFL-best 1,480 yards in '89 ... His 40 career rushing TDs are just four shy of Marcus Allen's team record, as well ... Just the second Chiefs player ever to earn the club's Mack Lee Hill Award ('87), team MVP honors ('89) and be enshrined in the Chiefs Hall of Fame ... Was a Pro Bowl pick following the '89 and '91 seasons ... Originally came to the United States in '82 to compete in track and field at Azusa Pacific ... Joined the Azusa football squad in '84 and after just three seasons of organized football was a second-round draft choice of Kansas City in '87 ... Enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2003 ... The name Okoye in Nigerian means "Blessed on Sundays" ... Born August 16, 1961 in Enugu, Nigeria.

Derrick Thomas, Linebacker, 1989-99

Inducted 2001

Pass rusher extraordinaire spent 11 glorious seasons in a Kansas City uniform ... Served as the heart and soul of the Chiefs franchise during that span ... Known simply as "D.T." ... Was not only a bona fide star in terms of his contributions on the field, but also illuminated countless lives through his charitable efforts ... Received the '93 NFL Man of the Year Award, the '95 Byron "Whizzer" White Award and was named former President George Bush's "832nd Point of Light" ... On the field, was one of the most dominant defensive players of his day thanks to his patented sack-and-strip maneuver ... Established Chiefs career records for sacks (126.5), safeties (3), fumble recoveries (18) and forced fumbles (45) ... His 126.5 sacks were the fourth-highest total ever by a linebacker at the time of his death ... Produced a club-record 20.0 sacks in '90, including an NFL-record 7.0 sacks in a single game ... The only player in Chiefs history to see action in three different decades with his final contest coming on January 2, 2000 ... Saw duty in 169 games (157 starts) and owns a share of another franchise mark with 10 career playoff appearances ... Won the Mack Lee Hill Award as a rookie in '89 ... Produced nine consecutive Pro Bowl berths following the '89-97 seasons, the most of any player in Chiefs history ... Was the initial two-time winner ('91, '94) of the club's MVP trophy which now bears his name ... Born January 1, 1967 in Miami, Florida and died on February 8, 2000 in Miami, Florida following a serious auto accident on January 23, 2000 in Kansas City, Missouri.

Inducted 2002

Monumental Minnesotan anchored Kansas City's offensive line for 13 seasons from his left tackle post ... The stoic standard-bearer by which all future Kansas City left tackles will be judged ... Played a prodigious part in the resurgence of the Chiefs franchise in the '90s ... Jim Tyrer (180) was the only offensive lineman in team history to play in more games than Alt (179) ... Started 149 of those games and owns a share of a franchise record by making 10 career playoff appearances, including the '93 AFC Championship Game ... Earned back-to-back Pro Bowl trips following the '92 and '93 seasons ... An All-Pro pick in '90-91 ... A prolific pass protector, also helped Kansas City perennially produce some of the best rushing numbers in the '90s ... The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing for the first time in team history in '95 and produced five top 10 finishes during his tenure ... Wore jersey number 76 ... Was a first round draft choice out of Iowa in '84, the third offensive lineman selected overall ... Born May 30, 1962 in Stuttgart, Germany.

Gary Spani, Linebacker, 1978-86

Inducted 2003

The all-time leading tackler in Chiefs history with 999 career stops ... Played his inside linebacker post with tenacity and toughness for nine stellar seasons ... Led the club in tackles for four straight years ('78-81) and posted five 100-tackle campaigns ... His single-season record of 157 tackles in '79 stood until 2002 ... Played in 124 regular season contests (108 starts), averaging an impressive 8.1 tackles per game ... Accumulated 9.5 sacks, nine fumble recoveries and scored two TDs ... Was voted the Miller/NFL "Man of the Year" in '83 and O'Grady's "Crunchman of the Year" in '84 ... Helped guide the club to its first playoff berth in 15 years in '86 ... Joined the Chiefs as a third-round draft choice in '78 ... Was the first-ever consensus All-America performer at Kansas State and is enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame ... Wore number 59 ... Born January 9, 1956 in Satanta, Kansas, making him the only native-born Kansan in the Chiefs Hall of Fame ... Has served as a member of the Chiefs front office since '89.

MACK LEE HILL AWARD

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who, as the inscription on the trophy reads - "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill ... the man with the giant heart and the quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

The winner of the 2002 Mack Lee Hill Award was linebacker Scott Fujita, who owns a compelling story, both on and off the football field. A former walk-on at the University of California, this 6-5, 247-pound linebacker came to Kansas City as an unheralded fifth-round draft choice and was hoping just to earn a spot on the roster. By the season's sixth game, he not only had a firm grip on a job, he had also worked his way into the Chiefs starting lineup. In his intial pro start at San Diego (10/13), he responded with six tackles, three special teams stops, a pass defensed and a fumble recovery.

Chiefs President Carl Peterson presented LB Scott Fujita with the Mack Lee Hill Award at the annual 101 Banquet. The fifth-round draftee started nine games, the most by a Chiefs rookie linebacker since '90.

The rookie linebacker finished the year with 63 tackles, a sack, six passes defensed and a pair of QB pressures. He produced a season-high nine tackles vs. Buffalo (11/17) and racked up eight stops and a pair of passes defensed at Seattle (11/24). But perhaps his most impressive tackle of the year came on special teams when he chased down speedy Rams return man Terrence Wilkins from behind for a TD-saving tackle vs. St. Louis (12/8). That play marked just one of his 15 special teams stops on the season, a total that tied for second on the squad. He capped the day by registering his first NFL sack in that contest.

Off the field, Fujita's story is just as intriguing. He already owns his Master's degree from Cal, but it's his family's heritage that often turns heads. Fujita's adoptive father, Rod, is of Japanese-American descent. Rod Fujita was born in a World War II internment camp, while his father and Scott's grandfather, Nagao, was enlisted in the U.S. Army and was actually fighting for the United States in Italy.

No doubt, both Mack Lee Hill and Nagao Fujita would have appreciated the play and the poise Scott Fujita displayed for the Chiefs in 2002, making him a truly fitting recipient of this year's Mack Lee Hill Award.

Running back Mack Lee Hill bursts forward for yardage against the Raiders during his memorable two-year pro career with the Chiefs.

DERRICK THOMAS AWARD

Chiefs President Carl Peterson and Head Coach Dick Vermeil presented RB Priest Holmes with the 2002 Derrick Thomas Award. Holmes established 10 different single-season franchise records and earned his second straight Pro Bowl berth a year ago.

For the past 24 years the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and sole of the Kansas City defense from 1989-99 and will always be regarded as one of the best linebackers to play the game.

After a sensational 2001 season, RB Priest Holmes left only one question unanswered. What would he do for an encore in 2002? While a few misguided souls believed Holmes' remarkable 2001 season was a fluke, the Chiefs running back was undaunted, breaking 10 franchise single-season records in 2002 and coming within striking distance of several prestigious NFL marks.

Holmes has a simple way of converting even the most vehement non-believers to his cause - it's called productivity. The first-ever back-to-back recipient of the Chiefs MVP Award, this former Texas Longhorn also became the only player in Kansas City annals to construct two straight 1,000-yard rushing campaigns.

It's not hard to understand why the Associated Press named Holmes its 2002 NFL Offensive Player of the Year. He led the NFL with 2,287 yards from scrimmage, the fourth-highest seasonal total in league history and also established a franchise record with 1,615 rushing yards, a remarkable feat considering he missed the season's final two contests with a hip injury.

Holmes' best individual performance of the season at Seattle (11/24) when he racked up a remarkable 307 yards from scrimmage, the second-highest total in Chiefs history and the fourth-best mark in NFL annals. That effort included 197 rushing yards, a figure which came up just three yards shy of Barry Word's team-record 200-yard day vs. Detroit (10/14/90).

En route to his second straight Pro Bowl berth, this humble San Antonio, Texas product led the NFL with 24 TDs, including 21 rushing scores - totals which both ranked as the third-highest single-season marks in NFL history. At one point during the season, Holmes ran for a TD in 11 consecutive games, breaking the team-record five-game streak established by Mike Garrett in '67. Holmes also shattered club records by scoring 144 points and producing nine 100-yard rushing days. In addition, he led the Chiefs with 70 receptions, the most ever by a Kansas City running back. But despite touching the ball 383 times as a runner and a receiver, perhaps the most remarkable feat that Holmes accomplished in 2002 was the fact that he fumbled just one time.

After constructing two of the finest seasons in Chiefs history, there's seemingly little left for Holmes to prove. But after constructing record-breaking seasons the past two years, don't be surprised to see him try to top those efforts in 2003.

During his 11 years in a Chiefs uniform, Derrick Thomas was one of the most brilliant performers and brightest personalities ever to wear a Chiefs uniform. Unquestionably, Derrick Thomas' legacy will live on in Kansas City and across the National Football League.

RETIRED JERSEYS

7 Jan Stenerud

Kicker • 1967-79

The first pure placekicker inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, K Jan Stenerud played 19 NFL seasons including 13 with Kansas City. Stenerud still owns or shares nine Chiefs records, including career FG attempts (436), consecutive games played (186) and consecutive games scoring field goals (16). See bio on page 390.

16 Len Dawson

Quarterback • 1962-75

The standard-bearer for Chiefs signal-callers, QB Len Dawson led the club to three AFL Championships and a Super Bowl IV title. The owner of four AFL passing titles, Dawson still holds numerous Chiefs records and was the MVP of Super Bowl IV. He was a member of seven AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl squads. See bio on page 390.

20 Abner Haynes

Running Back • 1960-64

One of the offensive stars during the Texans/Chiefs first six years, RB Abner Haynes led the club in rushing four times, racking up 3,837 rushing yards on 792 attempts (4.8 avg.) with 389 touchdowns. In addition to becoming the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher, he was named AFL Player of the Year in '60. See bio on page 397.

33 Stone Johnson

Running Back • 1963

A sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome and a quarterback at Grambling, RB Stone Johnson's athletic career came to a tragic end during his rookie season of '63. Johnson suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game against the Houston Oilers in Wichita, Kansas and died just 10 days later on Sept. 8, 1963.

36 Mack Lee Hill

Running Back • 1964-65

An AFL All-Star as a rookie in '64, RB Mack Lee Hill rushed for 1,203 yards in just 27 games with the Chiefs. Hill suffered a knee injury in the next-to-the last game of the '65 regular season at Buffalo and tragically died on the operating table two days later on Dec. 14, 1965. Each year since '66, the Chiefs have annually presented the Mack Lee Hill Award to the team's top rookie or first-year performer. See bio on page 393.

63 Willie Lanier

Linebacker • 1967-77

The second Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, LB Willie Lanier was named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in '94. He commanded the Chiefs defense for 11 years as the club's middle linebacker, appearing in 149 contests. Lanier played in two AFL All-Star games and six AFC-NFC Pro Bowls. See bio on page 389.

78 Bobby Bell

Linebacker • 1963-74

Perhaps the greatest outside linebacker to ever play the game, LB Bobby Bell was the first Chiefs player to enter the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '83. Earned a spot in the AFL All-Star game or the Pro Bowl for nine straight seasons and did not miss a contest during his 12-year career, playing in 168 consecutive games. See bio on page 389.

86 Buck Buchanan

Defensive Tackle • 1967-77

A pivotal member of the great Chiefs defense of the late '60s and early '70s, DT Buck Buchanan was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame with the Class of '90. The first overall selection in the '63 AFL draft, Buchanan became a two-time team MVP and an eight-time AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl member. See bio on page 390.

Note: Dating back to the '83 season, the Ed Block Courage Award has annually honored one player from every NFL team who exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Named in honor of longtime Colts athletic trainer Ed Block, recipients of the award are selected by a vote of their teammates. The winners are recognized for their extra efforts both on and off the field and their ability to overcome great adversity, whether it be personal or professional.

THE LAMAR HUNT TROPHY

The Lamar Hunt Trophy, named in honor of the Kansas City Chiefs and American Football League Founder Lamar Hunt, is presented annually to the winner of the American Football Conference Championship Game. The trophy, which was designed by Don Weller, features a bas-relief action friez developed by Merv Corning. It has a black walnut wood base with an engraved bronze faceplate. The AFC monogram is cast in bronze with a high-gloss front and back and a soft satin finish on the top and sides. The frieze is a classic football action cast in heavy silver plate. The trophy was authorized by NFL club presidents in '83 and was first presented to Miami following the '84 season.

NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Since the honor's inception in '70, three Chiefs players have received the prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award which is presented annually to players who demonstrate on-going, off-the-field commitment to community-related causes. LB Willie Lanier ('72) and QB Len Dawson ('73) and remain the only pair of teammates to ever receive the award in back-to-back years, while the late LB Derrick Thomas ('93) was the most recent Kansas City player to be honored for his off-field efforts. All three were presented with their NFL Man of the Year trophies by Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt.

300-YARD PASSERS

QB Bill Kenney produced 15 career games with 300 or more passing yards, the highest total of any quarterback in Chiefs history. Kenney enjoyed his most prolific campaign in '83 when he threw for a franchise single-season record 4,348 yards in head coach John Mackovic's intial season with the club. Kenney earned the only Pro Bowl berth of career that season after producing seven of his 300-yard games, also a single-season team record. However, Kansas City produced just a 1-6 record when Kenney compiled a 300-yard effort in '83, with that lone win coming by a 38-17 count vs. the N.Y. Giants (10/16/83). Among Chiefs QBs with at least three career 300-yard games, the only one with a winning record in those contests was Joe Montana, who went 3-1. Mike Livingston was 2-0 in a pair of 300-yard outings.

AFL PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

During the franchise's three-year stay in Dallas from '60-62, the Texans twice produced the American Football League Player of the Year. RB Abner Haynes won the award during the AFL's initial campaign in '60, while QB Len Dawson took home the honor in '62 when the Texans claimed their first AFL Championship. AFL Commissioner Joe Foss presented the '60 trophy to Haynes, who is holding up three digits after leading the AFL that season in rushing yardage (875), combined net yardage (2,100) and punt return average (15.4). Haynes' combined net yardage mark remained a franchise record until 2001 when it was broken by RB Priest Holmes.
